This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. This committee reported, recommending that the hearing of the delegate be made the order of the day for this morning at 11 o'clock. This report was adopted.

The committee of the last Assembly on the re-organization of the Board of Home Missions presented a report, which was read and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures. This report is as follows:

REPORT ON THE RE-ORGANIZATION OF THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

In accordance with the instructions of the last General Assembly, the undersigned, the Committee on the Overture of the Presbytery of Mansfield, have prepared the following report, and hereby lay it before you, that the "several Presbyteries may present their views on the subject to the next General Assembly."

REPORT.

To the Twenty-first General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, to meet at New Wilmington, Pa., May 28th, 1879, the undersigned, a committee appointed by the Twentieth General Assembly, respectfully report:

The Presbytery of Mansfield memorialized the last General Assembly, asking that "a change be made in the method of carrying on home mission work." The undersigned were appointed to "perfect a plan by which the change proposed may be carried out," and were instructed to publish their report in the papers of the church by the 1st of February, so that the Presbyteries might present their views on the subject to the next Assembly.

The Presbytery of Mansfield submitted to the last Assembly for its consideration the following principles in relation to home mission work (Minutes 1878, page 570):

"1. Vacancies which do not require aid should be carefully distinguished from mission stations, and unsettled ministers and licentiates from home missionaries.

Digitized by Google

"2. Vacancies and unsettled ministers and licentiates not enrolled as missionaries, should be left entirely under the control of their own Presbyteries.

"The first should not look to the Board of Home Missions for supplies, nor the second for appointments. That Board should be responsible for neither.

"3. A corps of home missionaries should be organized who should be carefully selected, and who would agree to be subject to the appointment of the Board and Assembly, and who should receive fixed, uniform and liberal salaries.

"4. Missionaries alone should be appointed to mission stations.

"5. Mission stations should pay their contributions for the support of the gospel directly to the treasury of the Home Mission Board."

These principles the last Assembly was disposed to regard with favor, but did not pass a final judgment on them. It appears to the committee to be unwise to draw up regulations for putting this scheme into operation until it receives the formal approbation of the church. Further, there is now pending before the church a measure for re-organizing the Boards, which the last Assembly pronounced "radical," and "revolutionary to some extent."

It is evident that the plans suited to the Boards as now organized would necessarily be very different from those which would be necessary if the changes proposed by the First Presbytery of Ohio be adopted. Pending this question, it seems to the committee, therefore, unnecessary, as yet, to attempt to draw up working plans. Still further, such plans should evidently be the work of those required to administer them, at least as far as possible. Should they not, therefore, be drawn up by the Board of Home Missions after the question of its organization shall have been fully settled? At the same time, as much progress as possible should be made by the Assembly in settling the principles on which our home mission work shall hereafter be conducted.

The committee therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolutions as embodying "a plan by which the changes proposed by the Presbytery of Mansfield may be carried out."

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly will consider the change proposed by the Presbytery of Mansfield in the method of carrying on the home mission work and pass judgment on the same, and that it be made the first order after the reception and reference of petitions and papers to committees.

2. That, in case the Assembly approves and adopts such changes as may require any modification of the rules and regulations of the Board of Home Missions, this Board be directed to report to the Twenty-second General Assembly, for its consideration, such modifications of, and additions to the existing plan as it may judge necessary.

A memorial from the Presbytery of Caledonia, asking the Assembly to submit to the Presbyteries the following amendment to chapter 5, article 3, section 5, of the Form of Government, "The Synod shall ordinarily convene on its own adjournment," &c., was read and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

A memorial from the Presbytery of Delaware, asking a definition of the nature and duties of a commission, was read and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

An invitation from the faculty of Westminster College, to visit the college to-morrow morning at 8:15 o'clock, was accepted. It was resolved that when the Assembly adjourns to-day, it adjourns to meet to-morrow at 9:30 o'clock, A. M.

A memorial from the Presbytery of Steubenville, concerning the imposition of the hands of ruling elders in the ordination of ministers, was read and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

A memorial on dancing from the session of Calcutta, Presbytery of Steubenville, was read and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

A memorial and petition against the action of the Sealkote Presbytery, concerning bigamy, was read and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

A memorial from the Synod of New York, on the training of ruling elders, was read and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

A request from the Presbytery of Cleveland, in regard to secret societies, was read and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

A petition from John Henry and others was referred, without reading, to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Rev. R. Howard Wallace, delegate from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, presented the Christian salutations of the body he represented, and the Moderator responded in the name of the Assembly.

The report of the Second Clerk was read, and with accompanying papers was referred to the Committee on Statistics.

The Moderator was directed to appoint a Committee on Systematic Beneficence, to which all papers relating to the contributions of congregations should be referred.

The report of the committee appointed to organize Women's Missionary Societies, the report of the Treasurer of these societies, and the statistics of these societies were presented and referred to a special committee to be appointed.

The report of the Committee on Sabbath School Music, appointed by the last Assembly, was read, and a conference on the report was made the order of the day for this afternoon, immediately after the opening services. It was ordered that, at this conference, each speaker should be limited to five minutes, and that no one should be allowed to occupy the floor a second time till all who desire to speak have spoken.

A conference on Sabbath Schools was made the order of the day for this evening.

The reports of the Treasurers of the Boards of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Church Extension and Freedmen's Missions; the statements of the Treasurers of all the Boards; and bills of expenses of certain committees were presented and referred to the Committee on Finance.

The report of the Presbytery of San Francisco, on the mission to the Chinese at Los Angeles, was read and referred to a special committee to be appointed.

After prayer by Rev. W. Wright, the Assembly adjourned.

the last Assembly, were presented and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The report of the delegate to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Presbyteries of Big Spring, Frankfort, Sidney, Nebraska, Indiana and Rock Island, reported, according the direction of the last Assembly to Presbyteries, the progress they had made in carrying into effect the action of the last Assembly in relation to deacons. Their reports were referred to the Committee on Narrative and State of Religion.

A memorial from the Presbytery of Mercer, concerning the duties of deacons and ruling elders, was read and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

The reports of the Presbyteries on the licensure of students were presented and referred to the Committee on the Board of Education.

The minutes of the Assembly for 1878, and the minutes of the Synods of New York, Pittsburgh, First of the West, Ohio, Second, Illinois, Iowa, and Kansas for the same year were presented and referred to the Committee on Revision.

The clerks asked instruction as to the preservation of the official copies of the minutes of the Assembly. The request was referred to the Committee on Revision.

The Committee on the Board of Home Missions were instructed to act with the Committee on the Board of Church Extension in the consideration of the case of the First Church, Boston, Mass.

The Committee on the Desecration of the Sabbath by railroad companies, appointed by the last Assembly, presented a report, which was read and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

A resolution on the printing of statistics was presented and referred to the Committee on Statistics.

The Permanent Committee on Temperance presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee was appointed to "confer with similar committees appointed by other evangelical churches with regard to the best means of securing united effort in the cause of temperance," such Committee to meet at such time and place as may be agreed upon on consultation with the committees of other churches, and report their proceedings to the next (this) Assembly.

Owing to the fact that your Committee received no notice of the appointment of any similar committees from other churches, there has been no meeting during the year, and consequently we have no report of "proceedings" to make.

The Committee on the Judiciary presented the following report on the petition of Mr. John Henry, which was adopted:

Digitized by Google

REPORT WITH REFERENCE TO THE PAPER OF MR. JOHN HENRY.

The paper purports to be a petition addressed to this Assembly, but on examination is found to be simply a request that the Assembly take notice of certain statements made by the First Presbytery of New York, in an answer made by said Presbytery to an appeal of the petitioner from a decision of the Presbytery, to the Synod of New York, which statements are, in the judgment of the petitioner, "contrary to the principles of the United Presbyterian Church, and subversive of the moral law."

In the judgment of your Committee, the paper, whether it may be termed a petition or a complaint, is not of a character to occupy the time and attention of the Assembly.

We therefore recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the paper from Mr John Henry be not received.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a report on the transmission of overtures to Presbyteries, which, after discussion, was recommitted.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises.

The First Church, Xenia, Ohio, was chosen as the place for the next meeting of the General Assembly, and the fourth Wednesday of May, 1880, at 2 : 30 o'clock, P. M., was fixed as the time.

The General Committee of Home Missions was instructed to meet in Cedarville, Ohio, on the third Wednesday of May, 1880, at 2 o'clock, P. M.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on Sabbath School Music was made the order of the day for this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

After prayer by Hon. Joseph H. Downing, the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. L. Clark.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A communication from Rev. H. L. Wiles, delegate from the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the United States of America, was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Committee on the Judiciary presented the following report on the petition from the session of Calcutta congregation, which was adopted :

REPORT ON DANCING.

The question which this Assembly is asked to answer is the following, viz.: "Is the mingling of the sexes in the dance in a private house, where only the moral and respectable are permitted to participate, a violation of the law of the U. P. Church, when the parties engaged in the dance are members of her communion?"

In the judgment of your committee the deliverance of the General Assembly in its action of the year 1860, (Digest, page 76,) was intended to define "promiscuous dancing" as one of the "vain and ensnaring recreations" of the men of the world, and that for members of the church to engage in the promiscuous dance, even with one another, is to have fellowship with the world in its sinful recreations. And that said deliverance of the Assembly upon this subject is a distinct and unequivocal disapproval of such practices.

We recommend for adoption the following :

Resolved, That the petitioners be referred to the deliverance of the Assembly in its action upon the subject of amusements, in 1860, as giving a full and explicit answer to their question.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on the transmission of overtures, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE TRANSMISSION OF OVERTURES.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully recommend the following action on the transmission of overtures:

WHEREAS, The Assembly of 1870 adopted it as a standing rule of procedure, that no subject shall be handed down in overture to the Presbyteries, except by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the Assembly present; therefore,

Resolved, That any further action on the transmission of overtures is unnecessary.

Rev. A. G. Wallace, D. D., was elected Second Clerk of the Assembly for a fourth term of four years.

The Assembly spent some time in devotional exercises.

Took up the report of the Committee on Sabbath School Music. Pending the discussion of this report, a communication was received from the Associate Synod concerning the distribution of the proceeds of the Speer estate, which was read and referred to a select committee composed of one member from each Synod. The nomination of this committee was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on Sabbath School Music, when the following paper was adopted:

RESOLUTIONS ON SELECTIONS OF PSALMS WITH MUSIC.

Inasmuch as the committee appointed by the last General Assembly to prepare and publish a selection of Psalms, set to suitable music, has not yet completed its work; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we hereby express our high appreciation of the earnestness and diligence with which the committee has addressed itself to this work.

2. That the committee be instructed to carefully revise its work, keeping in view the principle of adhering exclusively to our authorized Psalmody, and publish it without any unnecessary delay.

3. That this committee be instructed to have special reference in all its selections of music to congregational singing, and to avoid such frequent repetitions and responses as are not clearly suggested by the language of the Psalms.

The following persons were appointed the committee to which was referred the communication from the Associate Synod:

Elder S. Templeton, Rev. J. C. Boyd, Rev. T. W. Monteith, Rev. D. Paul, D. D., Rev. W. H. McMaster, Prof. J. C. Hutchison, elder Dr. McCandless, Rev. C. H. Strong.

After prayer by Rev. Thomas Balph, the Assembly adjourned.

7 : 30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. Marion Morrison.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Second Clerk reported a historical record of the Presbyteries and Synods of the Associate and Associate Reformed Churches, which was referred to the Special Committee on Old Records.

The Committee on the Judiciary presented the following report on the imposition of the hands of ruling elders in the ordination of ministers, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE IMPOSITION OF THE HANDS OF RULING ELDERS IN THE ORDINATION OF MINISTERS.

The memorial asks a deliverance upon the question, "Is the imposition of hands by ruling elders, in the ordination of ministers, required or permitted in our Book of Government?"

In our judgment, ordination is valid in the case of ministers only as authorized by Presbytery in constituted capacity.

When so authorized, its administration by the imposition of hands is technically the act of Presbytery, if performed only by the presiding officer in the name and as the exponent of Presbytery.

This appears involved in a strict construction of Book of Government, Part II, Chap. 6, Art. 2, Sec. 7, which also expressly points to a minister as the officer to preside on the occasion; as though in recognition of Part I, Chap. 4, Art. 2, which directly imputes to "teaching elders" the power of ordination, and specifies for them a duty to "ordain successors."

Moreover, our Book, Part I, Chap. 5, Art. 2, Sec. 5, indicates a Presbytery to be duly constituted if composed only of three ministers, and hence competent, without a ruling elder, to authorize and to administer ordination.

It is therefore respectfully submitted, that the imposition of hands on the part of elders not teaching is not required for the ordination of ministers, and as it is not required, and especially in view of the omission from the Book of any indication of such prerogative as pertaining to elders of the second rank, it is technically to be regarded as not permitted.

The following is recommended for adoption:

Resolved, That the question proposed by the Presbytery of Steubenville, as above indicated, be answered in the negative.

It was made the order of the day for to-morrow, immediately after the presentation of papers, to hear Mrs. Hanna on the question of establishing dormitories for the female students in our colleges.

After prayer by Rev. J. T. McCrory, the Assembly adjourned.

SATURDAY.

May 31, 1879, 9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. A. B. Gilfillan.

Mrs. Hanna was heard on the subject of establishing dormitories for the female students in our colleges.

Twenty-five dollars for the Boards of the Church were received from Dr. John Shankland, Bangor, Wis. The money was received with thanks, and the Treasurer of the Assembly was directed to distribute it according to the wishes of the donor.

The Committee on the Judiciary presented a report on the memorial against the action of the Sealkote Presbytery, concerning bigamy, which was amended and recommitted.

Resolutions on the relation of the Presbyteries in the Foreign Mission field to the Assembly were read and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

During the discussion of the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions, the hour of adjournment arrived, when the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. A. H. Harshaw.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. C. H. Strong.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions. During the discussion the Assembly engaged for a time in devotional exercises. Before disposing of this report, the Assembly, after prayer by Rev. J. H. Gibson, adjourned to meet on Monday at 9 o'clock, A. M.

MONDAY.

June 2, 1879, 9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by elder Samuel Templeton.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A request that the Trustees of the General Assembly be directed to pay the expenses, incurred in the preparation of blank forms of declaration of trust from congregations receiving aid from the Board of Home Missions, was referred to the Committee on Finance.

On the request of the chairman of the General Committee of Home Missions, the first, second and third resolutions of part IV of the report of said committee, were referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions. This report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS.

The Committee on Home Missions would report that the papers referred to them were the reports of the Board of Home Missions and of the General Committee of Home Missions. To the examination of these documents we have given the attention which our limited time would allow. We deem it unnecessary here to recite the particulars of the work accomplished during the past, or that proposed for the coming year, since these are fully set forth in the printed reports which have been placed in the hands of the members of the General Assembly, and with which they are doubtless quite familiar. It may not here be out of place, however, to refer to some prominent points.

The last General Assembly granted aid to 197 stations, under the care of 48 Presbyteries. In the stations from which reports have been received there is a membership of 10,287, with an average attendance of 17,417. The additions to the church were, on profession of faith, 698, and by certificate 948. In the Sabbath Schools connected with these stations there was an average attendance of 10,376 pupils. The statistical tables show that the number of members, the attendance in the Sabbath Schools, and the amount contributed for the support of pastors or missionaries, are larger than in any previous year. And this increase, it will be borne in mind, is in the face of all those difficulties and discouragements with which missionary congregations and stations have to contend. One-third of these congregations and stations have no buildings, but are compelled to meet for public worship in school houses, rented halls, barns and private dwellings, which are often not only ill suited but very inconvenient and uncomfortable.

The financial condition of the Board is not so encouraging as the phase of the work just noticed. The contributions of the church during the year were so insufficient and so delayed that the Board were unable to meet the claims for services as they became due, and at the close of March last found the deficiency to be over $8,000, which, added to the sum required for the present quarter ending with June 30th, will make $17,500, which amount ought to be in the treasurer's hands before that time.

The report of the Board calls attention to this fact, that owing to the growing difference between the appropriations and receipts, we must either contract our Home Mission work or furnish more means for its prosecution. The contributions from all sources for the home work during the year amounted to $31,874.70, an actual decrease of only $696 when compared with the receipts of last year, and an increase of over $2,000 when compared with the year 1877. The present deficiency, therefore, arises from more work having been done and consequently larger demands having been made on the treasury.

The desires and wants of the church for the coming year, as shown in the reports of 54 Presbyteries to the Board, are summed up as follows: Aid was sought by the Presbyteries for congregations and stations under their care to the extent of $46,250, together with the full time of 68 men. The full time also of 115 men was placed at the disposal of the Board.

The report of the General Committee, presented for the adoption of this Assembly, shows that $39,885 was granted for the coming year. The total number of names before the General Committee was 135. No appointments were granted to any minister or probationer for more than nine months. The appointments of some were only for six or three months, and 27 persons received no appointments at all. This is the most painful thought in connection with this deeply interesting and important report, and demands the serious and prayerful consideration of the church.

In looking at the results of Home Mission work for the year, as shown in these reports, while we feel discouraged on account of the lack of funds, we have reason to rejoice and feel grateful on account of the unusual success, but we must not at the same time forget that greater energy and liberality are now demanded of us than ever before. The following resolutions are recommended for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly feels deeply grateful to the great Head of the church for the success which has followed the labors of our pastors and missionaries in various parts of the home field during the past year.

2. That the report of the General Committee of Home Missions, except part IV, be adopted by this Assembly.

3. That ministers, officers and people, and especially wealthy persons, be urged to devise ways of furthering, and to contribute to, the work of Home Missions.

4. That Presbyteries be directed and affectionately urged to seriously inquire at their first regular meeting, after the adjournment of this General Assembly, as to the possibility and practicability of selecting and organizing some new mission station or stations in their bounds in which to utilize the services of those ministers and probationers who are able and ready to work, but who could receive no appointments from the General Committee, and that our congregations and people generally, but especially in the bounds of said Presbyteries, be invited to make special contributions for this purpose.

5. That sessions of vacant congregations in seeking to have their pulpits filled, together with ministers and probationers desiring employment or settlement, be directed to apply to the respective Presbyteries to have their wants supplied, and to also conform to the rules of the General Assembly respecting Home Mission work.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on biennial meetings of the Synod of the Pacific, which was adopted:

REPORT ON BIENNIAL MEETINGS OF THE SYNOD OF THE PACIFIC.

Your committee would respectfully report that the vote of the Presbyteries is as follows: ayes, 699; nays, 24; not voting, 12.

We would therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the law of the church touching the meeting of Synods be and hereby is, in the case of the Synod of the Pacific, suspended so far as to permit said Synod, until otherwise ordered by the Assembly, or desired by the Synod itself, to meet only once in two years instead of every year.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on the training of ruling elders, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE TRAINING OF ELDERS.

The Synod of New York memorializes the General Assembly to take such action as, in its judgment, shall be best adapted to secure the uniform and systematic training of ruling elders for their duties before they are ordained.

Your committee fully sympathizes with the Synod in its conviction that ruling elders should, in some way, be thoroughly instructed in the high duties pertaining to their office, but we see many difficulties in the way of imparting such instruction previous to their induction into it. We are of the opinion that the only practicable method of accomplishing the end, aimed at by the Synod, is for each pastor to train his own session. The training of the pastors in the duties of the eldership belongs to our Theological Seminaries. In accordance with these views, we recommend the following action:

Resolved, 1. That the proper professors in our Theological Seminaries be requested to give due attention to the instruction of the students in the nature, duties and responsibilities of the office of the ruling elder.

2. That we recommend each pastor to adopt some plan of systematic instruc- by which his session may be trained to the highest possible efficiency in their

3. That we recommend the Faculties of our Seminaries to appoint one or more of their number to prepare and put into the hands of the Board of Publication a manual on the eldership, suitable to be used by pastors in the instruction of their sessions.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on the desecration of the Sabbath by railroad companies, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE DESECRATION OF THE SABBATH BY RAILROAD COMPANIES.

The committee, appointed by the last Assembly to address a letter to railroad companies on Sabbath desecration, report that the work assigned has been performed. This committee also report a request from Rev. Yates Hickey, Secretary of the International Sabbath Association, for the co-operation of this Assembly in calling a convention at which the friends of the Sabbath may confer together, and devise means for its defence.

We therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the thanks of this Assembly are due the committee for the faithful and able manner in which the duty assigned it has been discharged.

2. That Revs. James Harper, D. D., William Wishart, D. D., and W. G. Moorehead, D. D., be a committee to co-operate, in all proper ways, with the International Association in securing the better observance of the Sabbath.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report with reference to secret societies, which was adopted:

REPORT WITH REFERENCE TO SECRET SOCIETIES.

The position of the United Presbyterian Church in reference to secret societies has been so clearly defined in her standards, and so frequently and positively affirmed by her highest courts, and so widely published through her periodicals, that any other or further action on the subject by the Assembly at this time is unnecessary.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a report on the meetings of Synods, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT IN REGARD TO THE MEETINGS OF SYNODS.

The Presbytery of Caledonia memorializes the General Assembly to submit in overture to the Presbyteries the following question: "Shall the first clause of Sec. 5, Art. 8, Chap. 5, of the Form of Government be so changed as to read: 'The Synod shall, ordinarily, convene on its own adjournment'?"

Resolved, That the request of the memorialists be not granted.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on Commissions, which was adopted:

REPORT CONCERNING COMMISSIONS.

The Presbytery of Delaware asks the General Assembly to take into consideration the question of having inserted in our Book of Government and Discipline a chapter on Commissions, defining the nature and duties of a commission, the rules governing their appointment and their procedure, and the method by which their determinations and decisions shall be reviewed and acted on by the courts.

Your committee is of the opinion that some deliverance on the subject of the memorial should be given by the highest court of the church. We therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That ———————— be a committee to take into consideration the question of Commissions, and report to the next Assembly.

2. That, if said committee conclude that a chapter on Commissions should be inserted in the Government and Discipline of the church, it be authorized to prepare and present to the next Assembly such a chapter.

The filling of the blank in the first resolution of this report was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a report on re-arranging the work of the Board of Home Missions. During the discussion of this report the hour of adjournment arrived, when the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. W. P. McNary.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. R. T. Wylie.

The roll was called, and the minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A letter from Rev. A. M. Milligan, D. D., delegate from the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, was referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Clerk of the Synod of Kansas reported that the Presbytery of Concordia was organized within the bounds of that Synod, November 6th, 1878.

Took up the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on re-arranging the work of the Board of Home Missions, which was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON RE-ARRANGING THE WORK OF THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

Your committee beg leave respectfully to report that the vote on said overture is as follows: ayes, 40; nays, 322; not voting, 28. There are twenty-two Presbyteries that either took no action on said overture, or acted on only a certain part or parts of it, or failed to report definitely their votes. But in the opinion of your committee, the sense of the church, as indicated by the votes of the Presbyteries, is against the proposed re-arrangement of the work of the Board of Home Missions.

Therefore we would recommend for adoption the following:

Resolved, That the proposed re-arrangement be not made.

But your committee are of the opinion that some modifications in the method of conducting the work of home missions could be wisely made. We therefore, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the questions involved, recommend the Assembly to take into consideration the propriety of adopting the following resolutions, which have already received the endorsement of the Board and the General Committee of Home Missions.

Resolved, 1. That at its next meeting, and annually thereafter, the General Committee shall designate what missions shall be regarded as special missions, and shall refer such stations to the Board of Home Missions for a given term of years in each case; and it shall be the duty of the Board to make appropriations of money and appointments of missionaries to such missions during the specified term.

2. There shall be added to the General Committee one delegate from the Board of Home Missions, to be elected annually by the Board.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on the consolidation of the Boards of Home Missions, Church Extension and Freedmen's Missions, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE CONSOLIDATION OF THE BOARDS OF HOME MISSIONS, CHURCH EXTENSION AND FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

Your committee would respectfully report that the vote on this overture is as follows: ayes, 97; nays, 548; not voting, 86. Your committee would therefore recommend for adoption the following resolution:

Resolved, That these Boards be not consolidated.

The Committee on Revision presented a report, which, after discussion, was recommitted.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises.

The Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions presented their report. Pending the adoption of this report, the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. M. Morrison.

7:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. S. B. McBride.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions. Pending the adoption of this report, the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. R. N. Hammond.

TUESDAY.

June 3, 1879, 9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. H. P. Jackson.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

It was resolved that during this and all future sessions of this Assembly, speakers, excepting the Secretaries of the Boards and chairmen of committees, be allowed but five minutes, and that no speaker be allowed to speak on any subject more than once, until all have had an opportunity to speak.

The credentials of Rev. J. D. Turino, delegate from the Walden-sian Church of Italy, were read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence. The hearing of this delegate, of Rev. J. A. Myers, delegate from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, and of Rev. Alexander McWilliam, delegate of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, was made the order of the day for this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The Committee on Foreign Missions, to which was referred the report of the Board of Foreign Missions, would respectfully report that from a careful review of the work which the Lord has been pleased, through the instrumentality of our church, to carry on during the past year in the foreign field, it is their deep conviction that profound gratitude is due to God from this General Assembly. Both in India and in Egypt there have been encouraging accessions to the church. If there had been the same increase in the church at home in proportion to its membership, and the same number of congregations organized, it would have been regarded as a remarkable epoch in the history of the United Presbyterian Church.

It is gratifying to know that there have been contributed to this cause during the past year not less than $51,351.93. It will be seen also, by a reference to the report of the Board, that the converts from heathenism in the foreign field have given very encouraging evidence of their appreciation of the gospel by the manifestation of a liberal spirit in its support. The contributions in India, though small, have increased five fold, and there has been a large increase in this respect in Egypt.

Another gratifying feature is, that there are no less than nine natives in India, and six in Egypt, who have devoted themselves to the work of the ministry, and are under a course of instruction with special reference to that object. Surely the fact that there are fifteen in the foreign field, in addition to those already at work there, who are expecting soon in their native tongues to proclaim to their fellow countrymen the glad tidings of salvation, should make a deep impression upon our hearts and stimulate us to self-sacrificing efforts in behalf of this cause.

It would seem that both in India and in Egypt the usual educational and evangelistic operations have been carried on during the past year.

It may be noticed that a map, giving at a glance a clear view of the various localities in which our missionaries in India are operating, has been by them prepared and forwarded to the Board, and by the Board handsomely executed and published. It is hoped that copies of this map will find their way into the various Sabbath Schools of the United Presbyterian Church.

It is painful to your committee to notice that, according to the report of the Board, there is a deficiency of $9,219.44 to be provided for in addition to the estimates for the coming year, and this, too, notwithstanding the fact that special notice is taken of liberal contributions made to the cause by various individuals, societies and Sabbath Schools. It is earnestly hoped that during the coming year there will be such a liberality shown by the members of our church as will meet this deficiency. The command, "Owe no man anything," is just as imperative and binding as the injunction, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

It appears that our brethren in Mansura and Alexandria feel very great need of buildings for their work. The Board, however, in view of the state of the treasury, have not seen their way open to ask the Assembly to make any appropriation for this purpose. May we not, however, express the hope that this pressing want will not be overlooked by the friends of this cause?

There is one fact which demands the earnest and prayerful consideration of this Assembly, and that is the need which there is for a reinforcement of our missions in Egypt and India. The directions of the last Assembly given to the Board to send out new missionaries, owing to their failure to obtain them, have not been complied with. We quote the following in relation to India: "Most earnestly do the Board entreat the Assembly to send out new laborers to this mission, and to send them IMMEDIATELY." The word "immediately" they have written in capitals, from which we infer that the need is most pressing. It is therefore hoped that this entreaty will receive special attention from this Assembly.

The committee would submit to this Assembly the following resolutions recommended by the Board:

Resolved, 1. That the report of the Board be approved.

2. That devout thanksgiving be rendered to God for his continued favor in sparing the lives of our missionaries, and in giving in all parts of our missionary fields encouraging returns for the efforts put forth, and in continuing to raise up so many friends to our work, among whom we would make grateful mention of the Maharajah Dhuleep Singh, of England; to David Stuart, Esq., of Liverpool, and to the various American and foreign institutions and individuals alike that have so generously contributed to us funds and important facilities for carrying forward our great work.

3. That the appointment of Miss Rosa A. McCullough by the Board to the mission in India be confirmed; that it is the deliberate judgment of this Assembly that God, in his providence, is calling loudly for a speedy reinforcement of the India and Egyptian Missions, and we do hereby direct the Board of Foreign Missions to appoint and send out reinforcement to these needy fields; that we are gratified to learn that Rev. and Mrs. Samuel Martin and Miss Eliza F. Johnston have made arragements to return at the earliest time in their power to their respective places of labor.

4. That the following appropriations be made:

To Egypt	$28,465 50
" India	22,000 00
" send out new missionaries	3,000 00
" return any now in this country	1,500 00
" support children " "	1,000 00
" refund money borrowed by the Board	5,000 00
" meet deficit of last year	4,219 44
Miscellaneous	1,200 00
	$66,384 94

Immediately before the final vote adopting this report, the Assembly engaged in prayer and praise.

The Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

Your committee would respectfully report the following:

I.

We gather the following items of interest from the report of the Secretary of the Board of Ministerial Relief:

1. During the year six aged ministers and the families of eleven deceased ministers have received timely aid from the Board.

2. The Board has mailed printed addresses to one thousand ministers and laymen, and pressed the claims of this fund upon the church.

3. The receipts of the Board have been increased during the last year over the previous year one hundred per cent., while the claims on the fund have been increased in the same ratio—these receipts being $4.400.00.

4. Contributions have been received from nearly all the Presbyteries of the church, and liberal donations have been made by many individuals.

5. An endowment of $15,500 has been already secured and safely invested in government bonds.

6. An increased interest has evidently been awakened among our people in this important Board of the church.

Digitized by Google

II. THE IMPORTANCE OF THE WORK.

Your committee consider that no demands are made upon the liberality of the members of the church that should receive a more careful and prayerful consideration, and a more liberal response, than the demands of the Board of Ministerial Relief. Governments pension their disabled soldiers, and provide for the families of those fallen in their defence, and the Church of Christ should pension her aged servants, and provide for the families of those who have given their lives for the promotion of her cause.

III. RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, 1. That the claims of the fund of the Board of Ministerial Relief be especially commended to the liberality of the church.

2. That special donations be solicited for the endowment of this fund, and that such donations be permanently invested by the Board.

3. That thanks are due the officers and other members of the Ministerial Relief Board for their diligence in attending to the affairs of the Board.

The Committee on Finance presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

The following papers have been put into our hands, viz.: Reports of the Treasurers of the Boards of Home Missions, of Freedmen's Missions, of Church Extension, of Education, and of Ministerial Relief, together with the report of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly. These reports, as required by the Assembly, are audited, and their footings are found to be correct.

Statements of the Treasurers of the Boards of Foreign Missions and of Publication have also been put into our hands. These, however, are not reports in due form, but rather statements designed for publication; they are not accompanied by vouchers, and we have no evidence that they have been audited.

The request of the Board of Home Missions for the payment of the expenses incurred in the preparation and printing of blank forms for declarations of trust on the part of congregations receiving aid from the Assembly, we regard with favor, inasmuch as these declarations of trust are made to the Trustees of the General Assembly.

Some other papers, of the nature of bills for expenses incurred in doing the work of the Assembly, have also been referred to us, and carefully examined.

From an examination of the reports before us, your committee have discovered that some of the Presbyteries have not contributed anything during the year to several of the Boards of the church. There seems also to have been a falling off in the contributions to some of the Boards, as compared with last year. We therefore recommend the following:

Resolved, 1. That the conduct of the Treasurers and Boards that have furnished reports be approved.

2. That those Boards, whose Treasurers have failed to furnish reports as required by law, be directed to see that no such failure shall occur in the future.

3. That the sum of three thousand dollars be appropriated to the General Assembly's Fund.

4. That the Principal Clerk be directed to draw warrants on the Treasurer of the General Assembly's Fund as follows:

To Rev. J. F. Hutchison, member of the Committee on Sabbath School Selections and Music, for traveling expenses	$30 00
To Rev. D A. Duff, for the same	5 50
To Stevenson, Foster & Co., for stationery for this Assembly	15 50
To the Committee on Old Records, for printing 200 copies of report	2 00
To Rev. S. Collins, chairman of Committee on Reduced Railroad Fares	3 75
To Rev. W. J. Reid, D. D., chairman of the Committee to prepare Digest	18 80
To the Assistant Clerk	25 00
To incidental and traveling expenses of clerks	11 00
To the sexton of this church, for services rendered during the meeting of this Assembly	20 00
To the Treasurer of the Board of Home Missions, for the amount expended in preparing and printing blank forms

After prayer by Rev. R. S. McClenahan, the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by elder W. K. Carson.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A paper on the use of tobacco was read and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Missions to the Freedmen was made the order of the day for this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Church Extension was made the order of the day for this evening, immediately after the reading of the minutes.

The Standing Committee on Narrative and State of Religion presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

The Committee on Narrative and State of Religion report:

1st. That in reading this timely and suggestive narrative, your committee are deeply impressed with the occasion there is on the one hand for devout thanksgiving for the great things God has done for us, whereof our hearts may well be glad, and on the other hand for profound humbling before God and a more faithful and devoted course in the time to come. In view of the great importance of many things referred to in the narrative, and of the fact that comparatively few of our people usually read it, your committee recommend that it be read at some service on the Sabbath or during the week in all the congregations under the care of the Assembly.

2d. That in the removal of so many of our ministers by death, there is an affecting reminder to the Assembly, and to all our ministers, that the end of the time of labor is drawing on, and that each should work with his might; while in the fact that not a single case of discipline has occurred among the 683 ministers of our church, there is a grateful and earnest incentive for all to be faithful still in keeping themselves unspotted from the world.

3d. That in the licensure of twenty-six men, the ordination of twenty nine, and the installation of sixty-two, there is reason for thankfulness to God that he is raising up laborers for the wide fields under our care. In giving also so many pastors, he is significantly showing his favor to the permanent settlement of his servants, and the duty of the people in every congregation to seek to have their eyes see and their hands support their teachers in the pastoral relation. While on the other hand, in view of the dissolution of this relation in forty-five instances, and of the many unhappy things that too often follow, there is occasion to urge that pastors and people alike will resist every tendency to this, and that they will allow nothing but the clearest indications of duty to lead them to it.

4th. That in the healthful use of the means of grace in so many congregations, and in the revived and elevated tone of piety and of self-consecration which have happily pervaded the theological seminaries during the last session, there have been gratifying tokens for good. In some instances also very happy effects have followed the holding, under Presbyterial direction, of continuous religious services for several days at a time in vacant congregations, and your committee recommend that all the Presbyteries consider the propriety of this, and act upon it in their vacancies and mission stations, and also in settled congregations when the way may be open for it.

5th. That in the Sabbath School work of our church there is much to cheer. In 726 schools, with 7,647 laborers and 65,467 scholars, there is a power of the most momentous import for doing good, and your committee specially recommend that more and more, all who are engaged in this work, will seek, first and last, nothing less than the salvation of every child under their care, and its entire consecration of heart and life to the service of God.

6th. That in the spirit of the narrative, your committee recommend that the Assembly earnestly urge the regular and conscientious attendance of all under its care upon the duties of family worship, stated meetings for prayer, the ordinances of the Lord's house, the bringing up of their children in these ways, and a constant holding of themselves in all their persons, substance and influence at the call of God and his cause, and, further, that the Assembly as earnestly warns against any worldly amusement or conformity that is of doubtful propriety in the light of the gospel, assured that every such thing militates against personal piety, weakens the force of the Christian profession, cripples the church in its constantly demanded warfare with evil, and is offensive to him who will have his church a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing.

In conclusion your committee recommend the following action:

Resolved, That the report of the Permanent Committee on the Narrative be printed and urged upon the serious and earnest attention of all our ministers and congregations.

In regard to the action of Presbyteries on the deaconship, as referred to us, your committee report that only six Presbyteries have reported, and very little has been done. In view of the importance of this office, and especially of having deacons as spiritual officers of the church to take the place of trustees in the management of the temporal affairs of the congregations, the following action is recommended:

Resolved, That all the congregations under the care of the Assembly be instructed to endeavor to have the law of the church in regard to this office carried out, by having deacons ordained and installed in their midst as soon as their circumstances permit.

The Committee on the Judiciary presented a report on the complaint against the action of the Presbytery of Sealkote, concerning bigamy. Pending the adoption of this report, the hour for the order of the day arrived, when the report of the Committee on the Board of Missions to the Freedmen was taken up. This report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

Your committee would respectfully report that the annual report of the Board of Freedmen's Missions indicates that the Board, missionaries and teachers have all been doing their work faithfully and efficiently, and that the results are highly encouraging.

The church at Knoxville has received an accession of 15, 7 by baptism. Already the mission is a source of income to the Boards of the church, and in two weekly prayer meetings the work goes on as in a well established congregation.

The college work has met with unusual encouragement, not so much in increased attendance as in results—30 students receiving good certificates, and most of them obtaining employment as teachers. Thus throughout a large community a Christian education is multiplying the church's power and influence.

The Industrial Department, under the management of Mrs. Reed, is proving specially useful, and is much needed among a people of so rude habits of life as the freedmen. They must have not only the preached word, but also instruction in the domestic arts of Christian civilization.

The erection of a cottage for Dr. Reed's family was, we think, a judicious expenditure, and calculated to give permanence to our work.

At Chase City there are two new and encouraging features in connection with the work already progressing among the whites. These are a force of laborers among the freedmen, available without additional expense, and the cessation of all former opposition.

The yellow fever scourge prevented the re-opening of the mission in Vicksburg, as directed by last Assembly, but the field has recently been visited by Dr. S. B. Reed, who found that through five years of neglect three elders and thirty members (colored) have remained faithful United Presbyterians, and now offer to raise $200 for the support of a missionary. The property there is again in our hands, and rented at $25 a month.

Blue Stone and Clarksville, in the bounds of the Stanton congregation, are very inviting fields, with a dense colored population. Both can be operated in connection with work already established. The latter place offers for our occupancy a large brick building, which cost $10.000, together with seven small dwellings, all for $2.000.

The finances of the Board are in good condition, and have been well managed.

In view of the report of this interesting and growing work, your committee offer the following resolutions:

1. That the success of our scant efforts as a church in this wide and needy field is a cause for gratitude to God, and encouragement to go forward.
2. That this peculiar branch of our home mission work be commended to the sympathies and liberality of our people.
3. That work at Vicksburg should be resumed as soon as possible.
4. That an appropriation of $12,800 be made to this Board, viz., $10,000 be granted to support the work already in progress, $800 for a missionary at Vicksburg, and $2,000 for the new stations mentioned.
5. That the Board be encouraged to enlarge the Industrial Department.

Took up the report of the Committee on the Judiciary on the relation of Foreign Mission Presbyteries to the Assembly. This report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT ON THE RELATION OF FOREIGN MISSION PRESBYTERIES TO THE ASSEMBLY.

WHEREAS, It is a fundamental principle in our Presbyterian polity that every subordinate court shall be under the control and subject to the revision of the superior courts; and,

WHEREAS, The Presbyteries of Egypt and Sealkote are isolated and without Synodical connection and control, and therefore their proceedings have not been subject to revision of a superior court; and,

WHEREAS, These Presbyteries, from the very necessity of the case, have practically Synodical powers; therefore,

Resolved, That the Presbyteries of Egypt and Sealkote be directed to submit to each General Assembly a certified copy of their records for revision.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Judiciary, on the complaint against the action of the Presbytery of Sealkote, concerning bigamy. This report was amended and adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT ON THE MEMORIAL WITH REFERENCE TO THE ACTION OF THE PRESBYTERY OF SEALKOTE CONCERNING BIGAMY.

WHEREAS, There has been no official communication from the Presbytery of Sealkote, either to this Assembly or to the Board of Foreign Missions, in relation to the matter referred to in the memorial of Dr. Barnett; therefore,

Resolved, That the Presbytery of Sealkote be directed to report to the next General Assembly their official action in the matter referred to, and the grounds on which said action was based.

The Special Committee on the Mission to the Chinese, at Los Angeles, presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE MISSION TO THE CHINESE AT LOS ANGELES.

The committee to whom were referred the report of the Presbytery of San Francisco on the mission to the Chinese at Los Angeles, and other papers relating to the same general subject, would respectfully report as follows:

In accordance with the directions of the last General Assembly, the Presbytery of San Francisco has accepted the trust of said mission from the Board of Foreign Missions, and, in accordance with the laws of the State of California, has secured an act of incorporation. As a corporate body, all necessary officers were elected to superintend the mission. Funds arising from the sale of the mission property in China have been placed in the hands of the treasurer of said corporate body, and the bonds required have been placed in the hands of the trustees of the General Assembly. The amount received, together with accrued interest, is $13,316.37. The amount paid to Rev. J. C. Nevin and his co-workers, together with some incidental expenses, is $506.33, leaving a balance in the treasury of $12,810.04; $12,000 of this sum has been loaned on first-class security at 10 per cent. interest per annum. The Presbytery of San Francisco also reports that the work in this mission has been seriously interfered with by the Presbyterians of Los Angeles, who persist in maintaining a Sabbath School exclusively for the Chinese, and also by a minister of that body who conducts a week day evening school for the same people, while it was plainly stated and understood that, so far as Presbyterians are concerned, the United Presbyterian Church should have entire occupancy and control of the field. The Presbytery of San Francisco has laid the matter before the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church, urgently requesting that such interference cease, or the money paid for mission premises be refunded.

The various facts reported and referred have been carefully considered by your committee, and we have agreed to present the appended resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That it is with profound gratitude and joy we record the goodness of the Lord in preserving the lives of our missionary and his helpers, and in giving many evidences of his approval.

2. That according to the request of this Presbytery, presented in their report, the name of this mission be changed from "The Mission to the Chinese at Los Angeles," to "The Mission among the Chinese on the Pacific coast."

3. That this General Assembly heartily endorse the action of the Presbytery of San Francisco, in the steps they have taken to secure the removal of the above mentioned interruptions, or the money paid to be refunded.

4. That $1,600 be appropriated to this mission to carry on the work during the coming year.

Proceeded to the order of the day, when Rev. J. A. Myers, delegate from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South; Rev. Alexander McWilliam, delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, and Rev. J. D. Turino, delegate from the Waldensian church in Italy, presented the Christian salutations of the bodies they represented, and the Moderator responded in the name of the Assembly.

After prayer by Rev. Andrew McCartney, the Assembly adjourned.

WEDNESDAY.

JUNE 4th, 1879, 8: 30 o'clock, A. M..

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. A. Myers.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Church Extension. This report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your committee would respectfully report: That there have been placed in our hands the following documents, viz., the report of the Board of Church Extension to this Assembly; the various books of the Board, showing its methods of doing its work; a statement from Dr. Blaikie, concerning the condition of the church property in Boston; the report of the Corresponding Secretary, who was directed by the last Assembly to proceed to Boston and make a careful and thorough examination of the property, its condition, its title, its value, &c.; and some letters necessary to the better understanding of the condition of certain interests connected with the work of the Board.

Your committee has given these documents careful consideration, with the following results, viz.:

1. That an examination of the books of the Board, showing its methods of work, convinces us that its work has been prosecuted with such accurateness and system, as would commend itself to every member of the church examining them. The Board certainly deserves high commendation for the system and accurateness with which it has prosecuted its work, as exhibited in these books.

2. The report of the Board. In this report there are several items to which the attention of the Assembly is asked. In general, we would say that good progress has been made in this work during the past year. Very extensive correspondence has been carried on with reference to certain difficult matters that have come before the Board.

While the Board has done much in the way of granting aid to congregations building churches, and to those involved in debt, still very much more could have been done, had the whole amount appropriated by the last Assembly come into its hands.

While the contributions by Presbyteries are considerably in advance of the preceding year, still all the receipts, both for the General and Loan Funds, amount to less than one-half of the sum appropriated last year.

The Board asks that the Assembly define the course to be followed in collecting matured loans from the Loan Fund. It has been making collections, as far as practicable. In many cases it has found it impossible to collect, without greatly crippling, and perhaps crushing the congregation. In a number of cases it has extended the time. We recommend that the Assembly approve the course pursued, and that it should be encouraged to pursue the same course in other cases now before it, and such as may come before it; collecting where it can, without oppression, and extending the time where it seems necessary.

The Board has the opportunity of securing some plans for churches, which it could publish in its annual report at very little cost. We think it would be wise in it to do so.

The Assembly is asked to take specific action, and give direction as to its wishes, with reference to debts of considerable amounts resting upon the church buildings in Chicago, Ill., Lawrence, Mass., and to specify the course to be pursued in the case of the property of the First Church, Boston.

CHICAGO, ILL.

There is a mortgage against this property, amounting to $4,900. The congregation agrees to pay $300 of this, leaving an encumbrance of $4,600. The interest on this has been met, at least in part, by the rent of the basement to the city for school purposes. This source of income will be cut off, after the present year. If this encumbrance was removed, the congregation could turn the amount of interest which it has undertaken to pay towards the support of its pastor. It is believed that if this debt was removed, the congregation would be able, in about two years, to support its pastor without additional aid from the Board of Home Missions. This surely is an end much to be desired.

LAWRENCE, MASS.

It is reported by the Board that "the congregation at this place has been much revived, under the pastoral labors of Rev. R. A. McAyeal, D. D." There is a debt of $4,000 resting upon the church property. A mortgage is held by certain parties altogether outside of our church, who became endorsers in bank when this loan was made. They are becoming restless. The bank is demanding payment, and the endorsers are threatening foreclosure, unless payment is made at once. The congregation undertakes the payment of one-half of this amount, or $2,000, if the Board will meet the other $2,000. This, we think, should be done at once, and thus this property be saved to the congregation and the church.

In view of the above statement of facts, we recommend the following resolutions for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the work of this Board, not only for the past year, but for previous years, as exhibited in the various documents placed in our hands, be very heartily approved by this Assembly; and its important work commended anew to the sympathies and enlarged contributions of our churches.

2. That the Board continue to pursue the same wise policy it has already adopted, with reference to collections of matured loans from the Loan Fund.

3. That the Board be requested to publish in its annual report a few of the plans for churches in its possession, from plates offered to be furnished to it gratuitously.

4. That the Board be directed to grant to the congregation in Lawrence, Mass., $2,000, in order to lift the mortgage now resting upon their church, and to pay this amount over at the earliest possible date.

5. That the Board be directed to grant to the congregation in Chicago, Ill., a sum not exceeding $4,600, the amount necessary to meet the debt now resting upon their property.

6. That an appropriation of $30,000 be made to this department of the church's work for the next year.

The Committee on Correspondence presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Your committee would respectfully report that we have received a letter from Rev. James Kelso, in which he regrets his failure to attend the meeting of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, on account of said Synod having met a month earlier than usual, without his knowledge.

We have received a letter from the delegate of General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, conveying the congratulations of that Synod, and expressing his regret that sickness in his congregation prevented personal attendance.

Also a letter is at hand from Rev. A. M. Milligan, conveying the fraternal greetings of the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church.

Your committee offer for adoption the following resolutions:

1. That D. A. Wallace, D. D. be appointed our delegate to the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, to meet in Wooster, O., on the 11th day of June.

2. That J. Y. Scouller, D. D. be appointed our delegate to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, to meet at Union, Chester Co., S. C., in September next.

3. That the Committee of Conference with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South be continued.

The Committee on Systematic Beneficence presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SYSTEMATIC BENEFICENCE.

The committee, to which was referred a paper containing a list of congregations contributing to the funds of the church, and resolution 4th in the report of the General Committee of Home Missions to this Assembly, would respectfully submit the following:

That the claims of the church have, to a certain extent at least, received attention during the year among a large proportion of the congregations, is evident from the statistics herewith presented.

247 congregations have contributed to all the funds; 60 have contributed to none; 74 have not reported, while 434 have contributed only in part.

By a comparison of these statistics with the reports of last year, we find an increase of more than 15 per cent. in the number of congregations contributing. However, there is yet room for improvement.

Three serious defects are noticeable: 1. On the part of some, a failure to contribute. 2. On the part of many congregations contributing, an undue partiality. 3. On the part of a large majority, a stinted liberality.

These defects are largely due to the failure of Christians to realize the urgency of the claims of Christ upon them for the support of his cause, and the negligence of pastors and elders in properly presenting these claims to the people.

To correct these evils your committee would recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the 4th resolution in the report of the General Committee of Home Missions, referred to this committee, be adopted, to wit: "That in the judgment of this Assembly Christians ought not, in their contributions for benevolent and religious purposes, to fall below one-tenth of their (yearly) income."

2. That in order to the systematic carrying out of the above resolution, pastors be affectionately urged to impress upon their people the importance and necessity of every one complying with the direction of the apostle, 1 Cor., 16:2, to "lay by himself in store, on the first day of every week as the Lord hath prospered him," as a part of the worship of the Sabbath, in order that there may be a constant readiness for contributing to the various claims of the Lord's cause when they are presented.

3. That in harmony with the foregoing principles, this Assembly would express it as their judgment that there should be a careful avoidance of all indirect and questionable means of raising money for the Lord's cause.

4. That our people be and are hereby urged to distribute their contributions among the Boards of the church in the ratio of their respective appropriations.

5. That Presbyteries be directed to adopt some plan by which contributions to all the Boards of the church may be secured at least once a quarter, and to report their action in this matter each year to the General Assembly.

A few minutes were spent in devotional exercises.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises presented an additional report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

ADDITIONAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

The committee recommend the following:

1. That Rev. David Paul, D. D., of the Presbytery of Muskingum, be appointed the Moderator's alternate to preach the opening sermon at the next meeting of the General Assembly.
2. That the next General Assembly spend the first evening of their session in devotional exercises of reading the Scriptures, praise, prayer and conference.
3. Feeling the need of the gracious guidance of the Holy Spirit to give direction to all our deliberations, and believing in the efficacy of united and concerted prayer, we recommend to the churches under the care of the General Assembly to annually observe the same evening as a time of special prayer for the Divine Presence to be with the Assembly in all its actions, and for the outpouring of the Spirit of God upon all our ministers and members, and "upon all flesh," that the whole world may be filled with the glory of the Lord.

The Joint Committee on the Boards of Home Missions and Church Extension presented a report on the Boston church property, which was adopted.

The Committee on Statistics presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON STATISTICS.

The Committee on Statistics respectfully reports that there have been placed in our hands the statistical tables prepared by the Second Clerk, and also a resolution referred by the Assembly, directing us to report on the advisability of printing the statistics for 1879 in separate form.

In regard to the statistical tables, it is gratifying that we can state that they are more full and perfect than in any former year. This improvement is largely due to the commendable efforts of the Clerks of Presbyteries to obtain full reports from congregations.

The Second Clerk calls the attention of the General Assembly to the fact that many cases arise in which members, by removal without certificate or otherwise, have forfeited their membership, but concerning which no action is taken by the session. In some cases these persons are received into other congregations; in others they are lost sight of. A formal process by arraignment on trial, when it is known no answer will be made, seems only a form without any of the good results sought by discipline. Sessions therefore often either allow such to fall away without official act or record, or by summary process without form erase the name from the roll. It is proposed that the General Assembly give some directions in such cases.

The re-arrangement of the statistical tables is also referred to the General Assembly.

With the view of properly disposing of the different matters referred to this committee, we would submit the following resolutions:

1. That sessions be enjoined to exercise a faithful oversight of the congregation, and of every individual member thereof, observing as far as may be possible the conduct of those who remove to other localities, frequently reminding them by letter or otherwise of their duty to continue in the communion and fellowship of the church, and warning them not only of the danger of losing their standing in the church, but of the dishonor they do to religion and the injury they bring upon their own souls.
2. That any member who, after being thus admonished, continues out of the communion of the church for one year without furnishing satisfactory reasons to the session, may be indefinitely suspended and his name stricken from the roll of members.
3. That any member leaving a congregation without applying for the usual monials, and remaining away for two years, the session in the meantime having no knowledge of his deportment shall remove his name from the church register.

4. That it is not expedient to publish the statistics in a form separate from the minutes.

5. That the diligence and accuracy of the Second Clerk, in the preparation of the statistics, deserves the notice and commendation of the General Assembly.

The Standing Committee on Sabbath Schools presented their report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

Your committee are gratified to report greatly increased interest and efficiency in Sabbath School work. Statistical tables covering the last ten years show general progress in results during that time. The following figures will be of interest:

The entire report of the Permanent Committee is worthy of careful attention, and in accordance with their recommendation we present the following resolutions:

1. That the Assembly "address a brief official letter, over the signature of its Moderator and Principal Clerk, to all the churches, urging the parents to secure home study of God's word; home preparation for the lessons of the school; the regular attendance of their children, and, as far as possible, of themselves, upon the sessions of the school, and to bring their children with them to the house of God."

2. That pastors and superintendents be urged to establish normal classes for the special training of teachers, so that our standard of teaching may be raised higher.

3. That the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools hereafter consist of nine members, three to serve for one year, three for two years, and three for three years, and three to be appointed each succeeding year to serve for three years.

4. That the thanks of the Assembly and of the committee are due to Drs. James Harper and Robert Stewart, for the preparation of notes during the year.

In addition to the above resolutions of the Permanent Committee, we would submit the following:

1. That Robert Stewart & Co. be requested to furnish scholars' helps, at as little cost as possible, in the form of Quarterlies.

2. That the suggestive questions recommended by the Permanent Committee be prepared by Drs. Reid and Stewart, and published in the Bible Teacher and Quarterlies; and that appropriate questions from the catechism, and selections from the Psalms accompany each lesson.

3. That inasmuch as it is well to support our own enterprises, we recommend the use of Robert Stewart & Co.'s Sabbath School Helps.

4. That the thanks of the Assembly and church are due to the Permanent Committee for their diligenee and work, as exhibited in their report.

5. That the following persons constitute the Permanent Committee for the ensuing year:

Rev. J. S. Sands, Rev. J. A. Gordon, elder T. J. Gillespie—3 years.
Rev. J. M. Fulton, Rev. E. S. McKitrick, elder A. P. Burchfield—2 years.
Rev. D. S. Littell, Rev. W. T. McConnell, elder H. J. Murdock—1 year.

The Committee on Nominations presented a report, which, after discussion, was re-committed.

The Committee on the Board of Publication presented a report.

Before the adoption of this report, the Assembly, after prayer by Rev. J. S. Turnbull, adjourned to meet at 1:30 o'clock.

1:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. C. Taggart.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The following resolution of instructions to the Boards was adopted:

RESOLUTION OF INSTRUCTIONS TO THE BOARDS.

Resolved, That the Boards of Home Missions, and Church Extension, and Foreign Missions be authorized to send their Secretaries to any Synod, Presbytery, or congregation of the church, when in their judgment the interests committed to these Boards may require such visits, and that they report the same to the Assembly.

The vote adopting the report of the Joint Committee on the Boards of Home Missions and Church Extension on the Boston church property was reconsidered, when this report and the whole business to which it relates were referred to the Trustees of the General Assembly, the Board of Home Missions, and the Board of Church Extension, with instructions to take such steps as may be necessary to maintain the congregation and protect the property for the present year, and report to the next Assembly their judgment as to the final disposition of this mission.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Publication. This report was amended and adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

The report of the Board, which was the only paper referred to your committee, presents nothing special for the consideration of the Assembly. From this report it would appear that the Board has endeavored faithfully to carry out the recommendations of previous Assemblies in regard to furnishing a literature for our Sabbath Schools and congregations from the productions of our own members—but apparently without much success as yet. It were useless to repeat these recommendations year after year, except to call the attention of the church to the matter, which is sufficiently done by the publication of the report of the Board in the minutes of the Assembly.

In regard to the publishing of notes or commentaries on the Bible lessons, your committee is of the opinion that it is better left to private enterprise, and any recommendations respecting the matter belong properly to the Committee on Sabbath Schools.

It appears also, from the report, that only a little over one thousand dollars was contributed by individuals and congregations to this Board to "enable it to aid mission stations, weak Sabbath Schools, destitute persons, &c., by donations of books and tracts." In order to render these contributions effective in circulating the Bible and a pure literature among our own people and in destitute places or mission stations, it is suggested by the Board that a system of colportage ought to be organized. This can only be effected by carrying out the regulation already in force (see Digest, page 174), requiring the establishment of a depository or depositories in each Synod, at a place designated by the Synod.

In connection with the publication of the minutes of the Assembly, your committee would take occasion to suggest the importance of having these minutes more generally circulated among the families of the church for the information of the people. The great difficulty in the way of promoting such circulation is the matter of expense, or the price at which these minutes are sold. There is no doubt but that a much larger number could be sold if they could be furnished at lower cost, and on the other hand that if a larger number could be sold, they could be furnished at a greatly reduced price per copy. It has been the custom of some of the Boards to publish their reports for gratuitous distribution, at a very heavy expense. If these reports, somewhat condensed, could be published with the minutes, and the Board of Publication authorized to publish the minutes at a nominal price, we believe that the great object of giving information to the people respecting the work of the church would be gained with perhaps less cost.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the action of the Board during the past year, as indicated by its report, be and hereby is approved.

2. That this Assembly reaffirms the action of previous Assemblies commending this Board to the liberality of the people to enable it to give aid to mission stations, &c., by donations of books and tracts, and that the sum of $8,000 is hereby appropriated for this purpose.

3. That the Board is hereby directed to carry out the regulation adopted in 1863, (see Digest, p. 174) and establish as soon as practicable depositories in the various Synods, with a view to supplying our people with a sound literature, and inaugurating a system of colportage.

4. That the Board of Publication be instructed to report to the next General Assembly its judgment as to the publication and distribution of the minutes of the Assembly.

The Committee on Revision presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON REVISION.

The following printed minutes and paper have been referred to the Committee on Revision: The minutes of the Twentieth General Assembly, the minutes of the Synods of New York, Ohio, Illinois, Kansas, Iowa, Pittsburgh, The First Synod of the West, and The Second Synod, and a paper from the Clerks of the Assembly, asking from what fund the expense of binding the official records should be paid.

1. The minutes of the General Assembly appear to be correct, and are properly certified.

2. The General Assembly has authorized the Clerks of the Synods to preserve printed instead of manuscript copies of their minutes; but in order to make the official copies authentic, it is necessary that they be certified over the written signature of the Clerk. (See Digest, p. 153.) The Clerks of the Synods of Iowa, the First Synod of the West, and the Second Synod, have failed to sign the official copies sent to the Assembly for review. With these exceptions, the business of the various Synods, as far as your committee is able to judge, has been done in accordance with Presbyterial order, and the minutes have been neatly and correctly printed.

3. It would add to the usefulness of these minutes, and materially facilitate the work of revision, if carefully prepared indexes were appended to the minutes of the Synods.

4. The Committee on the Preservation of "Old Records" has taken steps to have the official minutes of the Synods bound for preservation, and it would be very much better to have these volumes bound in uniform size.

In view of these things, your committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the minutes of the last General Assembly, and the minutes of the various Synods named above, be approved.

Digitized by Google

2. That the General Assembly hereby recommends to all the Synods to have their minutes published on paper of the same size as that on which the minutes of the General Assembly are published, and to have carefully prepared indexes appended to them.

3. That the expense of binding the official minutes for preservation be defrayed out of the Assembly Fund.

The special committee on the communication from the Associate Synod, in reference to the distribution of the proceeds of the Speer estate, presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE COMMUNICATION FROM THE ASSOCIATE SYNOD.

Your committee, to whom was referred the communication of the Associate Synod in reference to the disposition of a portion of the proceeds of the Speer estate, would respectfully submit the following:

WHEREAS, The Associate Synod has by a unanimous vote requested this Assembly to place a portion of the proceeds of the Speer estate at the disposal of the Theological Seminary at Xenia, for the support of pious young men who may need assistance while preparing for the gospel ministry, as per the terms of the will of the late Daniel Speer; and

WHEREAS, These funds were bequeathed to the Synod of the Secession Church, by the said Daniel Speer, and by the said Synod transferred to the Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in 1870; and

WHEREAS, It may be presumed that the late Daniel Speer had in view the Theological Seminary of the Secession Church, then located at Canonsburg, as the channel through which needy candidates for the ministry should receive the benefit of his legacy; and

WHEREAS, The said Seminary did receive and pay out to her students the portion of the legacy intended for such purpose, many years prior to the transfer of these funds to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church; and

WHEREAS, More than ten thousand dollars of accrued interest have been paid over to the Board of Education by the trustees of the Speer estate; therefore,

Resolved, That the Board of Education be directed to pay over to the Board of Trustees of the United Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Xenia, Ohio, the sum of Six Thousand Dollars out of the funds received by said Board of Education from the Speer estate, to be held by said Board of Trustees of Theological Seminary as a permanent fund, the income ONLY of which shall be used for the support of pious young men who may need assistance while preparing for the gospel ministry—in strict compliance with the terms of the will of the late Daniel Speer, by which will these funds have reached the church.

The Committee on the Judiciary presented the following report respecting the office of elders and deacons, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE DUTIES OF RULING ELDERS AND DEACONS.

Your committee has failed to discover any ambiguity in our Book of Government defining the duties of the ruling elder and the deacon.

The following resolution is therefore recommended for adoption:

Resolved, That the memorialist be referred to the Book of Government, chapters 5 and 6, as defining the duties of these offices with sufficient clearness.

The Committee on the Board of Education presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

There have been referred to your committee the report of the Board of Education, the names of those licensed during the year, and the names of beneficiaries. In accordance with the action of 1875, aid was granted to fourteen students, thirteen of these theological and one literary. The aid granted last year was $1,975. It is gratifying to know that this Board is free from financial embarrassment.

As the number of licensures by Presbyteries comes under the more immediate supervision of the Synods, and is presented to the Assembly through other committees, there seems to be no necessity for continuing reports on this subject.

We present the following for your adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the action of the Assembly of 1875, limiting the beneficiaries of this Board to theological students, be and hereby is reaffirmed.

2. That no student addicted to the use of tobacco in any form shall be granted aid by this Board.

3. That the action of the Assembly of 1873, requiring "Presbyteries to report to the General Assembly the names of persons licensed during the year, and to give account in each case of the number of sessions spent at the Theological Seminary and the training given by the Presbytery itself," be annulled.

4. That the Assembly direct Presbyteries to have the several congregations under their care contribute to this Board.

5. That $2,000 be appropriated to this Board for the coming year.

The Special Committee on Women's Missionary Societies presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

A paper from the "United Presbyterian Association of Pittsburgh and Allegheny" concerning the founding of a United Presbyterian Orphanage in the city of Allegheny, was referred.

It is submitted, that however praiseworthy this enterprise may be, and it is not to be understood that its laudableness is in any wise called in question, the institution is a sectional and local one, the creature of individual effort; that it is under the management of a local board, in no way responsible to any court of the church; and that there is nothing to prevent the claims of the institution, as an individual enterprise, being brought before the Christian public; therefore,

Resolved, That no action on the part of the General Assembly is necessary.

II. A paper from the Assembly's Committee on Women's Missionary Societies, setting forth the desirableness of the Assembly recommending the establishment of dormitories for the female students under the care of Westminster and Monmouth colleges, was referred.

It is submitted, that since the colleges named are under Synodical control, and not directly sustained by the General Assembly; and since the project has been brought to the attention of the members of this court, both by the paper, twice read, and by personal advocacy; therefore,

Resolved, That this subject does not fall within the jurisdiction of the General Assembly.

III. In addition to the report of the Assembly's committee, statistical reports of Women's Missionary Societies, submitted by the Second Clerk of the Assembly, were referred.

It is submitted, that in view of the fact that thirty-nine Presbyteries report seven presbyterial societies, 168 congregational societies, 5,649 members, with a total contribution to the Boards of the church of $12,386, this department of the activities of the church has reached a point which requires the acknowledgment, encouragement and supervision of the General Assembly and the courts subordinate thereto; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That congregational societies already organized, and those which shall yet be organized, shall be subordinate to the session; and that presbyterial societies presently existing, and those yet to be constituted, shall be subordinate to the Presbytery, and shall report annually, through these courts, to the General Assembly.

Digitized by Google

2. That Presbyteries and sessions be recommended to encourage the organization of Women's Missionary Societies within their jurisdiction, and thus call into exercise an important part of the working power of the church.

3. That the primary object of these societies shall be spiritual, the exercise of the gifts and graces of the Spirit, and thus cherish a spirit of devotion and more entire consecration to God—and not merely collecting agencies of the church.

4. That in contributing to the benevolent work of the church, the Boards of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Missions and Church Extension be specially commended to the liberality and benevolence of these societies, with advice that the funds raised be, as nearly as possible, apportioned among them, in proportion to the amount appropriated by the General Assembly.

5. That in order to simplify the management of the finances of the church and secure uniformity, all money contributed by the societies to the Boards shall be transmitted through the Financial Agents appointed by the General Assembly.

6. That the blanks prepared and submitted by the Second Clerk of the Assembly be approved, subject to such modification in the future as exigencies may require.

7. That the statistics of these societies be inserted in the annual minutes of the General Assembly.

The Special Committee on Old Records presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON OLD RECORDS.

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly express thanks to the committee and gratification in view of the progress made during the year.

2. That the Assembly urge Presbyteries whose old records are lost, to make diligent effort to find them.

3. That as the old records of the different Presbyteries and Synods, by direction of the Assembly of 1876, are to be retained in present hands until the work of preparing histories is completed, Presbyteries be directed to place the records of their Associate and Associate Reformed predecessors in the possession of their respective Clerks, who shall be held responsible for their safe keeping.

4. That Presbyteries be instructed to see that the histories of their congregations are collected at once, and, for the present, placed in the keeping of the different Clerks of Presbyteries.

5. That Presbyteries report fully and definitely all that has been done by them during the year, in relation to the work in charge of this committee, on or before the 1st of May, 1880.

6. That the committee be directed to organize a United Presbyterian Historical Society, as soon as possible, and report to the next Assembly.

7. That the committee be directed to construct a vault for the preservation of histories and records, in our Theological Seminary building at Allegheny, or, if a suitable place can be found for it, in our Board of Publication building in Pittsburgh, at a cost not to exceed three hundred dollars.

8. That the committee, appointed by the Eighteenth General Assembly to prepare a history of the United Presbyterian Church, be instructed to complete their work, if it be not already done; and that the Board of Publication be directed to publish it without delay.

9. That the historical record of the Presbyteries and Synods of the Associate and Associate Reformed Churches be published in the appendix to the minutes.

10. That the Committee on Old Records be continued, and instructed to prosecute their work with all diligence.

The following resolutions of thanks were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.

Resolved, That cordial thanks are hereby given to the pastors and members of the United Presbyterian and other congregations of New Wilmington and its vicinity, and to the citizens at large, for their generous hospitality to the members of this General Assembly, and also to the railroad companies that have so liberally allowed delegates to pass over their lines at reduced rates of fare.

Resolved, That thanks be returned to the Moderator for his genial and efficient discharge of the duties of his responsible office.

Resolved, That devout thanksgiving be made to God for the presence of his Holy Spirit in all sessions, and for the kindly and forbearing spirit that has been manifested by the members in their deliberations and acts.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a report on the use of tobacco, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE USE OF TOBACCO.

The Assembly of 1870 adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the use of tobacco is demoralizing in its tendency, and should, therefore, be discountenanced by all who profess the Christian religion."

In 1874, in response to a memorial from the ladies of Monmouth, the Assembly said, "We hail this memorial from the ladies of Monmouth as the harbinger of a better day, we trust not far distant, when the energies of the church shall be turned against the use of tobacco as they are now turned against the use of intoxicating liquors."

We therefore recommend the following:

Resolved, That no further action is necessary.

The Committee on Nominations presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS.

The Committee on Nominations recommend the election of the following persons to fill the vacancies in the Boards, and to constitute the committees for which they are named, viz.:

The following resolution, recommending Rev. J. D. Turino, of the Waldensian church of Italy, to the liberality of the church, was adopted:

RESOLUTION RECOMMENDING REV. J. D. TURINO.

WHEREAS, This Assembly has enjoyed a peculiar pleasure in welcoming pastor J. D. Turino as a delegate of the Waldensian Church, and has learned from him that that church is making earnest efforts for the evangelization of Italy, and that one object of his visit is to ask the co-operation of Christians in this country; therefore,

Resolved, That we cordially commend the cause, which the Rev. J. D. Turino represents, to the sympathy, prayers and contributions of the members of our church.

The minutes of this session were read and approved.

The Assembly was dissolved, when the Moderator said: "By virtue of authority to me delegated, I do hereby dissolve this General Assembly, and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet in the First Church, Xenia, Ohio, on the fourth Wednesday of May, 1880, at 2: 30 o'clock, P. APPENDIX.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Your Trustees would respectfully report:

That since your last meeting they have endeavored to attend to such business pertaining to the temporal interest of the church under your care as has been brought to their notice.

The McVean legacy, that has been standing so long a time and has caused your Trustees so much trouble and annoyance, has been so arranged that there will now be something realized from it.

The church property in Boston has been conveyed in fee simple to your Trustees, and they gave a mortgage for eleven thousand five hundred dollars, which was negotiated, and the debt of the church, except a few dollars, paid off. Dr. A. G. Wallace acted in conjunction with your Trustees in this matter, and he will report to you all the particulars in full. We ask what further instructions the General Assembly has for us in this matter.

The account of your Treasurer, James McCandless, was audited by a committee appointed by your Trustees, a detailed account of which has been forwarded to the General Assembly.

The official term as Trustees of Rev. R. B. Ewing, D. D., S. Collins, D. D., and William Reed, Esq., will expire with this meeting of the Assembly. Mr. William Reed does not wish to be re-elected.

That your deliberations and acts may be harmonious and blessed to the furtherance and prosperity of Christ's kingdom on the earth shall be our earnest wish and prayer. By order of the Board of Trustees.

GRAHAM SCOTT, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The Board of Foreign Missions open their twentieth annual report with a grateful mention of the goodness of God during the past year. In both Egypt and India, though great financial troubles have afflicted the one and severe famine the other, yet our mission work has not been interrupted in any place or for a single hour. The lives of all our missionaries have been spared, and while some have been enfeebled from long and severe devotion to their work, yet no one has left the field to return to this country.

All the departments of the missionary work have been regularly carried on. In each mission accessions have been made to the native churches, and there have been the clearest evidences that labor has not been in vain—that souls have been enlightened and saved, and that God has been glorified.

THE WORK.

The two foreign missions of our church are in India and Egypt. In India there are four principal stations and eight out-stations; five foreign and two native ordained ministers; four unmarried female missionaries, and twenty-seven native helpers, being a total of thirty-eight laborers. There are 271 communicants, and an average attendance on Sabbath services of 740 persons. The increase in church members during the past year was 77; baptisms, 97; pupils in schools, 1,809 (of whom 1,248 were males, and 566 were females); students of theology, 9; contributions during the year were $244; tuition fees, $1,148. The total value of the property of this mission is $16,610.

In Egypt there are four central stations—Alexandria, Cairo, Sinoris and Osioot —and 35 lesser ones, with 8 foreign and four native ordained ministers, 7 native licentiates, 14 foreign teachers and 98 native teachers and helpers; or a total of 131 laborers, 22 foreign and 109 native. The whole number of churches organized is 9; communicants, 947 (found in 36 stations); increase during the year, 158; average attendance on the Sabbath, 1,801; baptisms, 74; schools, 89; pupils, 1,898 (males 1,271; females, 622); theological students, 6; contributions, $6,002; tuition fees, $2,611; value of property, $60,000; copies of Scriptures and of religious and educational books distributed, 21,224; moneys received for them, $4,451.

FUNDS.

Mr. William Getty, treasurer, makes the following statement, which will appear more fully in his report in detail to the Assembly:

The total amount received during the year ending April 30, 1879, was,	$51,351 93
Balance May 1, 1878	119 90
Total	$51,441 83
Expenditures were	$49,310 55
Balance paid to new treasurer	2,131 28
Total	$51,441 83
The receipts for the year just closed show an increase over the previous year of	$3,890 82
Orders were granted in favor of Egyptian Mission for	27,600 00
India Mission	21,600 00
	$49,200 00
Orders paid	42,849 28
	$6,340 72
Less amount on hand	2,131 28
Indebtedness at close of year 1879	$4,219 44
Indebtedness brought over from last year	$5,000 00
Leaving a deficiency of	$9,219 44

to be provided for in addition to the estimates for the year.

One of the noticeable features of the contributions for the past year is the large amount of individual donations, which are greatly in excess of the previous year. It must be a source of gratification to the many generous donors to know that in their lifetime their timely gifts are helping on the good work of the Master.

CONTRIBUTIONS.

It has been specially gratifying that the disposition to aid in carrying on this great work of our church is becoming more general every year. A larger number of congregations, Sabbath schools and individuals make offerings for it, and the number of missionary societies is steadily increasing. The effort is happily becoming more and more common to have these contributions made at different times during the year. Thus the constantly recurring wants of the missionaries are provided for, and the work is kept from being at certain seasons crippled, or painfully and sometimes disastrously embarrassed. All these things are tokens for good and they encourage the hope that the day will come when our whole church will be engaged in this great foreign work, and when the offerings for it shall be so distributed over the year that there will be no lack or delay at any time in making the remittances due to our laborers abroad.

MISSIONARIES.

It has grieved the Board that, at a time when both male and female laborers were so much needed in each of our missions, there has been almost an entire failure to obtain and send out the new reinforcements contemplated by the last Assembly. On the 19th of September last, the Rev. Dr. Watson and family sailed from New York on their return to Egypt. On the 15th of February Miss Isabella Strang, daughter of the Rev. David Strang, a returned missionary from Egypt, sailed for that mission. She is the youngest of all our missionaries; but having resided many years in Egypt, and been there well acquainted with the language, it was felt she could readily recall it, and be able to enter at once upon active missionary service.

The Board are in correspondence with other persons, some of whom it is hoped will devote themselves to this work. During the past winter a visit was made by the direction of the Board to each of our Theological Seminaries, and the earnest attention of the students was called to this subject. From all this it is hoped happy results will follow.

Most earnestly do the Board ask the Assembly and the churches to "pray the Lord of the harvest that he will raise up laborers for his harvest."

Rev. Samuel Martin and family have remained in this country during the year, recruiting their health and making arrangements to leave some of the children, as he and his wife re-enter upon their work in India. Miss M. G. Lockhart, who returned from Egypt in May, last year, has made some improvement in health, but is not able to resume her work. Miss Eliza F. Johnston, having remained a little more than a year, will return to the mission in Egypt at an early day.

The return of missionaries to this country, and the various matters relating to it, was referred to the Board by the last Assembly. The whole subject has been carefully considered, and a report, which has been approved by the Board, is herewith presented to the Assembly for its earnest attention and adoption.

INFORMATION.

The Board have very deeply felt the importance of having missionary intelligence largely given to the membership of our church. As far as possible, the Annual Report has been sent to ministers, and the effort has been made to have it circulated among the people. It would be well if it was carefully read in every family. Ministers are earnestly requested to call the attention of their congregations to it.

Some time since an urgent request was made that maps should be prepared, which would give a full exhibit of our Foreign Missions. Accordingly, one has been made, which presents at a glance almost every part of our work in India; and at the earliest day possible it is hoped that a similar one will be made of the mission in Egypt. These maps can be neatly mounted. It is hoped they will be promptly taken and suspended in Sabbath school rooms, in places of congregational meetings, and in the family circle at home, where they may be studied, and the extent and necessities of our great work be better understood, and thence more deeply appreciated and more fervently prayed for.

Every month, also, a statement is made of the latest facts pertaining to each mission, and it is respectfully urged that it will be thoroughly examined by all as it appears from month to month. The more there is known of the great work to which God has called us, and in which he has signally blessed us, the better it is believed it will be every way.

Most of all, it is desired that ministers will preach on this subject in the light of the cross. The love of Christ is the true secret and incentive for all effective interest and effort in the cause of missions. "The love of Christ constraineth us."

MODES OF MISSIONARY WORK.

As the gospel is the wisdom and the power of God unto salvation, the main effort in all our missions is to have it faithfully preached as opportunity may in any way offer. Every encouragement is held out to have schools, for both sexes, where instruction and training shall be given in whatever may be useful in future years. In every school the Bible and its teachings are constantly kept before the mind. In both missions there are Girls' Boarding Schools, where, in addition to mere literary and Bible studies, the inmates are taught the ways of properly keeping house, and of thus becoming fit companions of the young men who have passed through the courses of training in their schools; and in this way it is sought to have the way prepared for proper native Christian homes. As, too, it is of the first importance, as is more and more firmly believed, to have in the earliest possible time a thoroughly trained and well qualified native ministry, there is in each mission, as at Sealkote, in India, and Osioot, in Egypt, a regular organized Theological Institution, with chosen teachers or professors, and well arranged courses of study for educating native young men for the ministry. Already each mission is deriving signal benefit from this, and the best of results are more and more expected to follow.

TREATMENT OF CONVERTS.

In each mission the effort is persistently made to have every one that professes faith in Christ become engaged at once in the activities of the Christian life. All are faithfully taught to attend upon the means of grace, to seek to bring others with them to the places of instruction and prayer, and to go out themselves as they have opportunity, and read the Scriptures or have religious conversations with their people. They are urgently taught that it is more blessed to give than it is to receive. From the very beginning of their Christian life all are trained to cultivate the grace of beneficence, and in some of the missions the contributions are of the most cheering character. In the native churches in India the reported contributions of last year were $50; this year, $244. In Egypt they amounted last year to $5,044, and this year to $6,002. In every congregation where a pastor is settled a considerable portion of the salary is raised by the people, and in some the whole. In no case will the Presbyteries settle a pastor without the people contributing freely to his support.

MISSIONS.

1. Chinese.—As far as known, the mission of our church to this people has been efficiently conducted. It is located at Los Angeles, California, where Rev. J. C. Nevin is the missionary, and has his residence with his family. Convenient mission buildings were secured there from the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions at cost price. A mission school has been carried on, and every way, it is hoped, a good work is being done on behalf of the needy people for whom this mission was projected.

Early in the past year this mission was transferred, according to the direction of the General Assembly, to the Presbytery of San Francisco—a step which, it is believed, will work well every way.

2. India.—The field occupied by this mission is in the Punjaub, or northern part of India. It contains a population of from two to three millions, and, so far as missionary work among the people is concerned, is left almost entirely to our United Presbyterian Church. For each of the six ordained ministers of our church in that field—five foreign and one native—there are probably five hundred thousand persons. What are so few among so many?

In this field our missionaries carry on itinerant preaching, or go out through the different districts, and attend at the Melees or public fairs, and make the gospel known to all who can be induced to hear it. At the stations they have regular religious services; and in schools for boys and girls, on the Sabbath and during the week, constant instruction is given in the Holy Scriptures. Revs. James S. Barr and Andrew Gordon are engaged at certain seasons of the year in conducting the Theological Seminary, in the hope of early securing to the people an efficient and useful native ministry. In six of the twelve stations there are schools, and communicants, and constant work is done throughout the year.

In this mission there is a most pressing need for new missionaries. They are needed to meet the increasing demands of the field every year, to supply the places of those who have long been engaged, and must soon be relieved, or have to leave or die, and to be in training for the emergencies which may any day occur. Most earnestly do the Board entreat the Assembly to send out new laborers to this mission, and to send them IMMEDIATELY.

3. Egypt.—This mission of our church embraces the land of Egypt, where the 11,000 square miles contain a population of about 4,000,000. Thus far missionary work has been mainly among the Copts, though more or less of Moslems, Jews and others have always attended upon the schools. In the sovereign orderings of Providence, it is believed the day is rapidly drawing on when the spirit of fanaticism and hate, that have so long blinded the multitudes of the followers of the False Prophet, will be broken, and they will be free to receive the gospel. Every year the way is preparing for it.

In almost every leading town in Egypt now, from Alexandria to Assouan or the First Cataract, the mission has a station. In each the gospel is read or taught and preached. Boys' and girls' schools, boarding schools for girls, and a collegiate institute are in thorough operation. Each year the theological school sends out well trained men to take their places as efficient native preachers and pastors. Very widely the Scriptures and a thorough evangelical literature are being circulated and read among almost all classes of the people; and during the past year accessions have been made to every native church of persons who have made a good profession of their faith in Christ.

Numerous, however, as the mission stations are, and increasingly opening up as the whole country is every year for the gospel, not a single male missionary has been added to the band of laborers there for years. But what are eight men, however devoted and able, among over four millions of people? Or, if we confine them to the Copts, what are they for nearly four hundred thousand? And among the hundreds of thousands of poor, ignorant, degraded women, what are five or six missionary women—the whole number in active service—for so many? Are not the laborers, male and female, few, indeed, in a field so needy, so white for the harvest, and where God has so signally blessed us already in our work?

In this mission the very great need of suitable buildings for their work, in Mansoura and Alexandria, has led the missionaries to ask the Board to seek from the Assembly a special grant of $1,000 to procure a mission site in the former place, and $4,000 for it in the latter. The Board have felt the force of the appeals; but in the state of their treasury—entering upon a new year in debt—and not knowing how much might be required before the buildings would be completed, the Board do not see the way open, as things are, to recommend the grants. Most deeply, however, do we feel the necessity for proper places both for schools, church services, and the missionaries' residences; and much do we hope the day will ere long come when we may as a church have every necessity of this kind promptly and fully met.

SPECIAL FRIENDS.

In reviewing the work of the past year, the Board gratefully feel that thanks are renewedly due for the special help that has been freely given.

In repeated ways, David Stuart, Esq., of Liverpool, England, has shown to our missionaries, on their route to their fields, the kindness that has so signally characterized his conduct towards us for many years.

His Highness, the Maharajah Dhuleep Singh, made his annual offering again of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS to our mission in Egypt. This, it will be remembered, has been his liberal gift each year since his marriage, in 1863, making thus a sum of over $70,000 to this mission—a noble testimonial of his respect for the Christian religion, and of his regard for a mission that, through one of its girls' schools, gave him the worthy wife of his youth and of his life.

An unusually large number of persons, both in our church and in sister churches, have seemed to realize from time to time the special wants that were pressing upon us, and have made timely and liberal contributions. It gives us pleasure to mention the following:

A. M. Stewart, Esq., of Indiana, Pa.	$1,800 00

The Ladies' Missionary Society of Argyle, N. Y., and some sister congregations of Argyle Presbytery, that had generously undertaken to support a female missionary who is now laboring in Egypt, have liberally and promptly made every remittance as it was needed. The Ladies' Missionary Society of Allegheny; the General Missionary Society, under the auspices of Mrs. Hanna, of Washington, Pa., and many others, have done much and well during the year. Sabbath schools, also, have had their attention called to this subject, and the opportunity has been more and more afforded them to manifest their interest in it, and to contribute to it; and the result has happily been the placing of several thousand dollars in the treasury from the children of our church.

The Paisley Ladies' Missionary Society, Scotland, and the British and Foreign and American Bible Societies have continued their usual liberal aid—the former, for sustaining the girls' schools in Alexandria, Egypt, and both the latter for circulating the Holy Scriptures, especially in the Arabic tongue. In this great work, also, Dr. William Gibson, of Jamestown, Pa., has borne a most munificent and generous part. The Turkish Missions Aid Society have shown their usual kindness.

BEQUESTS.

Much help has been derived during the year, again, from the sacred effort of departing Christian men and women to place Christ and his cause among their heirs. Yet it is painful to notice that sometimes moneys thus left are long reaching our treasury, and in some instances are prevented or lost altogether. The Board would respectfully suggest:

First. That in cases where persons may be able to distribute their offerings to the Lord's cause themselves while still living, that they will endeavor to do so.

Second. That when the circumstances will not permit this, that every one will make his or her will as promptly as possible, remembering that in some States, as in Pennsylvania, if a person dies within thirty days after the will is made, the bequests to benevolent objects are made invalid.

We gratefully mention the following bequests:

SUMMARY.

The Foreign Mission work of the church is as follows: Missions, 2, Egypt and India; mission stations, 48; foreign missionaries, 23 (ordained ministers, 13; unmarried females, 10); native ordained, 6; licensed, 7; teachers and helpers, 125; total laborers, 165; average attendance at native churches on Sabbath, 2,541; communicants, 1,218; increase during the year (by profession, 190; certificate, 45), 235; decrease (by death, 16; removals, 28; suspension, 37), 81; baptisms, 171; scholars in schools, 3,702; scholars in Sabbath schools, 1,589; theological students (India, 9; Egypt, 6), 15; contributions, $6,246; tuition fees, $3,759; value of mission property, $69,210; average contribution of every native communicant to the cause of Christ during the year, over five dollars; in Egypt, over six dollars and a half.

THE BOARD.

The terms of Rev. James Crowe, William Getty and Thomas Stinson expire at this meeting of the Assembly.

It is with much regret the Board report the resignation of the treasurership by Mr. William Getty. As one of the oldest members of the Board in service, and always regular and prompt in his attendance upon the meetings, he was ever a valuable aid to his brethren. In his acquaintance with business and his love of the mission cause, he discharged the laborious and often perplexing duties of the treasurership, which he has filled for several years, with ability and success, and that, until recently, without any remuneration. In parting with Mr. Getty the Board desire to place on record before the Assembly and the churches its grateful sense of his services and his worth. Rev. J. B. Dales was appointed to fill the place for the time.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following recommendations are respectfully submitted to the consideration of the Assembly:

First. That the report of the Board be approved; that 3,000 copies be directed to be published, and circulated as widely as possible in all the congregations, and that every minister of the church urge that it be read with careful attention.

Second. That devout thanksgiving be rendered to God for his continued favor in sparing the lives of our missionaries, and in giving in all parts of our missionary fields encouraging returns for the efforts put forth. And that special thanks be given to the Maharajah Dhuleep Singh, of England; to David Stuart, Esq., of Liverpool, and to the various American and foreign institutions and individuals alike, that have so generously contributed to us funds and important facilities for carrying forward our great work.

Third. That Miss Rosa A. McCullough be appointed to the mission in India; and in view of the great need there is of reinforcements, one male and an additional female missionary be sent to that field during the year; that the same number of new laborers be sent to Egypt; that Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Martin and Miss Eliza F. Johnston be recommended to return at the earliest time in their power to their respective places of labor, and that the moneys that will be required for having all this done be appropriated by this Assembly.

Fourth. That the following appropriations be made:

To Egypt	$28,465 50
To India	22,000 00
To send out new missionaries	3,000 00
To return any now in this country	1,500 00
To support children in this country	1,000 00
To refund money borrowed by the Board	5,000 00
To meet deficit of last year	4,219 44
Miscellaneous	1,200 00
	$66,384 94

Fifth. That special care be taken to have only such persons appointed to vacancies in the Board as will probably attend the meetings, and thus prevent the perplexities that so often arise from there not being a quorum, even when the most important matters may require consideration.

By order of the Board. W. W. BARR, President.
J. B. DALES, Cor. Sec.

REPORT OF THE BOARD AND OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

The Board and General Committee of Home Missions would respectfully present to the General Assembly the following report:

A.—REPORT OF THE BOARD.

A few extracts from the report of the Board, as submitted to the General Committee, will convey some idea of the progress of the work during the year now closing.

The last General Assembly granted aid to 197 stations under the care of 48 Presbyteries. From four of these stations no reports have been received. The reports of sixty-three others are incomplete, embracing only a part of the year—nineteen being for one quarter, thirteen for two, and thirty-one for three quarters. In the stations from which reports have been received there is a membership of 10,287, while the average attendance upon divine ordinances on the Lord's day has been 17,417. The additions to the church have been 698 on profession and 948 on certificate. The decrease by death and removal has been 560. In the Sabbath Schools connected with these stations, there has been an average attendance of 10,876 pupils. During the year these stations have contributed to the Boards of the church $5,394, and for the support of their own pastors or missionaries, $52,158. These figures show the membership to be 849; the average attendance to have been 1,080; the additions on profession, 191; on certificate, 366; the decrease, 8; the contributions to the Boards, $814; and for the support of their own pastors or missionaries, $2,389—more than during the preceding year. By a reference to the summary appended to the statistical tables of this report, it will be seen that the number of members, the attendance of Sabbath School scholars, and the amount contributed to the support of their own pastors or missionaries, is considerably in excess of any previous year; that the accessions to the church have been, with but two exceptions, larger than they have ever been, while the contributions to the Boards have been greater than at any time since the commencement of the commercial embarrassment that has for years rested upon the country. In estimating the value of these gratifying results, the circumstances of these congregations or stations must be taken into the account. Fully one-third of them have no church building, but meet in school houses, rented halls, barns or private dwellings; often inconvenient, badly located and uncomfortable. Many have no fixed pastor, and consequently do not enjoy the advantages of careful pastoral supervision. A considerable number of them are supplied only one-half, one-third or one-fourth of the time. They are subject to disappointment, and often for months have no one to break unto them the bread of life. None of them have the prestige of assured success; few of them are of sufficient age to derive any advantage from the natural growth of the church. All of them are weak numerically and financially. The facts, then, developed by the reports of the past year, when viewed in their proper light, certainly show a degree of efficiency in this that is fully equal to any other department of church service.

Special Missions.—The following stations were placed under this head by the last Assembly:

Omaha, Presbytery of Nebraska.—Rev. D. R. Miller has been laboring efficiently in this difficult field during the year. Under his ministry there has been considerable increase in the membership. The Sabbath School and prayer meetings have been well attended. The average of the contributions for all purposes, $14.73 per member.

Topeka, Presbytery of Kansas.—The past year has been an unfortunate one for this important and growing field. A considerable portion of the time, it has been wholly unoccupied or visited only by occasional supplies. Notwithstanding this it has lately been represented as being in a more hopeful condition than in former years. The city is growing rapidly—is, in fact, the most prosperous in the State. With a prudent, faithful missionary, properly supported, there is reason to hope that we may yet have a self-sustaining church in that place.

Burlington, Presbytery of Keokuk.—Rev. J. A. Pollock, who entered upon this field at the commencement of the year, has been laboring with encouraging success. The congregation has grown in membership and attendance. The Sabbath School and prayer meetings are prospering. "The people are alive and earnest, and are hopeful and willing to work for success." The congregation is engaged in the erection of a church building, and anticipate its early completion. Thus one serious drawback to their ultimate success will soon be removed.

Digitized by Google

Indianapolis, Presbytery of Indiana.—Rev. S. A. Buck has been faithfully laboring in this field since the beginning of the year. Owing to the events of the preceding year, the congregation was somewhat reduced in numbers and much discouraged. Our young brother was thus placed in a trying position. He, however, reports a marked improvement in the attendance upon the services of the Sabbath, the weekly prayer meeting and the Sabbath School, and that the people are more hopeful as to the future. In addition to the regular services in the church, he has been preaching to good audiences at an out station on the south side of the city.

Port Huron, Presbytery of Detroit.—Under the pastoral labors of Rev. T. W. Monteith, this important station has made considerable progress during the year. There has been an increase in the membership and attendance; also in the Sabbath School and contributions. Under the guidance and with the assistance of the Board of Church Extension, it is believed that they will be able to relieve themselves shortly of the debt upon their church building which has been for several years such a serious obstacle in the way of their prosperity.

Oshkosh, Presbytery of Wisconsin.—Rev. W. A. Spalding entered upon his work in this field about the middle of the first quarter, and continued his labors until the close of the third. Convinced that it was his duty to accept the charge of the congregation at Oskaloosa, Presbytery of Des Moines, the Board reluctantly released him from his engagement at Oshkosh, where he evidently was doing good service, and appointed Rev. W. H. Ferguson for the remainder of the year. The field is a difficult one, and does not promise to become self-sustaining in the near future; yet we have a considerable number of earnest and zealous people there, with a church building free from debt. And with a faithful missionary properly sustained, there is reason to hope for ultimate success. The point is an important one in view of its relations to the other parts of the State.

Chase City and Stanton River, Va., Presbytery of Mansfield.—Rev. Matthew Clarke, who has been in this field since the beginning of the year, reports, "This is one of the best mission fields I know. When I say this I refer to the colored population. There is not much prospect of gain to our church from the Southern people here, and the population from the North is limited. But then there is an unlimited field when you take the colored population into view. The fact is this is our special work; our white congregation is simply a band of workers training and qualifying themselves by their own religious services for more efficient work among the colored people." In view of the peculiar state of the mission and its importance, the Board, in conjunction with the Freedmen's Board, arranged for the support of brother Clarke, who is evidently doing a good work.

Chicago, Presbytery of Chicago.—Under the earnest ministry of Rev. W. T. Meloy, D. D., there has been gratifying and substantial progress in this great and needy field. In a recent letter he says, "I do think the day is growing brighter, and that we will soon have a self-sustaining congregation here." A member of the Board, who recently visited that city, speaks quite encouragingly of the prospects of the church there.

Warm Springs Indian Mission, Presbytery of Oregon.—Rev. R. N. Fee and wife, appointed to this mission, arrived at the Agency early in May, last year, and immediately entered upon their labors. It will be remembered that the Indians on this reservation are the remnants of three distinct tribes, each speaking their own language, and in a measure having their own customs and beliefs; about one hundred from a fourth tribe have been recently placed upon the reservation. Most of the instruction has to be imparted through interpreters. About three-fifths of those on the reservation are what is termed "blanket Indians." "They do not show many marks of civilization." During the last few months there has been some improvement among them. These Indians mostly reside in the northern part of the reservation, about twenty miles from the Agency. Their chiefs and head men are anxious to have a school and church among them. Brother Fee suggests that an effort be made to secure an appropriation from the government for the support of a school for these people.

During the year the labors of the missionaries have met with an encouraging degree of success, especially among the Indians at or in the vicinity of the

Digitized by Google

Agency. Forty-two have been added to the church, so that the little congregation there gathered out of heathenism now numbers sixty-three. In the judgment of the missionary a Christian young man should be secured to act as teacher among the Indians north of the Agency, who would ultimately become a missionary to them.

Toledo, Presbytery of Sidney.—Owing to the condition of our treasury, it was not considered advisable to attempt to establish a mission there.

Oakland, Presbytery of San Francisco.—For the reason just mentioned, this field, which has been inviting our efforts for several years, remains unoccupied by us. The brethren of the Presbytery regard it not only important but unusually promising, and ask an appropriation in order that the work may be commenced next year.

Financial Condition of the Board.—On the 30th of April, last year, the Board was $3,313.75 in debt; this was not fully paid until the 12th of August; the obligations which matured on the 30th of June were not all paid until the 6th of December; those maturing on the 30th of September were not all paid until the 31st of March; those which became due on the 31st of December were not fully paid until the 30th of April; of the claims that became due on the 31st of March we have paid $1,099.58, leaving a balance of $8,391.66 unpaid, and our treasury overdrawn $65.30, making our actual debt $8,456.96. And in this connection it must not be forgotten that in a few weeks about $9,200 will become due; so that to meet these claims with a reasonable degree of promptness $17,500 must come into our treasury within the next ninety days. On the 30th of April, 1877, we closed the year with a debt of $1,306.81; on the 30th of April, 1878, our debt was $3,313.75. It is now, as just stated, $8,456.96. Thus the difference between the appropriations and our receipts has been growing larger and larger every year for the last three. We are, then, confronted with the painful truth that as a church we must either contract our Home Mission work or exercise greater liberality towards this vitally important service. This is especially unfortunate in view of the fact that the past year has been one of more than ordinary prosperity in the work itself, while the fields that invite our efforts are rapidly growing in importance and influence. All reports from the West confirm the belief that never before has the tide of immigration been so large as it is at present. If we cannot or will not follow this moving mass of population with the ordinances of God's house, much that may justly be claimed as our own will be lost, while opportunities for extending the church and saving souls that may never return, will pass from us. This state of things should receive the careful and prayerful consideration of the General Committee and the Assembly.

The contributions during the year have been: From Presbyteries, $23,382.81; from Sabbath Schools, $614.76; from Ladies' Missionary Societies, $852.84; from Legacies, $2,173.62; from Miscellaneous sources, $4,850.67; in all, $31,874.70. Obligations amounting to $31,940.00 have been paid during the year. By a reference to the summary, it will be seen that the income from Presbyteries has been $1,373.79; from Sabbath Schools, $264.79; from Legacies, $1,737.68 less, and from Ladies' Societies $172.84, and Miscellaneous sources $2,507.81 more, than during the previous year. The actual decrease, therefore, in our receipts as compared with the previous year, being only $696.11, while compared with those of the year closing April 30th, 1877, there has been an increase of $2,124.00. The deficiency in our receipts, therefore, does not fully account for our increased indebtedness. The explanation will be found in the large appropriations made last year, and in the fact that there has been a more general fulfillment of the conditions attached to these appropriations, showing that a larger amount of service upon which the claims are based has been rendered.

The term of service of the following members of the Board will expire with the close of the present year, viz.: Rev. W. J. Reid, D. D., Rev. W. S. Owens, and R. A. Cunningham, Esq.

B.—REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE.

The twentieth annual meeting of the General Committee was held in the First Church, Mercer, Pa., beginning Wednesday, May 21st. Fifty-one delegates were present, representing all the Presbyteries except Argyle, Concordia, Minnesota, Oregon and San Francisco. The Committee was organized by the election of Rev. J. G. Carson, D. D., of the Presbytery of Xenia, Chairman; and Rev. Andrew Renwick, of the Presbytery of Monmouth, Assistant Secretary. The business presented received careful attention, and the following action, adopted with great unanimity, is submitted for the consideration of the Assembly.

The amount of money desired for the coming year was $46,250. The amount granted was $39,885, including $3,000 placed at the disposal of the Board. In view of our greatly increased indebtedness, and the experience of the past as to the probable contributions of the church, the committee was constrained to reduce the appropriations, in many instances, considerably below the amounts judged by the Presbyteries to be essential to the highest efficiency of the work, and to refuse some altogether. For the same reasons several new enterprises, deemed promising and important, could not be inaugurated.

The names of 135 ministers and probationers were reported, as required by the rules of the Assembly. A number of these could not, owing to circumstances, fulfill regular appointments, and were referred back to their own Presbyteries. There were, however, 119 names for the whole or part of the year, equivalent to the full time of 115 men. The Presbyteries applied for only 68 men, although reporting that vacant congregations required the full time of 90.

Inasmuch as there was the full time of 47 men at the disposal of the committee in excess of the requests of the Presbyteries, it was considered just to refuse employment to students who had not completed their course, and to limit the appointments of all others to three quarters, except in cases where the missionary was desired by some particular station or Presbytery for the whole year. Even under this arrangement some could receive appointments for but two quarters and some for only one, while the large number of 27 brethren obtained no employment whatever. A majority of these are not only willing to labor, but also qualified to render efficient service. Can the church rest satisfied to have so much of her effective force partially or wholly unemployed?

The manner in which the means and men at our disposal have been distributed will appear from the following tables:

III.—SPECIAL MISSIONS.

The following action was taken with reference to certain missions whose claims were considered by the General Committee:

1. That $175 be appropriated to the congregation of Lumber City, Brookville Presbytery.

2. That $750 be appropriated to the First Church, Chicago, Presbytery of Chicago.

3. That $600 for supply, or $1,000 for settlement, be appropriated to the congregation of Omaha, Nebraska Presbytery; and that the appointment of a missionary be referred to the Board of Home Missions.

Digitized by Google

4. That $850 be appropriated to the congregation of Port Huron, Presbytery of Detroit.
5. That the General Committee should not appoint a General Missionary for the Presbytery of Concordia.
6. That $1,000 be appropriated to the congregation of Indianapolis, Presbytery of Indiana; and that Rev. W. P. McNary be appointed missionary to that field for the year.
7. That the application of Topeka, Presbytery of Kansas, be referred to the Board, with instructions to revive the work there, if practicable.
8. That $750 be appropriated to Burlington, Presbytery of Keokuk, and that Rev. J. A. Pollock be appointed missionary there for the year.
9. That $200 be appropriated to Chase City and Stanton River, on condition that the Board of Freedmen's Missions sustain its work there.
10. That the application of Portland, Presbytery of Oregon, be passed over for this year.
11. That $600 be appropriated to Los Angeles, Presbytery of San Francisco, and that Mr. J. M. Hervey be appointed missionary there for one year.
12. That the application of Oshkosh, Presbytery of Wisconsin, be referred to the Board of Home Missions.

IV.—MISCELLANEOUS.

The following resolutions were adopted, and are recommended to the Assembly:
1. That it would not be wise to transfer to the Board of Home Missions, or to any local Board, the work of the General Committee.
2. That at its next meeting, and annually thereafter, the General Committee shall designate what missions shall be regarded as Special Missions, and shall refer such stations to the Board of Home Missions for a given term of years in each case; and it shall be the duty of the Board to make appropriations of money and appointments of missionaries to such missions during the specified term.
3. There shall be added to the General Committee one delegate from the Board of Home Missions, to be elected annually by the Board.
4. While we would not affirm that the tithe law, as embodied in the Mosaic institutions, is binding under the present dispensation, yet the law of Christ does bind his people, and all men to contribute regularly of their worldly substance "according as the Lord hath prospered them," for religious and benevolent purposes. And when we consider that the principle embodied in the tithe law was evidently acted on by the worshipers of God long before the days of Moses, and that Christians, being relieved of much that was burdensome and expensive under the former dispensation, and exalted to far higher degrees of light and privilege, are under greatly increased obligations in this respect—it is at least safe to say that this law affords a proper guide in this matter; therefore,

Resolved, That in the judgment of this Assembly Christians ought not, in their contributions for benevolent and religious purposes, to fall below one-tenth of their yearly income.

A. RENWICK, Assistant Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSION.

The Board has held fourteen meetings for the transaction of business during the year. A monthly report has been received from each station, and from each department of the work.

The missionaries and teachers have all been mercifully spared in life and health. Although thousands fell at their side by the pestilence, it did not come near them. Thanks to a merciful Providence.

PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

Knoxville.—The religious work has been faithfully and earnestly carried on during the entire year. The pulpit of the college congregation was occupied every Sabbath, with an average attendance for the year of 149 at the morning service and 88 in the afternoon. The morning service consists of Sabbath School and sermon. The afternoon of sermon or lecture and gospel readings. In the latter exercise the audience takes a prominent part. In the Sabbath School the missionaries and teachers are all engaged, and are faithfully assisted by the members of the President's and Dr. Reed's families. The statistical report of the congregation is as follows: Increase by profession, 8; by certificate, 7; decrease, 5; infant baptisms, 8; adult baptisms, 7. Contributions—Foreign Missions, $6.00; Home Missions, $5.00; Freedmen's Missions, $5.00; Church Extension, $5.00; Education, $4.00; Publication, $3.00; Assembly's Fund, $3.00; Aged Ministers' Fund, $4.00; congregational expenses, $63.00; total, $98.00. Average per member, $1.84. The membership is 53.

During the school term Dr. Reed gave regularly his morning theological lectures. Two weekly prayer meetings were held. One is the regular congregational prayer meeting; the other is a students' prayer meeting. This meeting was established since the new year, and meets at the close of the school hour in the afternoon. It is composed of the students, and conducted by them, but generally under the inspection of Miss E. B. Wallace.

In the branch mission in East Knoxville, two Sabbath Schools are conducted every Sabbath by Miss Mary Hezlep, teacher. The morning school was established on the first Sabbath of January, and was intended for the benefit of those entirely destitute of religious instruction. The attendance and interest in these services were truly wonderful. The smallest attendance was 32. This was the number at the organization. The largest attendance at any one session was 180.

Educational.—The enrollment in the college for the year was 168, and in the branch school 70; total, 238. The work done in the school has been systematic and thorough. The grades are higher than last year, and a correspondingly better class of students has been in attendance. That the college is doing good work, is evident from the fact that over thirty students received good certificates last fall from the County Superintendent of Knox county, and nearly all of these were employed as teachers. Their school terms averaged from two to five months, and their wages from $20.00 to $45.00 per month.

These nearly all came into the classes in the college again as soon as their schools closed. It was a noticeable and encouraging fact that students of Knoxville College were generally preferred by those who were seeking teachers.

The branch school is altogether primary, but has well supplied a need in that part of the city, and has been faithfully and efficiently managed.

It may be that in the near future circumstances may so change as to render the continuance of the secular school in East Knoxville unnecessary. In such event the Board will close it, and continue only the purely missionary work there.

Library.—During October last $200 were received from the estate of Mrs. Jane Brown, of Harlansburg, Pa. The bequest was made for the purpose of purchasing books for the library in the college. The whole amount was thus expended. The books thus secured, with an additional $50 worth, donated by the Board of Publication at Pittsburgh, made a very handsome and valuable addition to the library. Thus year by year, and little by little, the library has grown until it has become an important agency for increasing the efficiency and popularity of the college.

Dormitories.—The dormitories have been occupied during the greater part of the year, and prove very useful in securing a good class of students from a distance, who would not be able to attend were it not for this accommodation.

Industrial Department.—This department was continued under the direction of Mrs. M. J. Reed. It was kept open five months during the term. There were two classes conducted, with an aggregate enrollment of 72. "The girls took a deep interest in the work, and made good progress." This department received and distributed to the needy nine boxes of clothing and supplies during the year; also gave aid to thirty-seven poor families from the means secured by sale of articles made by the girls. It is a very important agency in the work. Mrs. Reed was granted a salary of $100 for the last year.

New House.—A small cottage was erected last fall on the college grounds for Dr. Reed's family. This became necessary because of the limited capacity of the family departments in the college. The total cost of the house was $850.

Examination and Closing.—The examination of classes was held May 14th, 15th, 16th, 19th and 20th. The closing exercises of the term were held May 21st.

Missionaries.—Rev. J. S. McCulloch, President of the college, Misses E. B.

Wallace and Mattie Baldridge, Miss Mary Hezlep, teacher in branch mission, Rev. S. B. Reed, D. D., pastor of college church and theological teacher, and Mrs. M. J. Reed, principal of the industrial department. Two colored students were appointed tutors during the latter part of the term, and gave a good degree of satisfaction. They each heard one or more recitations, daily, in the primary department.

CHASE CITY.

The missionaries at this station are Prof. J. J. Ashenhurst and Misses Jennie McNeil and Etta Ashenhurst, and Rev. Matthew Clarke, for a portion of his time.

The school occupied the new building on the 1st of September, and was full to overflowing during the entire term. The total enrollment for the year was 218. The total average daily attendance for the year was 98. The educational work has been faithfully and efficiently performed. Some of the students of last year taught short terms in the public schools during the early fall, then returned to school, and are now again employed in the county in teaching. There is a want being supplied by this school in that section which has long been felt. The religious work as well is being faithfully performed. A weekly prayer meeting is held which is generally well attended. The Sabbath School had a daily average attendance during the year of 89. It meets every Sabbath, and is superintended by Mr. Ashenhurst. Bro. Clarke preaches or lectures every alternate Sabbath afternoon in the chapel, and in his absence Mr. Ashenhurst conducts a gospel service. Bro. Clarke also delivers an address every Tuesday evening at prayer meeting.

It is gratifying to be able to state that the opposition, with which our work met at this point when it was first organized, has entirely ceased. The mission is in almost universal favor, both with the colored and white population. The Southern people in the community volunteer testimony to the good that is being done by the mission, and say, "We can see a change in the morals of the colored people, which they very much needed."

VICKSBURG.

The Board, after the last Assembly, at once adopted measures to carry out the order and reopen the mission in Vicksburg, but before a suitable missionary could be secured the yellow fever plague broke out, and all effort was for the time suspended. After health was restored to the city and the South, negotiations were again entered into, when it was decided, in order to avoid making any mistake, it would be better to have the field inspected by some one suitable and interested in the work. Rev. Dr. Reed was requested to visit the field. This he did about the 1st of April. He spent some time there, and found the facts as they had been represented to us. There are some three elders and some thirty members of our church there. They are most anxious for a missionary, and the field is very needy. School work is not needed, but a missionary badly. We therefore recommend the reopening of the mission, and ask an appropriation sufficient to secure a laborer for that field.

Property.—The property at Vicksburg was sold for debt, and bought by our agent for the Board. The property is well worth the claim of the Board against it, but a present expense of $328.60 had to be incurred to secure it. This will, of course, not be lost eventually, but was not provided for in our last year's appropriation. The property is now rented for $25 per month.

There has been no change in the status of the property at other stations since the meeting of the last General Assembly.

FINANCIAL CONDITION.

The receipts for the year ending April 30th, are as follows:

From	Presbyteries	$5,652 28
"	Congregations	182 25
"	Sabbath Schools	288 12
"	Societies	190 95
"	Individuals	1,411 05
"	Bequests	250 00
"	Legacies	325 00

Although greatly embarrassed during the year, and compelled to borrow to pay the missionaries, we have received enough in the last months to pay all our debt, except $1,000, now in bank.

At the 1st of June there will be due to the missionaries and teachers $868, to pay which we have in the treasury only $599.99.

MISCELLANEOUS.—NEW FIELDS.

Blue Stone.—During the whole year this locality has been pressing its claims on the attention of the Board. It is located fourteen miles from Chase City, in the bounds of the Stanton congregation, and thickly settled with colored people. A Sabbath School has been kept up part of the time by some members of the United Presbyterian Church there. Dr. E. P. McLean has charge of it at present. The field is needy and promising. The people in the vicinity promise material aid in securing suitable premises, in case a mission is established.

Clarksville, Va.—This place is eight miles from the last named locality. It is a town of over 1,000 inhabitants; is situated on the Roanoke river, at the junction of the Dan and Stanton rivers, and is a place of considerable importance. The colored population of the town is large, and the surrounding country very thickly settled with colored people. They are altogether destitute of any religious instruction. No church has any mission either in or for many miles of the place. A day school for the colored people is kept open a few months in the year, and was taught the last term by Mr. Jacob Armstrong, an elder of the Stanton United Presbyterian Church. We have been informed recently that he and a colored student of the Chase City school, who is now teaching in the vicinity of Clarksville, have opened a Sabbath School in the town. Their effort is meeting with some encouragement.

There is in the town a very valuable property, consisting of four acres of land, having erected on it seven small dwellings and a large, four-storied substantial brick building, 50x75 feet, all in good condition. This building was erected some years ago for a tobacco manufactory, at a cost of over $10,000. It is now unoccupied and offered for sale. The agent informs us that the whole property can be purchased for $2,000. The Board considers both these fields very needy and specially important, and would respectfully ask the advice of the Assembly in regard to future action. Other fields have been brought to the attention of the Board during the year, but we only mention the above as, in our judgment, the most promising.

Vacancies and Appointments in the Board.—Two vacancies occurred during the year. James Richey, Jr., resigned, and A. P. Burchfield was appointed in his place. Rev. D. S. Kennedy removed from the vicinity, and Rev. D. W. Carson was appointed to the vacancy, till the meeting of the Assembly.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The Board respectfully asks for an appropriation of $10,000, additional to the amount which may be deemed necessary for the mission in Vicksburg.

VACANCIES.

The term of office of Rev. J. T. Cooper, D. D., Rev. J. A. Gordon and A. P. Burchfield, appointed in place of James Richey, Jr., expires with this year.

By order of the Board.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension respectfully submits the following statement of its work for the year:

The year has beeen one of peculiar difficulty. The instructions given by the General Assembly have required large payments to certain important missions. It has also been necessary to help some older congregations in order to save them from destructive loss by debts contracted in more prosperous days. At the same time the continued financial depression has caused the receipts to be much below the demands upon the Board. The consequence is that the work has been limited to a narrower field than is the desire of the Board. It has not been possible to encourage applications from the many mission stations which are suffering from the want of suitable church premises. It is the desire of the Board to distribute the funds committed to it over the largest possible territory, and to give the preference to the strictly mission congregations. It is hoped that we have nearly reached the period when help will be given exclusively to the erection of churches in new congregations, and not for the payment of debts in older ones. Anything the General Assembly may be able to do to secure this will be a benefit to the work.

RECEIPTS.

The receipts, exclusive of the balance from last year, have been :

For the General Fund—
From Presbyteries	$9,105 00
From Sabbath Schools	256 10
From Societies	90 05
From Individuals	562 51
From Legacies	185 60
From Rents	565 55
		$10,764 81
For the Loan Fund—
From Presbyteries	888 12
From Sales of Property	289 15
From Loans repaid	1,958 04
		3,130 31
From the "Hanna Fund"	600 00
From Money borrowed	1,000 00
Total receipts		$15,495 12

The larger amount reported last year was because of special collections reported, some of which had been made in 1877. The present year shows an increase of $1,058.04 in the contributions of Presbyteries. The receipts from Sabbath Schools and Societies are but a small share of their total gifts, and much below the proper proportion of Church Extension as a part of the mission work of the church. The same may be said of the gifts of some of the Presbyteries.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The following appropriations have been made :

Congregation.	Presbytery.	Donation.	Loan.
Albia	Des Moines	$600 00
Belmore	Sidney	730 00
Burlington	Keokuk	2,500 00
Carnahan's Creek	Concordia	350 00	$150 00
Chicago	Chicago	641 00	778 00
Hepburn	Nebraska	300 00
Lenox	Des Moines	300 00	200 00
McKeesport	Westmoreland	1,010 00
Santa Ana	San Francisco	200 00
Sharon	Mercer	650 00
Wampum	Beaver Valley	211 40
Whitinsville	Boston	700 00	300 00
		$8,192 40	$1,428 00
Total			$9,620 40

Digitized by Google

The amount granted is less than in former years, because of the unwillingness of the Board to promise more than can be paid within a reasonable time. To do so would only produce disappointment and injury. The circumstances of the congregations helped have required the appropriations to be chiefly for donations.

FINANCIAL CONDITION.

The present liabilities of the Board are :

Appropriations not paid	$4,350 00
Loans from the "Hanna Fund"	1,800 00
Note without interest, and subject to call	400 00
Total	$6,550 00

To meet this, there is a balance in the treasury of $1,999.66. To avoid a very serious deficiency and the attending loss, contributions should be made early in the year.

PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

The following detailed statement will give the grounds on which the appropriations were made, and also show the progress of the work :

Albia.—In 1872 the Board made a loan to Albia, which remains unpaid. The Presbytery represents that in consequence of failures and removals, the congregation is unable to meet its obligations. At its request the loan has been changed to a donation, provided all other debts shall be paid within one year.

Belmore.—Belmore is a new town on the Cincinnati, Dayton & Michigan Railroad, at the crossing of the Baltimore & Ohio, 25 miles north of Lima, in the "Black Swamp" timber lands. The surrounding country is an open missionary field in great need. The evangelical doctrines are cordially received, and the labor of our ministers is welcomed. Evening services at Belmore, conducted by Rev. J. C. Bigham, were greatly blessed, and a very interesting mission was established in connection with the congregation of Leipsic. But little further progress could be made, because a "union church" was their only place of meeting. During the past year this house was about to be sold for claims against it, and the Board bought it for $730.00. Notes amounting to about $500 were assigned with the house, but very little will be realized from them. The property is a good one, in a desirable location, and could not even now be replaced for twice the price paid for it. By the prompt action of the Board, this mission is secured in a home.

Burlington.—The success of the effort to establish a congregation in the inviting city of Burlington, Iowa, depended upon the possibility of obtaining a house of worship. The number of members was small, but with their pastor, they gave themselves very heartily to the work, with the most gratifying results. A lot 50 feet by 118 was secured, and a house 34 by 62 feet will soon be completed, free of debt. The movement has been kindly supported by the community, and the congregation has every prospect of success. The economy of liberal help at this early stage cannot be doubted.

Chicago.—The basement of the Chicago church is still used by the city for school purposes, but the arrangement probably will not be continued beyond the present year. The Board has paid $319.00 interest on the first mortgage, and has recently received $291.00, the proceeds of city scrip for six months rent. The mortgage has been reduced $1,100 during the year, viz.: $350.00 by special donations, and $750.00 by the Synod of Illinois. The contributions of the Synod for the Loan Fund for the relief of the congregation have fallen very much below the amount anticipated. Inasmuch as the Board holds the title, and is responsible for the prompt payment of the interest, much embarrassment arises, and therefore specific instructions are asked. The amount against the property on mortgage is $4,900.00 ; the claim of the Board for payments on loans, not including $1,450.00 interest paid, is $4,079.00.

Carnahan's Creek is in the great mission field of Kansas, forty miles distant from any of our churches, and has undisputed possession of its territory. With commendable spirit they have raised $800.00 for the house.

Digitized by Google

Des Moines.—The congregation of Des Moines has entered its very suitable, comfortable and desirable church, built at a cost of about $11,000.00. The most gratifying results are already visible, and the action of the Assembly, in granting the help without which the former hopeless struggle would have been continued, is fully vindicated.

Hepburn.—The congregation of North Page established a mission station at Hepburn, a thriving railroad town within its bounds. By the aid of the Board a very comfortable house has been erected, and an important field secured.

Lawrence.—The congregation of Lawrence, Mass., has been greatly revived under the pastoral labers of Rev. R. A. McAyeal, D. D. A debt of over $4,000.00 still remains, and application has been made for additional help. The field is a very important one, and there is ample encouragement as to the ultimate success of the congregation. But exposed to peculiarly strong disintegrating influences, without surrounding support, pecuniary or moral, the members dependent on very low wages, the removal of this debt seems to be beyond their ability. The Board asks specific instructions.

Lenox.—The congregation of Lenox, Taylor Co., Iowa, is in an energetic and prosperous community, and has shown the true spirit of mission work. With a house nearly completed, it has good prospects of continued growth and usefulness.

McKeesport.—The congregation of McKeesport had just completed a substantial church, when the members were overwhelmed by the financial disasters which fell on our manufacturing interests. A combination of other unfavorable circumstances made their case well nigh hopeless. Taking heart by the aid given by the Board, the debt has been nearly removed, and the spiritual life of the members greatly strengthened. Of the amount given, $510.00 were by the Presbytery of Westmoreland.

Port Huron.—The Board has completed the payments on the Port Huron property, and has received a deed in fee simple. It is the agreement that the title shall be restored, subject to the regulations of the Board and the General Assembly, on the payment of $7,000.00 by the congregation. It was deemed better not to make final arrangements for the payments until the congregation has had time to increase in strength.

San Jose.—The San Jose mission has built an attractive house, 50 by 72 feet, at a cost of $6,500.00. A debt of near $1,900.00 remained, but with the income from the house on the rear of the lot, this need give them no trouble.

Santa Ana and Wampum.—The appropriations to Santa Ana, Cal., and to Wampum, Pa., were supplemental to aid granted last year.

Sharon.—The appropriation to Sharon, Pa., was made after a careful investigation by the Corresponding Secretary in person. The present embarrassment of the congregation is the result of mismanagement many years ago. The contributions of the Presbytery for the coming year, estimated at $500.00, and $150.00 were granted on conditions which will secure the removal of the debt.

Whitinsville.—The congregation of Whitinsville, Mass., numbers 94 members, being an increase of 21 during the year. Separated from any opportunity to worship according to their convictions, they look to us for help. They have received the favor of the people about them, and have shown their self-sacrificing spirit by paying for a lot and subscribing out of their low wages $1,670 for a church in which to meet at their own will.

SPECIAL.

Boston.—The Corresponding Secretary visited the Boston congregation according to the instructions of the General Assembly, and will report to you. As the debt is very large, and its removal by the congregation in its present condition is altogether hopeless, it will be necessary for the General Assembly to decide what course should be taken in reference to it. The Board therefore thought it better not to take any action.

THE LOAN FUND.

The receipts for the Load Fund have been $3,180.31, of which $1,958.04 were loans repaid. The fund now amounts to $54,982.11, including the Illinois loan fund, $2,839.50.

Digitized by Google

The matured loans unpaid amount to $12,217.15. The Board has pressed the payment as much as possible, but the replies are that payments at the present time are not possible. The extension of time has been granted in a number of cases, and several applications for the release of the loan in whole or in part are before the Board. In view of the universal depression, other applications will doubtless be made. The General Assembly is therefore asked to define the course of action to be followed.

Loans Repaid.—The congregations of Beaver Falls, Edgerton and Westminster have repaid their loans; Aledo, Alexis, Americus, Arkansas City, Chetopa, Cuba, Kansas City, Pawnee City and Winchester have made payments.

SECURITIES RECEIVED.

The following securities have been received during the year:

MORTGAGES FOR DONATIONS.

REAL ESTATE.

The house of the former congregation of Centralia was sold during the year, and one-half the proceeds given to the Loan Fund.

The proceeds of the property of the dissolved congregation of Waterford, Ind., have also been received for the Loan Fund.

The congregation of Shannon, in the Presbytery of Chicago, has been dissolved, and its property, by deed, transferred to the Board.

No progress has been made in the disposal of the property previously reported.

CHURCH PLANS.

Correspondence has been opened with an architect concerning plans for churches. The propriety of publishing these in the annual report is submitted to the General Assembly.

ESTIMATES.

The Board requests the same appropriation as in former years, and also asks that measures be taken to secure to this work its proper ratio of the contributions of the church.

MEMBERS AND VACANCIES.

During a part of the year the President of the Board, Rev. D. M. B. McLean, has been prevented by severe illness from attending the meetings. The loss of his counsels has been very much felt, and your prayers are asked for his recovery.

Rev. J. M. Johnston, having removed to another part of the church, resigned his membership, and Rev. J. M. Fulton was elected to the vacancy.

The term of office of Mr. Wm. Reed, Rev. J. M. Fulton and Rev. J. R. Kyle expires with this year.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Board.

From the above statement it appears that the Board has carried forward its work during the year in the usual way, and with about the same success as in former years. We have not accomplished as much as we hoped we could. With more generous contributions of money and original matter for publication from the church and brethren, we might have done much more.

By our constitution and charter we are required to "purchase or print and circulate the Holy Scriptures, or parts of the Holy Scriptures, in the authorized version, together with the psalms in metre according to the version approved by the United Presbyterian Church."

Also, "to select and publish such tracts, papers, periodicals and books as shall be a sound and suitable religious literature for Sabbath schools, ministers, congregations, and the community at large, and to take such measures as may be necessary for the distribution and circulation of the same."

The Board has always endeavored, to the extent of the resources placed at its disposal for the purpose, to circulate the Holy Scriptures with the psalms in metre. As the circulation of the Scriptures is an essential part of the work of the church, we trust the Assembly may be able to devise measures by which this part of our work may be greatly extended.

It is also the duty of the Board to supply our Sabbath schools with a suitable literature. Heretofore, partly on account of debt on our new building, and for other reasons, we have not always been able to have on hand such a large and choice selection of Sabbath school books, including helps for teachers and scholars, as we wished.

We propose in the future to give particular attention to this department of our work. We will keep only such books as have been selected with care and judgment, and in sufficient style and variety to suit the capacities of our children and youth.

For a time, at least, we will necessarily be largely dependent on other Boards and publishing houses for our books. But as we are persuaded that our own ministers are well qualified to furnish the manuscripts for such books as will be more suitable for us than most of those we can select from other sources, we will continue to urge and encourage them to engage more freely in the production of this kind of literature.

It should also be our aim to provide everything needed by teachers, scholars and parents as helps in Sabbath school work, such as notes, question books, &c.

If competent persons can be found to prepare these, the Board will cheerfully undertake to print and circulate them. It is a reproach to our church and ministry that while we hold, as we properly do, to principles and practices which distinguish us from other denominations of evangelical Christians, we do so little, through the press, to publish them to the world, and take so little pains to indoctrinate our youth by means of a suitable denominational literature.

In this age, when the press exerts such an important influence in forming and directing religious thought, it is idle for us to hope that we can turn it into channels favorable to our denomination and principles, while leaving it almost wholly to other denominations to supply the books for our Sabbath school libraries, and the notes and helps used by our teachers!

Could we not have "Notes," such as those of "Barnes" or "Jacobus," on every portion of Scripture, prepared by our own men, and published by our own Board, and even better adapted to our wants and work than those named, or others which are used? As the Sabbath school lessons for next year will be in Genesis and Matthew, would it not be well for the Board, under the direction of the Assembly, to attempt something in this line at once?

Hitherto we have undertaken but little in the way of colportage work. If the Assembly can make any suggestions to the Board, or can give any directions which will enable us to engage in this work and safely and successfully carry it on, our sphere of usefulness will be greatly enlarged. We ought to feel that as a church the divine Head requires us to do something commensurate with our ability in giving, through the press, an evangelical literature to the world. There are still vast multitudes in our land that can be reached only by the colporteur and tract distributor. Are we doing our part to reach these and give them needed religious instruction? If this work, in some respects missionary work of the most valuable character, was entered upon by us, would not our people freely furnish us with the means for its efficient prosecution?

Since the meeting of the last Assembly we have published the "Digest," and but little besides. We were willing and anxious to publish more than we have done, had suitable matter for the purpose been put into our hands. The Board, by means of a circular printed in the church papers during the year, called upon the brethren of the ministry more particularly, to furnish us with original tracts on subjects of religious doctrine or duty, that we might be able to supply a want that many of our ministers and people deeply feel, but we regret to say that the response to our call was not encouraging.

Having now presented our condition and work—the work that we have done and what we feel should be done—it only remains for us to make known to the Assembly our wants.

These are, chiefly, 1st. Generous contributions to enable us to do more in the way of aiding mission stations, weak Sabbath schools, destitute persons, &c., by gifts of books and tracts.

2d. Original works for publication; especially tracts and suitable books for our Sabbath school scholars and teachers.

3d. The earnest sympathy and co-operation of the church, particularly of our ministry, in every department of our work.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board.

J. C. BOYD, Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We present the following outline of our work for the year ending April 30th, 1879:

I.—BENEFICIARIES.

During the year fourteen young men, preparing for the ministry, have received aid from the Board. Thirteen theological students. Of these, seven attended the Seminary at Xenia, Ohio, and six the Seminary at Allegheny, Pa. One literary student, who was a beneficiary during the time that money was granted to college students. In accordance with the instructions of the Assembly, aid has been continued. He is now attending Westminster College.

II.—FINANCES.

The statement of our Treasurer, properly audited, accompanies this report, showing money received and disbursed as follows:

III.—THE BOARD.

Our report of last year showed an indebtedness to the funds of the Speer estate of $1,082.14. The proposition made by the Board was this: That if the church, during the year, would contribute the funds necessary to carry forward our work, on our part we would seek to collect from other sources a sufficient amount to meet remaining liabilities. The church has performed her part of this work. Our financial statement shows that the sum of $943.00 has been collected from former beneficiaries, and placed with the permanent fund of the Board. In addition, we have pledges for the payment of $700.00 on other notes held by us against former beneficiaries.

The money received from the Speer estate has been set apart as a permanent fund, and invested as follows:

First mortgage on real estate, at 8 per cent. interest	$9,800 00
Rev. G. D. Henderson's note	700 00
Temporary loans to aid students preparing for the ministry	190 00
	$10,690 00

The note given by Rev. G. D. Henderson is now in Probate Court. Its full payment depends upon the collection of a Life Policy from the Phœnix Life Insurance Company. Should we fail in making this collection, $300.00, the money retained as salary of Corresponding Secretary, will be applied on payment of this note, and the Board may sustain a loss of $400.00. We have reason to believe that the collection will be made and the note paid in full.

In view of the enlarged resources of the Board, and the evident design of Mr. Speer, through whose bequest this money has been received, we respectfully submit the question, as to the propriety of extending aid to literary students having the ministry in view, with such limitations as the Assembly may direct.

It being evident that the demands upon us will be increased, we ask that an appropriation of $6,000 be granted the Board for the coming year.

The term of office of Rev. J. A. Reynolds, Prof. E. F. Reid and Hugh Nash, expires at this time. It is for the Assembly to elect.

Respectfully submitted,

D. MACDILL, Prest.
E. F. REID, Rec. Sec.
W. T. CAMPBELL, Cor. Sec.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The Board of Ministerial Relief, in presenting to the General Assembly its Sixth Annual Report, takes great pleasure in recording a year of enlarged contributions and usefulness, and the occasion to return devout thanks to Almighty God for what he has enabled it to accomplish. Its regular quarterly meetings have been held during the year, and a good degree of interest has been manifested in its deliberations by all the members. The Executive Committee has considered all applications in the interim of Board meetings, and has managed its business as promptly as circumstances would permit.

During the year six aged ministers, and the families of eleven deceased ministers have been relieved, and we have reason to know that the assistance in every instance has been most timely. It will thus be seen that our field of operations is becoming larger every year, and the Board becoming more useful in the machinery of our church management.

In accordance with instructions from the last General Assembly, the Board prepared, on the 20th of November, 1878, an address to the church, and mailed it to nearly one thousand ministers and laymen. It set forth the needs of the Board and the action of the Assembly in the matter of contributions and endowment. We trust this address has to some extent familiarized pastors and sessions with our designs and operations, and has been the means of exciting an interest in our work. We recognize the fact that the more the church knows of our operations, the more interest they will take in the Board, and the more encouragement they will extend to it.

It may not be inappropriate to again call attention here to the following items as a guide in all cases, ordinarily, in making application for relief:

1. Grants to beneficiaries are made only on application of Presbytery. When need is known to exist in any instance, the Clerk of Presbytery will please send to the Corresponding Secretary of this Board for a blank form of application, setting forth the needs, circumstances, amount required, &c., and regularly signed by Moderator and Clerk. The Board generally is governed entirely by this application, but reserves the right to accept or reject, or alter amount, as the state of the treasury or other circumstances warrant.

2. All moneys are remitted quarterly, in June, September, December and March; when an amount is granted it is ordinarily paid in four installments, as above.

3. Grants are made always for one year. If aid is needed beyond that time, the application is to be regularly renewed, accompanied by a statement of any changes that have taken place during the year in the circumstances of the applicant.

By the accounts of the Treasurer, which have been audited and found correct, there has been received during the year:—from Presbyteries, $2,354.05; Individuals, Sabbath Schools, &c., $1,055.19; interest on funds invested, $990.18. Total, $4,399.42. The expenditures have been:—for Beneficiaries, $2,250.30; Incidental, $43.00. Total, $2,293.30. It will thus be seen that while the contributions have largely increased, the expenditures have increased correspondingly. The amount of treasury balance will be absorbed by payments which will be made in June.

We append to this report a detailed statement of contributions during the past year. It will be seen that while we have been remembered liberally by some Presbyteries, we have been entirely neglected by others. Five Presbyteries—Chillicothe, Des Moines, Minnesota, Stamford and Wisconsin, have contributed nothing; the largest amount is from the Presbytery of Philadelphia. While we have been enabled from our income to meet every pressing want, we frequently notice that Presbyteries who furnish but little to our treasury are the most urgent in their demands for aid. We would call special attention to the liberality of Miss Lilla McKindley, West Galway, N. Y., for her donation of $500.00, and also to Miss Nellie D. Small, of Mercer, Pa., for her donation of $150.00, both of which have gone to assist our endowment. Other ladies have remembered us liberally, as appears by figures appended to this report. These are worthy of all praise.

We believe that by systematic and united effort, and the proper presentation of the claims of this Board, many congregations who now contribute nothing, would give liberally and be blessed in thus giving; and that one of the important subjects before the Assembly will be united systematic beneficence, as a religious duty. Although before the church as a Board for six years, Ministerial Relief is almost unknown in some sections, and its claims are not insisted on by pastors. Our cause belongs to the whole church and we ask an interest in it, in prayers and efforts, and contributions.

Former Assemblies have recommended and urged the raising of $50,000 endowment; so far, however, we have been able to secure but $15,500. This amount has been safely invested in registered government bonds. Whenever the state of the treasury has warranted, the balance above actual needs has been invested in securities paying as high a rate of interest as was consistent with absolute security. We would respectfully ask this Assembly to devise some means to secure the balance of this $50,000. That attained, we will occupy a position that will be a good guarantee that the objects of our Board will be attained, and we shall be able to devise liberal things for those who shall have claims upon us. While we propose to make use of all regular contributions, we desire to have special donations for the investment fund, and trust the Assembly will decree that such sums, as principal, shall not be used for ordinary expenses.

And while as a Board, we have good cause for encouragement and thanks to God for what he has enabled us to do during the past year, we are not at all satisfied with present attainments, but shall use renewed exertions during the coming year to still further advance the work and agitate until the Board of Ministerial Relief stands on a solid financial basis, and until the church appreciate the work and give us the proper support.

The terms of Rev. John B. Dales, D. D., Mr. John McLeughlin and Rev. J. C. Campbell, expire with this meeting of the Assembly. The Assembly is also asked to confirm the election of Mr. Jos. D. McKee as Corresponding Secretary, in place of Rev. W. W. Barr, D. D., resigned.

In conclusion we respectfully recommend:—

1. That the Assembly again direct the attention of Presbyteries to the mode of procedure in making application to the Board, and urge its claims as important and imperative.

2. That special effort be made to carry out the repeated resolutions of former Assemblies in the matter of the $50,000 endowment, and to decree that special contributions for endowment shall be used for no other purpose.

3. That as a worthy object of beneficence, we ask Christian men and women to remember this Board when making bequests, and give back to God, in the persons of his aged servants, what he has blessed them with during life.

JOSEPH D. McKEE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

Reports have been received by the committee from fifty-four Presbyteries. These, together with other material placed at our disposal, have enabled us to make up the following summary and judgment upon the Narrative and State of Religion for the year now ending.

From the ranks of the ministry, six persons have been called to their rest and reward: The Revs. J. W. Wait, W. C. Jackson, James Wallace, W. J. McAllister, Joseph McClintock and W. H. Andrew. Of these, two were men of advanced age, who had retired from active duty in the ministry. The others were in the vigor of their years. One of them was a member of the last Assembly, and took an earnest part in its proceedings.

The Rev. Joshua W. Wait was born in Canada, in the year 1841, but was carried by his parents to Coshocton Co., Ohio, where he was reared. He graduated at Westminster College, and after his licensure, taught in the Freedmen's school, at Nashville, Tenn. For several years he labored preaching the gospel at Hopewell, Tenn. Failing health drove him from his work, and he died at Americus, Kan., Dec. 17, 1878, in the 38th year of his age. As teacher and preacher, he was earnest and conscientious, and he has left behind him the record of one who served his Master faithfully and well.

The Rev. W. C. Jackson was born near Cedarville, O., Dec. 21, 1828. He received part of his education at Miami University, and part at Danville, Ky., where he graduated in 1848. He pursued his theological studies at the Associate Theological Seminary located at Canonsburg, and was installed pastor of the congregation at Greenville, Pa., Feb. 7, 1854. Sent to Chicago in 1861, he there labored earnestly for several years, but retiring, was installed pastor of the 4th church, Philadelphia, in 1868. He died smitten by incurable disease, in the midst of his usefulness, and has gone to his reward.

Digitized by Google

The Rev. Joseph McClintock was one of the older ministers, his death occurring at the age of 69. He was born in Washington Co., Pa., Feb. 10, 1810, and graduating at Franklin College, O., studied theology at Canonsburg. The Presbytery of Miami ordained him, Aug. 18, 1846, and after preaching many years, both as pastor and itinerant, he was forced to reduce his labors and seek the repair of his wasted health. In Virginia, whither he went with his family, he gave frequent assistance in teaching the Freedmen, preaching, also, as he had opportunity. He died suddenly in the spring of 1879.

The name of the Rev. James Wallace is associated in the history of the church with the oldest of its living ministers. In early life he settled in what was then the "West," where he continued to reside and labor for many years. His last charge was that of Huntsville, Logan Co., O., from which, however, he retired several years ago, because of infirmities which unfitted him for the discharge of his duties. He was a good man and a useful preacher of the gospel, and he died as one of the fathers of the church, respected and honored by all.

The Rev. W. J. McAllister was born in Washington Co., N. Y., though he was reared mainly in Ohio and Illinois. His life was an eventful one. In 1862 he entered the army, where he remained till the close of the war, taking part in many battles, and marching with Sherman to the sea. In 1866 he made a profession of his faith in Christ, and having pursued his studies, both academic and theological, at Monmouth, he was licensed to preach by the Presbytery of Chicago in 1871. He was, for a time, settled in Wheatland, and after resigning its pastoral care, he preached in several places as itinerant and stated supply, and always with earnestness and power. He died Feb. 9, 1879, in the 47th year of his age.

The Rev. W. H. Andrew was well known in all parts of the church. His first pastoral settlement was in Washington, Iowa, and he was afterwards placed successively in Unity and Ripley, Canonsburg, Pa., and Lawrenceville. Three years ago he located at Galt, in the Dominion of Canada, where he died after less than a day's illness, March 30, 1879. He was a strong, active man, giving promise of many years of efficient service, but the Lord, who placed him in the ministry, accepted his work as ended and called him home.

These brethren have all gone at the call of the Master. In their removal, we, who are left behind, are reminded that we are to be diligent in our work, and to stand with our loins girt looking for the coming of the Lord.

But if some are removed, others are raised up to take their places. It is the Lord's work and will not be permitted to fail; hence we learn that twenty-six young men have been licensed and twenty-nine ordained. As indicating, also, the changes going on in the churches, we find that forty-five have been released from their charges, and that sixty-two have been installed. While there has been but little general awakening, there has been a steady dispensation of the means of grace. In nearly all the Presbyteries there have been occasions of special worship which were well observed; and of communions, there has been an average of three to each congregation, with two and one-half preliminary and thanksgiving week day services. Among the results of these and other instrumentalities, are 4,220 persons added to the church upon profession of their faith, of whom 619 are recorded under the head of adult baptisms. The sum of $787,530 contributed to religious uses and objects, expresses in a general way the devotion exhibited by those who, as members of the church, are enjoying its privileges and seeking its establishment and growth. It is to be hoped that other results equally and even more important, though incapable of statement in statistics, have been gained, and that the church is infinitely richer in love and thanksgiving than it was a year ago. If this be so, its services have not been in vain, and the year to come will be still more hopefully visited with the divine blessing.

The general tone of these reports is that of thanksgiving. So far as figures can do it, they tell of goodness and mercy and the loving kindness of the Lord. They contain many suggestions of pastoral peace and faithfulness, and present before the mind beautiful pictures of holy people gratefully enjoying the means of grace and gladly giving themselves to the service of the Master. The morning and evening sacrifice with families gathered about domestic altars; Sabbath Schools full of happy children seeking to obey and serve the Master who loves them; congregations meeting Sabbath after Sabbath to pray, and praise, and preach and hear the gospel; communion occasions full of tender associations and sacred under the blessings of a present Saviour; all these and other delightful scenes and occasions are brought to our notice. To look at them is to have the heart stirred with a sense of thankfulness as they seem, also, to express the devotion of thousands of souls who say, "I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste. He brought me into his banqueting house and his banner over me was love." But the picture is by no means perfect. It is deformed by many defects and blemishes, for thus, while it tells us family worship is, in general, well observed, it also informs us that in some situations it is but poorly attended to; and we therefore think of homes in which the light of piety is burning low through want of oil in the lamps. While it tells us family instruction is encouragingly observed, it expresses the fact that in many places it is almost wholly neglected; and we have before us children growing up without a knowledge of the gospel, and promising but little for the church of the future. It tells us that prayer meetings are widely established and well attended, and yet, that in respect to some of them, there is carelessness and coldness, that young persons are but little interested, that "men" almost wholly neglect them, and that in a few congregations there are no prayer meetings at all. The prayer meeting is the "thermometer of the church," measuring the fervor of its piety and the volume of its devotion, and wherever it is wanting, there is a lack of vital godliness and spiritual power. And so in respect to all else relating to the church life and work, there is the general expression of blessing and call to gratitude, with the associated confession of sin and failure, and with the specific and sometimes emphatic acknowledgment that the cause has dwarfed in its character and receded from its positions. In all that is unhappy, there is the reflection, perhaps, of an unfaithful ministry and prayerless people, and the suggestion of wasted resources and lost opportunities. But there is also the hint of pastoral woe, as the servant of God has seen his work refusing to prosper in his hand; and of an experimental appreciation of the prophet's cry, "Who hath believed our report, and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed?" and even of the Saviour's yearning complaint, as seeing his truth despised and his blood trampled under foot, he says, "Ye will not come unto me that ye might have life."

In this connection it is proper to refer to two classes of persons of whose devotion many of the reports speak hesitatingly and some of them discouragingly. These are the youth and the non-professors. In respect to the first, a few Presbyteries say they are diligent and devout in their attendance upon the public means of grace, others intimate that they are careless, while some mention their disposition to "wander off" as among the difficulties of their work. It is not too much to say that the hope of the church is in its youth; they who are born and reared within its pale, and who inherit the traditions of its name and character, are needed to perpetuate its principles and execute its mission. They have a power which their adopted brethren can rarely exercise. Their church they associate with other institutions and surroundings that give form and feature to their early lives. It is part of their childhood as much as their native home and the old roof-tree, and its principles and usages, under proper instruction and influences, become dear to them both as the appointments of God and the heritages of their birth-right.

The work done in Sabbath Schools is reported by statistics as follows: number of schools, 726; officers and teachers, 7,647; scholars, 65,467. With this number of children under public instruction in the church, there ought to be a good attendance of the youth upon the regular services of the sanctuary. It might be pertinent to ask if the schools are always so conducted as to foster the thought that they and the church are one, and that the boy and girl who is in the former ought, all the more, therefore, to be in the latter. And it might also be well to enquire if the exercises of the Sabbath Schools are so conducted, in decorum, and devoutness, and seriousness, as to make them harmonize with the reverent worship of the house of God. For in proportion as the schools are made to be simple entertainments in the use of their appliances, in the same proportion will they fail to contribute to the number of those that wait upon the preaching of the gospel. But conceding that part of the youthful devotion is given to the Sabbath Schools which would otherwise be expected in the church services, even this—itself an evil—will not conciliate the spirit of disappointment that seems to be embraced in these statistics. It becomes us then to enquire if we are doing what we ought for our youth. Are we giving them that nurture and admonition to which they are entitled? Are we presenting before them the attractions of piety in the sweet maturity of its experience and exemplification, as we seek to prove that the cross is our glory and that Jesus is our all? Are we cultivating in them a generous attachment to our principles and a liberal enthusiasm on behalf of the truth we profess and which we are appointed to propagate? The church without its proportion of interested youth, is a church sapless and deformed; the "happy" people is one whose "sons are as plants grown up in their youth," whose "daughters are as corner-stones polished after the similitude of a palace."

Of those called "non-professors," the attendance upon the Sabbath worship and prayer meetings is not large. From a few places it is reported as encouraging, and from a very few as "excellent," but most of the congregations mention it as slight. If we suppose that a majority of these are persons reared in the church and otherwise known as "adherents," we will have but few who, from the actual "world," are seeking the truth and blessings of the gospel. As our mission is to sinners, and as we are to go out into the streets and lanes of the cities and compel them to come in, it is but right that we should question ourselves as to the performance of our duty. Upon every member of the church, ministerial and lay, rests the obligation of personal effort. We are all sent to invite the lost to come to Jesus and be saved. Blessed with the riches of divine grace, and persuaded of the joys of a Christian experience, we are expected to tell to others what God has done for our souls, and lead them to the source of all our happiness. The confession of the brethren through these reports seems to be that we are at fault in our missionary work, and that enjoying the comforts of our religious homes, we permit ourselves to forget or neglect the stranger that is within our gates. If such a fault exist, there should be no delay in seeking to correct it. Perishing souls need our instant ministry, and our own souls require that we shall give it.

The question as to how the churches shall reach and influence the unbelieving in their immediate neighborhoods, is one of increasing interest. It includes, first of all, of course, the concern Christians are to feel and manifest towards men as sinners who are living and dying without a knowledge of Christ and without a hope of salvation; but it involves, also, a consideration of right and efficient church work and influence, the adaptation of means to ends, the training of voluntary workmen, with other questions of a kindred character, together with the thought of the duty that is due to the social and public life of our communities. In view of these facts, the reference to "non-professors" in these reports is one of their important features.

It is gratifying to know that the work, on the whole, has made an encouraging advance. Its average result is that of improvement. This is true both as to its spirit and practical gains. The loss here has been more than over-balanced by the gain there, and the discouragement in one place has been met by the prosperity of another. From our institutions of learning, word is to the effect that they have not been without special blessing. The Spirit of the Lord has been given in answer to the prayers of teachers and other friends, and these sources of future influence and control have been made to feel his quickening power. In one of our theological seminaries, the advance has been so marked as to call forth the congratulations and excite the gratitude of all its friends. In the other seminary, the improvement has been no less distinct. It has manifested itself in increased devotion to all the duties of the school, and in a better exemplification of Christian experience on the part of the students. Similar testimony comes from some of the colleges, the professors in which have the pleasure of seeing their pupils grow more diligent in the discharge of academic duty as they also steadily grow in grace and the knowledge of the Lord. The prayers of the church should not be withheld from these institutions of learning and training. In them are gathered the sons and daughters from all parts of our Zion, and what the church of the future will be must depend more or less upon their character as it is formed amid their school associations, as this, also, depends upon the faith and prayers of the church which plead with God on behalf of its children. For all that is encouraging let us not fail to give thanks to the Lord. To him be all the glory. "It is not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord." Let us honor that Spirit by increasing humility and dependence and by an ever deepening gratitude. But the vine that is bearing fruit is to be purged that it may bring forth more fruit, and if this discipline be sent to us, let us rejoice that to us it is "given—graciously given—in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but to suffer for his sake."

The "hindrances" have been many. In some places specific ones do not seem to have caused much trouble, and the complaint is of the general evil agencies that will always exist to fight against the truth. In others the interruptions have been so distinct as to be visible, as well as injurious. And it is a remarkable fact that some of the most discouraging statements come from situations where the church is strongest and the populations thickest and most in need. From restricted and inhospitable fields there is word of hard work and opposing influences; but of gain and encouragement. "We are still in the wilderness, but working and making progress," writes one. Says another, situated on the frontier, "Our progress is slow, but we are steadily gaining ground." These are but samples; but in more than one instance the reply from central situations is emphatic, "We have lost." This fact of recession in responsible places is one that is lamented by several denominations. They bewail the loss of ground and strength, and the failure of the church to build up with the increasing populations and to maintain its relative numerical and material power. The migratory habits of the people will partly account for it, though even this is a helpless apology, for if, in thickly settled neighborhoods a family move away it ought to be but to make room in the house of God for another. The product of the church in the youth it graduates from its homes and Sabbath Schools, and the gains it makes by work upon the world, ought to more than replace the loss caused by deaths and removals. And if while the population of the country, and especially of the cities is increasing, there is a decline, it is a sign that there is something wanting in the church and Christians. What is it? The word and ordinances are regularly dispensed, and at no time in the history of the church has there been more active interest in sowing the seed and cultivating the field for the harvest. At no time, either, has there been greater Christian comfort amid the peace and security of providential care. Why, then, the complaint, "We have lost?" We know the fault is not in the gospel. We know, also, God is waiting to be gracious—that he stands ready to prove his promise and pour out his blessing until there shall not be room enough to receive. Is it so that because of little faith and prayer the Spirit's baptism is withheld? Is the seed sown without being accompanied by the petitions and tears of those who scatter it? For this is a phase of the church life that cannot be determined by a reference to Boards and beneficiary appliances. "Reorganization" has nothing to do with it. It is a condition existing along with the fact that the gospel has been preached ably and regularly, and where it has the traditions of past success to conciliate its enemies and commend its messengers.

Another remarkable fact, and one which may to some extent be explanatory of the foregoing, is this: the "hindrances" are nearly all from within. There is no complaint of persecution. No one tells of intrusion or disturbance by force or malice. No one seems to have suffered from violence either of man or the elements. A few, indeed, tell of trouble from "secretism," "depression in trade," "public unrest," &c., but these are only the few as compared with the many. Nearly all confess that their chief trouble grows out of something wanting in the church itself—something wrong in Christian faith and practice. The long list is of "worldly mindedness," "inharmony," "disagreements," "lack of prayer," "want of spirituality," "indifference," "social dissipation," "Sabbath desecration," "want of reverence," "too little praying on the part of both ministers and people." These are the obstructions which hinder the progress of the gospel, and they are in Christians, pastors and parishioners, rather than in the world outside. The statement is humiliating, but it is good to have it plainly made. We have prayed to God to show us our sins, and why he contends with us, and we have his reply in this almost universal testimony from the Presbyteries.

Current observation coincides with what is recorded here—that the prevailing tendency of the Christian life is in the direction of worldliness. Every period or epoch has its phenomena, and this is one of those which mark the present. The disposition is in the direction of secularization, and so strongly, that the church is compelled to offer at times, as its chief attraction, that which is hostile to the spirit of the cross. Men find their chief delight, not in Christ and his gospel, but in some accessory which, under the name of religion, but appeals to their sensual appetites. The cross is hidden, and the "lust of the flesh, the lust of the eye and the pride of life" appear in its stead. The joy of the Lord, and the gladness of communion with him in the spirit of the gospel, is bartered away for the poor equivalent of a formal service and the license of carnal pleasure. It is not strange, amid these conditions, that there is a lack of "reverence," an excess of "social dissipation," a "want of prayer on the part of both ministers and people." Neither is it strange, as we know to be the fact, that Christians are being to cultivate the drama, to clamor for the liberty of the opera, and to revolt against the sacred observance of the Lord's day; or that ministers should begin to teach that the theatre should be no longer put under the ban of Christian prohibition. With spiritual experience dwarfing in the souls of Christians, church secularization and loss of power are inevitable.

There is in all this an admonition to the ministry. Let it not fail to receive it. If the body of the church is to be quickened into a better life, the improvement must begin with those who preach the gospel; and it will begin as they determine anew to know nothing but Christ and him crucified, and to live nearer him in holy faith and fellowship. With a rightly consecrated ministry failure is impossible.

But it suggests also that the whole body of Christians needs to separate itself more distinctly from the world and to live more exclusively for Christ. It is impossible to be worldlings and Christians at once. If men will be "lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God," they simply travesty the holy solemnity of the gospel. "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world." Oh! that we may learn this in the fullness of its meaning, and turn to Jesus in the spirit of those who, in the joy of a holy consecration, take up the cross and follow him. "Wherefore, Jesus also that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. Let us go forth, therefore, with him without the camp bearing his reproach."

God is giving us some remarkable exhibitions of his power and grace, as he is opening up the world to the gospel. More than that, he is giving a success to his church abroad which is greater than that with which it is blessed at home. In France Protestants are in power, and the recent revolt from popery has been so great in some places that whole villages have abandoned it and acknowledged the truer faith of the gospel. In other countries there is a growth of religious liberty, and an increasing opportunity for missionary practice; and even in Rome the good work goes on, and the seed being more abundantly sown is bearing its fruit. The opening up of Africa, by recent explorations and the progress of material improvements, followed by more active missionary effort, leads us to believe that it will soon be the "dark continent" no longer. The success of the missionary work among the Teloogoos in India has been such as to almost surpass that of the day of Pentecost, and our own missionaries in that country report that their labors are being acknowledged by unusual tokens and blessing. While the work is thus extending and the kingdom advancing, it ought to be the aim of the church in its central positions to strengthen itself by seeking new grace and added power. Its heart should beat more strongly, its hands should be ready for every holy service, and it should present, in all its ministry, and membership, and life, a growing likeness to the Lord who bought it with his own blood.

By order of the committee.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

According to the most careful count we can make, there are seven hundred and forty-three Sabbath Schools in the United Presbyterian Church. Seven hundred and six of these are in the home, and thirty-seven in the foreign field. From forty-three schools we can get no information, either through the minutes of the last Assembly or through reports to the Permanent Committee. From different sources we find that in seven hundred schools there are sixty-seven thousand six hundred and twenty-one scholars enrolled, and that these are officered and taught by eight thousand and one persons, or in other words, by about one-tenth of our entire church membership. These bare figures are very suggestive as they appear on paper, but clothe them with flesh and blood, let an immortal soul beat in each one, and some faint idea of the great importance of the matters now presented for your thoughtful and prayerful consideration may be obtained.

In our Sabbath School work, as a denomination, we have made great advances during the past few years. We have turned our attention to it as a whole, as we never did before, and in our Assemblies and Synods and Presbyteries have shown a fuller appreciation of its wants and a more earnest desire for its increased efficiency. Still our church is, as yet, behind some other denominations in systematic supervision and control of the general Sabbath School work, and we are suffering in consequence. Hoping to speak more definitely in reference to these matters before we close our report, permit us to lay before you some interesting statistics, which present as well as statistics can the work in this department for the past year.

Blanks were sent through the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries to all the schools in the church, excepting those in the foreign fields, and more schools have reported to your committee this year than in any year previous. This would be encouraging were it not for the fact that of the seven hundred and forty-three schools in the church, one hundred and ninety, or about one-fourth, have neglected to respond to our earnest request for a report, which could be filled in five or ten minutes and sent to us at a cost of three cents.

Upon these statistics we offer the following remarks and suggestions:

Size of Schools.—The majority of our schools, as of all Sabbath Schools in the land, are small, and are found in country neighborhoods. In consequence of this our counsels and suggestions, especially in reference to details, to be of any practical value, must be suited largely to their circumstances, rather than to the circumstances surrounding our larger city and mission schools. This fact should be carefully borne in mind by us in our conferences, conventions and church courts.

Months Open.—The large number of schools that are open all the year speaks well for the faithfulness and earnestness of those who have them in charge. Those that are open only part of the year are generally found in districts where the roads are bad in winter and the church or place of meeting a good distance from the homes of the people. During the past year a number of the schools heretofore open only during the summer months, have been kept open during the whole year. We suggest that where it is at all possible, it is wise to have a session of the school every Sabbath.

Attendance of Scholars.—When compared with the total enrollment, the average attendance of the scholars is not what it ought to be. The difference between the two suggests the need of systematic and persistent watchfulness and work on the part of parents, officers and teachers during the coming year, in order to raise the average attendance to its proper standard. If the scholars are left to themselves to come and go as they please, both school and scholars will be the losers.

Children of Non-Professing Parents.—We must be careful of the six thousand two hundred and eighty-five scholars in our schools, "whose parents are not professing Christians." Very few of them, we are sure, receive good religious instruction at home, and where the godly example and Christian counsel of God-fearing fathers and mothers are wanting, the watchfulness and prayerfulness of Christian pastors and teachers must be doubled.

The Children at Church.—The fact that so many of the scholars are reported as being in attendance upon the public services of the church, is evidence that in our denomination the Sabbath School is not, at least to any alarming extent, looked upon as "the children's church," and that it does not take the place of the sanctuary in their experience.

Church Members at School.—Nearly twelve thousand members of the church are in attendance as scholars, benefiting themselves and each other by their systematic study of the Word of God; encouraging the teachers of young scholars by their presence, and exerting by their example an influence that will, by God's blessing, be instrumental in retaining the younger scholars in the school and church when they grow older. We believe the day is coming when our schools will contain all that are in the church, old as well as young; when the adult scholars will perhaps outnumber the others, and these twelve thousand are helping that day forward. May their numbers largely increase during the coming year!

Teachers not Church Members.—The fact, that only 33 out of 6,588 officers and teachers are reported as non-professing Christians, leads us to the conclusion that the question so often and so largely discussed in Sabbath School conventions and conferences, "Should unconverted persons be employed as teachers?" is no longer one of such practical importance as to justify our workers in spending so much valuable time over it. It is to be hoped that these thirty-three will, before the next Assembly meets, be found enrolled in heaven and on earth among the disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Attendance of Pastors.—As a rule, with very few exceptions, pastors have been very regular in their attendance upon the sessions of the Sabbath School. We record this to their praise. The majority of them have had charge of adult Bible classes.

Attendance of Ruling Elders.—It is very gratifying to find the ruling elders so well represented in this department of our church work. The direction of our Directory for Worship, that the Sabbath School shall be under the supervision of the session, is surely not a dead letter. Complaints do come from some schools that they do not receive the support and encouragement of their ruling elders, but these complaints are happily few and far between.

Scholars Making Profession of Faith.—With gratitude to God we record the fact that 1,944 scholars made public profession of their faith in our Lord Jesus Christ during the past twelve months, an average of more than five for each day in the year. Full reports would doubtless place the number higher. Of course we do not mean to say that these were added to the church solely through the instrumentality of the Sabbath School. Far from it. We all—pastors, parents, teachers and friends—rejoice together. But does not the fact that so many out of the school enter the church illustrate the necessity of having intelligent, pious, prayerful, earnest teachers in all our schools, well equipped not only by the Lord but by the church, for dealing with immortal souls?

The Shorter Catechism.—Judging from the reports which have come to us, the Shorter Catechism is used in our schools more largely than for many years past. Every year adds to the number of classes in which it is taught. In order that the children may take to it more kindly, we suggest in all earnestness that fathers, mothers and brethren in the ministry and out of it, who have never committed it to memory, or who have almost forgotten it, endeavor now to master it.

Libraries.—Libraries seem to be disappearing from our schools. Comparatively few have been reported. There is much dissatisfaction with the general character of the books heretofore furnished, at which we are neither surprised nor grieved. As a rule the books furnished by irresponsible parties for ten years or more have nourished a taste for light reading that will not be satisfied with books of such a character as ought to be read. To counteract this, the formation of libraries, under the control of the session, or under the control of a judicious committee, containing books of a general character, such as history, biography and travels, as well as books of a decidedly religious character, to be opened some time on a week day or evening, might be a help. Far better have no libraries, than have books put into the hands of the scholars under the guise of Sabbath School literature, that are read and valued only for the excitement of the stories they tell.

Current Expenses and Contributions.—It is a matter of regret that while the current expenses of the schools reporting amounted, during the year, to $14,231, or about 25 cents per scholar, only $2,864 of this amount came directly from the treasuries of the congregations with which these schools are connected. The balance came from the treasuries of the schools, as they were supplied by the contributions of the teachers and scholars. This is not as it should be. The church ought to support the school, and support it liberally, and let the contributions of the school be given to some definite missionary work outside of itself. We do not see any improvement in this matter since our last report to the Assembly.

Some additional facts presented in the school reports, we deem worthy of laying before you.

Discouragements.—These are varied. The special discouragement most dwelt upon by individual schools is the indifference of parents. There are so many parents who do not show any interest in the work, who could do so if they would, either by occasionally visiting the school, or by securing the preparation of the school lesson at home.

Encouragements.—Among the special encouragements reported we note, as being the most prominent, the presence of the elders, additions to the church, increased interest on the part of teachers and scholars, and the large number of young men and young women in attendance.

Sabbath School Music.—The call for improved Sabbath School music is more urgent than it was last year, and complaint is made that the Book of Selections, authorized by the last Assembly, has not yet made its appearance. Other parties have in the meantime attempted to supply the demand in our church for Sabbath School music, and are rapidly introducing their publications—far more rapidly, perhaps, than some are willing to admit. Figures in our possession on this point are very suggestive. We simply state the fact and leave it with you.

Helps for Teachers and Scholars.—There is a pressing call coming from all quarters of the church for additional helps in the way of notes, papers, quarterlies and question books. The notes for teachers prepared during the past year under the direction of the committee, by Drs. Harper and Stewart, have been second to none published on the International Series of Lessons, and have received hearty commendations from many who have used them. Good notes are also found in the United Presbyterian and Christian Instructor, and helps for scholars in the Little Preacher and Youth's Evangelist. But these are not enough to meet the wants of the average Sabbath School teacher or scholar. Those who have been trained in our theological schools, and those who are not actively engaged in the work of teaching, may not appreciate clearly the wants of the ordinary teacher, and may think the called-for helps unnecessary; but we lay the matter before you as one requiring prompt and wise action. We can name nine different monthlies and quarterlies in use in our schools, some of them very extensively, representing Baptist, Methodist, Congregational and Presbyterian Churches; and what is far worse, some representing little but the covetousness of those who publish them. They are taken not because the notes found in them are superior to the notes furnished by our own writers, but because they provide these additional side helps that are so much appreciated by the untrained teacher. If our schools are to be thoroughly United Presbyterian, the United Presbyterian Church must furnish all the United Presbyterian helps that are required. There is such a thing as being penny-wise and pound-foolish in carrying on our denominational work.

We are pleased to state that the editor and publishers of the Worker, which is hereafter to be known as the Bible Teacher, are enlarging the monthly and improving it, and will endeavor as far as they can to meet more fully the wants of our teachers. Your committee has prevailed upon Drs. W. J. Reid and Robert Stewart, brethren whose fitness for the work none will question, to prepare notes on the lessons for the coming year. Neither the Catechism, nor distinctive principles, will be overlooked; primary class teachers will have a place; suggestions will be given; methods of working and teaching will be discussed, and we bespeak the co-operation of all our workers and teachers.

Digitized by Google

In addition to this there is need of a suggestive Question Book to be put into the hands of the scholar, such as is furnished by other churches through their Boards of Publication.

Presbyterial Superintendents.—The Presbyterial S. S. Superintendents have, as a rule, done good service during the past year. Under their directions conventions have been held in a majority of the Presbyteries that have been productive of good results. The hope is entertained that during the coming year fuller and more frequent correspondence may be had between these brethren and the Permanent Committee, in reference to our common work. We have not been able to carry out the direction of the last Assembly in reference to a convention of Presbyterial Superintendents. Such a convention as was proposed would doubtless be profitable, but it is impossible to bring together on their own charges very many of our brethren. They are so widely scattered that the convention would only be local in its character. Your committee submits that perhaps it would be better to have one such convention or conference of Presbyterial Superintendents within the bounds of each Synod. It could be held during the sittings of Synod each year.

In conclusion we recommend the Assembly:

1. To address a brief official letter, over the signature of its Moderator and Clerk, to all the churches, urging the parents to secure home study of God's word; home preparation for the lessons of the school; the regular attendance of their children, and as far as possible of themselves upon the sessions of the school, and to bring their children with them to the house of God; urging congregations to so provide for the support of their schools out of their general funds that the contributions of the schools may be applied to the Boards and missions of the church.

2. To urge pastors and superintendents to establish normal classes for the special training of teachers, so that our standard of teaching may be raised higher.

3. In view of the proposed improvements in the Worker or Bible Teacher, to recommend its use in all our schools.

4. To authorize the Permanent Committee to have prepared a suggestive Question Book covering the lessons for 1880, at an expense not exceeding ———.

5. To appoint a Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools, said committee to consist of nine members, three to serve for one year, three for two years, and three for three years, and three to be appointed each succeeding year, to serve for three years.

The thanks of the Assembly and of the committee are due to Drs. James Harper and Robert Stewart for the preparation of notes during the past year.

Through the liberality of a few friends we are able to lay our report before you in printed form.

We respectfully submit these matters to you, praying that you will give them that place in your prayers and deliberations which we are convinced their weighty importance calls for.

By order of the committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE PRESERVATION OF OLD RECORDS.

The Executive Committee on the Preservation of Records and other Historic Documents respectfully reports:

As heretofore our aim has been to secure, or at least obtain, trace of the old records of the Associate and Associate Reformed Churches, and procure histories of our congregations and of all Associate, Associate Reformed and United Presbyterian Presbyteries and Synods.

In the Assembly's Minutes of 1878, in connection with the report of this committee, will be found a list of all the old records of which we have any knowledge, and the names of the persons having possession of said records.

Since that list was prepared we have learned that the following records are in the hands of the persons named, viz.: Philadelphia Presbytery, (Associate,) Rev.

Digitized by Google

W. A. Edie; Mansfield Presbytery, (Associate Reformed,) Rev. D. H. French; the First Synod of the West, (Associate Reformed,) Rev. R. A. Browne, D. D.

We have not yet been able to find the following records: Minutes of the Presbyteries of the Carolinas, Kentucky and Monmouth, (Associate); minutes of the Presbyteries of Allegheny, Boston, Butler, Carolinas First, Carolinas Second, Illinois, Illinois Second, Le Claire, Londonderry, First Pennsylvania and Wheeling (Associate Reformed); minutes of the Synod of Pennsylvania, and of the Synod of Scioto, (Associate Reformed.)

During the winter we published a circular, through the papers of the church, in which Presbyteries were requested to collect the histories of their congregations, and have them bound with the history of Presbytery; also, that their old records, if in possession of the Presbytery, should be placed in the hands of the Stated Clerk of Presbytery; and that a report of what had been done should be made to this committee. This matter seems to have been almost entirely overlooked by Presbyteries, and therefore we are unable to report what has been done by them.

The last Assembly directed this committee to "ascertain the cost of a suitable vault for preserving histories and records," and "report to the next Assembly."

After having had an architect make a careful examination, we can state that a suitable vault can be constructed in our Theological Seminary building, Allegheny, at a cost of about three hundred dollars.

This committee was authorized by the last Assembly to organize a United Presbyterian Historical Society, and report to this Assembly. We have not organized such a society; but if the Assembly still think it would be best to do so, and so direct us, we will endeavor, as soon as practicable, to carry out the Assembly's wish.

We are anxious that the work for which this committee was constituted should be completed without any unnecessary delay and the committee discharged. We would therefore suggest,—

1st. That the Assembly urge Presbyteries, whose old records are lost, to make diligent effort to find them.

2d. That as the old records of the different Presbyteries and Synods, by direction of the Assembly of 1876, are to be retained in present hands until the work of preparing histories is completed, Presbyteries be directed to place the records of their Associate and Associate Reformed predecessors in the possession of their respective Clerks, who shall be held responsible for their safe keeping.

3d. That Presbyteries be instructed to see that the histories of their congregations are collected at once, and, for the present, placed in the keeping of the different Clerks of Presbyteries.

4th. That Presbyteries report fully and definitely all that has been done by them during the year, in relation to the work in charge of this committee, on or before the 1st of May, 1880.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOL MUSIC.

The Assembly of 1878 assigned to us the work of preparing and publishing selections of Psalms set to music, for the use of Sabbath Schools. This work is important both in view of the influence of music on the minds and hearts of the young, and of the many claimants for popular favor among those who do not use the inspired psalter exclusively in the ordinance of praise.

While the Psalms have real merit, placing them very far above the popular hymns of the day, yet they are not used by the great masses of Christians outside our own and kindred denominations. The reason of this, in part, is the fact that they have not been set to such music as is adapted to their sublime truths.

But no music has been given by divine inspiration, nor has any been handed down to us from the time of the temple and synagogue service, nor yet from the days of the primitive Christian church. We are therefore thrown on our own resources to provide music adapted to express the sentiments of the Psalms.

As to the kind of music that should be used for this purpose there is diversity of views in the church; some desiring to retain only the old tunes that they have been familiar with from their childhood, while others are earnestly asking for new music, more popular with the masses and more attractive to the young. The claims of both these classes should be respected. Neither has a right to deny to the other the enjoyment of such music as may be preferred. Nor should the church assume to regulate by statutory enactment a subject left without direction by her King and Head.

In our present condition the church is dependent for her increase to a very great extent on the Sabbath School. It is a sad but unleniable fact that in our churches, especially those located in towns and cities, a large proportion of the children of even professing parents are lost to the church. The attractions presented by competing schools are such as to draw them away from our own schools and thus wean them from the church. The kind of music used in these competing schools has more influence in attracting these children to them, than all other causes combined. The Psalms can be made as attractive by proper music as any other style of songs used in worship, and the church must give the necessary attention to this subject or submit to the loss of her children.

In its work the committee endeavored to keep in view the rights of all whose preferences are known and also the interests of the whole church so far as they are involved in this work.

Hence as the result of our labors one hundred and fifty selections were made from the Psalms, to which an equal number of tunes, old and new, in about equal proportions, have been adapted to the best of our ability.

A considerable part of the work was done by the members privately. Two meetings were held in the city of Pittsburgh, at the first of which all the members were present, and at the second all except one.

It was our wish to have the book ready for your examination at this meeting of the Assembly, but in this we have not succeeded.

The time intervening between the completion of the manuscripts by the committee and the meeting of the Assembly was not sufficient for the publication of the book without pushing it with such haste as would most likely have led to its imperfect execution.

Samples of our selections of psalms and music are in readiness and will be presented to the Assembly if desired.

Arrangements are nearly completed by which D. C. Cook, of Chicago, through our own Board of Publication, will issue the book as soon as practicable.

Respectfully submitted,

D. A. DUFF, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF SAN FRANCISCO, ON THE MISSION TO THE CHINESE AT LOS ANGELES, CAL.

The Presbytery of San Francisco in charge of "The Mission to the Chinese at Los Angeles, California," begs leave to report: that in accordance with the action of the General Assembly which met at Cambridge, May 22d, 1878, transferring the mission to the Chinese on this coast to the Presbytery of San Francisco, the Presbytery, at a meeting in San Francisco, Cal., July 20th, 1878, accepted said trust, and proceeded to comply with the directions of the Assembly, to incorporate according to the laws of the State of California.

The corporation title adopted is as follows: "The United Presbyterian Presbytery of San Francisco, in connection with the United Presbyterian Church of North America." A Board of Directors was chosen for one year, consisting of three members: Revs. Alex. Calhoun, M. M. Gibson and John McKay, Esq., a ruling elder in San Francisco congregation. The above directors met in the First U. P. Church, San Francisco, August 12th, 1878, and organized, with Rev. Alex. Calhoun President, and M. M. Gibson Treasurer and Secretary. At the same meeting a code of by-laws was adopted for the government of the Board of Directors, a copy of which is filed with County Clerk, and a duplicate in the Secretary's book.

On the 3d of September, 1878, Rev. J. C. Nevin, Treasurer of the Chinese Building Fund, paid over into the hands of M. M. Gibson, Treasurer of the Presbytery of San Francisco (corporate) the sum of twelve thousand five hundred ten dollars and twenty-six cents ($12,510.26). Of this sum twelve thousand dollars ($12,000.00) have been loaned on first-class security at ten per cent. per annum. To the original sum $299.78 have since been added, making the whole fund as it now stands $12,810.04.

The Presbytery requests the General Assembly to make the following alteration: instead of "The Mission to the Chinese at Los Angeles," to read "The Mission among the Chinese on the Pacific Coast."

The Presbytery appointed Rev. Joseph McKee teacher in the mission at Los Angeles, at a salary of fifty dollars per month; and since August last both he and his wife have taught five evenings each week in the mission. Rev. J. C. Nevin, the missionary in charge, took possession of the mission property and entered upon his work in May, 1878, since which time he has been engaged, with but little interruption, in the duties which belong to the work. He has charge of the week-day evening school, and teaches in the same. Each Wednesday evening he delivers a lecture on some portion of Scripture in the Chinese language; has a Bible class and prayer meeting each Saturday evening; has a Sabbath School on each Lord's day, and one preaching service. One adult and one infant have been baptized.

The work of our missionary has been seriously interfered with for the last six months by the Presbyterians of Los Angeles, who persist in maintaining a Sabbath School exclusively for the Chinese, and also by a minister in that body who has a week-day evening school for the same people. It was plainly stated that so far as Presbyterians are concerned, the United Presbyterian Church should have entire occupancy and control of the field. This opposition has seriously crippled Bro. Nevin's work. The Presbytery of San Francisco has laid the matter before the Board of Foreign Missions of that church, urgently requesting that such interference cease, or else refund the money paid and we will go elsewhere.

For the necessary expenses of the mission during the coming year, we ask an appropriation of sixteen hundred dollars ($1,600.00).

All of which is respectfully submitted.

PAPER FROM THE ASSOCIATE SYNOD CONCERNING THE DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROCEEDS OF THE SPEER ESTATE.

To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, in session at New Wilmington, May 30th, 1879:

The Associate Synod, by its unanimous action at the above-named place and date, agreed to present to the Assembly the following representation, viz.: A number of years prior to the formation of the United Presbyterian Church by the union of 1858, a considerable legacy was bequeathed to the Associate Church by one Daniel Speer, of Pittsburgh; and one of the objects specified in the bequest was "the education of pious young men for the ministry." The Associate Synod, in order strictly to carry out the above named object, did for some years prior to the union pay to the Trustees of the Associate Theological Seminary, located at Canonsburg, and afterward at Xenia, that portion of said legacy devoted to the education of young men for the ministry. These payments continued for more than ten years after the union. About the year 1860, at the request of the Associate Synod, the Second Synod of the United Presbyterian Church assumed the educational control of said Seminary, with the understanding that said funds had been annually paid to the Trustees of the Seminary, and the expectation that the payment would be continued, which expectation was realized up to the year 1870. In the year 1866, and annually thereafter until 1870, the sum paid from this fund to the Trustees of the Seminary was one thousand dollars. At a meeting of the ociate Synod in 1870, without any recognition of the claims of the Seminary, or obligation to the Second Synod, which the Associate Synod had requested to assume the educational control of the Seminary, the fund was paid over to the United Presbyterian Church, with the request that it should be appropriated annually to the Board of Education. The Associate Synod is now convinced that its action was without due consideration, and that by it injustice was done, not only to the Seminary at Xenia, but to the Second Synod, which was compelled to bear the principal burden of conducting the Seminary. This Synod also believes it to be more in accordance with the design of the will of the late Daniel Speer, that the fund should be appropriated to the Theological Seminaries of the church. In this belief the Associate Church originally entrusted with this legacy appropriated its proceeds to her Seminary for many years prior to the union. These proceeds now amount annually to the sum of two thousand dollars. The Associate Synod therefore respectfully request the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church to consider the matter here presented, and if in accordance with her wisdom to adopt the following resolution, or something equivalent thereto, viz.:

Resolved, That the Board of Education be directed to pay to the Trustees of Xenia Theological Seminary, out of the funds of the Speer estate, transferred to them by the Associate Synod in 1870, the sum of one thousand dollars annually, to be used in assisting pious young men in preparation for the gospel ministry.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Synod.

JAMES PRICE, Clerk pro tem.

HISTORICAL RECORD OF THE PRESBYTERIES AND SYNODS OF THE ASSOCIATE AND ASSOCIATE REFORMED CHURCHES.

The following record of the organization of the Presbyteries and Synods of the Associate and Associate Reformed Churches, and of the changes through which they passed, was prepared by the Second Clerk, and is now published by the direction of the General Assembly, vol. 3, p. 138, vol. 4, p. 594, and vol. 5, p. 40.

In consequence of the loss of many important records it is not possible to make it complete, but it is believed to be sufficiently so for practical purposes. The cordial co-operation of many brethren is gratefully acknowledged.

The union of 1858, by which the United Presbyterian Church was formed, did not affect the organization and the legal relations and powers of the Synods and Presbyteries of the churches entering into it. In the adopting act it was agreed "that the respective Presbyteries of these churches shall remain as at present constituted, until otherwise ordered, as convenience shall suggest;" and in defining the organization of the General Assembly and the subordinate Synods, it was "provided that the separate Synods and Presbyteries of the said Associate Reformed and Associate Churches shall also continue as at present constituted until otherwise directed."—Digest, p. 222.

According to this act some of these bodies continue to meet and transact business relating to trusts in their care; some being without special trusts, formally dissolved; but the majority simply adjourned to meet at the call of the Moderator, or at a given time, but have either not since met or have failed to keep a record of their proceedings. They continue to have a nominal legal existence.

THE ASSOCIATE CHURCH.

PRESBYTERIES.

Pennsylvania.—Organized November 2, 1753, by authority of "The Associate Synod" (anti-Burgher) in Scotland. Ministers: Alexander Gelatly and Andrew Arnot. September 2, 1765, the members signed articles of agreement with Thomas Clark, and, June 9, 1767, with David Telfair and Samuel Kinlock, (licentiate) of the (Burgher) Associate Synod of Scotland, admitting them as members of the Presbytery, but allowing them to retain their subordination to their own Synod. This act was condemned by the Synod, but the relation was not dissolved by the Presbytery. May 20, 1776, divided by the organization of the Presbyte-

York. June 18, 1782, a majority entered into union with the Reformed Presbytery, (see Associate Reformed, Pennsylvania,) but the minority maintained the organization of the Associate Presbytery. Ministers: James Clarkson and William Marshall. May 1, 1800, resolved to divide into three Presbyteries, viz.: Cambridge, Philadelphia and Chartiers, and with the Presbytery of Kentucky constitute a Synod. The last meeting recorded was held November 5, 1800. May 20, 1801, dissolved by the organization of the Associate Synod of North America.

New York.—Organized May 20, 1776, at New York city, by authority of the Presbytery of Pennsylvania. Ministers: John Mason, Thomas Clark, Robert Annan, William Logan and Andrew Patton. Territory: the State of New York and northward and eastward. In the spring of 1780, at New Perth, (now Salem) N. Y., agreed upon a basis for union with the Reformed Presbytery, and became The Associate Reformed Presbytery. (See Associate Reformed, New York.)

Kentucky.—Organized November 28, 1798, by authority of "The General Associate Synod" in Scotland. Ministers: Robert Armstrong and Andrew Fulton. Territory: the States of Kentucky and Tennessee. Enlarged by the organization of congregations in southern Ohio and Indiana. In 1804 Mr. Armstrong and the larger part of his charge removed to Massie's Creek and Sugar Creek, O., and in 1815 Mr. Fulton and the greater part of his charge removed to Carmel, Ind.; therefore, May 28, 1821, the name was, by order of Synod, changed to The Presbytery of Miami. (See Miami.)

Cambridge.—Organized September 8, 1800, at Cambridge, N. Y., by authority of the Presbytery of Pennsylvania. Ministers: David Goodwillie, Archibald White and John Banks. Territory: the State of New York, north of the city of New York and eastward. Enlarged, 1820, by the transfer of the congregation in New York from the Presbytery of Philadelphia. July 21, 1830, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of Albany. 1838 a division arose, and the minority, maintaining a separate organization, joined with others, 1841, in organizing a Synod. After the union of the Synods in 1854, (see The Synod,) these Presbyteries were known as the First and Second Presbyteries of Cambridge. May 25, 1856, by act of Synod, they were consolidated as the Presbytery of Cambridge, and the boundaries were restored as before the division. Entered the union of 1858. ———, adjourned, ———.

Philadelphia.—Organized November 4, 1800, at New York city, by authority of the Presbytery of Pennsylvania. Ministers: William Marshall, James Clarkson, Francis Pringle and T. Smith. Territory: the State of Pennsylvania east of the mountains, and the city of New York. Divided, 1820, by the transfer of the congregation in New York city to the Presbytery of Cambridge. Entered the union of 1858. ———, adjourned, ———.

Chartiers.—Organized June 23, 1800, at Buffalo church, Pa., by authority of the Presbytery of Pennsylvania. Ministers: John Smith, John Anderson, Robert Laing, Ebenezer Henderson and William Wilson. Territory: all west of the Allegheny mountains, with the congregations in Virginia and the Carolinas. January 12, 1802, the territory was reduced by the formation of the Presbytery of the Carolinas. October 4, 1808, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of Ohio; May 20, 1817, by transfer of the congregations in Xenia and vicinity to the Presbytery of Kentucky; July 9, 1822, by the organization of the Presbytery of Allegheny; August 23, 1826, by the organization of the Presbytery of Muskingum. Entered the union of 1858. October 19, 1858, at Clinton, adjourned to meet at Washington, Pa., November 30, 1858. There is no record to show that the meeting was held.

Ohio.—Organized October 4, 1808, at Mahoning tent, from the Presbytery of Chartiers, by order of Synod. The order of Synod appointed Shenango church as the place for organization; the reason for the change is not recorded. Ministers: James Duncan, Daniel McLean, Thomas McClintock and David Imbrie. Territory: that part of the Chartiers Presbytery bounded by Yellow Creek, the Ohio and Allegheny rivers, without western limit. November 10, 1835, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of Shenango. Entered the union of 1858. May 8, 1867, adjourned to meet at the call of the Moderator.

The Carolinas.—Organized January 12, 1802, at ———, S. C., from the Presbytery of Chartiers, by Revs. John Anderson and William Wilson, appointed by the Presbytery of Chartiers, under the authority of Synod, as a commission with authority to constitute as a Presbytery and receive parties seeking admission, and organize a Presbytery. Ministers: Peter McMillan and William Dixon. Territory: the Carolinas and Eastern Virginia. In consequence of the refusal of the congregations to carry out the act of the Synod against slavery, adopted May 20, 1831, the pastors resigned, and the majority of the Presbytery, 1832 to 1834, removed to the North. May 29, 1839, the Synod suspended those who refused to carry out its action. They united with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, about 1844.

Miami.—May 28, 1821, the Synod changed the name of the Presbytery of Kentucky to the Presbytery of Miami. June 3, 1830, enlarged by the addition of the congregations of "The Western Mission." August 8, 1838, divided by the organization of the Presbyteries of Indiana and Illinois. Entered the union of 1858, and December 28, 1858, at Springfield, O., adjourned.

Allegheny.—Organized July 9, 1822, at Bethel, Allegheny Co., Pa., from the Presbyteries of Chartiers and Ohio, by order of the Synod. Ministers: Robert Bruce, David Blair, John Dickey, Joseph Scroggs, Hugh Kirkland and John France. Territory: the valley of the Allegheny river to Pittsburgh and eastward to the mountains. July 4, 1849, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of Clarion. Entered the union of 1858. April 28, 1858, adjourned to meet at Pittsburgh at the call of the Moderator. No record is known to exist to show that the meeting was held.

Muskingum.—Organized August 23, 1826, at Cadiz, O., from the Presbytery of Chartiers. Ministers: John Walker, Samuel Irvine, Thomas Hanna and Daniel McLane. Territory: west of the Ohio river and the Presbytery of Ohio. August 1, 1838, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of Richland. Entered the union of 1858. May 20, 1859, at Xenia, O., adjourned to meet in Allegheny, Pa., September 29, 1860. There is no record of the meeting.

"The Western Mission."—The Synod, May 25, 1827, appointed John Walker, of the Presbytery of Muskingum, and James P. Miller to be ordained by the Presbytery of Muskingum, on a mission to the West and Southwest, and authorized them "to meet in Presbytery at such time and place as they may think fit, and transact whatever business connected with the mission field may come before them." November 15, 1827, they constituted as a Presbytery at the house of George Malcolm, on Clear Creek, Ind. Meetings were held at different times. June 8, 1830, the congregations of "The Western Mission" were placed under the care of the Presbytery of Miami.

Albany.—Organized July 21, 1830, at Johnstown, N. Y., from the Presbytery of Cambridge, by order of Synod. Ministers: Peter Bullions, Andrew Stark, James Martin, Peter Campbell, John G. Smart, John Russell and Robert Laing. Territory: all west of the Hudson river, and south of a line east from Waterford, N. Y. November 19, 1835, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of Stamford. A division arose, and the Synod, May 26, 1838, recognizing the minority, the majority maintained a separate existence until the union of May 31, 1854. (See New York.) May 29, 1857, boundary rearranged by transferring the congregations south of a line east and west through the Highlands, N. Y., to the Presbytery of New York. Entered the union of 1858. October 3, 1861, at Albany, adjourned to meet in Argyle in October, 1862. There is no record of the meeting.

Albany.—(See New York.)

New York.—The majority of the Presbytery of Albany, May 28, 1838, refused submission to the action of the Synod in recognizing the minority as the true Presbytery, and continued a separate organization as the Presbytery of Albany. ——, 1846, the name was changed to the Presbytery of New York. Re-entered the Synod in the union of 1854. May 29, 1857, the boundaries were readjusted by the Synod transferring the congregations north of a line east and west through the Highlands, N. Y., to the Presbytery of Albany. Entered the union of 1858. November 10, 1859, adjourned to meet at the call of the Moderator.

Shenango.—Organized November 10, 1835, at Mercer, Pa., from the Presbytery of Ohio, by order of Synod. Ministers: Daniel McLean, John France, Isaac Beggs, Matthew Snodgrass, Alexander Boyd and W. C. Pollock. Territory: north of the west branch of the Big Shenango to New Castle, and a line thence east, and eastward of the Ohio State line to the Presbytery of Allegheny. Entered the union of 1858. January 4, 1859, adjourned to meet at the call of the Moderator.

Stamford.—Organized November 19, 1835, at Stamford, Canada, from the Presbytery of Albany, by order of Synod. Ministers: John Russell and James Strang.

Territory: west of a line north and south through Cayuga Lake. Entered the union of 1858. ———, adjourned, ———.

Vermont.—Organized July 2, 1838, at Barnet, Vt., from the Presbytery of Cambridge, by order of Synod. Ministers: Thomas Goodwillie and William Pringle. Territory: the State of Vermont. June 5, 1840, by act of Synod, declared dissolved, its ministers suspended, and its congregations transferred to the Presbytery of Cambridge. The Presbytery, June 26, 1840, refused to submit to the action of Synod, and June 15, 1841, joined with others in forming a Synod. Re-entered the Synod in the union of 1854. Entered the union of 1858. May 4, 1858, adjourned, and at Ryegate, June 22, 1858, met as a Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church.

Richland.—Organized August 1, 1838, at Wooster, O., from the Presbytery of Muskingum, by order of Synod. Ministers: Samuel Irvine, Samuel Hindman, David Lindsay and Joseph McKee. Territory: north and west of the Tuscarawas and Muskingum rivers. May 29, 1844, enlarged to embrace the State of Michigan. September 1, 1852, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of Detroit. Entered the union of 1858. May 20, 1862, adjourned to meet at the call of the Moderator.

Indiana.—Organized August 8, 1838, at Bloomington, Ind., from the Presbytery of Miami, by order of the Synod. Ministers: Nathaniel Ingles, James M. Henderson, George M. Hall and James Dickson. Territory: that part of the Presbytery of Miami within the State of Indiana. August 9, 1849, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of Northern Indiana, and the name changed to the Presbytery of Southern Indiana. Entered the union of 1858. ———, adjourned, ———.

Illinois.—Organized August 8, 1838, at Henderson Church, Ill., from the Presbytery of Miami, by order of the Synod. Ministers: James C. Bruce and William Bruce. Territory: that part of the Presbytery of Miami within the State of Illinois, and the congregations northward and westward. August 19, 1846, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of Iowa, and, June 2, 1848, by the transfer of the congregations south of the latitude of Rock Island to the Presbytery of Iowa. June 2, 1848, the name was changed by order of Synod to the Presbytery of Northern Illinois. Ministers: Thomas Ferrier, R. W. French and Samuel Collins. Territory: all north of the line of Rock Island. Entered the union of 1858. October 7, 1858, at Monmouth, Ill., adjourned sine die.

Iowa.—Organized August 19, 1846, at Crawfordsville, Iowa, from the Presbytery of Illinois, by order of the Synod. Ministers: William Smith, David Lindsay and George C. Vincent. Territory: that part of the Presbytery of Illinois west of the Mississippi river. June 2, 1848, enlarged by transfer of congregations from the Presbytery of Illinois. (See Illinois.) June 30, 1857, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of Monmouth. Entered the union of 1858. ———, adjourned to meet ———.

Northern Illinois.—(See Illinois.)

Northern Indiana.—Organized August 9, 1849, at Burnett's Creek, from the Presbytery of Indiana, by order of Synod. Ministers: N. Ingles, James Dickson and R. H. Pollock. Territory: that part of the Presbytery of Indiana north of the National road. Did not enter the union of 1858.

Southern Indiana.—(See Indiana.)

Clarion.—Organized July 4, 1849, at Cherry Run, Pa., from the Presbytery of Allegheny, by order of Synod. Ministers: John Hindman, John Dickey, John McAuley and John Todd. Territory: northeast of Butler and Indiana turnpike, and including the congregations of Concord, Pine Grove and Clearfield. Entered the union of 1858. February 8, 1859, adjourned to meet at the call of the Moderator.

Illinois.—Organized by a separation from the Presbytery of Illinois, 1848, at Sugartree Grove, now Henderson Church, Ill., under the authority of the Synod formed in 1841. Ministers: Andrew Shiland and W. W. Harsha. Territory: the congregations in the State of Illinois. In the union of 1854 dissolved by the congregations becoming subordinate to the Presbyteries in whose bounds they were.

Oregon.—Organized November 28, 1851, at Willamette, by order of Synod. Ministers: Thomas S. Kendall, James P. Miller and S. G. Irvine. October 20, 1852, entered into union with the Associate Reformed Presbytery of Oregon, and constituted the United Presbytery of Oregon. Acceded to the union of 1858, and was received by the General Assembly May 25, 1860, with the reserved "right of final jurisdiction over all matters except such as may be appealed directly to the General Assembly."

Detroit.—Organized September 1, 1852, at Troy, Mich., from the Presbytery of Richland, by order of Synod. Ministers: James M. Smeallie and D. S. McHenry. Territory: all north of the Ohio and Michigan State line. Entered the union of 1858. April 6, 1858, at Troy, adjourned to meet at the call of the Moderator, and June 23, 1858, at Birmingham, met as a Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church.

Monmouth.—Organized June 30, 1857, at Henderson Church, Ill., from the Presbytery of Iowa, by order of Synod. Ministers: John Scott, A. A. Rodgers, J. A. Edie and Elijah McCoy. Territory: south of latitude of Rock Island, and east of Mississippi river; also the congregation of Le Claire, Iowa. Entered the union of 1858.

Sealkote.—Organized December 18, 1856, by the act of the members under the recommendation of the Board of Foreign Missions, and subsequently approved by the Synod. Ministers: Andrew Gordon, E. H. Stevenson and R. A. Hill. Entered the union of 1858, and continued without change as a Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church.

THE SYNOD.

The Associate Synod of North America.—Organized May 20, 1801, at Philadelphia, in accordance with a resolution of the Presbytery of Pennsylvania, adopted May 1, 1800. Presbyteries: Cambridge, Philadelphia, Chartiers and Kentucky. The action of the Synod on slavery in 1838 resulted in the separation and suspension of the Presbytery of the Carolinas. In 1838 parts of the Presbyteries of Albany and Cambridge refused submission to certain acts of the Synod, and maintained separate organizations. In 1840 the Presbytery of Vermont refused to acknowledge an order declaring its dissolution and suspending its members. June 15, 1841, at Cambridge, N. Y., these constituted a Synod, bearing the name of The Associate Synod of North America. May 31, 1854, a reunion was effected. May 26, 1858, at Pittsburgh, Pa., entered into union with the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Church, and constituted The United Presbyterian Church of North America. Annual meetings were held until May 31, 1870, when the following order was adopted: "That the Moderator and Clerk be continued in office until their successors are elected, and that they, together with the Board of Trustees of the Synod, are hereby empowered to call future meetings of this Synod; and of such meetings notice shall be given not less than one month previously, in the periodicals and papers of the church. The time and place of such meetings shall be the same as those of the General Assembly." May 30, 1879, adjourned to meet at Xenia, O., at 1 P. M., May 27, 1880.

THE REFORMED CHURCH.

The Reformed Presbytery was organized March 10, 1774, at Paxton, Dauphin Co., Pa. Ministers: John Cuthbertson, Matthew Lind and Alexander Dobbin. November 29, 1781, agreed upon the basis for union with the Presbyteries of the Associate Church, to constitute The Associate Reformed Church. This basis was prepared at a general meeting of the three Presbyteries, held at Pequa, Pa., in the spring of 1779. It was adopted by the Presbytery of New York in the spring of 1780; by the Presbytery of Pennsylvania, June 13, 1782.

THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED CHURCH.

PRESBYTERIES.

The several Presbyteries entering the union met in Synod October 31, 1782, according to the agreement of a convention previously held. One of the first acts of the Synod was the perfecting of the union by a rearrangement of the ministers and congregations into Presbyteries designated the First, the Second and the Third. All processes and other matters depending in the several Presbyteries, before the erection of the Synod, were ordered to be brought to an issue by the Presbyteries as newly constituted.

The First.—Organized ———, from the Reformed Presbytery and the Presbytery of Pennsylvania, by act of the Synod which met October 31, 1782. Ministers: John Cuthbertson, D. Telfair, J. Proudfit and J. Smith. Territory: the congregations in Pennsylvania east of the Susquehanna river. October 1, 1786, by act of Synod May 31, 1786, the territory was enlarged so as to include the congregations in the State of New York, and the name was changed to the Presbytery of New York. (See New York.)

The Second.—Organized ———, from the Reformed Presbytery and the Presbytery of Pennsylvania, by act of the Synod of 1782. Ministers: Matthew Henderson, John Rodgers, J. Murray, William Logan, Matthew Lind and Alexander Dobbin. Territory: the congregations in "West Pennsylvania," that is, west of the Susquehanna river. The Presbytery was properly the continuation of the Presbytery of Pennsylvania; and, therefore, the Synod, by act of May 31, 1786, restored the name Pennsylvania. (See Pennsylvania.)

The Third.—Organized ———, from the Presbytery of New York, by the act of the Synod of 1782. Ministers: John Mason, Robert Annan, David Annan and Thomas Clark. Territory: the churches in New York and the adjacent States. This Presbytery was properly the continuation of the Presbytery of New York. By the act of the Synod which met May 31, 1786, the congregations in New England were, from October 1, 1786, separated and designated the Presbytery of Londonderry, (see Londonderry,) and Rev. John Mason and J. Proudfit, (now of Salem, N. Y.,) and their congregations and contiguous vacancies were annexed to the First Presbytery, and the name of the First was changed to the Presbytery of New York. (See The First and New York.)

Pennsylvania.—The original organization was in November, 1758. (See Associate, Pennsylvania.) June 13, 1782, the majority entered into union with the Reformed Presbytery. The congregations of the United Church, west of the Susquehanna river, were, by the Synod of 1782, constituted the Second Presbytery. (See The Second.) By act of the Synod of 1786 the name Pennsylvania was restored. June 24, 1792, divided by the organization of the Second Presbytery of Pennsylvania, and the name changed to the First Presbytery of Pennsylvania. By act of Synod, October 22, 1802, divided into the Presbyteries of Big Spring and Philadelphia, in order to constitute the Synod of Pennsylvania. (See Big Spring and Philadelphia.)

New York.—The original organization was May 20, 1776, from the Presbytery of Pennsylvania. (See Associate, New York.) In the rearrangement of the Presbyteries by the Synod of 1782, it was styled the Third Presbytery. (See The Third.) Reorganized October 4, 1786, in New York, as the Presbytery of New York, by order of the Synod of 1786, from the First and Third Presbyteries, including all the congregations in the State of New York, and in Pennsylvania east of the Susquehanna river, and Hanover west of it. (See The First.) July 14, 1794, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of Washington. The congregations in Pennsylvania were subsequently transferred to the Presbytery of Pennsylvania. After the defection of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, in 1822, the jurisdiction was again, 1830, extended to Eastern Pennsylvania. August 7, 1845, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, and July 11, 1854, by the organization of the Presbytery of Boston. The majority refused to enter the union of 1858, and attempted to maintain a separate existence. The minority were recognized by the Synod as the Presbytery of New York. September 12, 1876, adjourned to meet at the call of the Moderator or Clerk.

Londonderry.—May 31, 1786, certain congregations in Boston and Londonderry having been received by the Third Presbytery, the Synod divided the Presbytery, (see the Third,) the congregations in New England to be known, after October 1, as the Presbytery of Londonderry. Ministers: David Annan, Wm. Morrison and Samuel Taggart. The Synod which met October 19, 1791, changed the name to the Presbytery of New England, but it continued to be popularly known by its former name. May 30, 1801, in consequence of the defection of the Presbytery from the principles of the church, and insubordination to Synod, the Synod declared the Presbytery no longer in its connection, and disclaimed all responsibility for any of its transactions.

The Carolinas and Georgia.—Organized February 24, 1790, at ———, by order of the Synod. Ministers: Thomas Clarke, Peter McMillan, David Bothwell, John Boyse, and John Rogers—(licentiate). Territory: the congregations in North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia. October —, 1800, divided for the organization of the Second Presbytery of the Carolinas, and thereafter known as the First Presbytery of the Carolinas. Now known as the First Presbytery of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South.

The First Pennsylvania.—(See Pennsylvania.)

The Second Pennsylvania.—Organized June 24, 1793, at the Yough meeting-house (now Bethesda), from the Presbytery of Pennsylvania, by order of Synod. Ministers: Matthew Henderson, John Jamison, Adam Rankin, Robert Warwick. Territory: all west of the Allegheny mountains. By the act of Synod, May 20, 1800, divided by an order for the formation of the Presbytery of Kentucky, (see Kentucky). Ministers after the division: M. Henderson, J. Riddell, and David Proudfit. October 22, 1802, the name was changed by act of Synod to the Presbytery of Monongahela. (See Monongahela.)

Washington.—Organized July 14, 1794, at ———, from the Presbytery of New York, by order of Synod. Ministers: James Proudfit, John Dunlap, George Mairs, and James Mairs. Territory: the northern part of the State of New York. October 11, 1808, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of Saratoga. Entered the union of 1858. ———, adjourned to meet ———.

Kentucky.—October 7, 1799, the Second Presbytery of Pennsylvania appointed the members residing in Kentucky, viz., Adam Rankin, John Steele, and Robert Warwick, with an elder from each of their charges, a "Committee" to meet from time to time and transact such business as might come before them. May 20, 1800, the Synod adopted an order for the organization of the Presbytery of Kentucky, at such time and place as may be agreed upon, after sermon by Rev. A. Rankin. Ministers: Adam Rankin, Robert Warwick, John Steele, and Abraham Craig. Territory: the congregations in Kentucky, and afterwards enlarged to include southern and central Ohio. November 11, 1800, Mr. Warwick declined the authority of the committee of the Second Presbytery of Pennsylvania, and withdrew from the church. January 1, 1817, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of Ohio. August 30, 1820, reconstituted under the Synod of the West. May 31, 1823, strengthened by the temporary transfer of Rev. William Baldridge and his congregations, Cherry Fork and West Fork. October 28, 1837, dissolved by act of Synod. Revs. W. H. Rainey and H. Mayne, and the congregations east of a line due south from the mouth of the Great Miami river were attached to the First Presbytery of Ohio, and Revs. James McCauley, Jr., and J. E. Heanon and the congregations west of the above line to the Presbytery of Indiana. Subsequently the congregations that remained became subordinate to the Synod of the South.

The Carolinas and Georgia, Second.—Organized April 8, 1801, at Cedar Spring, S. C., by division of the Presbytery of the Carolinas and Georgia, by order of Synod. SYNODS.

The Synod of the Associate Reformed Church.—Organized October 31, 1782, in the house of William Richards, Philadelphia, Pa, according to arrangements made in general convention. October 30. It was composed of the Presbyteries formerly known as the Associate Presbyteries of Pennsylvania and New York and the Reformed Presbytery, numbering fourteen ministers. May 31, 1799, adopted the Confession of Faith, the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, the Form of Church Government, and the Directory for Worship, as amended, as the Constitution and Standards of the Church. October 22, 1802, gave order for its division and dissolution by the organization of the Synod of New York, the Synod of Pennsylvania, the Synod of Scioto, and the Synod of the Carolinas, and appointed a General Synod of delegates from the Presbyteries to be held May 30, 1804. October 30, 1802, dissolved.

The Synod of New York.—Organized May 27, 1803, at Newburgh, N. Y. Presbyteries: New York and Washington. After the dissolution of the General Synod, in 1822, continued as an independent Synod. May 17, 1855, entered into union with the General Synod of the West, to constitute the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Church of North America, to meet the following year. July 3, 1861, it was decided by the civil court that the legal powers and rights of the Synod were not impaired by the union of 1858. October 7, 1878, at New York, adjourned to meet at West Hebron, N. Y., September 25, 1879.

The Synod of Pennsylvania.—Organized May 25, 1803, at Marsh Creek, Pa. Presbyteries: Philadelphia and Big Spring. The Presbyteries were disintegrated and the Synod disorganized in 1822, by the attempt of the General Synod to form a union with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church.

The Synod of the Carolinas—Organized April 27, 1803, at Mr. Rogers' church. Presbyteries: the First and the Second of the Carolinas and Georgia. May 19, 1821, at its own request, it was authorized by the General Synod to become an independent and co-ordinate Synod; and April 1, 1822, by resolution, did so become independent, under the name, The Associate Reformed Synod of the South, and exists as a separate Church.

The Synod of Scioto.—Organized May 2, 1804, at Chillicothe, O. Presbyteries: Monongahela and Kentucky. October 28, 1819, resolved to withdraw from subordination to the General Synod, and, at its next meeting, to constitute as an independent Synod, adhering to the Confession of Faith, Larger and Shorter Catechisms, Form of Church Government and Directories for Worship as received at Greencastle, Pa., on the 31st of May, 1799, and on this ground reciprocating ministerial and Christian communion with other branches of the Associate Reformed Church. Accordingly, April 27, 1820, the Synod dissolved, to be reconstituted as an independent and co-ordinate Synod, under the name, The Associate Reformed Synod of the West.

The General Synod.—Organized May 30, 1804, at Greencastle, Pa. Synods: New York, Pennsylvania, Scioto and The Carolinas. April 27, 1820, the Synod of Scioto withdrew and became an independent Synod. (See Scioto.) May 19, 1821, the Synod of the Carolinas was authorized to become independent and co-ordinate. May 21, 1822, against the judgment of a majority of the Presbyteries, the General Synod, by a vote of yeas 7, nays 5, silent 4, adopted a basis of union with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, and on May 28 dissolved. In consequence of this action the Presbyteries of Big Spring and Philadelphia were disorganized, and the Synod of Pennsylvania ceased to exist.

The Synod of the West.—Organized April 27,1820, at Rush Creek, O., according to an act of the Synod of Scioto. (See Scioto.) Presbyteries: Monongahela, Ohio and Kentucky. Territory: all west of the Allegheny mountains. May 26, 1828, enlarged by the addition of the congregations remaining of the Big Spring Presbytery to the Presbytery of Monongahela. About 1845 the congregations in Kentucky withdrew. October 19, 1839, adopted resolutions for division into the First and Second Synods of the West, and for the organization of a General Synod, with appellate jurisdiction only in cases of doctrine, and subject to the majority of the entire vote of the church in all matters overtured. October 21, 1839, adjourned sine die.

The First Synod of the West.—Organized October 21, 1840, at Pittsburgh, Pa., according to the order of the Synod of the West. Presbyteries: Monongahela, Big Spring, the Lakes, Second Ohio, Mansfield and Steubenville. February 2, 1875, adjourned to meet at the call of the Moderator.

The Second Synod of the West.—Organized October 21, 1839, at Chillicothe, O., according to the order of the Synod of the West. Presbyteries: First Ohio, Indiana, Chillicothe, and Springfield. October 18, 1852, divided by the organization of the Synod of Illinois. ——, 1860, at New Zion, adjourned ——.

The Synod of Illinois.—Organized October 18, 1852, at Oquawka, Ill., from the Second Synod of the West, by order of the General Synod. Presbyteries: The First and Second Presbyteries of Illinois, and the Presbytery of Iowa. ——, adjourned ——.

The General Synod of the West.—Organized June 9, 1841, at Crooked Creek (New Concord), Ohio. Synods: The First and Second of the West. May 17, 1855, entered into an agreement with the Synod of New York for the reorganization of the General Synod on the basis of "the Confession of Faith, Larger and Shorter Catechisms, together with the Government and Discipline of the Church and the Directories for Public and Private Worship, as judicially ratified by the Associate Reformed Synod at Greencastle, May 31, 1799," the several Synods to retain exclusive control of the institutions and property belonging to each, and the name of the supreme judicatory hereafter to be The General Synod of the Associate Reformed Church of North America. May 21, 1855, dissolved.

The General Synod of North America.—Organized May 28, 1856, at Allegheny, Pa. Synods: New York, the First and Second of the West, and Illinois. Twenty-seven Presbyteries were represented by delegates. This Synod was declared to sustain the same relation to the Presbyteries of the united body which the former General Synods sustained to the Presbyteries of the General Synod of the West. Minutes 1856, p. 22. A basis of union with the Associate Synod of North America having been overtured and adopted by the Presbyteries, the General Synod, May 22, 1858, by a vote of 93 ayes and 4 nays, formally agreed to the consummation of the union. The union was formally consummated in an aggregate meeting of the Synods in City Hall, Pittsburgh, Pa., at 10½ o'clock, May 26, 1858, thus constituting the United Presbyterian Church of North America. After the formal ceremony of union, the General Synod of the United Presbyterian Church was organized by the election of the Rev. John T. Pressly, D. D., Moderator, and

6. STATISTICS OF MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

N. B.—A * affixed to the name indicates that the Society is organized for work in the congregation. Contributions for other objects than Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Missions and Church Extension, are arranged under a general heading. When the particular is known, it is given in the address column, and reference is made to it by a †.

A ‡ prefixed to the number of members, indicates that the number was not reported, and is therefore estimated; prefixed to contributions, it shows that the aggregate was reported, but not the distribution to the several funds.

The Managers of the Xenia Theological Seminary reported that Rev. James Harper, D. D., had been elected to a Professorship in said Theological Seminary. The Assembly confirmed this election by a rising vote.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises presented the following partial report, which was adopted:

PARTIAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

The committee recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, 1. That at the Conference appointed to be held this afternoon we consider the encouragements and discouragements in the work and growth of the United Presbyterian Church.

2. That Rev. Wm. Johnson preside and Rev. W. S. Owens open the subject.

After prayer by Rev. A. Blaikie, D. D., the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. B. Waddle.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A communication from Joseph D. McKee, resigning his office as Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Ministerial Relief, was read and referred to the Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises presented the following additional report, which was adopted:

ADDITIONAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

We recommend for adoption the following:

Resolved, 1. That the subject for Conference this evening be thanksgiving to God for the great things he has done for us during the year.

2. That Dr. Kerr preside and Dr. Barr open the subject.

3. That the portion of time spent in devotional exercises each session be left to the discretion of the Moderator.

After prayer by Elder M. R. Barr, the Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

FRIDAY.

The Presbytery of Sealkote, according to the direction of the last Assembly, reported their official action concerning the baptism of those converts from heathenism, who had more wives than one, and the grounds on which it was based. This report was read and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

The report of the Committee on Sabbath School Music was read and adopted.

The Committee on Sabbath Observance presented a report which was amended and adopted. During the discussion of this report, the members of the Committee were invited to take part in the deliberations of the Assembly.

The Assembly engaged for a time in devotional exercises.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on Commissions was made the order of the day for this afternoon, immediately after the presentation of papers, and the members of the Committee were invited to the privileges of the floor of the Assembly during the discussion of the report.

The report of the Permanent Committee on Old Records was read and referred to a Special Committee, consisting of Revs. D. H. Goodwillie, D. R. Kerr, D. D., and Elder Thomas Stinson. By request the Chairman of the Permanent Committee addressed the Assembly on the matters referred to in the report.

The report of the Trustees of the General Assembly, and of the Boards of Home Missions, and of Church Extension on the Boston Church, was read. Pending the adoption of the report, the hour of adjournment arrived, when the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Elder Thomas Stinson.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. H. Timmons.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The nomination of persons to compose the following committees was referred to the Committee on Nominations: Narrative and State of Religion, Sabbath Schools, Old Records, Credentials, Railroad Fares and Sabbath Observance.

The Committee on Commissions presented a report, which, after discussion, was recommitted. Rev. James Harper, D.D., was excused from serving longer on this committee, and Rev. D. R. Kerr, D. D., was appointed in his place. The committee was in-

S. Owens, M. S. McCord, Messrs. H. Harrison, J. Means, was appointed to report what should be done for the pastor of the Church of Boston, in view of the termination of his pastorate according to his announcement.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Church Extension was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The only paper referred to us was the annual report of the Board. Inasmuch as printed copies are in the hands of the members, and the report will appear in full in the appendix to the minutes of the Assembly, it is unnecessary to repeat its contents. Such items only as in our judgment deserve special notice or call for some action are presented here.

The report is accompanied by an outline map which exhibits to the eye the number and, approximately, the location of congregations aided by the Board, and gives some suggestive statistics relating to them. Good results would doubtless follow a wide distribution of this map.

As in former years, the Board has managed the important business entrusted to it with wisdom and fidelity. After a careful review of the report, we find nothing in the action taken but what deserves entire approval.

The success of the work during the past year has been highly encouraging. The receipts, exclusive of balance on hand, were larger by $4,941, or nearly 32 per cent., than the year before. Increasing interest in the Board and its work has been shown by Sabbath Schools and Missionary Societies. Appropriations in aid of congregations were increased $7,686, or about 80 per cent. above those of the preceding year. Twenty-one congregations were aided, an increase of 9. On the first of May, the liabilities on account of unpaid grants and money borrowed were $6,650, or $100 more than in 1879, but to meet these obligations as they mature the sum of $6,135 was in the treasury. The blessing of the Lord has thus manifestly rested upon this department of our work and demands thankful acknowledgment.

The grants were in some instances quite large, but the importance of the stations fully justifies this liberal expenditure. In the case of the Chicago congregation, the amount paid was more than $500 in excess of the instructions of the last Assembly. This increased appropriation seems to have been necessary in the circumstances. As the result of it, the congregation is now without debt, except to the Board, and the property is free from incumbrance and made perfectly secure. The Board has wisely decided not to allow any part of the ground to be mortgaged for any purpose whatever.

Complaint is made of the delay of many congregations in making their contributions and of the loss suffered thereby. Some difficulties have arisen, also, in the collection of loans as they become due. In this connection two important principles should be emphasized in the instructions of the Assembly to this Board.

First. The moral obligation of the contracts, into which congregations enter when they receive aid from the Loan Fund, must be maintained. Nothing can be more demoralizing to individuals or to societies than neglect or refusal to recognize and pay just debts. A loan from the Church, given as a loan, is surely entitled to as sacred regard and faithful repayment as a similar accommodation from a bank.

Second. It is important that uniformity and equality of dealing in these cases be observed. All should be treated alike, circumstances being equal. It is suggested by the Board that some revision of the regulations governing the Loan Fund is desirable.

The following resolutions are recommended for adoption:

1. That in the increased prosperity and success of the work committed to the Board of Church Extension, "the good hand of our God" is thankfully recognized.

2. That the action of the Board, as presented in their report to this Assembly, be approved.

3. That the Board be instructed to insist upon the recognition and strict observance of contracts on the part of congregations receiving aid from the Loan Fund, but at the same time to exercise a wise discretion as to the enforcement of these obligations.

4. That the Loan Fund be maintained at the sum of $50,000.

Digitized by Google

5. That hereafter grants from the Loan Fund shall be without interest, unless there be special reasons to the contrary, and upon the condition of repayment of at least one-tenth of the whole amount annually—repayment, in ordinary cases, to begin in two years, and interest to be charged on deferred payments after maturity.

6. That the Board be authorized to submit to the next Assembly any further amendments of the regulations governing the Loan Fund which they may judge advisable.

7. That all our congregations be urged to recognize the claims of the work entrusted to the Board of Church Extension, and give it the full proportion of their contributions indicated by the appropriations of the Assembly.

8. That the Board be recommended to circulate the outline map it has prepared, as widely as possible among the families of the church.

9. That $30,000 be appropriated to this Board for the coming year.

The First Church, Allegheny, Pa., was chosen as the place for the next meeting of the General Assembly, and 7:30 o'clock, P. M., of the fourth Wednesday of May, 1881, was fixed as the time.

The General Committee of Home Missions was instructed to meet in Steubenville, Ohio, on the third Wednesday of May, 1881, at 2 o'clock, P. M.

The Committee on Commissions presented their report. Before disposing of this report the hour of adjournment arrived, when the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. S. M. Black.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. S. M. Hood.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Elder A. P. Burchfield was substituted for Elder John Gilfillan, on the Committee on the Board of Publication.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on Commissions. After discussion the following paper was adopted:

PAPER ON COMMISSIONS.

Resolved, 1. That the following question be submitted to the Presbyteries, to be voted upon, yea or nay, and the vote reported to the next Assembly:

"Shall the General Assembly order the preparation of a chapter, to be added (after overture to Presbyteries and adoption by them), to our Book of Government and Discipline, providing for, and regulating the appointment of Commissions by Sessions, Presbyteries and Synods?"

2. That the paper now before the Assembly be published in the minutes and in the periodicals of the church, submitted to Presbyteries for their consideration in connection with this question, and referred to the next General Assembly.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

Having carefully examined the report of the Board of Ministerial Relief, and having obtained important information and suggestions from its officers in an interview with them, we recommend for adoption, the following resolutions:

Digitized by Google

Resolved, 1. That the interests of the Board of Ministerial Relief be the subject of a conference on Saturday, at 3:15 o'clock.

2. That $3,000 be appropriated for Ministerial Relief.

3. That the Board solicit donations for its endowment fund from individuals.

4. That the relief afforded by this Board is a debt due to those to whom it is paid.

5. That thanks are due to the members of the Board for their gratuitous and efficient management of the interests of the Ministerial Relief fund.

6. That Mr. Joseph McKee is entitled to special thanks for his efficient and gratuitious services as Secretary of the Board, and that it is important to the work that his offered resignation be not accepted.

Pending the adoption of the first resolution in this report, the Assembly held a conference in the interest of the Board of Ministerial Relief, Rev. D. A. Wallace D. D., in the chair.

After prayer by Rev. W. R. Bruce, the Assembly adjourned, to meet on Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

MONDAY.

May 31st, 1880, 9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. M. M. Brown.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A report from the Committee on Old Records concerning their expenses, and the certification of the Auditors of the report of the Treasurer of the Board of Publication, were read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Education was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We have cause for gratitude to God, that his favor has been with the Board during the past year in the performance of the work entrusted to its care. So far as appears to us, the work has been done wisely and well. Seventeen Theological students have received assistance, and aid has been given to one literary student, who was admitted as a beneficiary during the time that assistance was given to students in their literary course. The financial condition of the Board is encouraging. Three thousand dollars have been added to the invested fund during the year, and by the careful policy adopted, the Board hope that the invested fund will continue to increase. An appropriation of $3,000 is asked for the coming year; yet on inquiry as to the probable income of the Board during the year, we feel that its work can be done without embarrassment on an appropriation equal to that granted for the last year, provided it is promptly and fully paid.

We therefore recommend the following:

1. That an appropriation of $2,000 be granted to the Board of Education for the coming year.

2. That Financial Agents be directed to urge upon the congregations of their respective Presbyteries, the importance of contributing their full quota to the funds of this Board.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions was taken up. After the adoption of two resolutions, the further consideration of the report was postponed till to-morrow morning, immediately after the presentation of papers requiring reference.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Freedmen's Missions was taken up. After a conference on the interests of this Board, the report was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

The close of the late civil strife in our country left some four millions of human beings free, who had been in bondage. These at once became a component part of the citizens of our country. If educated, christianized, and trained aright, they were capable of becoming good and useful citizens, and earnest devoted Christians. If neglected and left without the influence of Christian culture, they would sink in degredation, and through the power of demagogues become a curse to our country.

Something has been done in the way of giving to this people a Christian education, but as yet little has been accomplished compared with the actual necessities of their case. Reliable statistics, it is believed, will show that not more than one in nine of those, who are of requisite age, is in any school. At the same time many of the schools which have been established are devoid of religious influence, and many others are under the control of the Roman Catholic Church.

When these people were in bondage, they had the most earnest sympathy of our church. Prayers were offered in hundreds of pulpits, and at thousands of family altars for their liberation. When freed, and their moral and religious elevation made possible, it might have been anticipated that our branch of the church would have been in advance of almost any other in sending them the gospel, and in laboring for their highest interests. It must be confessed, however, that we have scarcely equalled others in our efforts, and that we have come far short of our duty with respect to this people. Yet, while we have not done our whole duty, it is gratifying to know that a good work has been entered upon, and has been prosecuted for a number of years with some measure of vigor, and with a good degree of success.

The report of the Board, to which we must refer the Assembly for definite and particular information, shows that the past year has been one of special encouragement in the work. Progress has been made in almost every field and department of labor. The College in Knoxville, Tenn., under the Presidency of Dr. McCulloch, has had an enrollment of 235 students—showing that there has been a steady increase from the beginning. During the winter about twenty-five of these were engaged in teaching in the public schools in the surrounding counties. Each of these also conducted a Sabbath School, and there were about 1,000 scholars thus brought under religious instruction. The spiritual work in the college is under the care of Dr. Reed, who acts as pastor. On the whole, this institution seems to be doing a work for the colored people, the importance of which can scarcely be over estimated.

Besides the work of Dr. Reed in the College, he has had under his charge, during the year, eight students in theology. These, it is hoped, will all enter the ministry at no distant day.

The sewing school department, in connection with the College, has increased in usefulness; and in order that the advantages of home influence might be enjoyed, a boarding department has been instituted. The dormitories on the College grounds have been well filled during the year. These incidental departments are adding much to the elevating of the students, and to fitting them for practically useful lives.

The school in East Knoxville has labored under disadvantages, yet it is believed that it has accomplished good. In the circumstances, the work may not be continued in this part of the city.

The mission in Chase City, Va., has been specially prospered. There has been an enrollment in the school of 251 scholars, and 451 have been in attendance upon the Sabbath Schools. The mission has made a deep impression upon the whole community, because of its moral effect upon the Freedmen.

According to the instructions of the last Assembly, a mission has been established at Bluestone, Va. This station is 14 miles from Chase City, and is in the bounds of Stanton congregation. The Assembly appropriated $1,000 for this mission. The Board found that this sum was inadequate to secure the property which was offered. They must leave the field unoccupied, or spend some $2,000 more than the amount appropriated. After careful consideration it was agreed to expend the additional amount needed, and the field was entered upon. The station is regarded as a most interesting and important one, and the mission gives good promise of large results in the near future.

The last Assembly instructed the Board to occupy Clarksville, Va., a station eight miles from Bluestone, and twenty-two miles from Chase City. They were not able to do so, because of the want of funds, caused by the increased expenditure elsewhere, and especially in Bluestone. Clarksville is a very desirable position, and a suitable property could be obtained at comparatively little cost. It is, however, doubtful whether the state of the treasury will justify the Board in occupying this field during the coming year.

The Board express their profound regret that they were not able to reopen the mission in Vicksburgh. They could not secure the services of a missionary for the field. The property necessary for the work is in our possession; the people are very desirous that the gospel should be sent to them, and are willing to do what they can to support a missionary; but no one has been found who was willing to take to them the bread of life.

Among their special wants the Board mention that of "a general aid fund to assist students to enter the Boarding Department of the College at Knoxville, or to occupy the dormitories;" and "a book fund to provide books for needy students, to be loaned to them during school hours, but always to be kept in the building."

Owing to increased expenditures, and especially that at Bluestone, the Board report an indebtedness at the end of the year of $3,850. The Assembly must provide for the payment of this indebtedness, in the appropriation for the coming year.

In view of the whole work and field, the following resolutions are presented for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the success of the work of this Board during the past year calls for thanksgiving to God, and should incite to greater earnestness in prosecuting the work in the time to come.

2. That the action of the Board in exceeding the appropriation made by the last Assembly for securing the property and entering upon the work at Bluestone, Va., be approved.

3. That in case the state of the treasury during the progress of the year shall warrant them in so doing, the Board are hereby instructed to occupy and open the station at Clarksville, Va.

4. That the Board renew their call for a laborer in Vicksburg, and, if possible, reopen the mission in that place.

5. That the attention of the benevolent throughout the church be specially called to the "General Aid" and "Book" funds, so intimately connected with the comfort and advancement of the students in Knoxville College, and that they be invited to make contributions to these funds.

6. That the sum of $16,000 be appropriated to pay the indebtedness of the Board and to meet the necessities of the work for the coming ecclesiastical year.

After prayer by Rev. W. G. Reed, the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. W. G. Spencer.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A letter from Rev. John Cairns, D. D., delegate from the United Presbyterian Church of Scotland, was presented and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The report of the Standing Committee on Sabbath Schools was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

From the full report of the Permanent Committee, which has been read in your hearing, we are led to record hearty thanksgiving to God for the prosperity which has attended our Sabbath School labors and laborers during the year. Among the reasons for thanksgiving in this connection we note:

1. The apparent increase of the missionary spirit among our Sabbath School workers.
2. The additional number of ruling elders who are engaged in this work.
3. The increase in the number of meetings for the better preparation of teachers.
4. The large number of young people who have come from the schools into the church.

As the report is very complete, and the field and its needs have been well considered by the Permanent Committee, we think it unnecessary to prolong any rehearsal of its contents, since it will be embodied in the minutes and receive wide circulation. We, therefore, offer for your adoption the following resolutions, which include their recommendations:

1. That the first Sabbath in September of this year be set apart as a day of special prayer for the Sabbath Schools, and that pastors and stated supplies be requested on that day to set before the young in their congregations the importance of seeking the Saviour early.
2. That the Assembly again urge pastors and superintendents to establish normal classes for the special training of teachers, so that our standard of teaching may be raised higher.
3. That the Presbyterial Superintendents hereafter be appointed, as the Financial Agents and Superintendents of Missions now are, upon nomination by the Presbyteries and election by the Assembly.
4. That the thanks of this Assembly are hereby tendered to Drs. W. J. Reid and Robert Stewart for their efficient work in the preparation of notes and lesson papers during the past year, and to the Permanent Committee for their excellent and full report.
5. That the Permanent Committee be authorized to prepare as soon as practicable such a manual for general use in normal classes and among Sabbath School workers as is suggested in their report, and the Board of Publication to publish it.
6. That it shall hereafter be a duty of Presbyterial Sabbath School Superintendents to gather a summary of the reports of all the schools under their supervision for presentation to the Permanent Committee.
7. That the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools be instructed to present their report to the Assembly hereafter in printed form, and that their expenses for this and other authorized printing be paid from the General Assembly's Fund.

The following report of the Standing Committee on Narrative and State of Religion was adopted:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

Your committee would respectfully submit the following as their report:

We have examined the report of the Permanent Committee as carefully as our limited time would permit, and find it a very saddening, and at the same time an instructive and encouraging paper.

It contains the obituaries of fifteen ministers of our church, "who are not, for God has taken them."

Of these dear brothers who have been removed from our sight during the past year, we think we may say in truth, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them." They being dead yet speak, and their voice to us is: Work while it is day; be ye also ready.

But while so many have thus been removed, and some others temporarily laid aside by sickness, the Lord has been sending other laborers into his vineyard, and the work has been carried on with increasing force and energy during the past year.

Our church is making substantial progress, and there is good ground for hope that God designs to do greater things for and by her in the near future.

Opportunities of doing the Master's work are multiplying rapidly, and the means of accomplishing are being supplied in the more liberal contributions of our people.

We would, therefore, recommend:

1. That the report of the Permanent Committee be adopted.

2. That the Permanent Committee be instructed to carry out the suggestions of the report in relation to the preparation of blanks, and the arrangement for a memorial service to be held during the sessions of the next General Assembly.

The report of the Committee on the Judiciary, on the petition from the congregations of Stanton River and Chase City, was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE PETITION FROM THE CONGREGATIONS OF STANTON AND CHASE CITY, VA.

The petitioners ask that the congregations just named be transferred from the care of the Presbytery of Mansfield, in the Synod of Ohio, and placed under the care of the Presbytery of Monongahela, in the Synod of Pittsburgh.

It appears from an abstract of the minutes of the action of the Presbytery of Mansfield, in the matter before us, that the request of these petitioners is in harmony with said Presbytery's desire. It appears also that the Presbytery designated by the petitioners could more conveniently look after their interests. We, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the congregations of Stanton and Chase City be transferred from the Synod of Ohio to the Synod of Pittsburgh, with a view to their being placed under the care of the Presbytery of Monongahela.

The report of the Committee on the Judiciary, on the request from the Presbytery of Sealkote, was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE REQUEST SUBMITTED BY THE PRESBYTERY OF SEALKOTE.

The request to which we are asked to give a definite reply is the following: "What is the meaning of the expression in 1st Tim. 3:2, That a bishop must be the husband of one wife? Does it permit us to receive a polygamist as a private church member?"

The following is the action of the committee:

Resolved, 1. That we do not feel called upon by the facts to give any interpretation to this passage.

2. That the question really and properly brought before the committee and the Assembly is the following, which is expressed in another part of the paper: "Can a polygamist be received into the church during its transition state in a polygamous country, with the express understanding that this polygamy is only tolerated, and that while in this state he (the polygamist) can never be admitted to any official position in the church?"

On the question, as here stated, the committee reply in the negative, and declare that it is not proper to admit a polygamist to membership in the church, even under the circumstances specified.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions was made the order of the day for to-morrow at 2:30 o'clock, P. M.

After prayer by Rev. Clinton Riddle, the Assembly adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

TUESDAY.

June 1, 1880, 9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The roll was called and the minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The hearing of the delegates from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, and from the Evangelical Lutheran Church, was made the order of the day for this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The following paper, called forth by the sickness of the Moderator of the last General Assembly, was unanimously adopted:

RESOLUTIONS FIXING THE TIME FOR SPECIAL PRAYER FOR DR. WM. BRUCE.

WHEREAS, It is known that our dear brother, Dr. Wm. Bruce, the Moderator of the last Assembly, is laid low with bodily affliction; and,

WHEREAS, Our Lord Jesus has taught us that if two of us shall agree upon the earth as touchiug anything that we shall ask of our Heavenly Father, it shall be done for us, and also that the prayer of faith shall save the sick; therefore,

Resolved, That the General Assembly do agree that at the hour of 11 o'clock, this morning, they will go to the throne of grace, being led in prayer by the Moderator, or by some one at his request, in behalf of our brother beloved, that if it please our Heavenly Father, He will spare his life and restore his health.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions. This report was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE BOARD AND COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

The papers referred to us are the reports of the Board of Home Missions, and of the General Committee of Missions. These have both been placed in the hands of the members of the Assembly, and we therefore refer only to the general statements of them.

The work of the Board appears from the report to have been prosperous during the year past, and in some respects more prosperous than during the preceding year. Aid has been granted to a large number of stations, and from a number the appropriations have been withheld because the terms were not fully complied with.

The report from the special missions is particularly gratifying although there were circumstances discouraging in some of them at the beginning of the year.

It is gratifying to learn that there has been a great improvement in the financial condition of the Board, due in large measure to the fact that a legacy left by the late

Digitized by Google

Archibald Stewart, of Indiana, Pa., came into the possession of the Board. By the use of more than $8,000 of this, the debt of the Board was liquidated, and the expenses of the present year borne, and the year closed with money in the Treasury of the Board.

It is also an encouraging feature of the work that the contributions to this fund, during the year just closed, are more than $6,000 in excess of those of the preceding year.

It is to be regretted that so many of the missionaries of the Board are left without appointments, and at the same time the Presbyteries are not asking for all the laborers they need; that with a widening field and increased demands, so many whose services are at the disposal of the Board are left unemployed.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That humble and devout thanks are due to the Great King and Head of the Church for the work accomplished by his might; for the encouragement given us by it, to hope for the extension of our beloved Zion, and the propagation of the principles maintained by her.

2. That as the Board requests a change in the regulation defining stated supply, so as to reduce the time from three months to one, discretionary power be given the Board so that in exceptional cases the appropriation granted by the Assembly upon condition of stated supply may be paid when preaching and pastoral labor have been performed in one charge for six weeks successively.

3. That the Board be authorized to invest the money that remains in their hands from the legacy of Archibald Stewart, and make use of the principal, only in extraordinary and urgent cases, at their discretion.

4. That the report of the General Committee of Missions be adopted.

5. That as the demand for increased contributions is great, and as a great door, and effectual, is being opened up, our ministers and members are urgently called upon to make increased effort to raise the amount of money asked for by the General Committee of Missions.

Took up the resolution on "Bible Songs." During the discussion of this resolution, the Assembly, according to previous appointment, and led by Rev. J. T. Cooper, D. D., and Rev. W. W. Barr, D. D., engaged in special prayer in behalf of Rev. William Bruce, D. D., the Moderator of the last Assembly, who was suffering from serious illness.

Resumed the consideration of the resolution on "Bible Songs." Before disposing of this resolution, the Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Rev. S. H. Weed.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Elder G. M. Evans.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions was taken up. After the adoption of the resolutions of this report, the hour for the order of the day arrived, when Rev. F. Y. Pressly, delegate from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, and Rev. M. J. Firey, delegate from the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, presented the Christian salutations of the bodies they represented, and the Moderator replied in the name of the Assembly.

The Committee on Correspondence, was instructed to report the present position of the negotiations for union with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, and what action should be taken by this Assembly to promote that very desirable end.

Resumed the consideration of the resolution on "Bible Songs." This resolution, as amended and adopted, is as follows:

RESOLUTION ON BIBLE SONGS.

Resolved, That the Assembly appoint a committee, which is hereby directed before the issue of the next edition of "Bible Songs," so to revise the book as to make it conform to the instructions on that subject, given by the General Assembly of 1879, (see minutes, vol. v, page 16,) and report its revision to the next Assembly for approval.

The Committee on Nominations was instructed to nominate members of the committee to revise "Bible Songs."

After prayer by Rev. M. J. Firey, the Assembly adjourned.

7:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Elder Daniel Black.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises presented the following additional report, which was adopted:

ADDITIONAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

The committee recommend the following:

That Rev. Wm. Johnston, of the Presbytery of College Springs, be appointed the Moderator's alternate to preach the opening sermon at the next meeting of the General Assembly.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions. This report was amended and adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

A retrospect of the Foreign Missionary work of our church from its beginning is calculated to excite profound gratitude for the Divine favor which has so signally blessed and prospered it. Not only are we called on to say "the Lord hath done great things for us," but others also, who have been cognizant of our work, have repeatedly said, "the Lord hath done great things for them." Our missions in India and Egypt are firmly established. They are enlarging their fields of labor and influence, and the indications of still greater enlargement in the future are most encouraging. The success of the Foreign Missionary work is not, we apprehend, to be judged by the number of professed converts merely, but also by the persuasive influence which Christianity as a system exerts on society at large where it is established. There are evidences on every hand, and they are multiplying from year to year, that the religious systems of heathenism are worn out, and that perishing souls are hungering and thirsting for something which will satisfy their wants. This is doubtless a work of the Holy Spirit, preparatory to the general conversion of the heathen world. These circumstances give emphasis to the command of the Saviour, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

We learn from the report of the Board that while some of the sources from which they have heretofore received large contributions have been cut off, yet others have been unexpectedly opened, by which they have been placed not only beyond the embarrassment of debt, but in a more advantageous position in this respect than at any previous period. God has thus shown us that he is in a peculiar and emphatic sense a very present help in time of need; that those who trust in him will not be disappointed. While the Board has been supplied with the funds necessary to carry on the work, they have not as yet been able to find a sufficient number of persons who are willing to devote themselves to the work. The divinely appointed remedy for this state of things is, "Pray ye, therefore, unto the Lord of the harvest to send forth laborers into his harvest."

The large amount of money which has come into the possession of the Board from legacies, amounting probably to about $40,000, raises the question of the best method of employing these funds, and the correlative one of what God intends by placing them at our disposal. We concur in the opinion expressed by the Board that these bequests should not be used in the ordinary expenses of our missions, but rather in extending our operations in the fields already occupied, in securing necessary buildings and providing such helps and appliances as are judged necessary to their prosperity and success. It is, however, we think important that bequests temporarily on hand should be immediately invested in such a manner as to be made available as collateral securities for loans, that the Board may be able to meet the deficiency that may occur during the summer months of the year.

We deem it unnecessary to recount at length the facts contained in the report of the Board, inasmuch as this report will appear in full in the printed minutes of the Assembly.

To enable the Board to prosecute efficiently the work with which it is entrusted, it asks the following appropriations: For India, $23,000; for Egypt, $35,000; to send out eight new missionaries, $4,500; outfits for same, $3,000; for missionaries' children in this country, $1,050; to return missionaries to their work, $500; printing reports, stationery, etc., $500; salaries, $800; total, $68,350.

We would recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. That the thanks of the Assembly and of the churches be given to God for the cheering tokens of his favor to the cause of foreign missions in our hands, and also to the many friends who have so generously furnished the means of carrying it on.

2. That in view of the very large grants of money, books and other helps, made particularly by the Turkish Mission Aid Society, the London Religious and American Tract Societies, and the British and Foreign and American Bible Societies, and the services of George H. Stuart, of Philadelphia, who promptly secured the Board from the loss of several thousand dollars, the thanks of the Assembly be specially given, and transmitted to them.

3. That the Assembly repeat its recommendation that funds be forwarded by financial agents monthly, or at least quarterly, to the treasurer, that the Board may be able to make the monthly remittances which the missionaries so much need in the various departments of their work.

4. That the Assembly appoint at least two male and two female missionaries to each of our missions; that Miss Euphie Gordon be appointed to the mission in India, and Misses Hattie M. Conner and Libbie E. Newlin be appointed to the mission in Egypt; and that the appointing of the other missionaries be referred to the Board.

5. That the following appropriations be made for the ensuing year: For India, $23,000; Egypt, $35,000; for sending out new missionaries and their outfits, $7,500; for missionaries' children in this country, $1,050; to return missionaries. $500; printing reports, stationery, etc., $500; salaries, $800; total, $68,350.

6. That our people be urged to consider the claims of the foreign mission work upon the church, and the obligation of every member of the church to make contributions on its behalf.

7. That the Board be authorized to invest temporarily any bequests that may come into their hands, which may be used as collateral security in borrowing money in case of emergency, and also to use so far as necessary said bequests after careful examination of each case, in extending operations in fields already occupied, in securing necessary buildings and providing such helps and appliances as are judged necessary to the prosperity and success of the mission cause; and that so far as practicable these grants be made proportionately between the two mission fields.

8. That the Board be directed to have 5,000 copies of the Annual Report published, and that special efforts be made to have copies of it circulated in every congregation.

9. That the application of the missionaries in Egypt for mission premises in Alexandria be referred to the Board of Foreign Missions.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions, on the Mission to the Chinese on the Pacific coast, was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE MISSION TO THE CHINESE ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

In reference to the Mission to the Chinese on the Pacific coast, we would report that it appears from the papers which have been referred to us, that there is a deficiency of about $900 in the contributions of the past year, which amount is needed to pay the current expenses of the mission, and that an appropriation of $1,600, amounting to $2,500 in all, to meet the current expenses of the coming year is needed, in addition to the income derived from invested funds.

It appears also from the papers laid before us, that the Presbytery of San Francisco is unwilling longer to bear the pecuniary responsibility of raising the funds necessary to sustain this mission.

In view of the facts above stated, we would respectfully report for adoption the following resolutions:

1. That the sum of $2,500 be appropriated for the support of the Mission to the Chinese on the Pacific coast for the coming year.

2. That the sum above named be paid from the funds of the Board of Foreign Missions, and that the immediate oversight of this mission remain, as heretofore, with the Presbytery of San Francisco.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, on the Diaconate, was taken up. While the first resolution of this report was under discussion, the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. F. Y. Pressly.

WEDNESDAY.

June 2., 1880, 9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. S. Martin.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The report of the Committee of Conference with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

Resolutions on Instrumental Music were read and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Committee on Finance were instructed to report on the propriety of a uniform set of books and blanks for reports, for the use of Financial Agents, and Treasurers of the Boards, and if deemed proper, report a form for the consideration of the Assembly.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, on the Diaconate, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE DIACONATE.

Upon the memorials from the Presbyteries of Monmouth, Beaver Valley and Wabash, asking for a modification of the acts of 1878 and 1879, on the subject of the Diaconate, your committee would respectfully report:

Resolved, 1. That deacons are mentioned among the regular and permanent officers of the New Testament church, but since elders are entirely competent to exercise the duties of the diaconate, those congregations in which these duties are successfully performed by the elders have fulfilled the spirit of the law, and nothing more is required.

2. That the language of the Book of Government indicates that the duties of the diaconate are of two classes, those which belong essentially to the office and those which may be assigned to it. The first are specified as those which belong to the collection and distribution of the church's charities, which include all the benevolent contributions of the church; the second to all such temporalities as may be committed to their care.

3. That there is nothing in the constitution of the church forbidding the appointment of trustees for the management of church property, under the restrictions of the Assembly of 1873.

4. That the third resolution of 1878, intended to prepare the way through civil legislation for committing to deacons the legal ownership of church property now vested in trustees, be repealed as both difficult and unnecessary.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, on the salaries of the officers of the Assembly, and of the Boards, was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE SALARIES OF OFFICERS OF THE ASSEMBLY, CORRESPONDING SECRETARIES, &c.

The Presbytery of Westmoreland memoralizes the Assembly to take into consideration the propriety of abolishing the salaries of the officers of the Assembly and the Secretaries and Treasurers of the various Boards, as fixed by the Assembly of 1878.

It appears that the present salaries were determined by that Assembly after a careful consideration of the facts in the case. A committee had been appointed to ascertain the nature of the labors performed by these various officers, with instructions to report to the Assembly of 1878, and with these facts before it the present salaries were fixed.

Attention should be directed to the fact that these duties have become much more numerous and onerous than formerly, and therefore no comparison ought to be instituted between the former and present practice in respect to compensation.

It is doubtful whether those qualified for the positions could be found who would be willing to perform these duties without some remuneration, and it is questionable whether the church has a right to ask the sacrifices necessary to the performance of these duties gratuitously.

Besides it should not be overlooked that owing to the efficiency of these officers the [illegible]ess connected with their departments is presented in such form, to the Assembly, [illegible]ch time is saved, and therefore great expense avoided.

[illegible]hermore, the amount expended in salaries is very small when compared with [illegible]ls which pass through the hands of these officers. The salaries combined are only 1.76 per cent. of the sums contributed. Of every one hundred dollars contributed, ninety-eight dollars and twenty-four cents are devoted to the object for which the original amount was given.

We believe this to be as small an expenditure as is consistent with the safe and efficient distribution of the funds.

We, therefore, recommend for adoption the following:

Resolved, That the request contained in the memorial be not granted.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, on the petition of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE PETITION OF THE WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION.

The Committee on Overtures respectfully reports, concerning the memorial of "The National Committee of Women's Christian Temperance Union," and recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That in answer to the application of the N. C. of the W. C. T. U., this Assembly does hereby petition the International Committee of the Evangelical Alliance, to set apart one day of the week of prayer for 1881, to be devoted to the cause of temperance.

2. That the clerk be directed to send a copy of the resolution to the chairman of the N. C. of the W. C. T. U., for transmission to the Committee of the Evangelical Alliance.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, on the paper from the Women's Missionary Society, of Allegheny Presbytery, was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures, in answer to a memorial from "the Women's Missionary Society, of Allegheny Presbytery," requesting that women's work in the church be more clearly defined, and larger liberty allowed these societies, by granting them the privilege of doing additional church work, rather than performing the part of auxiliaries in church work already provided.

We hail with pleasure the spirit of zeal and devotion to the Master's work, manifested by these memorialists, disclosing, as it certainly does, the gratifying evidence of the development of this efficient power in the church; thus greatly strengthening and advancing the kingdom.

Certainly the deep and increasing interest taken in the Saviour's cause by many of the devoted women of the church; their earnest plea for the privilege of greater opportunities for labor, in which they may exercise more fully their Christian energies, enlarge their sphere of operations for Christ, is to us sufficient cause for gratitude to God, a happy omen of yet grander achievements by this power in the church, in the near and promising future, therefore resolved,

1. That "the Women's Missionary Societies" have the right of doing additional Christian work, undertaking such special enterprises, and prosecuting them by such methods as they may deem most efficient in subordination to the authorities of the church.

2. That in case any special object, or mission be selected by them, for which, especially to labor, they shall first secure the approval of the General Assembly, or the particular Board of the church, to whose department that object or mission may belong.

3. That the funds, contributed by these missionary societies, shall be forwarded to the objects or missions selected, through the Financial Agents of the Presbyteries of the church.

4. That these societies shall, as heretofore directed by the Assembly, report annually their work and contributions.

5. That under the influence of the constraining love of Christ, and an earnest desire to have his good work carried on, the women of all our churches be recommended to organize women's missionary societies and do what they can to foster the Christian spirit and spread the gospel at home and abroad.

The report of the Special Committee on Old Records was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON OLD RECORDS.

The report of the Committee on Old Records shows commendable progress in the work it has in charge. The work itself is of growing importance to the church. Already much has been done, and much more remains, in rescuing from oblivion, the records of the lives and labors of our fathers, and in providing valuable material for the future historian of our church.

This report informs us that Rev. J. B. Scouller is preparing a Biographical Dictionary of the ministry of the church, and of the different branches of which it was composed, which, it is expected, will be a work of rare value and interest.

The Committee also inform us that they have complied with the instructions of the Assembly, and have secured a safe and suitable place for the preservation of documents.

The Committee, appointed by the Eighteenth General Assembly to prepare a history of the United Presbyterian Church, in its various departments of work, and which they were directed by the Assembly of last year to complete, have made some progress in that direction.

Accompanying the report, is a constitution providing for the organization of a United Presbyterian Historical Society, and which is submitted to the Assembly for approval. We are of the opinion that it is the desire of the church, that such a society should be established; the last two Assemblies have given their approval of the project, and directed it to be carried into effect.

It seems to be necessary, that as we have now a safe place to preserve, we should have a permanent agency to procure and collect matters belonging to our history, as a denomination. We therefore recommend the adoption of the following:

1. That the work, in which Rev. J. B. Scouller is engaged, is worthy of encouragement, and our ministers, and others, it is hoped, will give him any assistance they may be able, by furnishing material.
2. That the action of the committee, in procuring a vault in the Board of Publication building for its use, be approved.
3. That the committee, appointed to prepare a history of the U. P. Church, be again directed to complete their work, and have it published.
4. That this Assembly proceed to organize a United Presbyterian Historical Society, by adopting the constitution referred to above, and by electing nine persons to constitute a Board of Managers in accordance with its provisions.

The nomination of persons to constitute the Board of Managers of the United Presbyterian Historical Society was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The Assembly spent some time in devotional exercises.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Publication was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

The Committee on the Board of Publication respectfully report:

The annual report of the Board, placed in our hands, reveals the gratifying fact that the work committed to this Board has never been conducted more prosperously or efficiently than it is at the present time. The instructions of the last General Assembly have been faithfully carried out, and the business has been so well managed that the sales and donations have amounted to $6,934.93 more than last year, and the outstanding accounts have been reduced $2,418.56. The Board also appears to be making commendable efforts to utilize the talents of the church in the way of authorship, by soliciting from a large number of brethren the material for a series of tracts on doctrinal and practical subjects for general distribution, entitled, "United Presbyterian Tracts." Fourteen of these are already in print, and it is expected to add many more to the number. This measure is to be commended not only for the immediate good which may result from it, but on account of the effect it may have to stimulate those who wield able pens to use them still further in adding to the literature of the church. The publication of illuminated cards is another measure lately initiated by the Board, and is worthy of mention as an important agency to aid the Sabbath School work.

There are three points presented in the report which especially require the action of the Assembly. The first is with regard to the purchase and management by the Board of the periodicals now published by A. T. McDill, of Chicago, and R. Stewart & Co., of Philadelphia. It appears that these parties have offered to sell their publications to the Board, and instructions are asked as to the propriety of the purchase being made.

The second point claiming attention is the suggestion that the Board should undertake to publish for gratuitous distribution among the families of the church a paper devoted to Christian beneficence, for the purpose of conveying to our people more complete information concerning the condition and wants of the church's work, and a fuller presentation of Scripture truth upon the duty of supporting this work with their offerings.

The third matter brought before us is the regulations proposed for carrying out the instructions of the last Assembly for the establishment of a system of colportage in the church.

Upon these and other points, the committee have unanimously recommended for adoption the following:

WHEREAS, It is made the duty of the Board by its constitution to "publish such tracts, papers, periodicals and books, as shall be a sound and suitable literature for families, Sabbath Schools, ministers and the community at large"; and,

WHEREAS, Sabbath School papers and lesson helps are a powerful agency for the education of the young, which should be kept under the control of the authorities of the church rather than left to private individuals; and,

WHEREAS, A. T. McDill, publisher of the Youth's Evangelist and other Sabbath School papers, and R. Stewart & Co., publishers of the Bible Teacher, have offered to sell their publications to the Board; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That the Board are hereby instructed to purchase these publications, and proceed as soon as possible to take them under their control and management, provided they can be purchased on equitable and satisfactory terms.

2. That in case the purchases are made, the appointment and compensation of the editor or editors of the periodicals shall be left, for the current year, to the Board, subject to the approval of the General Assembly.

WHEREAS, The General Committee of Missions has embodied in its report to this Assembly a resolution recommending that the Board of Publication be instructed to take such measures as may be practicable to supply the homes of our people with increased means of growth in the grace of Christian giving; and,

WHEREAS, The special committee of this Assembly, appointed to devise ways and means of increasing the liberality of the church, have unanimously recommended the same thing; and,

WHEREAS, Such a measure would be according to the divinely appointed method of cultivating the graces of believers by bringing the power of the truth to bear on their minds and hearts; therefore,

Resolved, 3. That the Board of Publication be instructed to publish a monthly paper devoted to Christian beneficence for gratuitous distribution among the families of the church, provided such a measure is found in their judgment to be practicable.

4. That the rules and regulations submitted for the management of a system of colportage, according to the directions of the last Assembly, be approved.

5. That in view of the additional pecuniary responsibilities which the above action will impose upon the Board, an appropriation of $5,000 be granted to the Board to carry on its work.

The Permanent Committee on Old Records was discharged, inasmuch as the Assembly has established a Historical Society.

After prayer by Elder H. R. Morton, the Assembly adjourned for review, be translated into the language through which the Assembly transacts its business. We recommend the adoption of the following:

1. That Presbyteries in foreign lands be directed to forward their minutes annually in English translations.
2. That in view of the danger to which these Presbyteries are exposed, of the loss or destruction of their papers, these copies of their minutes be placed in charge of the United Presbyterian Historical Society, to be deposited with other valuable historical documents.
3. That the records of the General Assembly, the Synods above named, and of the Presbytery of Egypt be approved.

The report of the Committee on Statistics adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON STATISTICS.

The papers that come into our hands are not such as to require any special action on the part of the Assembly. They present chiefly a history in figures of the church work during the year. The record is not materially different from that of preceding years, either in the system followed in its preparation or in the results of the various enterprises of the church for the furtherance of the cause of Christ.

One additional table of summaries exhibiting the more important items of business and general character of the work carried on in each Synod is furnished, and deserves a place in the minutes.

The work of the second clerk is even more perfect than ever before, and your committee suggest that his valuable services deserve something more than the formal expression of thanks by the Assembly, and that no one who carefully examines these statistics will hesitate to accord him in the largest measure.

Upon a partial review of the figures and facts embodied in these tables, it appears that the membership of the church has been increased by the addition, of over 1,300 members during the year; that the number of pastoral releases is considerably less than during any previous year, being only 28; that the per cent. of the contributions to the several Boards of the church is more nearly equal according to the appropriation than in the past.

But we need not enlarge upon the things suggested by the figures; they are all important, indicating as they do, just what is being done, and where the work of the church is making progress, and where it is going backward. It is to be hoped these tables will be widely circulated and carefully studied, not only by the ministry, but by the membership.

One thing farther should not be passed over in silence; it is well known that all the material for the preparation of these statistics should be in the hands of the second clerk, by the 25th of April; as usual there has been serious failure in this matter. Twenty-eight of the fifty-nine Presbyteries fail to comply with this rule; the fault may be with the clerks of Presbyteries, or possibly with the congregations; no matter, it needs to be corrected; it might be to some extent, at least if the fact could become generally known to the Presbyteries delinquent.

Therefore the following is submitted for your adoption:

Resolved, 1. That in the publication of the minutes this failure be made conspicuous by a star, or some other sign which the clerk may prefer to employ for that purpose.

2. That the additional Synodical table prepared by the second clerk be published with the minutes.

A paper from the Associate Synod, concerning the distribution of the proceeds of the Speer estate, was read and ordered to be printed in the minutes.

The report of the Special Committee on Benevolence, was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENCE.

The report of the Committee, on the case of the Pastor of the Boston Church, was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE PASTOR OF THE BOSTON CHURCH.

The Committee, appointed to report what should be done for the pastor of the church, in Boston, submit for adoption the following:

1. We are assured by Dr. Blaikie, that he will vacate the tenement in the church in Boston, on the first of July next.

2. Dr. Blaikie agrees to surrender all real or supposed claims which he has upon the church property in Boston, or upon the church.

3. In view of these facts, and of the condition of Dr. Blaikie, the Committee recommend that the Assembly direct the Board of Ministerial Relief, to pay him $300 annually, so long as this sum may be required.

The following resolutions of thanks were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.

Resolved, 1. That the thanks of this Assembly be, and hereby are, given to John Hogg, Esquire, of the firm of "Hogg, Brown and Taylor," of Boston, for his generous donation of two ($200) hundred dollars—and especially his unwearying kindness for the past eleven years, in advancing by loan, without interest, funds, upon the use of which, under divine providence, has greatly depended the existence of our church in that city.

2. That the thanks of this Assembly be likewise given to John J. McNutt, Esqr., of that city, for his generous donation, as Architect of our church building there, through Dr. Blaikie, of his fee of seven hundred ($750.00) and fifty dollars, and his allowing them to pay without interest, a debt due to him for above ten years, of two thousand six ($2,600) hundred dollars, at the convenience of our people there.

3. Also to Messrs. Ropes, Gray & Loring, (counsellors,) of the same city, for professional services, amounting to above $250, gratuitously rendered.

The following paper on National Religion, was adopted.

RESOLUTIONS ON THE SUBJECT OF NATIONAL RELIGION.

WHEREAS, God is the supreme source of civil authority, and his law as revealed, not only by the light of nature in reason and conscience, but also as more clearly revealed in the Scriptures, is the fundamental rule by which nations are to be guided in the conduct of their civil affairs; and whereas, it pleased God in his eternal purpose to choose and ordain the Lord Jesus, his only begotten Son, to be the heir of all things, and Judge of the world, by virtue of which appointment he exercises a dominion over all created persons and things, which dominion all intelligent beings, to whom he has been revealed, are bound to acknowledge in their respective stations and relations; and whereas, the constitution of the United States contains no explicit recognition of God, or of the supremacy of his law, or of subjection of the nation to the Lord Jesus Christ; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That this omission, whether due to oversight, or intention, is a serious defect in that otherwise excellent instrument, and one which should, by legal and constitutional means, be removed.

2. That the removal of this defect from our fundamental law is necessary to harmonize it with the Christian laws and usages of our people.

3. That the want of harmony between the principles on which our State constitutions and laws are founded, and those which underlie the constitution of the United States cannot continue. The result will be, and in the nature of things must be, that our laws will be brought down to the level of the constitution, or the constitution will be elevated to the plane of our Christian legislation.

Digitized by Google

4. That Christianity is the vital and essential principle of free government. The prosperity of the nation and its permanence depend, therefore, on the maintainance of its Christian character; when it shall voluntarily bring itself into a proper relation to the Author of its existence, and to his Son exalted to be "the Prince of the kings of the earth," then "our land shall yield its increase, and God, even our God, shall bless us."

The following resolution of thanks was adopted by a rising vote:

RESOLUTION OF THANKS.

Resolved, That the hearty thanks of this Assembly be expressed by the Moderator to the pastors and people of the United Presbyterian congregations of Xenia, Massies Creek, Sugar Creek, Clifton and Jamestown, and to all others, citizens of Xenia and its vicinity, who have so generously extended to us their hospitalities.

The report of the Committee on Correspondence was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE.

During the past year correspondence has been carried on between the Assembly's Committee of Conference and a similar committee appointed by the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, and there are gratifying evidences of mutual sympathy and regard between the bodies represented.

A letter has been received from Rev. John Cairns, D. D., a delegate appointed by the U. P. Church of Scotland to visit the churches of America, in which he states that it will not be possible for him to attend the meeting of our Assembly. The following will be sufficient to indicate the spirit of the writer. He says: "I am sure that I rightly interpret the mind of our Synod, when I wish you all blessing and success in your great work in the name of our common Lord."

The following delegates, appointed by the last Assembly, attended to the duty assigned: Rev. J. Y. Scouller, D. D., to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, and Rev. D. A. Wallace, D. D., to the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the Committee of Conference with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South be continued.

2. That negotiations be continued with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, with the earnest hope that such suggestions may be proposed by our brethren, or such methods adopted by the joint committee as will direct all the issues in this case to the glory of God, the good of his cause, and the honor of our respective churches.

3. That the following appointments be made by the Assembly: To the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church to meet in Altoona, Pa., June, 1881, Rev. D. W. Collins, D. D., principal, and Rev. W. H. McMillen, D. D., alternate; to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, Rev. J. T. Cooper, D. D., principal, and Rev. W. P. McNary alternate.

The Board of Church Extension was authorized to make a grant to the Associate Reformed Church in Louisville, Ky., according to the articles of co-operation agreed upon in 1876, if in its judgment the claim can be sufficiently secured.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, on the Memorial of the Managers of the Allegheny Orphans' Home, was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE ORPHANS' HOME OF ALLEGHENY, PA.

The Committee on Overtures respectfully report concerning the memorial of the managers of the United Presbyterian Orphans' Home:

While your committee is informed and believes that the institution, whose memorial is before us, is deserving of the patronage of Christian people, still it is a local interest; and, besides, even if it was a proper subject of Assembly action, we have no opportunity of giving its claims the thorough examination necessary to justify the Assembly in formally commending it to the confidence of the whole church. Therefore,

Resolved, That no action be taken by this Assembly on the subject of the memorial.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, on the paper on Instrumental Music, was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC.

Inasmuch as the lower courts are fully competent, and from statements made on this floor are expected, to deal properly with alleged violations of the law on instrumental music, therefore,

Resolved, That no action be taken by this Assembly on this subject.

After prayer by Rev. John Morrow, the Assembly adjourned.

7:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. H. Wright.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The thanks of the Assembly were returned to the railroad companies which had made a reduction in fare to the delegates; to the proprietors of the Xenia Gazette for their excellent report of the proceedings of the Assembly, and of other papers which published full and accurate reports; and to the Moderator for the way he discharged the duties of his office.

The following report of Rev. S. C. Ewing, in behalf of the Mission in Egypt, in relation to the Gibson fund, was presented and adopted:

REPORT IN RELATION TO THE GIBSON FUND.

For some time the mission in Egypt has been disseminating the Scriptures to a limited extent, at the expense of this fund. It is but recently that the mission received a copy of the conditions on which this munificent grant was placed under the control of the Board of Foreign Missions, and arrangements have been made for complying with the desires of the donor, in the work that he wishes to have accomplished. Before the conditions referred to were communicated to the mission, the distribution of Scriptures from the proceeds of this fund was carried on in compliance with directions communicated to the mission by Dr. Gibson himself.

It was the intention of the mission to give a fuller statement of the work accomplished through this fund, but circumstances not under the control of the writer render this impracticable. It is hoped that great good will result from the proper disposition of this fund.

The following persons were appointed the Permanent Committee on Finance: Revs. D. A. Wallace, D. D., H. H. Thompson, D. D., W. H. McMillan, D. D., Messrs. Henry Harrison and James Dawson.

The Assembly spent some time in devotional exercises under the direction of the Moderator.

The minutes of this session were read and approved.

The Assembly was dissolved, when the Moderator said: "By virtue of authority to me delegated, I do hereby dissolve this General Assembly, and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet in the First Church, Allegheny, Pa., on the fourth Wednesday of May, 1881, at 7:30 o'clock, P. M.

Prayer was offered by the Moderator, Psalm 100: 1, 4, L. M., was sung, and the apostolic benediction was pronounced by the Moderator.

APPENDIX.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Since your last meetiug the following items of business have been attended to:

The McVean legacy, through the indefatigable exertions of our Treasurer, James McCandless, has been closed up, and the funds will eventually go into the Foreign Mission Treasury, as designed by their donor.

The church property in Boston has been the cause of considerable anxiety and concern to your Trustees, as well as to the Boards of Home Missions and Church Extension. A joint committee from the three Boards will bring the whole matter fully before you.

Our Treasurer, whose accounts have been audited by a committee appointed by your Trustees, reports a balance in Assembly's Fund, on May 1, of $1,014.50. A detailed statement of his account has been furnished your clerk.

On November 24, Mr. Wm. Reed resigned his position as a member of the Trustees, and Wm. J. Reid, D. D., was appointed to fill the vacancy until the meeting of the General Assembly. Also, the term, for which James T. McCance, Thomas Jamison and Wm. T. Shannon were elected, will expire on the 1st of July next ensuing.

By order of the Board of Trustees.

GRAHAM SCOTT, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The Board of Foreign Missions make the following report of this department of the work of our church during the past year. At the outset it should be gratefully mentioned that there is special reason for thanksgiving to God for His favor in the blessing that has manifestly followed the work of our missions abroad, and in the interest that has increasingly marked it in the churches here at home.

FUNDS.

The Treasurer reports as follows:

The only indebtedness is to Egypt, which amounts to about $4,000.

The Board have been very greatly aided during the year by the increasing disposition in congregations, Sabbath Schools and missionary societies to make quarterly, and in some instances even more frequent remittances to our Treasurer. Most earnestly it is hoped all will endeavor to adopt this plan, and thus there will be no painful lack of funds at some very needy seasons of the year.

The thanks of the Assembly are due to Mr. George H. Stuart, of Philadelphia, who rendered a signal service to our church by promptly securing the Board from the loss of several thousand dollars by the failure of a banking house in Liverpool. It was a noble act, and well deserves honorable mention.

The books and accounts of Mr. Joseph D. McKee, the Treasurer, have been carefully examined by an Auditing Committee, and are certified as entirely correct.

MISSIONARIES.

On the 22d of July last, Mrs. S. C. Ewing, of the mission in Egypt, reached this country with her young son. Mrs. J. P. McKee and two children and Miss E. Calhoun, from the India Mission, and Miss Anna Y. Thompson, of the Egyptian, arrived on the 14th inst.; also, Rev. S. C. Ewing, on the 17th. All these missionaries have been in their fields from nine to eleven years, several of them were much worn down, and all needed a change and rest.

On the 2d of August Miss Eliza F. Johnston embarked for her work again in Egypt, and on November 4th the Rev. Samuel Martin and wife and three children, also for theirs in India. All these parties had been materially benefited by their rest.

On the 4th of November, also, Miss Rosa A. McCullough set forth for the first time for the foreign field. She has been assigned to the Jhelum station, in the India Mission, and will spend her first year in Gujranwala.

DEATH OF RETURNED MISSIONARIES.

Gratitude is due to God that in the long period of nearly forty years in our foreign work, only two of our male missionaries have died in the field, Revs. James A. Frazier in Syria, and Ebenezer Currie in Egypt. During the year 1879, however, two of our brethren, that had been engaged abroad and retired from the work several years before, departed this life. One of these was Rev. W. H. Andrew, D. D., who for a short season in 1851 was a missionary in Trinidad, West Indies, and, returning to this country, continued his work in the ministry until March 30, 1879, when he rested from his labors in the midst of his pastoral charge in Galt, Canada. The other was Rev. E. H. Stevenson, who entered upon the mission in India in 1856, and after nine years' labor in it, returned to this country in 1865, where, as soon as his health permitted, he resumed his former work of teaching, for which he was eminently qualified, and continued in it until suddenly, as he was engaged with his classes in the school room, he died September 10th, at Andes, N. Y. Both these brethren were earnest and zealous, and each ever retained a warm interest in the work to which they had early given their sympathies and their efforts.

NEW MISSIONARIES.

The call for reinforcements to each of our missions is every year more and more urgent. Most earnestly have the Board sought for men to meet it. During the past winter both of our Theological Seminaries were visited, and deep attention was given by the students to the presentation of the subject of missions. Not many, however, of them have as yet responded to the call for help, and the Board respectfully submit the question, whether, in view of the great need there is for additional laborers at once, the Assembly should not make a formal appointment of good men to this work, and in the name of the great Lord of the harvest, bid them enter in and occupy it. "The harvest is plenteous. The laborers are few. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest that he will send (thrust) forth laborers into his harvest."

The Board gratefully mention that the call for female missionaries is much more promptly heeded. During each of the last four years an average of one new laborer of this class has entered upon the work, and the best results are following the efforts of Christian women thus to reach and raise up by the gospel their poor degraded sex in heathen lands.

NECESSITIES.

Next to the want there is of missionary reinforcements, is the pressing need of facilities for carrying on missionary operations. In some of the most important stations there are scarcely any suitable accommodations for either preaching service or school instruction. At Gurdaspur and other points in India, important mission buildings need to be built or completed. At Cairo, in Egypt, the building, which has been in progress of erection for some time, is gradually approaching completion, but needs help for it. At Tanta, one of the most important towns in Egypt, a newly opened and most promising mission may have the good work fail from the want of a place where the people can meet for religious purposes. All the way up the valley of the Nile places of worship are needed, and a little assistance, added to what the people have themselves done, would secure permanent and most desirable spiritual training places and homes for multitudes and their children.

A call for new or additional missionary premises in Alexandria has been laid before the Board by the Missionary Association of Egypt, and will be presented to the Assembly by the Rev. S. C. Ewing of that mission.

OSIOUT TRAINING COLLEGE.

This institution has steadily held on its way, and is realizing the fondest expectations of the friends of the movement. Its main object was to raise up a body of well qualified and devoted men to become the pastors and teachers of the people at large. This it is doing and doing well. Already three of the native pastors in this mission, all of the licentiates, all of the theological students, and forty of the sixty-three male teachers are from it.

The Board are happy to report that after long and vexatious delays a very desirable site has just been secured from the Government for the long-needed college building, and the work of its erection will be prosecuted at once. Most earnestly is it hoped that all the subscriptions that have been made in this country for it will be promptly paid. Many of these, we are rejoiced to say, have been paid, and the moneys forwarded. Only let the remaining ones also be promptly sent in, and some additional donations be made, and there will then early be a school of the prophets there which may make all Egypt glad.

A NATIVE MINISTRY.

It is a matter of great satisfaction that thorough and persistent attention is paid in each of our missions to the work of bringing forward an able native ministry. In India there are two native ordained ministers, and in the Theological School there are ten young men, nine of whom are under the care of the Presbytery, and one of whom is a student of the Church of Scotland. All of these young men are preparing for the ministry. In Egypt there are from the natives six ordained ministers, six licentiates, and ten theological students. In all this there is much to encourage us, as thus the prospect is growing brighter every year of there being early and widely in our mission fields a ministry from among the people themselves to preach the gospel, become the pastors of the churches, and largely carry on the work of Christ.

THE MISSIONARIES IN THE FIELD.

Not one of our missionaries, male or female, has died during the year. Only two have been laid aside for any length of time, the Rev. A. M. Nichol, of the Egyptian Mission, and Rev. Andrew Gordon, who was the victim for several months of an exhausting fever. Both are now better. Several others have been much worn down, and all are greatly in need of their number being increased, that thus their burdens may be lightened, their places be supplied when it is found necessary, and new stations be occupied.

THE BIBLE IN ARABIC.

The arrangements which were announced in the last Report as having been proposed on a most munificent scale of liberality by William Gibson, M. D., of Jamestown, Pa., for the distribution of the Holy Scriptures among the Arabic speaking populations of the East, have been happily completed. A large and very valuable property in the city of Erie, Pa., has been duly conveyed to the Board of Foreign Missions in trust for the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, on the condition that its annual income be expended in the circulation of the word of God in the Arabic tongue under the direction of our mission in Egypt, and that an annual report be made to the Assembly of the work thus done. The requisite conveyance has been made, the legal instrument of it duly recorded, and the great and good work is being thoroughly entered upon. The thanks of the Assembly and of the church at large are renewedly due to the generous donor for his great and useful gift on this behalf.

MISSIONARY MAPS.

Last year the Board was able to lay before the Assembly an elaborate and excellent map of the mission in India. A similar one is now prepared of the mission in Egypt. Very important and interesting information do these maps give of our foreign work, and it cannot be doubted they would subserve the best of purposes if they were placed in all our Sabbath school and lecture rooms. The attention of the Assembly is earnestly asked to this subject.

SPECIAL HELPERS.

Besides the various individuals who have shown a most liberal spirit in contributing to our work, the Board feel that specially grateful mention should be made of the British and Foreign and American Bible Societies, the London Religious and the American Tract Societies, and the Turkish Missions Aid Society, for munificent and timely grants. The Egyptian Mission has been in this way most materially aided during the the year.

The Board gratefully mention also that the support of Mrs. John Giffen, in connection with the mission in Egypt, has been continued to be provided for by the Associate Reformed Synod of the South.

PART II.

THE WORK AT HOME.

Churches.—It is believed the number of congregations contributing every year to the spread of the gospel among the heathen is steadily increasing. During the year 1878–79, of the 798 congregations under the care of the Assembly, 613 reported offerings to this cause. During the year now closing it is thought a still larger number did so. Pastors happily preach more in regard to it, pray more distinctly for it, and seek to give fuller information about it—and thus the attention of all is more actively and liberally drawn to it.

Sabbath Schools.—The children are the hope of the church, and in scarcely anything more than in the interest they may be trained to have in the church's principles and work. Already the foreign missions of our church have been most materially helped by our Sabbath schools. During the past year the increase of their contributions to it was about 75 per cent. Only let superintendents and teachers bring this cause freely before their schools and still larger contributions will be made, and from these schools may come many who will consecrate themselves to the work of Christ among the heathen. Let parents also keep their children informed on the mission work of the church and the needs of those who are destitute of the gospel, and there will be no lack of missionaries.

Women's Missionary Societies.—It is an occasion of special gratitude that the women of our churches are widely banding together to help forward the Lord's work. At the last Assembly 177 Women's Missionary Societies were reported, and the Board was very thankful that $7,351 of their offerings came forward for the work of missions. It is most fittting that every Christian woman should seek to send abroad that gospel that alone can lift up her heathen sister from all her wretchedness and misery to rejoice in the comforts and the hopes of a daughter of the Lord Almighty. In all this good work may the women of our church abound yet more and more.

Bequests.—During the last year an unusually large amount of money has come into our Treasury from the bequests of good men and women who, remembering towards the close of life the Lord's goodness to them, desired to make returns of His own gifts to Him for the good of His cause and the glory of His name. Some of these bequests were called for to make up our indebtedness in the previous year. Considerable has been required to meet the failure of the mission in Egypt to receive the munificent grant of $5,000, which for so many years so greatly aided it in carrying forward its work, and which will probably hereafter have to be provided for. Much of the money also thus received is very urgently called for to be invested, that thus the Board may be able to meet the great deficiency which has to be encountered in the summer months of almost every year, and often to the severe loss and trial of our missionaries in being compelled to borrow money from the strangers around them, and to have their minds annoyed and their work hindered by any failure on our part to make remittances to them when due.

Legacies.—Specially among the receipts for the year, is the large item in cash and securities of about $21,000 from the bequest of the late Mr. Archibald Stewart, of Indiana, Pa. It is probable that at least $20,000 more will come into the Treasury from the same source during the ensuing year. Other bequests, which it is expected will soon be received, may swell this amount to nearly $50,000. This large sum will be at once at the disposal of the Board for carrying on the work connected with our Foreign Missions.

It is the deliberate judgment and decided conviction of the Board that the money thus providentially put into our possession should not be used for the ordinary expenses of our missions. To use the money for this purpose would tend to repress the spirit of liberality that is now being awakened in the church, and would have a paralyzing effect upon the energies of her members perhaps for years to come. The regular contributions should be kept up, and the work provided for in the estimates of each year be carried on without any dependence upon the contingency of legacies.

With this view of the matter the Board respectfully ask the Assembly to direct that the money now in hand from legacies, which has been temporarily invested by the Board, together with such additional sums as may come into the Treasury from the same source during the year, be expended in our missions in India and Egypt in extending the field of operations, in securing necessary buildings for the mission work, in aiding in the erection of houses of worship, and in general in providing such helps and appliances as have been and still are judged to be essential to the prosperity and success of the missions, but which, from want of means, or any prospect of securing them, have not been allowed in the estimates from the missions, or in the annual grants by the General Assembly. It is confidently believed that even the large amount of money mentioned above can be so used, after careful investigation of the necessities of the missions by the Board, as to greatly promote the usefulness and comfort of our missionaries, facilitate their work, and save outlay from the general contributions in the time to come.

PART III.

THE MISSIONS.

India.—The condition and prospects of this mission are specially encouraging. Its four leading stations have been regularly occupied during the year, numerous out-stations have been visited, and bazar preaching and itinerating work have been steadily carried on. The Theological School is doing good service in training young men who, it is believed, will yet prove an efficient native ministry. Large numbers of both sexes are regularly taught in schools, and instruction in the Bible and its truths forms a part of every day's exercises. Considerable zenana work—or work especially among the women—has been done, and the good of it is being increasingly seen.

The great need of this mission is an increase of laborers. For the nearly three millions of immortal souls within its bounds and especially committed in the providence of God to it, there are only five missionaries from this country with their wives, viz.: Messrs. A. Gordon, J. S. Barr, S. Martin, J. P. McKee and T. L. Scott, and five unmarried female missionaries, viz.: Misses E. G. Gordon, E. Calhoun, L. McCahan, C. E. Wilson and R. A. McCullough. All these are devoted and faithful. But what are they among so many? Only one minister of the gospel for nearly every 600,000 people.

Egypt.—Every year the work of evangelization is evidently deepening and spreading in this land. Churches are being organized and native pastors settled in the older stations and new stations are constantly opening up. The schools are multiplying and the numbers attending them are increasing. A spirit of inquiry is manifesting itself in manifold ways, and less and less objection is being made to the Bible being a text book in all the schools, and instruction out of it being a portion of the exercises of each day. A growing interest is manifesting itself in the education and consequent elevation of woman, and the girls' boarding schools at Cairo and Osiout, which are well attended, have largely defrayed their own expenses, while out from them go each year bands of women well trained to subserve the most important purposes in the various spheres of life. A very marked feature in this mission is the successful aim to have all that are brought under the influence of the gospel become themselves laborers in the work of spreading it. Inquirers meet with inquirers, scholars in the schools talk with their friends at home of the truths of the gospel, theological students are employed every Sabbath in Bible reading and other exercises for the good of the natives, and all members of churches are urged from their first admission to help make the way of life known to others. Thus emphatically this mission is having all at missionary work.

The great want in this field, as in India, is an increase of laborers. Five years have passed since a single new male missionary was sent thither. In that time the field has opened up in almost every aspect. As a whole there are nearly five millions of people in that land. The only organized mission there is that of our United Presbyterian Church—a mission of eight ordained ministers of Christ in all—viz.: Messrs. G. Lansing, J. Hogg, S. C. Ewing, A. Watson, W. Harvey, A. M. Nicholl, J. Giffen and J. R. Alexander, with their wives, and six unmarried female missionaries, viz.: Misses M. J. McKown, E. F. Johnston, A. Y. Thompson, M. A. Smith, M. Frazier and Isabella Strang—all true and earnest—but again, what are so few among so many—one minister of Christ to over every 700,000 inhabitants.

Such is the condition of the two missions, India and Egypt. Is this all that a church of nearly 700 preachers of the gospel, nearly 800 congregations and 80,000 communicants at the Lord's table ought to be doing in such fields and with such tokens of favor as God has given us? Freely we have received the gospel, are we freely giving it when and where it is so much needed? WHOM SHALL WE SEND, AND WHO WILL GO FOR US?

RECAPITULATION.

The following summary of our missions is cheering:

Missions two—Egypt and India.

India.—Districts, four—Sealkote, Gujranwala, Jhelum and Gurdaspur; stations, 17. Foreign missionaries, 5; teachers, 4; total, 9; native ordained ministers, 2; teachers and helpers, 37; total laborers, 48; churches, 6; church buildings, 4; communicants, 304; average Sabbath attendance, 785; increase by profession, 73, and by certificate, 9; total, 82; decrease, 47; baptisms, 73 adult and 27 infant; total, 100; Sabbath School scholars, 371; schools, 22; pupils in schools, 929 males and 497 females; total, 1,426; contributions, $348; tuition fees, $1,092; total by natives, $1,440.

Egypt.—Districts, five—Alexandria, Mansoora, Cairo, El Fayoum and Osiout; stations, 41. Foreign missionaries, 8; teachers, 14; total, 22; native ordained, 6; licensed, 6; teachers and helpers, 127; total of laborers in this mission, 161; churches, 11; church buildings, 5; communicants, 985; average Sabbath attendance, 2,083; increase by profession, 103; certificate, 17; total, 120; decrease, 83; baptisms, adult, 1; infants, 142; Sabbath School scholars, 1,575; schools, 44; pupils, 1,537 males; 681 females; total, 2,218; contributions by natives for salaries and church expenses, $3,074; for building and other purposes, $1,652; tuition fees, $3,225; total for all purposes by the natives, $7,951.

Totals.—Missions, 2; foreign missionaries, 13; teachers, 18; total, 31; native ordained, 8; licensed, 6; native teachers and helpers, 164; total of laborers, 209; churches, 17; church buildings, 9; communicants, 1,289; average attendance on the Sabbath, 2,868; increase, 173; baptisms, 243; scholars in Sabbath Schools, 1,946; schools, 66; scholars—males, 2,466; females, 1,178; total, 3,644; contributions for religious purposes—India, $348; Egypt, $4,726; total, $5,074; tuition fees, India, $1,092; Egypt, $3,225; total, $4,317; contributions for all purposes—India, $1,440; Egypt, $7,951; total, $9,391, or over seven dollars and twenty cents per member in all our native churches—a fact that, considering the low worldly condition of the vast proportion of them, speaks well for their religion as one that works by love.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following recommendations are submitted to the Assembly for its consideration:

1. That the thanks of the Assembly and of the churches be given to God for the cheering tokens of his favor to the cause of foreign missions in our hands, and also to the many friends who have so generously furnished the means of carrying it on.

2. That in view of the very large grants of money, books and other help made, particularly by the Turkish Missions Aid Society, the London Religious and American Tract Societies, and the British and Foreign and American Bible Societies, and the Hon. Judge Barringer and others, the thanks of the Assembly be specially given and transmitted to them.

3. That the Assembly repeat its recommendation that funds will be forwarded monthly, or at least quarterly, if it be possible, to our Treasurer, that thus the Board may be able to make the monthly remittances which the missionaries so much need in the various departments of their work.

4. That the Assembly appoint at least two male and two female missionaries to each of our missions. The Board recommend the appointment of Miss Euphie Gordon to India and Misses Hattie M. Conner and Libbia E. Newlin to Egypt. The Board is in correspondence with others, and is greatly in hope of a supply of some at least being obtained at an early day.

5. That in case any of the persons that may be appointed by the Assembly shall decline, the Board be instructed to have the place or places filled by any suitable persons that can be secured, and send them forth, that the missions may have the reinforcements their necessities so much demand.

6. That the following appropriations be made for the ensuing year: To India, $23,000; Egypt, $35,000; to send out eight new missionaries if they can be obtained, $4,500; their outfits, $3,000; for missionaries' children in this country, $1,050; to return missionaries to their work, $500; printing reports, stationery, etc., $500; salaries, $800; total, $68,350.

7. That our people at large be urged to consider the claims of the foreign mission work upon the church and the obligation of every church member to make contributions on its behalf; that the young men and women of our church be affectionately urged to consider from time to time the question of their personal duty to the heathen, and that parents also be urged to cultivate from a loving regard to the will and the glory of God a disposition to be willing to have their children follow any convictions of personal duty which they may have in regard to the work of foreign missions, and to devote themselves to it if they shall feel that such is the will of God.

8. That under the influence of the constraining love of Christ and an earnest desire to have his good work carried on, the women of all our churches be recommended to organize women's missionary societies and do what they can to foster the Christian spirit and spread the gospel abroad.

9. That the Board be directed to have 3,000 copies of the Annual Report published, and that special efforts be made to have copies of it circulated in every congregation.

By order of the Board.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

The Board has met regularly each month during the year, and it has been our earnest endeavor to discharge, with fidelity, the important trust committed to our care. We would respectfully request careful attention to the following statements, which it is hoped will exhibit, in some good degree, what has been accomplished during the past year, and the requirements of the work for the year immediately before us.

THE PAST YEAR.

1. The Progress of the Work.—The last General Assembly granted aid to one hundred and ninety-five stations and their connections, under the care of forty-six Presbyteries. From five of these stations no reports have been received. The reports of fifty-four others are incomplete, embracing only a part of the year—twenty-one being for one quarter, ten for two, and twenty-three for three-quarters. In the stations from which reports have been received, there is a membership of 10,106, while the average attendance upon divine ordinances on the Lord's day has been 17,440. The additions to the church have been 645 on profession, and 867 on certificate. The decrease by death and removal has been 603. In the Sabbath Schools connected with these stations there has been an average attendance of 10,648 pupils. During the year these stations have contributed to the Boards of the Church $6,421, and for the support of their own pastors or missionaries, $50,638. These figures show the average attendance to have been 23; the decrease 43; the Sabbath School scholars 272, and the contributions to the Boards of the Church $1,027 more; and the membership 181; the increase by profession 53, and by certificate 81, and the contributions for the support of their own pastors and missionaries, $1,027 less than during the preceding year. Thus it will be seen that while there has been a slight falling off in some important particulars, as compared with the preceding year, there has been considerable gain in others. And by a reference to former reports, we find that the results of the past year will compare very favorably with any previous year of our history. The average attendance, the number of Sabbath School scholars, and the contributions to the Boards being greater than ever before, while with one single exception, this is also true in reference to the contributions for the support of their own pastors or missionaries. So far then as the work itself is concerned, we have good reason to thank God for the past, and take courage for the future.

2. Appropriations Withheld.—Appropriations to the amount of $2,893.95 have been withheld, because the conditions upon which the aid was granted have not been fulfilled. The Presbyteries, stations and the amounts are the following: Brookville, Lumber City, $64.87; Cedar Rapids, Garner, $96.10; Marshalltown, $100.00; Tranquillity and con., $37.50; Cleveland, Clarkson, $25.00; Leetonia, $150.00; Concordia,, Hebron and Zahnville, $37.00; Delaware, Delaware, $28.00; Des Moines, Adams, $75.00; Centerville, $87.50; Kansas, Leavenworth, $30.00; Keokuk, Mediapolis, $50.00; Monongahela, McDonald, $45.25; Nebraska, Fairview and con., $28.83; Red Oak and con., $50.00; New Zion and Bethany, $28.25; Neosho, El Paso, $50.00; Great Bend and con., $50.00; Holland Creek and con., $43.75; Sterling and Green Valley $25,00; Chicaskia, $25.00; Anthony, $75.00; First New York, Hoboken, $112.50; Oregon, Warm Springs Indian Mission, $750,00; Princeton, Portland, $11.00; San Francisco, Los Angeles, $450.00; Southern Illinois, Cuba, $35.30; Steubenville, Sloan's Station, $60.00; Wisconsin, Oshkosh, $160.00; Vernon, $112.50. To these sums it is but proper to add $500.00, the amount of the appropriations withheld, for the fourth quarter of last year, making the aggregate of appropriations withheld $3,393.95.

3. Grants by the Board.—$2.000 have been appropriated by the Board, out of the sum placed at our disposal to meet emergencies, and to supply the requests of stations referred to us by the last Assembly. A considerable number of applications for aid was refused, simply because the condition of our treasury, during the greater part of the year, made it imperative on us to avoid, as far as possible, the increase, even to the smallest extent, of the amount of our obligations. The Presbytery, station to which, and the purpose and time for which these grants were made, are the following, viz: Brookville, Richmond, $75.00, P. S.; Des Moines, Victoria and Woodside, $150.00; Detroit, Austin, $75.00 S. S.; Garnett, Howard City, $50.00, S. S. full time, additional to the Assembly's grant of $150.00 half time; Indiana, Caledonia, $100.00 for the purpose of securing a settlement, additional to the Assembly's grant of $100.00; Kansas, Topeka, $700,00, S. S.; Keokuk, Mediapolis, $75.00, S. S. nine months; Mansfield, Mt. Vernon, $50.00, S. S. half time, fourth quarter; Nebraska, Rising City and con., $50.00, six months' supply; Wisconsin, Oskosh, $500, S. S., $25,00 for the fourth quarter, was added to this appropriation, on condition of settlement. Of these stations, Richmond, Topeka and Oshkosh were referred to the Board by the last Assembly.

4. Special Missions.—The following stations were placed under this head by the last Assembly:

Lumber City, Presbytery of Brookville.—This congregation, located in the pine region Clearfield County, Pa., has been receiving aid for a number of years. During the past year it has been supplied only a portion of two quarters, and the results have not been satisfactory. It is a difficult as well as a destitute field, and does not promise to become self sustaining in the near future.

Omaha, Presbytery of Nebraska.—The last Assembly made an appropriation for supplying this station with several different missionaries during the year, that a settlement might be obtained by the choice of the congregation. The appointment of the supply was referred to the Board. It was found to be a somewhat difficult matter to make such arrangements as were desired. The congregation, however, with the exception of a few Sabbaths, enjoyed regular service, and just at the close of the year, a call was made out for, and accepted by, Rev. E. B. Graham, formerly settled at Birmingham, Iowa, who has entered upon his work there with encouraging prospects of success.

Topeka, Presbytery of Kansas.—Rev. W. E. Dunlap has been laboring successfully in this field during the year. When he entered upon his work there last spring, the congregation was virtually disorganized, without a Sabbath School and without a weekly prayer meeting, the membership numbering only twenty-two persons. The congregation has been reorganized, a weekly prayer meeting established with a good attendance, a Sabbath School opened with an average attendance of forty-five scholars. The Sabbath audiences have largely increased, while twenty members have been added to the church. The present outlook is certainly much better than it has ever been.

Indianapolis, Presbytery of Indiana.—The last Assembly granted a liberal appropriation to this field, and appointed a minister of tried ability and zeal to the work. The Presbytery with which he was connected, however, refused to release him from the pastoral charge in which he has been successfully laboring for a number of years. The failure to obtain the services of this brother for this field was a severe disappointment to the Board as well as to the congregation. The station, however, has been supplied most of the time, and during the last quarter Rev. J. P. Cowan was called. Although he has been with them but a few months, there is an evident improvement in the condition and prospects of the congregation. The people are united and at peace among themselves. The audiences are increasing, and we are informed that "there never has been as good an attendance of members and of strangers as at present. The Sabbath School and prayer meetings, though not large, are well attended and prosperous."

Chicago, Presbytery of Chicago.—Rev. W. T. Meloy, D. D., in charge of this important field, reports a large amount of pastoral work and regular services in the Church, Sabbath School and prayer meeting, with gratifying results. There has been a net gain of seventeen in the membership, the audiences on the Sabbath are considerably larger than last year, and it is believed that the congregation has never been as prosperous. At a recent communion "there was a greater number of members present and larger audience than ever before."

Port Huron, Presbytery of Detroit.—This valuable mission, under the care of Rev. T. W. Monteith, is reported as doing quite well. The increase in the membership has been twenty-four. The audiences are probably one-half larger than last year. They have a good Sabbath School and prayer meeting in the church, and keep up semi-monthly prayer meetings in the outskirts of the congregation, which are well attended. With the divine blessing upon the labors of its selfdenying and laborious pastor, the congregation will, it is believed, ere long become self sustaining.

Burlington, Presbytery of Keokuk.—Rev. J. A. Pollock has been laboring in this station almost two years. During the past year a well located, neat and comfortable house of worship has been completed, at a cost of nearly $5.000, upon which there is no debt. There has been an actual increase of fourteen members. The attendance upon the church services has increased and is increasing. The Sabbath School is prospering, and there has been considerable growth in the prayer meeting. The missionary thus writes: "The outlook is encouraging; the congregation never was in as good working order; we are getting a hold on the people of the city, commanding respect and recognition. The prospect for increase in membership next year is quite flattering."

Oskosh, Presbytery of Wisconsin.—The application on behalf of this station was referred to the Board by the last Assembly. After considering the condition and circumstances of the congregation, an appropriation was granted, and an effort made to place a missionary of some experience in the field. Owing to the limited resources of the Board, and of the congregation, this was attended with considerable difficulty. Rev. Jas. T. Wilson accepted an appointment, and entered upon the work about the middle of the second quarter, and has been laboring there since that time. The congregation, when Bro. Wilson entered upon his work, was somewhat divided and much discouraged. Increased interest and harmony among the members are reported. Some of those who had fallen off have been gathered in. The membership now numbers forty-six. The additions since last November, have been ten; nine by profession and one by certificate. In a recent letter, Bro. Wilson speaks thus: "The field still widens gradually, and I now have some confidence that the future of this congregation is assured. We know that God has blessed us, and He will not recall it, nor fail to honor His promise given. Only one of our young people yielded and came forward this time, (referring to their late communion,) but we have evidence of the Spirit's influence upon the hearts of several, and hope that the next time of gathering will bring them in. This is the first encouragement I have had in that direction. The members themselves also are much more earnest and appreciative than before. Both these are tokens for good, and I am thankful and glad to be able to write you thus encouragingly."

Chase City and Stanton River, Va., Presbytery of Mansfield.—Rev. M. Clarke, in charge of this field writes: "Our situation here is peculiar, unlike any other congregation, perhaps, in the church. The Southern people generally have formed their church connections, and the Northern population is small and but little prospect of increase by immigration, at least for the present. Still we all feel that it is important that our white congregations should be sustained for the sake of the colored mission we have established here. There is no better field for missionary work anywhere in the church than among these dusky sons of Ham. They number two to one of the whites in the county, and have made remarkable progress since the establishment of our mission among them."

The arrangement with the Freedmen's Board in regard to this mission, mentioned in our Report last year, still continues.

Los Angeles, Presbytery of San Francisco.—The brother appointed to this field by the last Assembly felt it to be his duty to accept a call to a pastoral charge, and consequently did not enter upon the work there. After several ineffectual efforts to obtain the services of a missionary of some experience, the brethren of the Presbytery informed us that the most favorable time for commencing work had passed, and it was at their suggestion abandoned for the present year.

Though not placed on the list of special missions last year, yet owing to its peculiar character and circumstances it is but proper that there should be at least a brief reference to the mission among the Indians, located upon the Warm Springs Reservation in Oregon.

Early last fall Rev. R. N. Fee and his wife, who had been laboring diligently and with a good degree of success, for about eighteen months in this interesting field, resigned and withdrew from the reservation. As we could not secure a missionary to go out before the coming of winter, when traveling among the mountains in that section of the country is very difficult, if not impossible, it was judged best to delay any movement in this direction until the meeting of the Assembly. We were the better satisfied to pursue this course as it met with the approval of the brethren of the Presbytery of Oregon, and as it was known that the venerable agent, Capt. John Smith, an elder of the church, could and would in some measure supply the place of a missionary. Dr. Irvine, the Superintendent of Missions of the Presbytery, informs us that religious services every Sabbath and prayer meetings have been kept up even though they have had no minister to preach or administer the sacraments. Rev. T. J. Wilson who has had some experience in missionary work among these Indians has been appointed by the Presbytery of Oregon to visit the agency and spend two months there. More than sixty members of the church are reported, and others wishing to be received. Rev. G. H. Atkison of the Congregational Church, who recently visited the reservation, in speaking of the results of missionary labor among these Indians, says in an article published in an Oregon paper, "Life and property are safe on the reservation. The doors are not locked day or night. Lost animals or goods are restored if in their bounds. Order prevails. Whiskey is neither sold or allowed within their limits." Yet a few years ago these Indians were heathen and savages.

5. Financial Condition of the Board.—On the 30th of April last year, the Board was $8,456.96 in debt. This sum was due our missionaries for services rendered previous to the 31st of March preceding. During the summer months very little money was received, and we were not able to pay this debt fully until the 20th of October, within a few days of seven months after it became due. In the meantime the claims of two quarters had matured, amounting to $18,584.44. Thus while the burden, with which we began the year, was removed we were more deeply involved than ever. In anticipation of this state of things, which occasioned great anxiety to the Board and serious embarrassment to the brethren in the field, earnest appeals were made to the various Synods, to many Presbyteries and to the Church at large. During the autumn and early part of the winter quite a liberal response was made to these appeals, and by the 30th of December, just six months after they became due, the claims for the quarter ending June the 30th were all paid. We then commenced paying off the quarter which became due on the 30th of September, as rapidly as the money received rendered it possible. Funds, however, came in slowly, and the month of February had been reached without much progress; when in the good providence of God, a large legacy left by the late Archibald Stewart, of Indiana county, Pa., to the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions, and which had been in litigation for a number of years, and had recently been settled in favor of these Boards, was paid in part. One-half this legacy came to the Board of Home Missions, and we received on account of it, one hundred and forty shares of stock in the Bank of Pittsburgh, Pa., and twenty shares of stock in the Merchants and Manufacturers' Bank of Pittsburgh, Pa, the par value of this stock being $50.00 per share. We also received $13,000 in money. In view of the straitened condition of our finances, and the fact that many of our missionaries were greatly in need of the remuneration so long due them, the Board resolved to set apart a sufficient amount of this money to liquidate all obligations due on the 31st of March, and that the remainder should be placed in our investment fund. $5,797.43 have been already paid out in this way, and there are claims, amounting to $1,020.83 yet due on that quarter, which, owing to the late date at which the reports were sent in, could not be adjusted for payment before the close of the financial year, making the entire amount $6,818.26. Had it not been for the timely receipt of this money we would have closed the year with a balance of $6,818.26 against us, which though $1,638.70 less than our debt at the close of last year would have been sufficiently burdensome to have seriously crippled the work during the year upon which we are about to enter.

The contributions during the year, have been from Presbyteries, $29,660.26; from Sabbath Schools, $906.12; from Ladies' Societies, $866.54; from legacies, $15,438.70; from miscellaneous sources, $5,482.86; in all $51,519.78. It is but proper however to deduct from the amount received from legacies, the Stewart bequest, which must be regarded as extraordinary; also, $1,000 which was paid into our treasury through a mistake, and which has been returned. Also, the amount of income from miscellaneous sources should be subjected to a deduction of $1,652, the sum realized from the sale of the preferred stock, received in exchange for the $2.000 worth of North Pacific Railroad Bonds, received some nine years since, and which were, for a long time, considered of little or no value. With these deductions from the gross receipts, we have $35,867.78, which may be regarded as the true income of the year derived from our ordinary sources of revenue. But even with these deductions, the results are certainly encouraging, and call for gratitude to God, and a proper recognition of the liberality of the Church, showing, as it does, an awakened interest on behalf of our Home Mission Work, and the possibility of more enlarged contributions in the future; for this reduced sum exceeds the income of last year, $3,983, and of any previous year, $566.00. What is peculiarly gratifying in this exhibit is the large increase in the contributions from Presbyteries, being $6,277.45 in excess of the preceding, and $2,598.00 above those of any previous year.

The total amount paid out by our Treasurer, $44,317.21, covers the claims due for one year and three months.

6. Summary.—A condensed statement of the work of the past year and of the financial condition of the Board, will be found in the Statistical Tables, and the report of the Treasurer which are herewith presented, and to which your attention is invited.

THE COMING YEAR.

Fifty-six Presbyteries have sent in their annual reports to the Board. We regret that, as was the case last year, in a considerable number of these reports, there is a want of clearness, and a deficiency of information in regard to the facts designed to be reached by the "Amended Regulations." After a careful effort to secure the information desired, we present the following as a summary of that furnished:

The names of 133 ministers and licentiates "able and suitable for work" are reported, representing the full time of 125 men. From this number 10 should be deducted, the names of brethren who are unable to leave, or desire to be returned to, their own Presbyteries. Thus we have 115 able to take, and desirous of receiving, appointments. The time of 73 missionaries is all that is requested by the Presbyteries, while the amount of service actually required, according to the reports, is equivalent to the full time of 85 men. It is evident that the Presbyteries do not ask for all the missionaries they could employ, neither do they report the full amount of service they actually require.

The requests of the Presbyteries for pecuniary aid, amounting to $49,335, and for the services of missionaries have been referred, in accordance with the regulations of the Assembly, to the General Committee of Home Missions, whose report is herewith submitted.

We would respectfully renew the recommendation made last year, viz.:

That the Assembly change the regulation defining stated supply, reducing the time from three months to one, provided the appointee remains with the people of the congregation or station, and performs pastoral work.

The term of service of the Corresponding Secretary, and of the following members of the Board expires with the close of the present year, viz.: Rev David Barclay, W. A. Shaw, Esq., and James McCutcheon, Esq.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board,

WILLIAM J. REID, President.
JOHN G. BROWN, Cor. Sec'y.
W. S. OWENS, Recording Sec'y.

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 12, 1880.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

According to the appointment of the last Assembly, the twenty-first annual meeting of the General Committee was held in Cedarville, Ohio, commencing Wednesday, May 19th, and closing Tuesday evening, May 25th. Fifty-three Presbyteries, and the Board of Home Missions were represented by delegates. The Presbyteries of Colorado, Minnesota, Monmouth and Oregon were unrepresented. The committee was organized by the election of D. A. Wallace, D. D., LL. D., of the Presbytery of Mansfield, Chairman, R. B. Nesbit of the Presbytery of Bloomington, and Wm. S. Owens, delegate from the Board, Assistant Secretaries.

The amount of money desired for the coming year was $52,485, including $1,500 asked for Missionary exploration by the Presbyteries of Oregon, Boston, Des Moines and Concordia, but excluding a considerable sum applied for by other Presbyteries for the same purpose. The amount granted was $45,260, including $5,600 for Special Missions, and $3,000 for contingencies placed at the disposal of the Board. These appropriations are larger by several thousand dollars than those made in other years. They are not, however, beyond the requirements of the work, and were not kept within the limits of the sum named without the most earnest and even painful efforts to reduce them. In many instances the grants made were much below what the Presbyteries judged essential to the efficient prosecution of the work within their bounds, and the Committee was constrained to refuse all requests for money to be used in exploring portions of the field which invite and would richly repay the effort. To meet enlarged appropriations, zealous and persistent endeavors will be required on the part of Presbyteries, Sessions and pastors to arouse the spirit of liberality and bring up the contributions of our people so as to meet the imperative necessities of the service which God in his providence calls us to perform.

The names of 133 ministers and probationers were reported, as required by the rules. A number of these could not, owing to circumstances, take appointments. There were, however, 123 names for the whole or a part of the year, equivalent to the full time of 115 men. The Presbyteries applied for only 75 men, although they reported congregations requiring the full time of 85. In view of the fact that the full time of 40 men in excess of the applications was at the disposal of the Committee, it was thought best as in former years to grant employment, for the last quarter of the year, only, to licentiates who had not completed their seminary course and to limit the appointments in all other cases to three quarters, except when the missionary was desired by some station or Presbytery for the whole year. With these limitations, 39 men received appointments for the whole year; 28 for three quarters; 9 for but two; 13 for only one; while the large number of 26 brethren was left without any employment whatever.

These figures show that the Presbyteries, although at first they called for the services of 75 men, full time, have actually taken the whole time of but 58. The foregoing facts painfully emphasize the question proposed to the last Assembly by the General Committee—"Can the Church rest satisfied to have so much of her effective force partially or wholly unemployed?"

The following tables exhibit the manner in which the means and men at our disposal have been distributed:

III—SPECIAL MISSIONS.

The following action was taken with reference to certain missions whose claims were considered by the General Committee:

1. That $1,800 be appropriated for the support of two married missionaries to labor among the Warm Springs Indians, the selection of missionaries and the appropriation of money to defray their traveling expenses to the field to be left with the Board of Home Missions.

2. That the application for aid from the congregation of Boston, Presbytery of Boston, be referred to the General Assembly, without prejudice.

3. That the congregation of Port Huron, Presbytery of Detroit, be placed under the care of the Board of Home Missions for the term of two years.

4. That the congregation of Chicago, Presbytery of Chicago, be placed under the care of the Board of Home Missions for the term of three years.

5. That the congregation of Burlington, Presbytery of Keokuk, the congregation of Topeka, Presbytery of Kansas, the congregation of Indianapolis, Presbytery of Indiana, the congregation of Omaha, Presbytery of Nebraska, and the congregation of Oshkosh, Presbytery of Wisconsin, be committed to the care of the Board of Home Missions for the term of five years.

6. That the Board of Home Missions be instructed to more fully investigate the condition and prospects of the congregation of Oshkosh before undertaking to prosecute the work there, and that this congregation and all the others be placed under the care of the Board with the understanding that they exercise their discretion in each case.

7. That Los Angeles be referred to the Board of Home Missions with discretionary power as to the prosecution of the work in that place.

IV.—MISCELLANEOUS.

The following resolutions were adopted and recommended to the consideration of the Assembly:

1. That in order to enable the General Committee to distribute its appropriations more equitably among the different portions of the church, the Board shall be instructed to so amend the form of application for aid as to procure from each congregation all available information concerning the cost of living in its locality.

2. That the financial prosperity which God in his good providence is restoring to our country, and the fields of usefulness everywhere widening before us, lay upon our church the imperative duty of largely increasing her offerings to this part of the Lord's work.

3. That since more widely extended information among the members concerning the condition and wants of the church's work, and a fuller presentation of the Scripture truth concerning the duty of supporting this work with their offerings, would no doubt largely increase the liberality of our people; therefore, we would respectfully recommend that the Board of Publication be instructed to adopt such measures as may be practicable to supply the homes of our people with this means of growth in the grace of Christian giving.

4. That in order to preserve as far as possible the rights which the principles of Presbyterianism give to the people to choose their religious teachers, it shall be the rule governing the appointment of all stated supplies, that no appointment shall be made for more than one year, and no one shall receive a second appointment to a position unless his services have been asked for or are known to be desired by the people over whom he is to be placed.

5. That whilst it is the judgment of this committee that the regular work of the church should be supported by the annual contributions of the people, yet we believe that the valuable legacy, which God in his providence has placed at the disposal of the Board, should be held by them subject to order as any extraordinary demands of the work might require.

6. That $5,600, or so much of that sum as in their judgment may be thought necessary, be assigned to the Board for the support of the Special Missions placed under their care.

7. That $3,000 be placed at the disposal of the Board to meet contingencies.

WHEREAS, It is essential to the plan of Special Missions, adopted by the last Assembly, that the Board of Home Missions should be able to secure the services of the most efficient missionaries; and,

WHEREAS, It is essential that the rights of the Presbyteries which have the oversight of said Special Missions, or mission congregations, be preserved; therefore,

Resolved, 8. That it shall be the duty of the Board of Home Missions to report annually to the General Assembly the names of missionaries whose services they have secured for the ensuing ecclesiastical year, and the several stations for which they have secured them.

9. Before sending a missionary to any station, the Board shall obtain the consent of the Presbytery having supervision of the said station or congregation.

10. In the interim of the meetings of the Assembly, the Board shall have power to appoint missionaries to special missions, which have been committed to their care, provided that the consent of the Presbyteries having the oversight of said missions shall have been secured.

11. That the Board be instructed to use all diligence to secure fields of labor for all our efficient ministers.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS TO THE FREEDMEN.

The year just closed has been one of peculiar encouragement to those engaged in this work. The lives and health of all the missionaries have been remarkably preserved. Death has not invaded their ranks, and no serious sickness has interrupted the regular work of any of the laborers.

We report, with great pleasure, that it is our conviction that we have this year made a permanent advance in the direction of solid growth, and that the work has taken a deeper, firmer hold on the people we desire most of all to benefit. It may be that tangible results may be to some a little disappointing, and perhaps unsatisfactory; yet to those who are familiar with what the work was and what it now is, there is abundant ground of encouragement, and indeed clear evidence of the divine approval. This much is applicable to the whole work, but a particular report of each field may show the progress more clearly.

KNOXVILLE.

The College is under the management of Rev. J. S. McCulloch, D. D., as President, who is ably assisted by Misses Eliza B. Wallace, Ida J. McCulloch and Mary L. Buchanan. The enrollment for the year thus far has been 183 in the College, and 52 in the branch—total 235. The grade of study is higher than in any previous year, and the regularity in attendance has greatly improved. When we compare the present with a few years ago, the advancement is more easily seen. The President, in his last report, says: "When I look back and see some twenty or thirty, or more, who have clearly made three years regular advance, I feel that there is ground for hope. When I see those, who had never gone through Interest, demonstrating almost faultlessly the most difficult problems of Geometry and Algebra, and reading accurately Virgil and Memorabilia, I feel that our labor has not been in vain. As to the future you look for enlargement, and if we go forward in faith, and hold on, God will surely bless the work."

The following statement may illustrate the fact that the labor has not been in vain: During the last winter about twenty-five of the students of the College were engaged in teaching in the public schools in the surrounding counties. Their terms ranged from wo to seven months, and their salaries averaged about $25 per month. Their aggregate enrollment was about 1,300. Each of these teachers also conducted a Sabbath School, in connection with the day school, and all were supplied with papers and tracts by Dr. Reed, from the College. The aggregate enrollment of these Sabbath Schools was about 1,000. Thus the College has extended its influence, both secular and religious, to more than a thousand of the most needy in the community, besides exerting a direct and more salutary influence upon those who attend within its walls. Most, if not all these teachers, returned to their studies as soon as their schools closed.

The spiritual work, as heretofore, is committed principally to Dr. Reed, the College pastor. He is earnestly supported and assisted in his department by all the workers, each doing faithfully and efficiently a full share for the promotion of the cause, and for the personal benefit of all he can reach.

A comparison here may show more clearly the steady progress of the work. Four years ago there was no church organization, now we have a congregation of 58 members, ten of whom were received during the past year. The first year the average attendance at the morning service on Sabbath was 92; the second year, 134; the third year, 149, and for the last year, 163. The first year no contributions were made; the second year, $47.25 were contributed; the third year, $98.02 were contributed, and the last year the contributions amounted to $137. The first contributions were used for incidental expenses; the second year, all the Boards of the church received a share; and last year, in addition to a contribution to all the Boards, $50 were given for the pastor's salary. Thus it will be seen that there has been growth, steady and encouraging.

The following will show the prominence given to the religious feature of the work: In addition to the Sabbath exercises, consisting of sermon, lecture and two Bible schools, a regular Wednesday evening prayer meeting is held, and a weekly lecture is delivered to the whole school on some Bible topic. These are all conducted by the pastor. Every Monday the whole school has a regular Bible lesson (one of the International Series) as a regular recitation. And during the week, under the direction of the College workers, there are three prayer meetings held—a students' prayer meeting, a women's prayer meeting, and a young men's meeting. And besides all this, there has been constant missionating from house to house.

Theological Class.—Dr. Reed, besides lecturing to the whole school, has had a special theological class, consisting of eight persons. This class had regular recitations in the Bible Hand Book twice each week. One or two of this class have been preachers or exhorters, and they are all earnestly hoping to enter the ministry at some future day.

The Sewing School.—This branch has assumed, in the hands of Mrs. M. J. Reed, larger proportions than in former years. The enrollment last year was 115, and the average attendance was 75. This work is continued during five months of the term, only. It is one of the most useful departments, inasmuch as these poor people are wholly unskilled in the art of either making or repairing their own clothing. Hence they suffer much loss every way by not being able to make the most of the scanty supplies they have or may obtain.

The same plan as formerly has been followed, of giving instruction in the direct line of the department, and also of adding the Christian element, the scholars all being required to commit verses of Scripture and Psalms. The garments made are generally sold for a small amount or given in exchange for merits. The amount accruing from sales is used to furnish needed supplies. Mrs. Reed has been assisted by Miss Lida Simpson. We would earnestly ask a fuller recognition of this branch of work than it has yet received.

Boarding Department.—It has always been felt that the great barrier in the way of elevating these people is their home influence. To save as many as possible from its baneful effects, we believe every church in establishing a permanent work among the Freedmen has felt the necessity of having as many as possible directly and constantly under the control and influence of the missionaries. Yielding to this conviction, a boarding department, especially for girls, is found in connection with almost every prominent institution established by the church in the South.

This necessity has been painfully felt by us, and during the last year it was resolved to make an experimental effort, in a small way, in this matter. A few small rooms were temporarily fitted up in the College, and seven girls admitted to them, and cheap boarding provided. The effort has not required any outlay by the Board, except a nominal sum for the fitting up of the rooms. The result has been such as to encourage the purpose of making the arrangement permanent and much more extensive, just as demand may require and means justify. Miss E. B. Wallace has had the management of the department thus far.

Dormitories.—The dormitories have been well filled during the year. By means of these and the Boarding Department, the attendance of a number of the best students has been secured, who could not otherwise have attended.

EAST KNOXVILLE.

The school has been taught during the year by Miss Theresa M. Campbell. The Sabbath school has held its regular sessions, and Dr. Reed gave the school a Bible lecture every Friday. While the attendance and interest in this field have not been equal to last year, we think we are not lacking in evidence that the Master's blessing in some good degree rests upon the work done.

CHASE CITY.

This field has been cultivated by the same laborers who have occupied it for the last two years—J. J. Ashenhurst, Principal, Misses Jennie McNeal and Etta Ashenhurst, Assistants, and the Rev. M. Clarke, minister in charge.

The last year has been one of more than ordinary prosperity at this station. There has been an enrollment in the school of 251 scholars, and in the Sabbath school 451 names have been enrolled. These have not all attended regularly, but have all received instruction during the year. The circumstances have not yet seemed to be favorable to the organization of a congregation at this place, but the sowing of the seed has not been in vain. Frequently persons, who profess their faith in Christ in other churches in the community, attribute their conversion to the influence of the tracts received in the mission. A greater interest in the whole work is quite manifest, but it is more marked in the religious than in the secular. The chapel is always well filled on the Sabbath, and sometimes crowded. The weekly prayer meeting, held at the close of the school hour every Tuesday, is well attended, and many take part in the exercises.

The community has been brought to esteem the work as very important, because of the moral effect of the mission on the Freedmen. This is so evident that not unfrequently persons, who had no sympathy with the mission a year or two ago, make favorable comments now on the work, and congratulate the workers on their marked success with this people.

Sewing School.—This department of instruction was opened at the first of the present year, and carried on till the present time by Mrs. J. J. Ashenhurst. Means and supplies were very limited, and but little could be done except to make a beginning. We thus bring it to the notice of the church, and hope it may receive the recognition the importance of the work demands. The enrollment for the term was 71.

BLUESTONE MISSION.

This is a new mission, established since our last report. It is situated on the Bluestone river, in Mecklenburg county, Va., about eighteen miles from Chase City. It is in a country district which is very thickly settled by colored people. The land on which the building is erected was deeded to the Board in fee simple, as a donation, by Wm. McLean, Esq., formerly of Jamestown, Pa. The lot is beautifully located on a slight elevation, and contains ten acres. The building is frame, 40x60, and contains a chapel and three recitation rooms. The cost of the house was, in round numbers, $3,000. To the erection of this house the colored people in the vicinity contributed $150 in work, and the Stanton congregation contributed $200 in material and work.

The school was opened on the 16th of February last with the following corps of teachers: Dr. E. P. McLean, Principal. and Misses Helen McLean and Rilla Armstrong, Assistants. Rev. M. Clarke is minister in charge. The enrollment of the school is 157. The Sabbath school and prayer meeting are also well attended. The Board feels that a most important field has been opened up here, and that the Lord has greatly blessed us in the beginning of the work.

This field is one of special interest, because of the very large number of colored people in the immediate vicinity; because of their destitution and ignorance, and because of the manifest providence which has led to its establishment where it is—located on a farm on which, for many years, the annual sale of slaves took place, for the market in the far South or gulf states. The ruins of the old jail in which the slaves, brought in from neighboring plantations for the market, were shut up, are in full view from this house where the free gospel is now preached to them, which, applied by the Spirit, makes them free, with the liberty wherewith Christ makes his people free.

VICKSBURG.

It is with profound regret that we are compelled to report that nothing has yet been done for this field. The Board, after much correspondence, and earnest, prayerful solicitation, failed to find any one willing to go. The people are still pleading for the gospel, and are willing to aid as much as they can in supporting a missionary. Why is it that no one can be found willing to carry the bread of life to these perishing people?

CLARKSBURG, VA.

The last Assembly instructed the Board to occupy this point, but owing to the low state of the treasury and the urgent and increased demands from the points already occupied, it was not deemed advisable to do so. The field is still unoccupied. The desirable property referred to last year is still for sale. The need of a mission is as urgent as ever. We refer to this point only to ask for instruction. What shall we do?

The last Assembly appropriated $1,000 for the mission at Bluestone, Va. When the field was carefully examined, and its claims fully understood by the Board, it was found that the sum was wholly inadequate. The alternative was before us of spending more than the appropriation, or leaving the field unoccupied for another year. The first was chosen; hence the unusually large amount of liabilities we have to report.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Wants.—A general fund to assist students to enter the Boarding Department, or occupy dormitories. Boxes of good second-hand clothing are always welcome at all our Stations, and their contents always find grateful wearers. A book fund to provide books for needy students, to be loaned to the students during school hours, but always to be kept in the building.

Christian education continues to be the great and pressing want of the Freedmen. They are not receiving, with all the advantages offered, an education of any kind adequate to their need. Reliable statistics assure us that not more than one in every nine of those of school age is in any school. Then consider that many of the schools, at which even the few attend, are Roman Catholic, or wholly void of any religious influence, and we can see plainly that the great need of these people is not being met to any adequate extent.

The Board asks the Assembly to appropriate the sum of $16,000 for the work next year.

It is with regret that we report the resignation of Mr. A. P. Burchfield as member of the Board.

The term of office of Revs. R. B. Ewing, D. D., D. W. Carson and W. H. McMillan D. D., expires with this meeting.

By order of the Board.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION respectfully submits to the General Assembly the following report for the year:

On the 21st day of March, 1880, the President of the Board, the Rev. D. M. B. MCLEAN, was called to enter into his reward. He was punctual in attendance, faithful to duty, wise in counsel, and earnest in prayer for the work in which he was deeply interested. Greatly beloved for his faith, and grace, and service, his death has been felt as a great bereavement.

The Board has carried out the special instructions of the last General Assembly, and has endeavored to extend the general work so as to strengthen the feeble and help the deserving congregations. By the good hand of our God every appropriation has been paid promptly when due, and the year closes with an improved financial condition.

RECEIPTS.

The receipts, exclusive of balance from last year, have been:

From Presbyteries: By Congregations	$11,694 25
" Sabbath Schools	318 30
" Missionary Societies	262 49
" Individuals	176 50

It will be seen that the Missionary Societies and Sabbath Schools have shown an increasing interest in the work, and that the total receipts are larger than for several years. The thanks of the General Assembly are due to the Financial Agents and Superintendents of Missions for their effective services. The Board also records the liberality of the late Thomas Buck, Esq., of Morning Sun, O., for the donation of a section of land in Kansas, from which $3,000 or over will be realized.

In consequence of the delay of many congregations in making their contributions, the Board suffered a direct loss of $115 00. Of the whole amount, about $6,000 were received after the 1st of April. The large balance thus appearing in the report is only temporary, for it is still below the liabilities of the Board. Appropriations will therefore still be made in advance of the receipts, and may be attended with some uncertainty as to the time of payment.

THE PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

The year has been a very satisfactory one in the progress of the work. The congregations previously helped, with which the Board is still in correspondence, have enjoyed prosperity. In some instances the houses are filled with worshippers, and very encouraging additions have been made to the church. The congregations building have shown energy and a self-helping spirit, and report the good will of those around them. The year has been marked by a very earnest effort on the part of many to relieve themselves of all debt. Under the great financial distress some congregations found the loan from the Board too heavy for their ability, and some were also indebted to other parties. Favorable terms of settlement have been offered, conditioned on the removal of all indebtedness. The appropriations to Americus, Arkansas City Second Jersey City, and Union, are releases under such circumstances. The appropriation to McKeesport was to correct a mistake in last year's grant.

The congregation of Lawrence, Mass., has complied with the condition of the grant, and has enjoyed a year of great prosperity.

Digitized by Google

The congregation of Chicago is now free of debt, except to the Board. Of the amount reported last year as against the property on mortgage, $1,000 was on a second mortgage. Of the unpaid interest on this, the Board had no account, and six months' interest on the first mortgage matured very soon after the report was presented. The General Assembly directed the Board to pay a sum "not exceeding $4,600," the congregation having agreed to pay $300 of the principal. This $300 was paid from the rent received from the city for the last six months of its contract. But this was already pledged for the payment of interest on the first mortgage, of which the Board had advanced part, and $117 was for the then current six months. This left the Board no alternative but to pay the interest on both mortgages, viz: $502.70, of which $115.70 was for the time intervening between the action of the Assembly and the ability of the Board to pay the principal. The total amount paid during the year was $5,402.70, including the $300 from the rent of the church.

The indebtedness of the congregation to the Board is as follows: Loan on note of the trustees, dated April 4, 1873, and due September 1, 1882, $1,239.50; Amount of the Illinois Loan Fund, from 1876 to June 30, 1879, $3,313.66; Interest advanced during the same period, under the loan arrangement, $590.33; total, $5,143.99. As this church was undertaken as a special work by the General Assembly, and was subsequently transferred to the Board, a full statement of the account is sumbmitted with this report.

A part of the lot on which the church stands is unoccupied, and the Board has been asked to allow its use for a parsonage, a part of the money for the erection of the house, say $1,500, to be secured by mortgage. However desirable it might be for the congregation to have a parsonage on the lot, the Board refused to assume any risk, or to allow the ground to be mortgaged for any purpose.

The appropriation to Marshalltown was for the purchase of a suitable and valuable church, understood to be in the market, but the effort to secure it failed, and the grant will be subject to modification for a new building.

THE LOAN FUND.

In consequence of the releases made, the loan has been reduced somewhat, and is now in round numbers $50,000. This being more than the Board has been able to use as loans, the balance has been used in the general fund. It is suggested that a revision of the regulations governing this fund is desirable.

SECURITIES.

The following securities have been received during the year:

REVIEW.

To present more distinctly to the eye the work of the Board, an outline map has been prepared. Mistakes have been made, but it is gratifying to find that the failures have been as few as could reasonably be expected, and the actual loss in money very small. The total number helped is 201, located in 48 Presbyteries. These now report a membership of 14,720, and their contributions for all purposes for the present year amount to $173,600.

The securities now held for payments made since the present plans were adopted in 1870, are as follows: Mortgages and bonds for donations, $80,220; for loans, $35,020; deeds (27 to the Board and 5 to the Trustees of the General Assembly,) for properties worth not less than $100,000. Total, $215,250. The receipts during the same period, from the proceeds of churches sold, either by the Board or by the Presbyteries and put into the general fund, have been $8,745.27

ESTIMATES.

The indications are that there will be an increase in the calls upon the Board during the coming year. The Board therefore asks the same appropriation as heretofore.

VACANCIES.

The Rev. J. R. Kyle, having resigned his place in the Board, the vacancy was filled until the meeting of the General Assembly, by the election of the Rev. J. D. Turner. The term of office of Rev. H. R. McClelland, Mr. Thomas McCance, and Mr. A. H. Bryce, expires with this year, and there is a vacancy caused by the death of Rev. D. M. B. McLean.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

In submitting this our annual report to the General Assembly, we desire to make grateful mention of the goodness of God in preserving the lives and health of all connected with this Board, and for the measure of success which has attended our work during the past year.

The report of the Business Manager to the Board, herewith submitted, exhibits so fully and satisfactorily the condition and work of the Board that but little in addition remains to be presented.

1. OUR PUBLICATIONS DURING THE YEAR.

The statement of the Business Manager presents, in part, what has been done in this department. In addition to the Bibles, Testaments, Psalm Books, etc., etc., issued, we have published two editions of "Bible Songs." The first edition of 13,000 having been exhausted, the second of 10,000 has been printed and partly sold. We have also published small editions of "Bible Psalmody," a reprint of "The Old Scotch Psalmody," by Dr. Tayler Lewis, and certain articles on the Bible Psalms from the Presbyterian and Methodist; and "Foreign Missions the Chief End of the Christian Church," by the Rev. Dr. Alexander Duff. Also a cheap edition of the Pilgrim's Progress; and, in connection with other publishing Boards, a large and valuable work with the title, "Leaders of the Church Universal." We have published for gratuitous distribution a complete Catalogue of our own publications.

We have commenced the issue of a series of tracts on doctrinal and practical subjects for general distribution entitled United Presbyterian Tracts, fourteen of which are now published. They are: No. 1, "Coming to Jesus;" No. 2, "The Sinner Saved;" No. 3, "The Family Altar;" No. 4, "Ought I to Seek or Expect Assurance of Salvation?" No. 5, "Shall I Join a Secret Society?" No. 6, "Why Are You Not a Communicant?" No. 7, "When Will Your Convenient Time Come?" No. 8, "None but Jesus;" No. 9, "Compel Them to Come In;" No. 10, "Do You Pray in Secret?" No. 11, "The Psalms and their Use;" No. 12, "How to Keep the Sabbath;" No. 13, "True Philanthropy;" No. 14, "Character—Counsels to the Young." Others are in press, and a considerable number of brethren are now engaged in the preparation of tracts on subjects equally important with the above. Every pastor and Christian worker knows the value of such tracts in connection with Evangelical ...bor. We trust our pastors and people will see that they are extensively distributed.

Digitized by Google

We have also undertaken the publication of Illuminated Cards for the use of the smaller children in our Sabbath Schools. Our first issue of these has been well received. The whole edition of 5,000 is nearly exhausted. We expect there will be a constantly increasing demand for these in the future.

A short time after the meeting of the last Assembly the Board completed arrangements for publishing a Question Book on the International Lessons for 1880; but, as one or two of the Synods discouraged the undertaking, it was abandoned. Many regrets have reached us from different parts of the Church that the book was not published. It is still felt that there is great need for such a work, that our teachers and scholars might have required help in a cheap, convenient and permanent form.

2. THE PURCHASE OF PERIODICALS.

The Rev. A. T. McDill, of Chicago, publisher of the Youth's Evangelist and other Sabbath School papers, having made a proposition to sell his publications to the Board, and R. Stewart & Co., of Philadelphia, publishers of the Bible Teacher, etc., having expressed a willingness to sell their publications, and the judgment having been expressed in various quarters that all these publications should be under the care of the Board, these parties have been requested to furnish the Board with statements of their investments and the terms of their sale, which statements have been made to us. In the case of Stewart & Co., the statement is entirely confidential. The Board does not feel at liberty to act in a matter of so great importance without direct order from the General Assembly. The entire matter is, therefore, submitted for your consideration.

It has also been suggested that the Board should publish a monthly paper, the distinctive object of which should be the presentation of the subject of Christian beneficence. Such a paper, it is said, would furnish the Board a suitable advertising medium of its own.

The purchasing of the above mentioned periodicals, and also the matter of publishing a paper in the interest of Christian beneficence, are respectfully referred to the Assembly for such recommendations or action as may seem best.

3. PUBLICATIONS IN PRESS.

Killinchy, a tale of the Ulster Presbyterians; Plymouthism, or The Doctrines of the Plymouth Brethren, by the Rev. Henry Wallace; The Sabbath Vindicated, by the Rev. R. Armstrong; and others, which will be issued in due time.

4. MISSIONARIES OR COLPORTEURS OF THE BOARD.

With the view of organizing a system of colportage, as suggested by the last Assembly, the following rules and regulations have been adopted, and are submitted to the Assembly for its judgment. They are as follows, viz:

1. Any member or minister of the United Presbyterian Church, who is recommended and appointed by the Presbytery in the bounds of which he resides, may be employed and commissioned by the Board to act as its missionary.

2. The Board shall possess the right of assigning to each missionary the field of his labor and of withdrawing his commission at its option.

3. It shall be the duty of the missionaries to sell and distribute gratuitously Bibles with our metrical version of the Psalms, Psalm Books, Testaments and other publications of the Board; to organize Sabbath Schools and furnish them with books and helps of the Board either by sale or gift; to visit the families in their respective districts, and as they may find opportunity converse and pray with them; to search out members of our Church who may be without the public ordinances of religion; and ascertain suitable localities for new church organizations. They shall report monthly books sold and given away, families visited, Sabbath Schools organized, miles traveled and whatever else they may regard as sufficiently important.

A copy of each monthly report shall be sent to the Business Manager of the Board, and also to the Superintendent of Missions in the Presbytery.

4. The salary of each missionary shall be ten dollars per month and twenty per cent. on all sales.

5. Books not sold may be returned if in good order, at the expense of the missionary.

Unless the Assembly impose pecuniary burdens additional to those of the past, the Board is happy to state that its financial condition is such as that it will require no appropriation from the Church during the coming year.

The term of office of Rev. D. R. Kerr, D. D., and Messrs. Wm. Stevenson and Addison Lyle expires with this meeting.

Respectfully submitted. By order of the Board.

J. C. BOYD,
Corresponding Secretary.

Pittsburgh, May 24, 1880.

GENTLEMEN OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION:

I present you herewith the Annual Report of the Board of Publication prepared as per instructions of the General Assembly.

This report, you will notice, shows a decrease or loss during the year of $6,683.48, which, however, you will see is only an apparent loss caused by striking out of our assets a large amount of Bible and miscellaneous plates and old surplus Minutes of Assembly which had heretofore been counted as part of the valuable assets of the Board, and a large lot of old and worthless accounts which are found to be valueless as they are uncollectable.

By reference to our last Annual Report you will see that we carried as assets Bible plates to the amount of $14,235.90. These Bible plates were bought largely with what is known as the McElroy Bible Fund, from which we make our donations of Bibles and Testaments, amounting to $10,380, and which is carried as a perpetual liability to that amount.

In compliance with your direction given at a late meeting that the Bible Plates be cut down to an amount equal to our liability to the McElroy Bible Fund, I have reduced the amount of these plates as assets from $14,235.90 to $10,380, causing an apparent loss in our assets of $3,855.90.

In further explanation of this, I would say that in making this reduction in the valuation of the Bible plates, I have retained as assets to cover our liability to the McElroy Bible Fund only those that are necessary to our carrying out the provisions of that fund as well as the requirements of our own charter, viz.:

Plates of 16*mo. ref. Bible*, 8*vo. ref. Bible*, 32*mo. Testament*, 32*mo. Bible*, 18*mo. Bible* and School Bible, all of which cost us over the amount at which they are now valued, and which are in constant use and necessary to our carrying on our work, and worth to us the full value of their cost.

It will of course be understood that the rest of our Bible plates have not been destroyed because they are not counted as assets. They are safely stored in our vaults, ready for use as occasion may require.

A reference to our last Annual Report will show that we carried as assets $5,250.45 of miscellaneous plates. During this year we spent for repairs on some of these plates $112.50, and for the plates of Bible Songs $524.20, making a total new investment in plates of $636.70, as shown in report.

Adding this to the amount carried last year would make a total of $5,887.15 as assets in miscellaneous plates on the basis of last year's report.

At a late meeting you directed that we carry as assets only such of the miscellaneous plates as are necessary for our present work, and to close the balance of them into profit and loss. In compliance with this direction, I have retained as assets the following miscellaneous plates, viz.: 32*mo.*, 18*mo.* and 12*mo. Revised Psalms, The Psalter, Bible Songs, Government and Discipline, Confession of Faith, New England Primer and Shorter Catechism*, amounting to $4,249.27, as shown in our statement of assets, leaving a balance of $1,637.88, which is closed into profit and loss.

It will readily be observed that the above plates, which are retained as assets, are such as we have in constant use and are necessary to the carrying on of our work, and also that those which we no longer regard as assets are still retained in our vaults ready for use as occasion may require, and some are in use quite frequently.

We started on this year with book accounts due us amounting to $8,711.88, as shown in our statement of assets, April 30, 1879.

Many of these accounts were of long standing and it has been exceedingly difficult to get any settlement of them, and in some cases the parties could not be found at all. I have made special efforts during the year to collect these accounts, but with only partial success. At the close of the year I still find there are a large number of accounts varying from 25 cents upwards, and amounting to $1,787.01, (all of which were rated as assets last year,) and either found to be uncollectable or so very doubtful that they cannot properly be called assets, as they are worthless. I have, therefore, closed these into profit and loss, and they no longer appear in our statement of assets. I think we have now completely rid our books of these old and worthless accounts which have accumulated in former years owing to not being properly looked after at the proper time, and hereafter we need not incur any losses from this cause except such small ones as must always be incident to any business done so largely on the credit system. Included among our assets in last annual report was merchandise (or stock on hand), $27,175.30. One item of this was $1,043.86 of surplus copies of Minutes of Assembly of various years previous to 1879. As the Minutes are only occasionally called for after the year of publication, and as nine-tenths of these would never be sold, I cannot see why they should be retained as valuable assets. I have consequently disregarded them entirely in our account of stock this year, so that our account is just $1,043.86 less than it would be if these were rated as they were last year. From the above statements you will see that we have made reductions in our assets as follows, viz.:

Reduction on Bible plates	$3,855	90
" miscellaneous plates	1,637	88
" old accounts	1,787	01
" stock (old Minutes)	1,043	86
Total reduction of assets	$8,324	65
From this deduct the apparent loss as shown in statement	6,683	48
Showing an increase of	$1,641	17

Besides the above reduction we have largely reduced the valuation of a large part of our miscellaneous publications by marking down the price.

There is one matter in our form of annual report, as required by the General Assembly, that should not escape your notice in this connection. We are required to deduct from our surplus of assets over liabilities the contributions of the churches and the rents derived from our Publication Building, which latter amount this year to $2,050, but the business department has to bear all the expenses of the entire building, while it does not get the credit of the rents.

A reference to the account of expenditures will show that we have this year expended on the building the following amounts:

Insurance on real estate	$135	00
Marshall Bros., (elevator)	228	10
Kalsomining $26, (one-half of which is on building outside of sales room)	13	00
Repairs $159.60, (one-half on building outside)	79	80
Taxes on real estate	408	10
State and county tax	59	75
Water tax $23.71, (one-half same as above)	11	85
	$935	60

By this it will be seen that we have taken from our earnings $935.60 to keep up the building, while we are also compelled to deduct all money received as rent.

In this case, should not this expenditure really be counted as part of our net gain? If so there should be added to the above $1,641.17 of net gain, the $935.60 of expenditure on building, making in all a net gain of $2,576.77 on the business of the Board.

It should be understood that the expenditures on the building were unusually heavy during the past year owing to some very necessary and permanent improvements made.

The demand on the Psalm Book Fund much exceeds that of any of the others, although the funds to meet it are much less. The surplus of interest due on this fund at the beginning of this year amounting to $307.79, as shown in our last annual report, together with this year's interest, $500, making in all $807.79, have all been used except 34 cents.

By this it will be seen that for the coming year we will only have this surplus of 34 cents, together with the year's interest amounting to $500, making in all $500.34 to draw on for donations of Psalm Books, so that if the call for them is as great as during the year just closed, there will be a large deficit which will have to come out of the general contributions of the Church. Calling your attention to resolution 4 of Committee on Board of Publication, (see minutes of 1879, page 37,) I would state that last year (1879) we sold about 3,500 copies of the Minutes, which is about the usual annual sale.

If the cost of last year's edition of 4,000 copies be divided among the actual sales they will average just 19 6-7 cents each, and were sold at 20 cents, or 1-7 cent profit, with no allowance for losses or expense of handling.

Should the minutes be no larger this year than last the cost must still be more, owing to the large advance in the price of paper and wages.

From these facts it will be readily seen that to sell them at the same price as formerly must be attended with loss, while reducing the price will be accompanied with so great a loss that it is worthy of serious consideration whether the results will justify it or not.

During the year depositories have been established in New York, Philadelphia and Delaware Presbytery, and preparatory steps have been taken towards establishing others in other parts of the Church, which will be consummated as soon as proper arrangements can be made. In addition to this, our publications are kept now more generally by the trade than formerly, special efforts having been made in this direction, the beneficial effects of which at least in a business sense are seen by the largely increased business done, and cash receipts.

Respectfully submitted.

JOHN T. FINDLEY,
Business Manager.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We submit the following report for the year ending April 30, 1880:

I.—BENEFICIARIES.

Eighteen young men preparing for the ministry have received aid. The Presbyteries making applications are as follows: Conemaugh, Keokuk, Muskingum and Sidney, each two students; Brookville, Beaver Valley, Caledonia, Chicago, Chillicothe, Mansfield, Monmouth, Rock Island, Southern Illinois and Xenia, each one student. It will be seen that our work reaches to all parts of the church. Seventeen are theological students, and one a literary student who was admitted as a beneficiary during the time that money was granted to College students. According to the instructions of the Assembly, aid has been continued in this case.

II.—FINANCES.

Early in the session one of the students, recommended by Conemaugh Presbytery, was compelled by sickness to withdraw from the Seminary; although entitled to a part of his appropriation, the whole amount was returned to the Board. At the close of the session, a student under the care of Chillicothe Presbytery returned to our treasurer one-half of the money appropriated to him for the year. Such consideration on the part of students we deem worthy of special mention. It is an evidence that with all parties there is a growing interest in the welfare of the Board.

We are pleased to report that of the appropriation of $2,000, made by the last Assembly, $1,890.59 has been contributed by Presbyteries, a much larger per cent. of the appropriation than in preceding years.

The following legacies have been received:

From Sidney Presbytery, $347.44, being one-third of the proceeds of the Proctor estate, the balance being payable in two annual installments; from the savings of Samuel Rodman, of Kansas, a little boy who died in the 11th year of his age, $11. During the year we received a donation of $150 from "A friend" in Philadelphia.

The statement of our Treasurer, properly audited, accompanies this report, showing money received and disbursed for the year as follows:

III.—THE BOARD.

It will be seen that the sum of $3,000 has been added to our permanent fund during the year. Our purpose is to continue the work of collecting old indebtedness in this way, and by legacies and donations we hope to report larger additions in the future.

Rev. J. G. Barnes, the Treasurer of the Board, and one of the active workers, was removed by death March 16, 1880. Prof. E. F. Reid has been elected Treasurer of the Board. During the year J. M. Turnbull resigned his membership, and David Graham was chosen to fill the vacancy.

We ask that an appropriation of $3,000 be granted the Board for the coming year.

The term of office of Rev. James Brown, D. D., and Mr. David Graham expires at this time; also, the term for which Rev. J. G. Barnes was elected. It is for the Assembly to elect. Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

Seven years have now passed since the important work entrusted to it, which had been so long delayed, and was so much needed in our church, was formally entered upon. In that time it has materially aided numbers to whom help was most justly due; has relieved numerous aged and infirm ministers of much painful anxiety and care, and has given timely assistance to many widows and fatherless children. Such work every church ought to do faithfully and fully for those who have spent their lives in its service, and who are, either themselves or their widows and children, thrown, in the providence of God, upon its sympathy and aid. It is extended, not as a charity, but as a debt for service rendered in their ministerial work.

The past year has been one of much interest and a good measure of success. The number of beneficiaries has steadily increased; there has also been a steady increase of contributions from many whose hearts have been drawn to consider those whom this Board specially seeks to relieve. Not an application that has been made, formally, by any Presbytery, has been refused. In many instances, indeed, the state of the Treasury has not allowed the Board to grant the full amount that was asked. Unfortunately, this must be the case as long as the fund is low, and it may unhappily be that painful disappointments, and even want may follow on the part of beneficiaries. But the Board cannot go beyond its means, and must always apportion its funds according to its ability and a wise regard to the different cases presented. Just as contributions increase, the effort will always be made to meet every case with all the aid that is proper.

The Board are gratified that there is a steadily increasing regard to the rule that no case can be considered except it be the application of the Presbytery, and that each application must be renewed in all its particulars each year. The Secretary will furnish the form of application required whenever desired.

The balance in the Treasury will be nearly exhausted by the first quarter's payments due to beneficiaries June 1st. All such payments are made quarterly. It is earnestly hoped contributions will be always forwarded in time to meet them.

The Assembly has, at different times, recognized and urged the importance of an endowment fund of $50,000 for this Board. We are happy to report that by special benefactions and otherwise, this endowment has now reached the sum of $20,000, all invested in as good paying securities as absolute security will permit. This fund is steadily but slowly approaching the amount named by former Assemblies, and donations are earnestly asked for it. It is hoped, also, that good men and women in our church will remember it with bequests in their wills.

The Board will only further report that, while its great and good object is increasing in its hold upon the churches, yet, according to the report to the last Assembly, of the 798 congregations, only 365 contributed anything to this fund, leaving 433 that did not forward any contribution whatever to it. Two Presbyteries that have received, or may yet receive freely of this fund for relief that has or may be needed in their bounds, made little or no contributions. Surely this ought not to be. Let every congregation do something, and there will be no lack of means for meeting all proper current demands and securing in due time an ample and noble endowment fund.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

Of the 59 Presbyteries under the care of this General Assembly, all but two in our own land and the two in the foreign field have sent reports to your committee. The facts and impressions given in these 55 local reviews of the church's condition and work, together with information gathered from other reliable sources, enable us to present with some good degree of accuracy the following

NARRATIVE:

Beginning with the ministry, your committee has the mournful distinction of reporting more deaths than any other like committee of your appointment.

On the 27th of May, 1879, J. C. Murch, at the age of 59, and apparently in the enjoyment of full health, while heartily and successfully engaged in a new and most promising field of labor, was without one moment's warning called away by the Master.

On the 12th of June following, Wm. Easton, D. D., having attained his four score years, fell asleep in the midst of the flock he had led so long; and his presence, gentle as a woman's, and his pen, keen as a Damascus blade, will never be forgotten by those associated with him in the work of the church.

On the 18th of the same month J. W. Glenn, a truly godly man and efficient workman, ceased his ministry of 24 years, at the age of 58.

Digitized by Google

Seven days after, June 25th, John Armstrong yielded up the commission of ambassador, which he had held for 23 years of the 51, which numbered his days.

July 25th, J. S. Easton, D. D., aged 73, who once sat in the Moderator's seat in this Assembly, who for a time defended the truth and taught the people from the editor's chair, and who in the pulpit was able and in private life winning, was permitted to rejoin his brother who had gone home only a month before.

August 31st, J. C. Campbell, after a lingering illness, ended his career of honest labor for the Master, at the age of 36.

September 10th, E. H. Stevenson, aged 59, whose strength in his prime was expended in the mission field in India, whose journeys were long and oft-repeated in his endeavors to awaken the church at home to her duty to the heathen lands, and whose work as an instructor of youth was eminently successful, fell from his chair in the class room in Andes Academy, and when the students lifted him from the floor his soul was with his God.

October 12th, J. U. McClenahan closed 10 years of good and successful service. His age was 43.

November 28th, J. S. Brandon, only 33 years of age, after six years of ministerial work, which won for him the love and confidence of his brethren and brought forth good fruit in the vineyard of the Lord, rested from his labors.

January 10th, 1880, R. S. Campbell, having served the Master for nearly a quarter of a century, was permitted to hear the "well done" of his Lord.

A. G. Shannon received the license of his Presbytery April 10, 1877. His preaching and his life gained him the favor of the people wherever he went, and gave promise of great usefulness in the church. He was called to the pastorate of Red Oak congregation, in the State of Iowa, but before the time set for the "laying on of the hands of the Presbytery," death's cold hand was laid upon him, and he died January 23, 1880, in the 30th year of his age.

March 5th, Dr. John Van Eaton, whose days were three score years and three, closed a ministry of 31 years, and his magnificent form and eloquent speech and forcible argument and irresistible appeal and magical influence will be seen and felt no more in pulpit or church court.

March 16th, J. G. Barnes, genial in society, keen in wit, vigorous in intellect, true in friendship, tender in sympathy, beloved as a pastor, successful as a minister, ended his labors at the age of 47.

While five days after, as we might expect, from his close walk with God and his whole hearted and intelligent work among the people, D. M. B. McLean, after a long sickness, "passed away in perfect peace, not only sustained by his trust in his Saviour, but joyful in the hope of seeing him in glory." His life of only 40 years, judged by its beauty and its usefulness, seemed far too short; but "being dead, he yet speaketh," saying to the members of his several charges and to us his brethren in the ministry, "Follow me, even as I also followed Christ."

Last month took two of our most venerable fathers away, James Arbuthnot, ordained in 1826, dying on the 10th at the ripe age of 83, and Chauncey Webster, only two years younger, ending his earthly career on the 18th. In early life he manifested a decided taste for literature and politics, and his vigorous intellect would have won him distinction in these special fields, but turning to the Church of Christ, he was ordained in 1837, and ably and fearlessly he kept his vows to truth till at four score years and one he ceased to labor and to live. Two noble monuments of his enterprise and genius are still standing and bid fair to stand—the Evangelical Repository of our church, founded by him in 1823 as the Monitor, and the Albany Evening Journal, started with the venerable Thurlow Weed as editor in the fall of 1830.

With these fifteen stricken from our roll in one year, it becomes us to pray, "Help, Lord, for the godly man ceaseth," and while we sympathize with the church in her loss and the friends in their bereavement, it becomes us, whether we are aged as some of them were, or in the midtime of our days as the most of them were, or comparatively young as were others, to "number our days" and apply ourselves to more devoted work, knowing that when the death list is read next year, whether it be long or short, we may be numbered with the fallen.

In addition to those whose work has ended, five of our number have been by sickness laid aside, in whole or in part, from the active labors of the ministry. But while death has taken so many and disease has rendered others inefficient, and three have been dismissed, the Master has seen to it that our ranks are no thinner than when the year began, for 28 have been ordained as ministers of the gospel, and three have been received from other denominations, leaving us a net gain of 13 workmen. The record also shows that 28 have been released from their pastoral charges and 50 installations have taken place; that 24 have been licensed as probationers for the holy ministry, and 66 students are reported as in preparation for this work.

And now from the ministry we turn to the membership. And here as the number is increased, the difficulties are increased in making up the narrative. The death list cannot be given, but could we read it, it would certainly call a hush among the 82,000 living members and start a train of serious meditation. The life list, indicated by those who, in making a public profession of faith in Christ, tell of a new life begun, is not so long as in some years, though the year has not been unfruitful; 4,009 are reported as coming into the church, while 558 of this number are absolutely from the world, as indicated by the rite of baptism administered to them. This makes our total membership 82,119, a net gain for the year of 1,327. And we thank God and take courage.

STATE OF RELIGION.

And now we come to the more difficult as it is the more important part of our double duty. To narrate the facts given is easy, but to notice the bearing of these facts on the spiritual life and activity of the church so as to make an intelligent presentation of the "State of Religion" within our bounds, is not so easy, and yet that is what we wish to know especially, for by this more than by figures we know our progress in the work given us to do.

The ministry may increase, students may fill our theological halls, the roll of private membership may lengthen; but as the tree may blossom when the fruit germ is dead, these things may be seen while the heart of the church is cold and her fruits of righteousness and holiness very few. Though increasing in numbers slightly, is the life of the ministry increasing in devotion any at all? Though gaining numerically somewhat, is the membership of the church gaining anything in consecration to Christ and in separation from the world? This more than figures you wish to hear, and this guided by His word, and the facts we have before us in these 55 reports, we conscientiously and for His glory try to give you.

As we know not the heart, we reach our knowledge of the state of religion by facts reported on these several salient points in the Christian life, viz., the attendance on the public ordinances of Christ's house; interest in social prayer; fidelity in family worship and family instruction; the Scriptural observance of the Sabbath; sympathy with genuine reforms in society and the state; by the measure of their contributions to the church's work, and by the general tone of their religious life.

In collecting the testimony given, as it was asked for on these several points, we confess to varied feelings. Now they rose hopefully and now they fell discouragingly, but in the end, as was David's experience in many a psalm, we felt we might sing, if not in the most exultant strains, still a song telling of gratitude and joy as due our God, who had not turned away His favor from His people.

The majority tell us, some emphatically, the most perhaps hesitatingly, that there is an increase in attendance and interest in the church service, whether of preaching or prayer meeting; while with very few exceptions the report is given that the children of the Sabbath School are almost all regular in their attendance on the preaching service. A very few say there is no family altar, or it has fallen down, while the most testify, to the honor of the profession of our religion, that family worship is regularly observed. Regarding family instruction, there is perhaps more adverse testimony, but the most here also say they think it is reasonably well attended to.

While as regards Sabbath observance, we could plainly detect this as the fear of many an earnest pastor's heart—though his pen hesitated to write it plainly—that his people were losing that reverence for God's holy day, which has always characterized God's church and people in the purest days of their history.

In the reforms that are agitating the public mind, especially those of Temperance, National Reform and opposition to Organized Secretism, our people in many localities take a deep interest; while as to contributions we can report an increase of $41,264 over our gifts of last year; whether arising from the increase of the grace of liberality more than from an increase in the ability to give more "without feeling" it so much, we are not, of course able to relate; but the amount is increased, and we are glad for God's cause. A few are silent as to the general tone of piety among the people; some say it has "declined;" many say they "see no change;" while some, with a positiveness that tells of revival seasons, hasten gladly to mention the marked deepening and brightening of the piety of their people. While of the whole number of reports that come up from the different quarters of the church, there are but very few which do not conclude that on the whole there is some advance in the work among the people. For the "some" that many give, for the quiet "yes" that the most report, for the decided affirmative that comes from a goodly number, in answer to the query, "Has the work made an advance?" we bless our God of grace to-day. To one agency in the church's employ we would make brief but special reference, as it has taken and will yet take a more important place in the narrative of our doings, and is telling and will yet tell more and more for good in the state of religion among our people. We refer to the Women's Missionary Societies, of which there are 204 against 169 of last year, and concerning which the almost universal testimony is that they are helpful to the church, in the increase of spirituality among the women of the congregation, and in the enlargement of her contributions to the cause of Christ. And as we lift our eyes and take a still broader view of the church's work, by noticing what she is doing for Christ in other lands, we cannot but be glad to-day.

In India, the seed that has been sown so faithfully is springing up in a larger harvest of souls than we have ever been permitted to gather there in one year. More are studying for the ministry under the care of Presbytery, larger numbers of women are reached with the Gospel, and more earnestness on the part of native women, in bringing their benighted sisters to hear the gospel which has so helped them, is reported by the missionaries. While in Egypt, without mentioning the number converted during the year, we cannot but refer to the marked influence of the gospel there, in that, through the petitions of missionaries and native Christians, the governmental authorities, in quite a number of important cities in Lower and Middle and Upper Egypt, have been persuaded by official proclamation to transfer the market, held from time immemorial on the Sabbath day, to another day of the week, and they have the quiet of the Christian Sabbath there perhaps in a greater degree than in many places in our own land. "It is the Lord's doing," and indicates that the time to favor Egypt has come.

But neither at home or abroad will we seek for further evidence of religious growth among our people. Enough for us to say—if the reports are honest, and we have read them honestly as we have tried to do—we have not gone back, but forward, in our work in the world, and are stronger and safer and happier in the indwelling piety of our members at the year's close than at its beginning.

But there are discouragements reported everywhere, and we need a stalwart piety to meet and overcome them. These are a few of the special hindrances in the way: "New England Opinions," "German Rationalism," "Secretism," from many quarters; "want of active membership," one says; "the dead weight of unconverted members," another says, "the little interest so many elders manifest in the cause," "Intemperance," "Sabbath desecration," "Worldly amusements," "Want of brotherly love;" while many give the old and general hindrances that meet us all everywhere, "the world, the flesh and the devil." These hindrances are real, and they seem so great and so deeply entrenched that the soul of the people is often discouraged, and in view of them we can do no better than turn our thoughts to the congregation of the children of Israel, when, according to the commandment of the Lord, they pitched in Rephidim, where there was no water to drink, and they thought they would surely die. "Take the rod," says God to Moses, "wherewith thou smotest the river, and go. Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink." And he did so and the difficulties vanished, and the discouraged and rebellious people were saved. So whatever the difficulty may be, let us, Moses-like, take each his "rod,"—the rod of his past experience—and encouraged by it, as Moses must have been by the rod that smote the river in his hand, when he walked up to smite the rock: it had answered with the river, it will also with the rock. With our experience, and the church's experience of trust in God, let us face the difficulty, and with the rod in our hand, and God before us and above the difficulty, it will be turned into a help, a joyful, lasting help, instead of a hindrance in our way.

And now your Commiftee begs to make the following suggestions: As so many blanks as are now in use in making up the yearly narrative cannot but be confusing, we would recommend that the Permanent Committee on Narrative prepare an outline for a report, specifying the general subjects on which information is desired, selecting only such subjects as will show the spiritual condition of the church, the general drift of religious sentiment, and the friendly or opposing influences which are met; that these be sent to each Presbytery, a conference be held on the subject, and the narrative prepared carefully and forwarded to the Committee; the Second

Clerk being required to furnish the Permanent Committee all statistics that are necessary to a full report. Also, your Committee would recommend that a memorial service for the dead be held each General Assembly, under the direction of the chairman of the Committee on Narrative and State of Religion.

On behalf of the Committee,

T. H. HANNA, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

It is said by men who seem to know that just one hundred years ago Robert Raikes, to whom belongs the high distinction of originating Sabbath Schools, at least in England, started his first school in Gloucester. This event, which in the providence of God has resulted in developing in the church one of the greatest Christian agencies of modern times, will in the course of a few weeks be commemorated by a great gathering of Sabbath School workers in the city of London. A large number of delegates will be present from this and from other lands, and the coming anniversary is the theme of many an article, the topic of many a conversation, and the subject of many a prayer on the part of leaders in the Sabbath School department of church work. It is their hope that the convention will result in the extension and improvement of the whole system.

We thought that this centennial year would be an appropriate time in which to present through you to the Sabbath School workers in our church a brief general survey of the past history and progress of this work as carried on by other denominations in home and in foreign fields, but found the task of collating the facts to be so great as to render it, with the limited time and means at our disposal, practically an impossible one. We are persuaded that a careful study of the generous agencies and methods adopted by others to systematize, unify and control the education of the young committed to their denominational care, would do much to emphasize in the minds of our people the necessity for vigorous work, earnest prayer and faithful attention to what may seem to some to be trifling details and useless machinery. The cry of "too much machinery" is sometimes a convenient one with which to cover up the yawns of those who are too careless to use it.

In the steps which we have already taken as a denomination, we have the beginnings of a general system of Sabbath School work, which will compare favorably with any other system with which we are acquainted, and one which if carefully guided gives promise of being in the near future one of the most efficient arms of our church service. We are convinced that the appointment of Presbyterial Superintendents was a move in the right direction, and are gratified to know that now with very few exceptions we have such officials in all the Presbyteries in the church. It would simplify matters very much, and be a great aid to your committee, if these brethren were appointed by the Assembly each year as the Financial Agents and Superintendents of Missions are appointed. As it is, the matter is overlooked in some Presbyteries, and to avoid confusion the Permanent Committee is obliged to receive the reports from the individual schools, instead of receiving a summary of them from the Presbyterial Superintendents.

Reports have been received from some of the Presbyterial Superintendents. They speak of encouraging progress in the work, of interesting conventions and conferences held during the year, and contain valuable suggestions in reference to the general work. Two of these reports, one from the Presbytery of Southern Illinois, and one from the Second Presbytery of New York, are worthy of special commendation. The Superintendent in the first named Presbytery sent us a copy of a carefully prepared printed report, which had been presented to his Presbytery and circulated among the officers, teachers and workers under his supervision. The expense of printing the report was borne by the Presbytery. Such a report will bear good fruit during the coming year. We call attention to it because it is the first of the kind we have been hoping to receive, and because by doing so we may give a helpful suggestion to others who occupy the same position.

Blanks were sent out through the Second Clerk of the Assembly and the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries to all the schools under the care of the United Presbyterian Church in this country, and we are pleased to state that although one hundred and fifty were not returned, we received a greater number of individual reports this year than last. We are consequently able to lay before you a table of statistics in which six hundred and nine schools are represented. Though imperfect in many respects, these statistics in the main can be relied upon as being correct. In fact, we believe them to be more nearly correct than any we have yet had the pleasure of presenting to you. They will serve to give a fair idea of the present condition of our schools. There are 759 schools under the care of the church; 714 of these are in the Home and 45 in the Foreign field. From 23 of these schools we can get no information. From different sources we learn that in 729 schools there are 74,473 scholars enrolled, and that these are officered and taught by 8,603 persons. These figures show an increase of 16 in the number of schools, an increase 6852 in the total enrollment, and an increase of 602 officers and teachers over the numbers reported last year.

These facts and others presented in the reports, suggest the following remarks:

A comparison of this year's reports, and the reports which we received and presented to the last Assembly, leads us to emphasize what we then said in reference to the size of the schools, the attendance of the scholars, the children of non-professing parents, the children at church, teachers not church members, the attendance of pastors and ruling elders, the Shorter Catechism, the libraries, the current expenses and the contributions of the schools. At the same time we call attention to the fact that according to the reports there has been a marked improvement in many points since our last report was prepared. There has been an increase in the number of schools reporting, a consequent increase in the number of scholars reported as being enrolled, and also an increase in the average attendance. There has been an increase in the number of scholars reported from the world, which seems to imply, as we earnestly hope it actually does imply, an increase of missionary zeal and the growth of an aggressive spirit on the part of our workers. There has been an increase in the number of officers and teachers, an increase in the attendance of the ruling elders, an increase in the number of teachers' meetings for study, an increase in the contributions of the schools, an increase in the amount paid by congregations for the support of the schools, and an increase in the number of scholars making profession of their faith in the Saviour. All this seems to indicate that as a rule our schools are doing a good work, and that they are enjoying more fully than ever before the watchful care of such as are "sanctified and meet for the Master's use."

Teachers' Meetings.—We are well aware that there are difficulties connected with the holding of a teachers' weekly meeting for the study of the lesson, especially in scattered country congregations, and yet we are persuaded that in many cases these difficulties are imaginary ones, rather than real. Knowing that our report will be read by many of our workers, we take the liberty of urging upon them the necessity for more careful attention to the teachers' meeting, in the future, than seems to have been given to it in the past. It has been well said that "no home study of the lesson can take the place of its examination in the teachers' meeting. In fact, if a teacher knows everything about the lesson, he needs the comparison of his views with others to show him the wants of those not so well prepared as himself, and to guard him against the danger of taking too much for granted as to the intelligence of his scholars." We are sorry that only 1,227 teachers out of 5,380 are reported as meeting together for study, and cherish the hope that the slight increase reported in the number of teachers' meetings betokens a much larger increase during the year before us. Two-thirds of the meetings now held are conducted by the pastors.

Normal Classes.—Attention was called to this matter in our last report and the Assembly in its action called upon pastors and superintendents to establish normal classes for the special training of teachers, so that the standard of teaching may be raised higher. Only eleven such classes have been established, and we feel constrained once more to urge their importance. Although the great body of our teachers as at present qualified have done good work, we have no doubt but that a great deal of the work done has been superficial. There may have been earnestness and piety and prayer, but there is not in many that skill or "aptness to teach" that enables them to make the best possible use, in the responsible positions to which they have been called, of the talents God has given them. We verily believe that the one great need of our teachers and officers is training for their work in the Sabbath school. Only 81 are reported as having taken a normal course. The time has gone by when anybody will do for a teacher in the Sabbath school. The importance of the truth to be taught, the preciousness of the souls that are to be educated and saved, and the limited time given in which to do the work, all call for the employment of the very best skilled workers that can be secured. It may be that the backwardness to enter upon this work of special training arises partly from the fact that no normal class manual has been prepared by the United Presbyterian church for its teachers, such as has been prepared by other denominations for theirs. The Baptists, the Methodists, the Presbyterians, the Disciples, and perhaps some others, have already met this want, and are reaping their reward in the increased efficiency of those, who, as officers and teachers in their Sabbath schools, are dealing with immortal souls. Oh, if there be one class of christian workers who, more than another, need careful preparation for the duties to which they are called, they are those who undertake to shape the future of souls that are freshest from the hands of God. We earnestly beseech you, fathers and brethren, to repeat your call for a standard of teaching higher than that to which we have already attained, and again to throw the weight of your official influence in this diretion.

The Scholars—If it is so, as the reports in fact state, that the great majority of the scholars in our schools are from professedly christian families, and attend upon the preaching of the word, and if it is so that 16,965 of them are already professing christians, we are certainly warranted in concluding that if the unsaved ones remain unsaved, it will not be because they are not surrounded by wonderful influences for good. But are the professedly christian homes, from which the majority of them come, really tabernacles of the righteous? Are the professing christian parents setting before their children a godly example, praying with them and for them, and using the appointed means for their salvation? Are the ministers, to whom they listen, awake to the importance of leading them early to the Saviour? Are the teachers, at whose feet they sit, copies of the Great Teacher? Are the sixteen thousand, nine hundred and sixty-five scholars, who are members of the church, walking in wisdom toward them that are without? Are the three thousand, two hundred and four scholars who are over fifty years of age patterns of true godliness? God knoweth.

Helps.—In the blanks sent out to individual schools, we made inquiries concerning the various helps used by teachers and scholars, in order that we might be better able to speak intelligently upon this subject. The reports of last year revealed a somewhat alarming state of affairs in this department, and your committee urged the Assembly to take prompt action. The effort to correct evils then existing has not been in vain. There has been a very decided change in the condition of affairs since our last report upon this matter. The Quarterly, issued in accordance with the request of the Assembly, by Messrs. R. Stewart & Co., has met with a cordial reception, and has driven out, in a great measure, many of the worthless publications with which money-making parties were flooding the church. We do not deem it necessary to present the figures in our possession on this point, but they plainly show that the Sabbath School Helps, commended by the Assembly, are in general use in the schools of the United Presbyterian Church.

We have secured the services of Drs. Wm. J. Reid and Robert Stewart, in the preparation of notes on the lessons for the next ecclesiastical year. Dr. Stewart will prepare the notes for the last six months of 1880, and Dr. Reid for the first six months of 1881. The notes, prepared by these brethren during the past year, have given great satisfaction, and we feel safe in predicting that during the coming year they will not fall below the standard attained in the past.

A concert exercise upon the Shorter Catechism for the last Sabbath in each quarter has been prepared under the direction of the committee, and is published by R. Stewart & Co. These exercises will cover the Catechism in five quarters, and will be followed by lessons upon distinctive principles, church government, &c.

The committee has under consideration the propriety and practicability of issuing a Sabbath School manual, covering in brief the complete organization of the school, the specific duties of officers, teachers and scholars, and containing outlines for normal class work. We believe that at this stage of our work there is a necessity for a cheap hand book of this kind.

In addition to this we deem it our duty to state that there is a wide spread and emphatic call for fresh and cheap Sabbath School papers, and we submit the question to the Assembly as to whether the time has not come for the Board of Publication to do something towards meeting this want. Such an enterprise would involve an outlay of money, and for a time some little financial loss, but in the end it would prove profitable in more ways than one. If the papers are made what they ought to be, worthy of the church, and worthy of the end they ought to accomplish, there will be no need to beg our schools to take them.

Sabbath School Music.—The call for music specially adapted to Sabbath Schools seems to have been satisfactorily met. In answer to our questions on this point, we received comparatively few negatives, and a number of them was from schools that had not yet tried the book of selections authorized by the last Assembly, but that were expecting to do so in the near future. We did not ask for any expression of opinion in reference to the new book, but answers to the question, as to whether the need of the schools had been met, show almost universal satisfaction with "Bible Songs" where they have been introduced.

Presbyterial Superintendents.—These brethren generally are taking a deep interest in the work to which they have been called. Some of our Presbyteries are so small and some are so scattered that it is not possible to adopt in them all the methods that have been tried and proved successful in other parts of the church in increasing an interest in and the efficiency of the Sabbath School work. But an annual report received by these brethren from each school within the bounds of their Presbytery, and presented by them to their Presbytery, would be the means of accomplishing some good, and would furnish a good foundation for intelligent discussion and pointed action.

Many of the Presbyterial Superintendents have expressed a desire to meet in convention or conference with their brethren from other parts of the field, believing that an interchange of views and plans in reference to their work would be of great advantage to them. The suggestion has been made that perhaps the Assembly would recommend Presbyteries to appoint as delegates to the Assembly of next year the Presbyterial Superintendents of the different Presbyteries as far as it could be done, and that in this way something more than a local convention could be held. We lay the suggestion before you as one which in the opinion of your committee is worthy of consideration.

In conclusion we offer the following

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the Sabbath in of this year be set apart as a day of special prayer for the Sabbath Schools of the church, and that pastors and supplies be requested as far as possible on that day to set before the young in their congregations the importance of seeking the Saviour early.

2. That the Assembly once more urge pastors and superintendents to establish normal classes for the special training of teachers, so that our standard of teaching may be raised higher.

3. That the Presbyterial Superintendents hereafter be appointed as the Financial Agents and Superintendents of Missions now are, upon nomination by the Presbyteries and election by the Assembly.

4. That the Permanent Committee be authorized to publish in cheap form copies of the present report, together with the action of the Assembly upon it, for circulation among the pastors and superintendents of the church. The committee published at its own expense fifteen hundred copies of last year's report, and was unable to meet fully the demand that was made for them. Many desired a copy for each teacher in their schools.

The thanks of the Assembly and of the Committee are due to Rev. Wm. J. Reid, D. D., and Rev. Robert Stewart, D. D., for the preparation of lesson notes during the past year.

The term of office of Rev. D S. Littell. Rev. W. T. McConnell, and H. J. Murdoch, Esq., as members of the Permanent Committee, expires with this year.

With gratitude to God for the favor he has shown our work during the past year, and praying that in all your deliberations you may be guided by wisdom from above, we submit these matters for your consideration.

By order of the Committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE PRESERVATION OF OLD RECORDS.

The Executive Committee on the Preservation of Records and other Historic Documents respectfully reports:

Some progress has been made during the past year in collecting old records and other historic documents. A few of our brethren have had gratifying success in obtaining knowledge of some valuable old records, which, at one time, we had almost despaired of ever finding.

In the Appendix of the Assembly's Minutes of 1878 may be found as complete a list of our old Presbyterial and Synodical records as could be made out at that time. Since then such information has been obtained as will enable your Committee, a year or two hence, to present you a much more complete list of old records.

The Rev. J. B. Scouller is now preparing a Biographical Dictionary of all the ministers who have ever been connected with the Associate, AssociateReformed, and United Presbyterian Churches. This will be a work of rare value and interest to all United Presbyterians.

It will require years of patient research, with the earnest co-operation of Presbyteries, to get all the work entrusted to this Committee in a satisfactory condition.

This Committee was directed by the last Assembly to organize a United Presbyterian Historical Society, and also to construct a vault in our Theological Seminary building in Allegheny, or, if thought to be more suitable, in our Board of Publication building, in Pittsburgh.

In regard to the organization of the Historical Society, we have this report: 1st, That we were at some loss to know how to carry out the order of the Assembly; 2d, After conference on the subject it was agreed to prepare and submit to the Assembly a constitution for a United Presbyterian Historical Society, and proceed no further than that until additional instructions were received from the Assembly.

As to the vault, we report, that the Board of Publication, at our request, generously set apart a portion of their vault for our use, which is entirely ample for our present purposes.

The last Assembly gave some important directions to Presbyteries, in connection with the work of this Committee, which have very generally not been complied with.

The same Assembly directed the Committee, appointed by the Eighteenth General Assembly to prepare a history of the United Presbyterian church, to complete their work; and also directed the Board of Publication to publish it without delay. So far as we know, the above Committee have not complied with these instructions.

The action which it seems to us should be taken by the Assembly to facilitate the work of this Committee is, perhaps, sufficiently indicated by the statements already made in this report.

The chairman of this Committee has served for five years, and now respectfully asks that he be relieved, and some other person be appointed in his stead.

The constitution prepared for the proposed Historical Society accompanies this report.

J. C. BOYD, Chairman.

CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

I. Name.—The official name of this Society shall be the Historical Society of the United Presbyterian Church.

II. Object.—The object of this Society shall be the collection, preparation and presentation of all documents written or printed pertaining to the History of the United Presbyterian Church or any part of the Church of Christ, and documents of a historical character pertaining to persons or places prominent in the history of moral and religious questions.

III. Officers.—1. There shall be a Board of nine managers, chosen by the General Assembly, three to serve for one year, three for two years, and three for three years, after which their term of office shall be three years respectively.

2. The Board of Managers shall choose of their own number a President, a Vice President and a Recording Secretary, whose duties shall be those ordinarily devolving on such officers.

3. The Board may also choose a Treasurer, a Corresponding Secretary and a Librarian of their own number or from others, the duties of these officers being those usually pertaining to such position, and such other as the Board or Assembly may enjoin, provided that the Assembly may choose either or all of these last named officers.

IV. Location.—This Society shall be located at Pittsburgh, Pa., and until otherwise ordered shall hold its meetings and have its Depository in the building of the Board of Publication.

Digitized by Google

V. Duties of Officers.—The officers or Board of Managers shall report annually to the General Assembly the condition, operations and wants of the Society, with such suggestions as they may from time to time think proper for the successful prosecution of the work.

VI. The Board shall prepare suitable by-laws for carrying on their work, and shall submit the same, with their annual report, to the General Assembly for review and amendment.

VII. Funds.—1. The funds of this Society shall consist of donations by individuals or associations, and of appropriations made by the General Assembly or any of the Synods or Presbyteries.

2. These funds shall be used only for postage, stationery, light, fuel, room rent and such books, pamphlets and papers, written or printed, as cannot be procured free of cost, provided that compensation may be made for preparing or arranging documents suitable for preservation, but in no case for salaries of officers.

VIII. Amendments.—This constitution may be altered or amended at any regular meeting of the General Assembly, at the request of the Society made in its annual report or upon notice given by any two members of the Assembly at least one day before taking the vote.

IX. This constitution shall be of force so soon as adopted and the Board provided for are elected by the General Assembly.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOL MUSIC.

As directed by the General Assembly of 1879, the committee proceeded at once to revise and publish the selections made, and reported to that Assembly.

Soon after the adjournment of the Assembly a meeting of the committee, occupying days, was held, at which each selection was carefully reconsidered, and such rejections and changes were made as in the judgment of the committee were necessary to bring the work into conformity with the requirement of the Assembly.

The negotiations for the use of tunes and the preparation of the manuscript for the printer required much time and labor, and many unforeseen and unavoidable detentions so retarded the work of publication that it was not until near the close of December that the work was issued.

The committee have given much time, thought and labor to the work. How far they have succeeded in the task assigned them is not for them to say. The rapidity with which the first edition of over 13,000 copies has been taken by the church, and the continuous demand, we think, may be accepted as evidence that the work has, in some measure at least, met a felt want in the church.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF SAN FRANCISCO ON THE MISSION TO THE CHINESE ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

The Presbytery of San Francisco, through their Committee, respectfully report concerning the Mission to the Chinese on the Pacific Coast:

During the year the life and health of your missionary and his assistants have been mercifully preserved, and the work of the mission faithfully prosecuted without interruption. In his annual report to Presbytery, Mr. Nevin says: "The attendance during the year has been as regular as we could hope from such a shifting people. We have had from 50 to 100 in attendance, with an average of 15 to 25. Some of them have made very fair progress in the study of English, getting some knowledge of geography and natural science as they went along. We have kept up the regular Wednesday evening lecture and Saturday evening Bible class; both exercises being in the Chinese language. The Sabbath school has also continued without interruption, and also the regular Chinese preaching service every Sabbath evening.

Digitized by Google

The attention of some seems to be well arrested, and they have been brought to a serious consideration of the truth. We have not baptized any one during the year, but have good hope that some are not far from the kingdom of God. I desire to make special mention of two, who have been assiduous in the study of the Scriptures, comparing Scripture with Scripture, and who, I trust, will some day be useful men to their own people in China."

The Treasurer of Presbytery, Rev. M. M. Gibson, reports $12,810.00 belonging to the permanent fund of the Chinese Mission. Of this sum, $12,500 have been loaned in various sums at ten per centum per annum. The remaining $310 are in the savings bank, San Francisco. The profits of the whole fund have during the year amounted to $1,241.15, which has been expended for the running expenses of the mission. We also report to the Assembly that of the $1,600 appropriated by the last Assembly for the support of Mr. Nevin, only $625.43 have been received. This left your missionary very inadquately supported during the past year.

In regard to this matter Presbytery took the following action:

1st, We earnestly recommend that all moneys needed for carrying on the mission, in excess of the revenue from the permanent fund, be supplied through the Board of Foreign Missions, and that this Presbytery respectfully declines to be responsible for raising the same.

2d, We recommend that Presbytery ask from the General Assembly the sum of $1,600, for carrying on the work during the coming year, and also such sum as may be necessary to make up the deficit of the present year.

The Presbytery reappointed Rev. Jos. McKee assistant teacher for the coming year, at a salary of $50 per month.

Respectfully submitted.

PAPER FROM THE ASSOCIATE SYNOD CONCERNING THE DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROCEEDS OF THE SPEER ESTATE.

The following action was taken by the Associate Synod at its meeting this day and directed to be transmitted to your body for information:

WHEREAS, The General Assembly of last year, in response to the action of the Associate Synod requesting that the Board of Education be directed to pay over to the Trustees of the Xenia Theological Seminary the sum of $1,000 annually, for the purpose of assisting pious young men preparing for the gospel ministry, from the proceeds of the Speer estate transferred to it by the action of the Associate Synod in 1870, instead of complying with said request, ordered the Board to make an absolute transfer of $6,000 of its fund derived from said estate; and,

WHEREAS, Said request was made under a misapprehension in regard to the action of Synod in 1870, the minutes not being present; and,

WHEREAS, The action of the last Assembly may cause some embarrassment to the Board of Education; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That while gratefully acknowledging the kindness of the Assembly and the Board in acceding so far to the request of Synod, yet the Synod deems it expedient and hereby does request the Trustees of the Xenia Theological Seminary to return the $6,000 received from the Board of Education.

2. That the Treasurer of Synod is hereby directed to pay one-third part of the proceeds of the Speer estate in the manner following, viz.: First, one thousand dollars from this one-third part to the Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Allegheny to aid in erecting a dormitory in connection with said Seminary; provided, however, that the title to said dormitory be vested in the United Presbyterian Church; and, secondly, the entire aforesaid one-third part thereafter, until otherwise ordered, to the Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Xenia, to be used in aiding pious young men preparing for the gospel ministry.

3. That so much of the action of the Synod in 1870 as is inconsistent with the above resolutions be and hereby is repealed.

By order of Synod.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE WITH THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

During the past year correspondence has been carried on by letter, and there are gratifying evidences of mutual sympathy and regard between the bodies represented. No definite steps, however, have been taken for attaining greater co-operation and unity, yet the desire for this it is believed is increasingly cherished.

In view of the great oneness of these two churches in their profession, their matter and manner of worship, and of the aims they have in common, your committee recommend that the negotiations shall be continued, and that intimation be given to our brethren of the Associate Reformed Synod of our desire for this and for any suggestions also that may be made for the furtherance of the object in view, with the earnest prayer that God will direct all the issues in this case to the glory of His name and the good of His cause in the hand of our respective churches.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Committee appointed to co-operate with the International Sabbath Association in securing a better observance of the Sabbath, begs leave to report as follows:

In response to a request by the Secretary of the Association aforenamed, we made arrangements to have the sentiment of the United Presbyterian Church represented at a convention, held in Philadelphia, last winter, in the interests of the Sabbath. As none of the members of the Committee could conveniently attend, Drs. Dales, Barr and Stewart, of Philadelphia, were asked by us to attend and take part in the deliberations of the meeting. With this request those brethren kindly complied, and thus, through their agency, the Committee was enabled to fulfill, in some measure, the design of its appointment. The meeting in question was, we have learned, but scantily attended, and, as no very important or definite action was taken by it, we deem it needless to advert further to it.

We might here fitly close our report; but a desire to keep the question of the Sabbath before the mind of the church induces us to extend our statement beyond mere conventional or strictly legal limits, and submit to the Assembly a few considerations and suggestions which appear to us worthy of attention. The hints we feel impelled to offer may conveniently be arranged under three heads, namely, discouragements, encouragements and recommendations.

DISCOURAGEMENTS.

Flagrant Sabbath-breaking, heretofore confined mainly to the large cities, has of late been rapidly extending to the smaller towns and the rural districts. The running of railway trains, and especially of excursion trains, on the Sabbath, is expressive and productive of an appalling spread of the spirit of Sabbath profanation throughout the country.

The direct countenance given by the Government to Sabbath-breaking, in the transmission of mails and the opening of postoffices on the Lord's day, is deeply to be deplored.

There is reason to fear that the practice of reading secular newspapers on the Sabbath is on the increase, and that, too, among professing Christians. The leading daily newspapers of New York are now issued on the Sabbath as well as on the other days of the week; and one of them, when recently adopting this course, urged as its excuse for so doing, that it simply responded to the demands of the people who support churches in New York; nay, that the warmest congratulations it had received on the change had proceeded from ministers of the gospel. While we greatly question the correctness of the statement thus made, and venture to say that few ministers of any evangelical denomination could be guilty of extending congratulations on such a melancholy occasion, we are yet persuaded that the lowered tone as to Sabbath observance exhibited by both the people and the ministry of evangelical churches emboldened the conductors of the newspaper in question to take the step they have taken, and offer the apology on which we have been commenting.

Digitized by Google

That the reading of secular newspapers on the Sabbath has found place in our church, we have no evidence to prove; but, when other Christian denominations are invaded, as they, doubtless, are, by the practice, we have reason to fear an extension of it to ourselves. And if so palpable a form of Sabbath desecration may not find countenance among us, there is too clear evidence to show that in conversation on the sacred day, we are far from being as guarded and scrupulous as we ought to be. What better than the matter contained in secular newspapers, is the conversation which often takes place at church doors, or at the firesides of professing Christians on the Sabbath?

Moreover, there is reason to suspect that levity of spirit and demeanor is fostered in the young by the manner in which Sabbath schools are in some cases conducted. So much has been said about the austerity and gloom of a puritanical Sabbath by flippant and reckless talkers, who have the public ear, that there is a tendency created to go to an opposite extreme; and the young are led to regard themselves as victims of antiquated dogmas when parental or ecclesiastical authority requires them to make a difference of a marked sort between the Sabbath and the other days of the week.

ENCOURAGEMENTS.

The zeal displayed by not a few in our own church, who have during the year used their voices or pens in vigorous vindication of the proper meaning and authority of the Fourth Commandment, is gratifying and inspiriting.

It is cheering, also, while ominous, that in Boston and some other cities of New England, conventions for the adoption of measures in defense of the Sabbath against the aggressions made upon it by steamboat and railroad companies, have been held during the year.

In Great Britain, the friends of the Sabbath are on the alert, and are from time to time exerting a combined influence in maintaining the laws already enacted for the protection of the day; and even in Germany, there are gratifying signs of a happy reaction in the direction of Sabbath observance. In Italy, also, the Waldenses and other Protestant denominations are giving considerable attention at present to the diffusion and defence of Scriptural views touching the obligation of the Fourth Commandment.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

In consideration of the facts enumerated, and of others which might be mentioned, the following resolutions are recommended to the Assembly for adoption, namely:

Resolved, 1. That in the signs of an awakening interest and zeal on the part of professing Christians in behalf of the sanctification of the Lord's day, the Assembly finds reasons for encouragement, and for gratitude to the Lord of the Sabbath.

2. That the Assembly hereby exhorts all under its care to avoid current modes of Sabbath desecration, such as worldly conversation; social visiting; reading of secular newspapers, or of books unsuitable to the sacredness of the Sabbath; levity in the Sabbath school; neglect of public worship; unnecessary travel; and resorting to the postoffice to obtain or deposit mail matter.

3. That sessions are hereby reminded of their duty to exercise discipline firmly, yet discreetly, in vindication of the law of the Sabbath, and to make diligent efforts to have the rising generation rightly taught and trained in reference to the sacredness of the Lord's day.

4. That the Assembly recommends that on the first Sabbath of July next, or as soon thereafter as convenient, pastors take occasion to set forth in such a way as may seem to them most suitable, the obligation and advantages of strict Sabbath observance.

5. That a permanent committee of five members be appointed, whose duties shall be to co-operate at their discretion with the International Sabbath Association, especially in securing the abolition of the internal Sabbath postal service, and to report annually to the Assembly such measures as they may judge advisable to promote scriptural Sabbath observance.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON COMMISSIONS.

The committee appointed to consider the question of "Commissions," begs leave to report as follows:

While our Book of Government and Discipline warrants the appointment of "Committees" and "Commissions," it does not define either of the words or expressly state wherein they differ in import, as technically used.

The difference in meaning between these terms cannot be ascertained from etymology; for, in this respect, they are radically identical. In these circumstances traditional usage must be our guide in distinguishing between a committee and a commission. Thus guided, we would define a committee to be an agency which, in order to facilitate the transaction of business, may be employed by a church court either to prepare business for the action of the court, or to carry into effect decisions already given.

A commission, on the other hand, may be defined to be an agency invested with the authority of the court appointing it, and employed to act as the court in matters to which the full court cannot, without great inconvenience, attend.

A committee is subsidiary simply to the body appointing it; whereas, a commission is a virtual continuation, for a specific purpose, of the appointing body.

Our Book of Government and Discipline sanctions expressly the appointment of commissions for two purposes alone, namely, for the taking of testimony under certain circumstances (see Book of Government and Discipline, part III., chap. vii., sec. 15), and for the final adjudication of appeals in cases of discipline (see Book of Government and Discipline, part I., chap. iii., art. 4, sec. 4).

A commission for taking testimony may, for sake of distinction, be designated a preparatory commission; and, according to our law, any church court is at liberty to appoint such a commission.

A commission for the settlement of appeals may be called a judicial commission, and it is in reference to commissions of this sort, we assume, that a report is expected of us.

That a commission of the kind in question is in consonance with the spirit of Presbyterianism, can hardly be doubted, in view of the fact that the representative principle enters so deeply into that system, and of the practice of probably every branch of the Presbyterian Church.

As there is danger, however, that the plea of convenience might be carried too far, our church has limited to an extent the exercise of the right of appointing judicial commissions. To the General Assembly alone is reserved the right to appoint such commissions, and to it only for the determination of appeals in cases of discipline.

Our Book of Government and Discipline does not deny the inherent right of subordinate courts to remit appeals to commissions; but from the fact that it expressly recognizes such a mode of disposing of appeals as belonging to the General Assembly, and does not so recognize any of the lower courts, we infer that to the former the liberty of so disposing of judicial cases was to be restricted. Had the design been otherwise, there surely would have been greater need to state that the subordinate courts are vested with this authority, than that the General Assembly is.

The restriction (in question) appears to us just and wise. The multiplication of commissions for adjudication is not desirable. It is most satisfactory when each court transacts in its ordinary and full meeting whatsoever business legitimately belongs to it. Recourse should be had to the expedient of commissions only for the disposal of cases into which it would be exceedingly inconvenient for the ordinary court to enter sufficiently in order to a proper adjustment. But it may be presumed that none of the subordinate courts will be so burdened with business as to find it requisite to create an auxiliary commission; and, even should an unusual pressure occur, they could cope with it by appointing an extra meeting; whereas, the General Assembly, composed as it is of delegates from all parts of the vast territory over which the church extends, could not hold an extra meeting without great expense and inconvenience.

On the whole, then, it seems to us that the provisions of our Book of Government and Discipline, in the matter of commissions, are equitable and salutary, and that there is no need for framing a new chapter or section on the subject for incorporation in said book.

It may, however, be advisable for the General Assembly to give an interpretation of the law touching commissions, and furnish some rules to prevent embarrassments and mistakes in its application.

Influenced by the considerations now adduced and by others which a desire to avoid

Digitized by Google

an undue extension of this report restrains us from presenting, we submit the following resolutions, with the recommendation that they be adopted by the General Assembly, viz.:

Resolved, 1. That any modification or expansion of our organic law on the subject of commissions is unnecessary and inexpedient.

2. That, according to our law, the General Assembly alone is authorized to appoint a judicial commission, and that only for the adjudication of appeals in cases of discipline.

3. That recourse should be had to the expedient of referring appeals to commissions only when it would be extremely inconvenient for the full court to transact the business.

4. That it is advisable that a commission consist of a considerable number of members, although not necessarily of a number equal to a quorum of the appointing body.

5. That a commission should be governed, in its method of procedure, by the rules, so far as applicable, of the appointing court.

6. That a commission should make a full report of its proceedings to the General Assembly, at the first meeting of said court after the commission has completed its business, in order that the decision reached may be placed on record.

7. That the decision of a commission, like a decision of the General Assembly itself, shall be subject to review and rectification on the part of the General Assembly.

8. That the same right of protest, which exists in regard to a decision of the General Assembly, is to be recognized in respect to the action of a commission.

9. That the decision of a commission is authoritative till set aside or changed by the appointing court.

10. That while an appeal from the action of a commission is no more admissible than an appeal from the highest court itself, yet the right of memoralizing or moving said court to review and reverse the proceedings of a commission must be acknowledged.

11. That in case of review, the members of a commission, if members of the court reviewing, shall retain the full right to deliberate and vote.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON THE BOSTON CHURCH.

At the last meeting of the General Assembly, the matter of the Boston Church property was "referred to the Trustees of the General Assembly, the Board of Home Missions and the Board of Church Extension, with instructions to take such steps as may be necessary to maintain the congregation and protect the property for the present year, and report to the next Assembly their judgment as to the final disposition of this mission."—Minutes, vol. v., 1879, page 36. In accordance with these instructions, the Boards mentioned above present the following joint report:

The three Boards have held three joint meetings during the year, and have attended to the business entrusted to them. At a meeting held June 16, 1879, W. J. Reid, D. D., President of the Board of Home Missions, was requested to visit Boston. He did so, and made a report to the Boards at another meeting in October, 1879. This report, together with the exhaustive statement presented to the General Assembly of 1879, by the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Church Extension, and a number of communications from Dr. Blaikie, has furnished the information upon which our judgment, as herein expressed, is based.

I.—THE PROPERTY.

The church building is situated in a very desirable location, at the corner of Berkley and Chandler streets. On the outside it presents a good appearance, but the internal arrangements could be improved. The building is in a good condition. The property is estimated to be worth $30,000 at least. The title is held by the Trustees of the General Assembly. If detailed information on these points is desired, it will be found in the report of the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Church Extension, which has been mentioned above.

Digitized by Google

II.—THE INDEBTEDNESS.

The chief indebtedness is a mortgage on the property for $11,500; but in addition to this there are unpaid claims, amounting to perhaps $500. The congregation has paid the interest on the mortgage, which fell due during the year, and the taxes, and has also made some effort to lift a part of the floating debt. The Trustees of the General Assembly have renewed for five years a policy of insurance on the building for $6,000, and have permitted another for $4,000 to expire. There is another policy for $6,000, which does not expire till 1883; so that the insurance amounts to $12,000. The report of the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Church Extension, already referred to, states the indebtedness in detail.

III.—RECENT TROUBLES.

In April, 1879, during a severe wind storm, a man passing by the church was struck on the head by a falling slate, and so much injured that he was for a time under the care of a physician. The man asserted that the slate came from the roof of the church, and offered to settle with the congregation on the payment of damages. The congregation believed, from the direction of the wind and the condition of the roof, that it was not probable that the slate came from the church, and that, if it did, the accident was one to which they had not contributed by neglect. They, therefore, refused to consider the offer to settle, and suit was entered against them. The trial of the case in February last resulted in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $4,700. The judge afterwards set aside this verdict. Inasmuch as the issue of another trial would be doubtful, and the expenses considerable, it was thought best by the attorneys in Boston, and by the Trustees of the Assembly, to make a compromise. This was accomplished by the payment of $750, of which sum $350 was given by the Trustees of the General Assembly, and the remaining $400 by Dr. Blaikie and the congregation in Boston, with help from outside friends.

IV.—THE FIELD.

Beyond any question the field is a good one. There is a very considerable element of the population of Boston from Scotland, Ireland and the provinces, favorably disposed to the faith and practice of our denomination. Many of these might be gathered in; and as Boston is one of the distributing centers for the West, they would be saved to our church if there was a congregation to receive them and commend them to their permanent homes.

Besides this, our property there is a valuable one. No better location for a church edifice could be found in the city. It would not be wise, without the most satisfactory reasons, to give up the hold we have acquired in Boston at so great an expenditure of money and labor.

It is true, the congregation does not seem to be growing in numbers or influence. The membership is not now as large as it has been in former years. In the statistics for 1879, the number of communicants reported is 139; but how many of these are active members we have no means of knowing. Nor is the attendance on the Sabbath large. On the last Sabbath of August, 1879, fifty persons were present at the morning, and sixty-six at the afternoon service. This, however, was perhaps not the average attendance, as that season of the year is not favorable for church going.

V.—THE PRESENT NEED.

Dr. Blaikie, who has for so many years been pastor of the congregation, has signified his intention to resign his charge at the next meeting of the Presbytery of Boston, June 28, 1880. He deserves all praise for what he has done in this field during his long pastorate. He has manifested, in the face of great discouragements, a spirit of self-sacrifice and determination which the church should not forget or underestimate. He has carried a burden which would have exhausted the strength of most men. His work has been far from being unsuccessful. But we think he should be excused from further labor in this difficult field, and that the Board of Home Missions, the Presbytery of Boston and the congregation should put forth united and earnest efforts to secure another pastor as soon as possible.

We also think that the church should liquidate a portion of the indebtedness of the congregation. If the debt was reduced to about $5,000 or $6,000, the congregation could pay their current expenses without calling for annual help from the Board of Home Missions.

Something should be done, and done at once, or this field should be abandoned. It is useless to carry on the work as we have been doing in recent years. Unless the congregation is placed on a better financial footing, success is impossible. On this point we would place special emphasis.

VI.—RESOLUTIONS.

We recommend, for adoption, the following:

1. That we will continue the work in Boston, Mass., and assist in relieving the congregation from its present embarrassments.
2. That the Presbytery of Boston, the congregation, and the Board of Home Missions be directed to use united and earnest efforts to secure, as soon as possible, a suitable successor to Dr. Blaikie, who has expressed his intention to resign his charge.
3. That the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to Dr. Blaikie for his self-sacrificing labors in the field which he has occupied for so many years.
4. That the Trustees of the General Assembly be directed to pay the amount for which Dr. Blaikie became individually responsible in effecting the compromise with the man who was injured by the slate asserted to have been blown from the roof of the church.
5. That the Board of Church Extension be instructed to liquidate $6,000 of the indebtedness of the congregation, setting apart, for this purpose, $2,000 annually of its income for the next three years.
6. That the Trustees of the Assembly be directed to set apart the rents of the tenements in the church building for the payment of interest upon the debt, and for reducing the principal.
7. That the Board of Home Missions be directed to take the congregation of Boston under its care, as a special mission, for the term of five years, unless it shall sooner become self-sustaining, and to make such appropriation and, with the consent of the Presbytery, appointments, as may be necessary to carry on the work efficiently.
8. That the action of the Trustees of the General Assembly in the matter of insurance on the church building, and in effecting a settlement with the man injured by a falling slate, be approved; and that they be instructed to take such action as may be needful to protect the property in the future.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Trustees of the General Assembly, the Board of Home Missions and the Board of Church Extension.

R. B. EWING, Chairman of the Joint Meeting.

WM. S. OWENS, Secretary.

AMENDMENTS TO THE HISTORICAL RECORD OF THE PRESBYTERIES AND SYNODS OF THE ASSOCIATE AND ASSOCIATE REFORMED CHURCHES.

The following amendments are made to the Historical Record of the Presbyteries and Synods of the Associate and Associate Reformed Churches, given in vol. v., pp. 85-97.

Cambridge, A., p. 86. October 25, 1859, adjourned at South Argyle to meet at the call of the Moderator.

The Carolinas and Georgia, A. R., p. 90. Organized at Long Cane, Abbeville Co.,

S. C. The Rev. Peter McMillan wrote his name McMullen, but it usually appears in the records as McMillan.

Washington, A. R., p. 91. Organized at Hebron, N. Y., and adjourned at Argyle, October 9, 1862, to meet at the call of the Moderator.

Saratoga, A. R., p. 92. Omit the name of Andrew Wilson. He had been released and had removed before the organization of the Presbytery.

The Synod of the Carolinas, A. R., p. 95. Organized at Ebenezer, Fairfield Co., S. C., (Mr. Rogers' church), May 9, 1803, instead of April 27 as appointed by the Synod. "Some circumstances prevented the Synod meeting at the time appointed, but through the good hand of our God have we convened at the place nominated this 9th day of May, 1803."—Minutes of Synod.

The statistics of the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Church for 1804 are as follows: Synods; 4; Presbyteries, 8; Pastors, 37; without charge, 4; total ministers, 41; probationers, 5; students of theology, 6; congregations with pastors, 54; without pastors, 43; families, 2,913; members, 5,019, not including "260 families and 520 members returned in the table for 1802;" total members, 5,539.

The Associate Synod of 1818 published statistical reports, summing up as follows: Presbyteries, 6; ministers, 35; congregations, 71; members, 2,520. The membership is said to be "many thousands below the membership reported in former years."

6. STATISTICS OF MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

N. B.—A * affixed to the name indicates that the Society is organized for work in the congregation.

Contributions for other objects than Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Missions and Church Extension, are arranged under a general heading. When the particular object is known, it is given in the address column, and reference is made to it by a †.

A ‡ prefixed to the number of members, indicates that the number was not reported, and it is therefore estimated; prefixed to contributions, it shows that the aggregate was reported, but not the distribution to the several funds.

FRIDAY.

May 27th, 1881, 9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. Samuel Taggart.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The report of the Committee of Conference with the Committee of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South was read and accepted. Four o'clock this afternoon was fixed as the hour for hearing the delegate from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, and also for the consideration of the report of the Committee of Conference.

A Committee, with Rev. Samuel Collins, D. D., as Chairman, was appointed to report on the subject of temperance at as early an hour as practicable. The other members of the Committee are, Rev. R. A. Browne, D. D., and James Bussing, M. D.

The report of the Permanent Committee on Finance was presented and referred to a Special Committee consisting of Revs. J. H. Andrew, D. C. Wilson, Mr. S. B. Floyd.

A request from the National Committee of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, asking the Assembly to petition the International Committee of the Evangelical Alliance to devote one entire day of the week of prayer for 1882 to the cause of temperance, and also to petition the International Sabbath School Lesson Committee to make provision for quarterly temperance lessons in the regular course, was presented and referred to the Special Committee on Temperance.

The Assembly took a recess for half an hour.

A telegram was received from the Twenty-fourth Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of the United States and British Provinces, conveying warmest greetings with the text 1 Thess. 5; 25; "Brethren, pray for us." The Moderator was directed to return the Christian salutations of the Assembly, with the text, Eph. 6; 10; "Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power o his might."

A memorial from thirty-three Ministers and Elders, asking the Assembly to direct Presbyteries to enforce the law of the Church on the subject of Instrumental Music, and report their action to the next Assembly, was read and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises.

The Committee on Temperance presented the following partial report, which was adopted:

PARTIAL REPORT OF THE SELECT COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

In view of the fact that a bill for so amending the Constitution of the State of Pennsylvania as to prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors is before the Legislature and has already passed the House; your Committee would recommend that the following be adopted by this Assembly and a copy of it, signed by the officers, be immediately forwarded to the Senate at Harrisburg, Pa.

The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, now in session in the city of Allegheny, Pa., and representing, among others, a large constituency of the citizens of the State of Pennsylvania, for themselves, these constituents, and the public at large, and in the interests of good government, morality and the greatest welfare and prosperity of the people, feel that we can not too earnestly urge upon the Senate of this State, as we hereby most respectfully do, to immediately pass the House Bill now before it, providing for a Constitutional Amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks in this Commonwealth.

After prayer by Rev. R. H. Park, the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. D. C. Wilson.

SATURDAY.

May 28, 1881, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. T. Brownlee.

The roll was called. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Sabbath School Committee presented a report on revising Bible Songs. The consideration of this report was made the order of the day for this morning at 10:45 o'clock.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions was made the order of the day for Monday at 3 o'clock P. M.

The Committee on Statistics presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON STATISTICS.

Your Committe find that reports have been received by the Second Clerk from all the Presbyteries. Most of these reached their proper destination in good time and are models for neatness and correctness.

Your Committee find these Statistics so nearly perfect, as they come from the Second Clerk, that we have no recommendations to suggest, unless it should be to curtail table No. 4 in the Summary, which seems to us to be too cumbersome. Therefore,

Resolved, That this Summary be published, only as it appears in each decade of years, beginning with the year 1860, together with those years intervening between the last and succeeding decade.

The Committee on the Board of Church Extension presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Committee on the Board of Church Extension submits the following report: We learn from the report that the work is going on steadily and successfully, and that the contributions to the Board are on the increase. But, while this is true on the whole, we regret to learn that there are many congregations that do not contribute one cent to this important Board. This ought not so to be. Every congregation in the church ought not only to regard it as a duty, but a privilege to contribute for the advancement of the great work, in which the Board is engaged.

We learn from this report that the whole amount received during the year was $19,781.14, and that there is in the Treasury $1,853.38.

"The Board asks for instructions, in regard to the propriety of requiring churches built by its aid to be kept fully insured by their owners for the protection of its claims."

The Board also asks the General Assembly to consider the rapid extension of the church into new fields and provide liberally for houseless congregations. Therefore, resolved,

1st. That the action of the Board during the year be approved.

2d. That the Board be instructed to require churches, built by its aid, to be kept fully insured by their owners for the protection of its claims.

3d. That the Board negotiate for insurance through some reliable agency at the most favorable rates.

4th. That the thanks of this Assembly are due, and are hereby tendered to all those who have rendered personal and official services to the Board without charge.

5th. That $30,000 be appropriated to the Board for the coming year.

The report of the Committee on Sabbath Schools on the Revision of Bible Songs was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE REVISION OF BIBLE SONGS.

Your Committee, to which was referred the report of the Committee on the Revision of Bible Songs, respectfully submit the following report:

The report of the Committee on Revision of Bible Songs put into our hands represents a majority, and a minority report. The Committee on Revision are unanimously of the opinion that it is a matter of regret that the Assembly of 1878 did not more thoroughly investigate the nature of the work put into the hands of the Committee then appointed, so as to have given definite and particular instructions as to the nature and extent of the work assigned to that Committee. The Committee are also unanimously of the opinion, that in the appointment of the present Committee by the Assembly of 1880, there is nothing in the Assembly's action to enable the Committee to determine certainly, in what respect, or to what extent, it is desired that the book shall be revised. Beyond this point the Committee fails to agree. A majority of the Committee are unable to undertake the work of revising Bible Songs on account of the general principle involved in preparing and authorizing a book of selections from the book of Psalms, to be permanently used as the matter of praise in any department of the Church of Christ.

A minority of the Committee can not proceed to the work of revision for reasons assigned in the report.

The Committee on Revision unanimously agrees in asking that this Assembly shall excuse them from undertaking the work that has been assigned them. Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1st. That the request of the Committee on Revision of Bible Songs be granted.

2d. That the restrictions of the last Assembly placed upon the Board of Publication be removed, and that the Board be authorized to publish "Bible Songs" to meet the demand of the church.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on union with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South was made the first order of the day for this afternoon.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the memorial from the Rochester Session was made the order of the day for Monday at 11 o'clock.

The Second Clerk was instructed to have 250 copies of the Summaries printed for the next Assembly.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions was made the first order of the day for Monday P. M.

After prayer by Rev. J. A. Kennedy the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. Robert Lathan.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

It was resolved when the Assembly adjourns this afternoon, it adjourns at 3:30 o'clock until 9 o'clock Monday morning.

The Special Committee on union with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South presented a report. Before the consideration of this report, Rev. J. B. Dales, D. D. led the Assembly in prayer for divine direction. This report was amended and adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT ON UNION WITH THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

The Special Committee to which was referred the preparing of a paper on the subject of union with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South would submit for the adoption of the Assembly the following:

Resolved, 1. That the present Committee of Conference with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South be, and is hereby authorized to submit to said Synod the following terms, upon which the United Presbyterian Church of North America is willing and desirous to consummate without delay the union of these two bodies, viz:

1. That in the negotiations that may be carried on, and in the United Church, if our two bodies are brought together, there shall not be any reference to past issues, and confessions of guilt or mistakes shall not be implied or expected or asked for by either party.

2. There shall not be prepared any formal new basis of union, but an agreement of the two Churches to come together, each accepting the others standards, and the Churches thus united to be under the jurisdiction of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, with the same privilege of dissent as to particular articles always accorded to our own members, and with the understanding that the same forbearance in love be extended to any who may not be able to fully subscribe to these standards, so long as no determined opposition is made to them, and subject also to such revision of these standards as may be desirable to more perfectly harmonize the United Church.

Resolved, 2. That this Assembly empower the Committee of Conference with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South with all the powers of this Assembly to act as a commission in the submission of these propositions and in the acceptance of such action as may be taken by the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, and in the adoption of such other arrangements as may be deemed necessary for the consummation of this proposed union, and to report to the next Assembly for the ratification of the work thus done.

The minutes of the Synod of Kansas were presented and referred to the Committee on Revision.

After prayer by Rev. F. A. Hutchinson, the Assembly adjourned till Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

MONDAY.

May 30, 1881, 9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The report of the Special Committee on the report of the Managers of the Historical Society was presented and laid on the table for the present.

The credentials of the delegates from the Reformed Presbyterian Synod were presented and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Committee on the Board of Publication presented a report. Rev. W. J. Robinson, D. D., Hon. Henry Warner, the representatives of the Board of Publication, and Rev. A. T. McDill were granted the privileges of the floor of the Assembly during the discussion of this report. The first part of this report was amended and adopted. The further consideration of the report was postponed for the purpose of hearing Rev. Philip Schaff, D. D., who, on invitation, addressed the Assembly on the recent revision of the New Testament. At the close of the address the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Assembly have heard with great interest and satisfaction the address of the Rev. Dr. Schaff, and tender him thanks for the very acceptable service he has rendered us in giving such an explanation and statement respecting the work of revising the New Testament Scriptures.

During the consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the memorial from the Rochester Session, the hour of adjournment arrived, when the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. Dr. Schaff.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. William Galbraith.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The further consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Publication was made the first order of the day for Tuesday morning.

The hearing of the delegates from the Reformed Presbyterian Synod was made the order of the day for Tuesday at 4 o'clock, P. M. Revs. R. A. Browne, D. D., and W. H. McFarland, D. D., were appointed the delegates of the Assembly to the Reformed Presbyterian Synod now in session in Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Committee on the Board of Home Missions presented a report. After the adoption of the first seven resolutions of this report, and while the eighth was under discussion, the hour arrived for the second order of the day, viz., the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions. The first four resolutions of this report were adopted. The fifth resolution was referred to a special Committee, consisting of Revs. R. A. Browne, D. D., R. G. Wallace, J. H. Brown, D. C. Wilson. The sixth and seventh resolutions were adopted. Before the adoption of the eighth resolution the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. D. M. Thorn to meet on Tuesday at 9 o'clock A. M.

TUESDAY.

May 31st, 1881, 9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Freedmen's Missions was made the first order of the day for this afternoon.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Publication, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

The annual report of the Board is all that has been placed in our hands. This report indicates that the work of the Board in general has been done with commendable energy, economy and discretion.

The financial condition of the Board appears to be steadily improving.

Concerning the question submitted to this Assembly with reference to the purchase by the Board of Rev. A. T. McDill of certain periodicals, your committee offers the following:

Resolved, That $1,000, in addition to the amount already paid by the Board of Publication, be paid Rev. A. T. McDill.

With reference to the Tracts named in the Report of the Board, your committee offer the following:

Resolved, 1. That we commend to our people said Tracts as worthy of their careful consideration.

2. That the Board be directed to append the name of the authors of the Tracts in their notices of them.

3. That the Board be directed to use the utmost care in selecting matter for publication.

4. That the Board be directed to consider carefully whether there should not be a musical department inserted in the Scholar's Quarterly.

5. That the appointment and compensation of an editor of the Sabbath School publications be referred to the Board of Publication, where they properly belong.

6. That the thanks of this Assembly are due those who gratuitously prepared Lesson Notes for our Sabbath Schools, and Outline Lessons for the Normal Class Manual.

The Committee on the Judiciary presented the following report on certain memorials concerning Bible Songs, which was adopted:

REPORT ON BIBLE SONGS.

The Judicial Committee, to which was referred a memorial from the Presbytery of Sidney, and also one from the Presbytery of Western Missouri, report as follows:

The memorial from the Presbytery of Sidney asks this Assembly to rescind the resolution of the Assembly of 1880 in reference to "Bible Songs," assigning three reasons. The memorial from the Presbytery of Western Missouri says:

"It is more than probable that an effort will be made to secure at your hands a repudiation of the Sabbath School music book called "Bible Songs." In that case we respectfully ask that you do not yield to such effort, but that you leave the book untouched, to serve its purpose as it is."

As the resolution named in the first memorial has never been carried out, and the committee, appointed to do so, have presented a divided report, and been excused, and as we are not asked to repudiate the book called "Bible Songs," as contemplated in the second memorial, we offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That no further action on this matter is necessary at the present time.

The Committee on the Judiciary presented majority and minority reports on the memorial asking the Assembly to enforce the law of the Church on Instrumental Music. While the minority report, which was substituted for the majority report, was under discussion, the hour of adjournment arrived, when the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. J. C. McElree.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Prof. Robert Gilmor.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on the Board of Freedmen's Missions presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

In the Freedmen, we, as a Church, have a greater interest than in any other heathen. For their freedom, our fathers and many of ourselves used earnestly to pray, for pleading their cause we were reproached and otherwise persecuted, and to obtain their freedom many of our fathers gave both treasure and blood. They dwell among us, and in their unconverted state are a burden and a curse. Rome and unscrupulous politicians are using them as instruments to put themselves into power, to uphold and push forward their wicked designs. If Christianized and educated they could not be so used, but would shine as lights both in the Church and nation; of this we have proof in those who are already converted and educated. We lament that the church does not see this, and the nation does not seem to comprehend it. Up to this hour all that the nation does is to hold open the door and say to Christianity and benevolence, "We license you to teach and preach." We are promised better things by those now in power, and pray that the promise may not prove a cloud without water. As to ourselves, we commenced work at several places, but have suffered them all to go back into their wilderness state except three, and even these we have not cultivated as extensively and energetically as we should. Yet it encourages us to find that the work has been pushed forward more earnestly and successfully during the past year, than at any former time. The report of the Board shows that each field and every department of the work has been blessed. The college at Knoxsville, under the care of Dr. McCulloch, has an increased attendance and higher grade of scholarship; also a larger number has engaged in teaching public schools, and in organizing and conducting Sabbath Schools. A number of lectures has been delivered by Professor Wallace on education, in the country surrounding Knoxsville, with gratifying results to the college. The congregation, under the care of Rev. S. B. Reed, D. D., has increased in number and liberality. The Theological class has nearly trebled. The boarding, sewing and housekeeping departments have accomplished more than in any former year, and an enlargement of the building is asked. At Chase City and Bluestone the work is equally encouraging. Some changes have been made and others are proposed. With sorrow we see some retire from the work, and with joy see others take their places. The report cheers us with the statement that the last year's debt is wiped out, and that there is a balance of $188.51 in the hands of the Board. At Vicksburgh the door is shut and will not perhaps ever again be opened to us. In this we stand rebuked for tardiness. At Clarksville the door is still open, and the call repeated to go in and occupy.

From the majority of the Session of the congregation at Knoxsville, a memorial is presented, also one from their wives, asking that Rev. S. B. Reed, D. D., be returned to them as their minister; and accompanying this former memorial is a statement without signature, that the congregation wish him returned, and offer to pay $200 towards his support. It is very gratifying to find that Brother Reed has proved himself so acceptable to those to whom he ministered.

In view of the whole field and work we present the following for adoption:

1. That thanks hearty and humble be returned to God for the success he has made to attend the work; also to the members of the Board for their work and labor of love, and to all the laborers in the field.

2. In view of the facts that Rev. S. B. Reed, D. D., is not the pastor of the congregation at Knoxsville, and has accepted a call to labor in another field, and as Dr. McCulloch, President of the College has time and ability to minister to that congregation, that the proposal of the Board to commit the spiritual part of the work at Knoxville to Dr. McCulloch be approved. Also that the appointing of Rev. Matthew Clarke to Bluestone, and Rev. John A. Ramsey to Chase City be approved.

3. That as soon as a suitable person can be obtained and means secured the field at Clarksville, Va., be occupied.

4. That the Board be authorized to erect the building for boarding and industrial purposes at Knoxsville as proposed in their report, that they be limited to $11,000 in erecting the building; and should they not be able to obtain the $11,000 from the sources from which they expect to obtain it, that they be authorized to appeal to the churches for the remainder.

5. That the sum of $16,000 be appropriated to carry on the work during the coming year.

A paper asking the Assembly to define the meaning of the phrase, "a clear majority of the votes of the whole Church," Book of Government, Chap. V., Art. 4., Sec. 5., was read and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the memorial from the Rochester Session. This report was laid on the table to be taken up at the same time with the report of the Judicial Committee on enforcing the law concerning Instrumental music.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

The Committee to whom was referred the reports of the Board and General Committee of Home Missions, having given such attention as circumstances permitted to these and accompanying papers placed in our hands, herewith present our report upon the same, with the following resolutions and recommend their adoption by the Assembly:

Resolved, 1. That we express our thanks to God for the favor shown the Home Mission work during the past year.

2. That we approve the fidelity and diligence of the Board, the General Committee and Corresponding Secretary in the discharge of their important duties.

With reference to certain recommendations appended to the report of the General Committee, your committee present for the action of the Assembly the following resolutions:

3. That, in addition to the $4,950 recommended to the Assembly, by the Board, for the special missions already under their care, $2,200, or so much of that sum as may, in their judgment, be necessary, be granted for the support of the special missions proposed to be placed under their care at this meeting.

4. That $5,000 be placed at the disposal of the Board, to meet all cases referred, and emergencies that may arise during the year.

5. That the General Assembly instruct Presbyteries that they should group their stations wherever practicable, so as to make it possible to employ missionaries without aid from the Board, and that pastoral settlements be encouraged wherever congregations so grouped have a reasonable prospect of soon becoming self-sustaining.

6. That the General Assembly direct the legacy of Archibald Stewart, Esq., to be set apart as a reserve fund of the Board, from which temporary loans may be made to meet pressing emergencies, and that the management of said legacy be left with the Board, under such restrictions as the Assembly may see fit to impose.

Among the recommendations of the General Committee we find the following, viz:

That the General Assembly be and hereby is requested to define the directions respecting a fixed and convenient boarding place for missionaries, as found in Sec. 8, p. 138, of the Digest. Are stations or vacancies to pay such board, in addition to the regular per diem, or are the missionaries to pay their own board?

The directions referred to are as follows: Digest, p. 138, § 8. "A boarding place to be provided for Home Missionaries. Resolved, 8. That in all cases, the mission station, or vacancy, in which the missionary labors, shall carefully endeavor to designate, as far as possible, a fixed and convenient boarding place for him during the term of his service in their midst; and the Presbyteries shall endeavor to see that this regulation is faithfully carried out. Vol 2, p. 42, 1864."

In regard to this matter we recommend the adoption of the following:

7. That the question of boarding or paying their board be referred to the several Presbyteries to determine.

An appeal has been made to the Assembly and referred to your committee, dated Warrensburgh, Mo., May 23, 1881, requesting a modification of the action of the General Committee so that an appropriation shall be made to the mission congregation in that place. The objection is that the appropriation asked of the General Committee was too large. Possibly arrangements may be made for stated supply, or pastoral service, in connection with neighboring congregations, which would make the amount absolutely needed practicable for the Board to grant. In view of the interest felt by the Church in maintaining its ground in this place, as elsewhere, and hoping such arrangements may be made we offer for adoption the following:

8. That the request of Warrensburgh be referred to the favorable consideration of the Board.

Finally, in view of the growing work of the Board and Committee and the increasing promise of the Home Mission field, we heartily respond to the call for enlarged contributions, and offer the following for adoption:

9. That we call upon all our congregations to enlarge their liberality toward the Home Mission treasury, and so enable the Board and General Committee to accomplish the largely increased work proposed for the coming year. And this we do with the more confidence in view of the gratifying fact reported to us by the Board, that during the past year there has been an increased liberality to this fund over that of any previous year.

10. That the appropriation of funds and the distribution of men be approved.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions. The report, except the 5th resolution, which was referred to a special Committee, was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

From the report of the Board of Foreign Missions, your committee learns that the labors of our missionaries in Egypt and India during the past year have been attended with gratifying evidences of success. None of them has been removed by death, except Mrs. Rev. T. L. Scott of the India Mission at Jhelum. Rev. J. R. Alexander and wife of the Egyptian Mission have suffered the loss of their only child.

Four new Missionaries.—A. B. Caldwell, J. K. Giffen, D. S. Lytle, and R. E. Lackey have been appointed. Robert Stewart, D. D., has been appointed to take charge, in the India Mission, of the work of training natives for the ministry. In view of the importance of this work, and the superior qualifications of Dr. Stewart, your committee unanimously and heartily approves of this appointment. This mission urgently asks for at least two new female missionaries.

The treasurer's account shows an increase in receipts over last year of nearly $10,000. This increase comes from Presbyteries, individual donations, and Sabbath schools. The A. R. Synod of the South continues its contributions to the support of Mrs. John Giffen.

To free the Gibson trust fund of every incumbrance, no new grants were made from it during the past year; and it is believed that soon the work intended by the donor can be carried on without interruption or curtailment.

The Board requests authority to make a thorough revision of the rules respecting expenses, etc. The suggestion of the desirableness and expediency of the publication of a monthly for the dissemination of missionary intelligence, is earnestly renewed.

On the 6th of November last, W. W. Barr, D. D., and R. Stewart, D. D., sailed under appointment from the Board as a deputation to the Missions of India and Egypt. These brethren have not yet returned home, but news has been received from the Missionaries in both fields of such a character as to already more than justify their appointment.

The following resolutions are recommended for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That thanks be rendered to God for his continued favor toward our Foreign Mission work, and that all of our ministers and people be urged to give this subject an increasing place in their sympathies, their prayers, and their offerings.

2. That the thanks of the Assembly be given to the American, and the British and Foreign Bible Societies, the Turkish Mission's Aid Society, the Ladies' Missionary Society of Paisley, Scotland, the American Tract Society, the A. R. Synod of the South, and David Peoples, Esq., of Liverpool, England, for their generous aid in support of our Missions.

3. That the Assembly hereby gives assurance of the sympathy of its members with Rev. T. L. Scott, and Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Alexander in their bereavement, and affectionately commends them to the God of all consolation, and the kindly offices of his Spirit, the Comforter.

4. That the sending of the deputation to visit the missions, with instructions to obtain any information in their power and report it to the Board, be approved by the Assembly. Also, that the appointment of Messrs. Ralph E. Lackey and J. K. Giffen to the mission in Egypt, and of Rev. Robert Stewart, D. D. and Messrs. D. S. Lytle and A. B. Caldwell to India, be approved by the Assembly; and that the Board be directed to see that each is placed in the field at the earliest day in their power.

5. That in regard to the issue of a monthly paper for the dissemination of missionary intelligence, the action of the Assemblies of 1860-61 be re-affirmed. [Referred to a special Committee.]

6. That the Board be instructed to inquire further into the financial state of our Missions, and make such modifications or changes in regard to salaries, general expenses, etc., as the circumstances in the different cases may show to be desirable or necessary.

Digitized by Google

7. That the Board be directed, in revising its financial rules, to fix definitely the salaries of the several Missionaries and workers at a sum sufficient to cover all ordinary expenses, and so as far as practicable cut off all extra allowances.

8. That the Treasurer of the Board be directed to submit to the next Assembly an itemized statement of the salaries and expenses in the several Missions and stations.

9. That the action of the Board in withholding appropriations from the Gibson trust fund during the past year be approved.

10. That the following appropriations be made for the current year: For India, $20,331.25; for Egypt, $85,275; outfits for new missionaries, $2,350; passage for these, $4,743.75; returning, $1,750; missionaries in this country, $2,200; missionaries' children in this country, $800; incidentals, as legal advice, traveling, etc., $250; printing report, stationery, etc., $500; salaries, $800; for Rev. Dr. Barr, as commissioner, $1,000; total, $70,000.

11. That the friends of this cause be earnestly urged to forward their contributions to it at least quarterly, and that in view of the unusually large number of missionaries to be sent out, special efforts be made to have the necessary funds provided for this in good time.

The Assembly, led by Rev. J. B. Dales, D. D., engaged in prayer and thanksgiving in reference to the work and success of the various Boards of the Church.

Revs. H. H. George, D. D., and D. McFall, delegates from the Reformed Presbyterian Synod, presented the Christian salutations of the body they represented, and the Moderator responded in the name of the Assembly.

The Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions presented a report on the Mission to the Chinese at Los Angeles, Cal. Before disposing of this report the hour of adjournment arrived, and the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. James Crowe.

7:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. George K. Ormond, D. D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions presented the following report on the communication from the Presbyterian Alliance of India, which was adopted;

REPORT ON THE COMMUNICATION FROM THE PRESBYTERIAN ALLIANCE OF INDIA.

There were put into the hands of your Committee a copy of the proceedings of the Second Council of the Presbyterian Alliance of India, and also a paper from the Clerk of said Council, containing a resolution of the Council sent to all the Supreme Presbyterian Judicatories represented in India, asking the recognition of the appellate jurisdiction of the Alliance in certain cases in regard to native churches, office bearers and members.

It is the opinion of your Committee, that such an arrangement is wholly unnecessary, and would by no means be expedient. The following resolutions, therefore, commended for adoption:

Digitized by Google

1. That this Assembly acknowledges the courtesy shown to the Church of which it is the Supreme Judicatory by the Presbyterian Alliance of India.
2. That it is the judgment of this Assembly, that it would not be expedient for it to recognize the appellate jurisdiction of the Alliance over any of its churches, office-bearers, or members; and that it, therefore, respectfully refuses the request of the Alliance, asking for such jurisdiction.
3. That the Clerk of Assembly be directed to send a copy of this action to the Alliance.

So much of the report of the Board of Church Extension as refers to the Boston Church property was referred to the Committee on Finance.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Judicial Committee on enforcing the law on Instrumental Music. Before the final disposition of this report, the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. R. J. Hammond.

WEDNESDAY.

June 1, 1881, 9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. Alex. Story.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions on the Mission to the Chinese at Los Angeles, Cal., which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE MISSION TO THE CHINESE AT LOS ANGELES.

It appears from the papers referred to your Committee, that the Mission to the Chinese at Los Angeles is in a hopeful condition. Former hindrances have in a measure disappeared; the attendance at evening school and religious services has somewhat increased, and some fruit has been gathered. The prospective receipts from the funds intrusted to the Presbytery of San Francisco will cover the salary of Rev. Joseph McKee, and the running expenses of the mission for the next year. But $1,600 in addition will be required to pay the salary of Rev. J. C. Nevin. For this the Presbytery asks the Assembly to make appropriation.

In view of the facts, that it has no control over this mission, receives no reports from it, and the location of the Mission is in the bounds of a home Presbytery, the Board of Foreign Missions earnestly suggests that it be placed under the care of the Board of Home Missions.

The following resolutions are recommended for adoption:

1. That the Mission to the Chinese at Los Angeles be placed as a spec'al Mission under the care of the Board of Home Missions for one year.
2. That the Assembly place $1,600 at the disposal of the Board of Home Missions to be used at their discretion for the support of this Mission.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Judicial Committee on enforcing the law on Instrumental Music, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON ENFORCING THE LAW ON INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC.

The Judicial Committee would respectfully represent that we are not agreed as to the disposition to be made of the memorial from James Harper, James G. Carson and others, and hence two reports. "The Memorial" states that "it is a notorious fact that in contravention of the provision of our standards, several congregations under the jurisdiction of the Assembly have introduced instrumental music into their public worship, or into the worship of their Sabbath Schools; congregations thus acting being found in the bounds of at least the following Presbyteries: Caledonia, Boston, Detroit, 1st Ohio, Le Claire and Des Moines. The Memoralists "ask the General Assembly to direct the Presbyteries aforenamed and any others, if such there be, in whose bounds this palpable disregard of law exists, to take steps promptly to have the disorder complained of corrected in the congregations under their care, respectively, and report their action in the matter to the next General Assembly."

In our judgment, the session has original jurisdiction in all matters of this kind; Presbytery next, by appeal or reference; Synod next in order, and the General Assembly last. The paper "complains" of disorder in unnamed congregations, and "palpable disregard of law" as existing under certain named Presbyteries, and all this under the very pleasant name of "Memorial!" Our Book of Discipline specifies "various ways by which a case may be carried from a lower to a higher court," (see chapter XII,) and thus protects the innocent from being suspiciously condemned with the guilty, and at the same time, secures an impartial hearing, fairness, and justice to the guilty. The Memoralists entirely reverse the order, and make the court of last appeal, the first! Our Book makes the General Assembly "a bond of union, peace, concord and mutual confidence," but if processes of complaint are to be commenced in it, under the name of "Memorial," it would soon become, not a bond of union, peace, concord and mutual confidence, but a broken cord of disunion, strife, discord and mutual suspicion. We therefore present the following:

Resolved, That in the case in question, the Presbyteries and Synods are competent and are expected by the Assembly to apply the law.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on overturing the article in the Directory for Worship on Instrumental Music. This report was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE MEMORIAL FROM THE ROCHESTER SESSION.

It is conceded by those who hold the various phases of belief on the subject of instrumental music in worship, that there is a deep and widespread dissatisfaction with our present law relating thereto.

There is a difference as to the extent of that dissatisfaction, and the best method of allaying it. The latter question is a very serious and important one. It does not seem right to your Committee that we enter upon a course which is likely to lead to strife and bitterness, even if it should succeed. There are successes which are only the forerunners of disaster, while on the other hand there are concessions which most effectually conquer.

The Scriptures, it is true, in one place, command us to earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. We do not pretend to say whether or not that would include the matter at issue, but we do say that over against this one command calling for a holy contention, we find scores of injunctions requiring us to follow after the things which make for peace—to seek them and pursue them earnestly.

Happily the tendencies of the time are in harmony with the spirit and letter of inspiration for healing the divisions of Zion. Your Committee are strongly of the opinion that the action of this Assembly on the question before us should tend in the same direction, and exhibit the same spirit.

We therefore recommend the following action:

Resolved, That the Assembly submits to the Presbyteries the following Overture: Shall Sec. 5, Art. 2, chapter 3 of the Directory for Worship be repealed.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Education was made the first order of the day for this afternoon.

After prayer by Rev. Samuel S. Ralston, D. D. the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. A Collins.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The following report of the Clerks in reference to the preparation of a uniform set of books and blanks for Financial Agents and the Treasurers of the Boards was read and adopted:

REPORT ON A UNIFORM SET OF BOOKS AND BLANKS FOR FINANCIAL AGENTS AND TREASURERS.

The Clerks respectfully report, that for various reasons they have not been able to carry out the instructions of the last General Assembly, to procure a uniform set of books and blanks for reports for Financial Agents and Treasurers.

We ask leave to prepare the forms and report to the next General Assembly.

The Committee on the Board of Education presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The report of the Board of Education has been before the Committee, in which there are reasons for gratitude to Almighty God for his blessing on this work of educating young men for the Gospel ministry. Nineteen students have been aided during the year; ten attended at the Seminary at Xenia, and nine at Allegheny.

Permanent investments at the beginning of the year	$ 6,740 00
Permanent investments made during the year	6,300 00
Cash on hand	1,446 28
Total resources	$14,486 28

The Committee would recommend the following:

1. That an appropriation of $2,000 be granted to the Board of Education for the coming year.
2. That the amount granted to each beneficiary shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per session.
3. That the amount paid to each student shall be proportionate to the time of his actual attendance at the Seminary during the session.

The Committee on Finance presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

Your committee have examined the reports of the following Boards referred to us, viz: General Assembly, Home, Foreign and Freedmen's Missions, Ministerial Relief, Church Extension, and Publication. The Treasurer's accounts of these respective Boards have been audited and reported correct by committees appointed for the purpose as directed by the Assembly.

We therefore recommend they be approved, and also suggest that hereafter the action of each auditing committee be endorsed on the report. The report of the Treasurer of the Board of Church Extension gives in detail the names of the contributors, and also the names of the congregations not contributing. Believing that this may prove satisfactory to the contributors, we recommend the same plan to the other treasurers. The Treasurer of Assembly reports legacies left subject to order of Assembly, amounting in the aggregate to $2,750.40. We recommend that these bequests be appropriated as follows:

To Home Missions	$600 00
" Foreign Missions	600 00
" Freedmen's Mission	400 00
" Church Extension (Loan fund)	400 00
" Ministerial Relief (for endowment)	750 40

Your committee recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1*st.* That the Treasurer be authorized to pay over the bequests in his hands as above designated.

2*nd.* That the Principal Clerk be instructed to draw his warrants on Assembly's Treasurer in favor of the following persons for the amounts set opposite their respective names, as follows:

Stevenson & Foster, as per bill	$20 50
Mills & Brother, as per bill	5 00
Postage, &c., 1st and 2d Clerks	5 50
Assistant Clerk	25 00
Janitor of 1st church, Allegheny	20 00
Expenses of Committee on Narrative	3 00
Expenses of Rev. J. T. Cooper, D. D., as Delegate to Associate Reformed Synod South	60 00
Rev. Samuel Collins, D. D., expenses of Committee on Railroad Fares	7 00
Expenses of Committee on Sabbath Schools	5 00

3*d.* That the appropriation made to Dr. Blaikie by the Assembly of last year, and ordered to be paid out of Ministerial Relief, (if continued) be paid out of the General Assembly fund, or a fund to be created for this and similar cases.

4*th.* That the sum of $5,000 be appropriated to the General Assembly fund for the current year.

5*th.* That the following be adopted as a Standing Rule:

All resolutions offered in the General Assembly, and all propositions coming from others than Boards and Standing Committees, appropriating money, shall first be referred to the Committee of Finance, to be examined, and their judgment reported before final action.

6*th.* Your committee deem it proper to call attention to the large pecuniary interest our church has in Boston, Mass., being the sole owners of the Boston church property, valued at $30,000, upon which there is a mortgage debt of $11,500. Six thousand dollars of this debt has been provided for, and we recommend, that as soon as practicable, the entire mortgage be liquidated; also that the Trustees of the Assembly be directed to appoint one of their number, who by himself or some other suitable person, shall take the special oversight of this property, and report quarterly or as often as the Board shall require.

The Committee on Revision presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON REVISION.

Properly certified copies of the printed minutes of the General Assembly of 1880, the First and Second Synods of the West, the Synods of Pittsburgh, Ohio, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas and New York; and also manuscript copies of the minutes of the Presbyteries of Egypt and Sialkote have been placed in our hands for revision.

We find all these minutes, so far as we have been able to examine them, kept in an orderly and Presbyterial manner. We would recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

That the copies of the minutes which have been placed in our hands be approved.

The Standing Committee on Narrative and State of Religion presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

Having carefully examined the report of the Permanent Committee, we find that a patient and thorough canvass of the field has been made by the committee, and from their report we call attention to the following facts and conclusions respecting the progress of the church and the state of religion within our bounds:

The ministry has suffered a decrease of 10 by death, and of 9 from other causes, leaving the net increase for the year only 8.

The enrollment of ministers at this date numbers 702.

The total membership of the church is 81,564. The net gain for the past year is but 744. There were 10 new congregations organized during the year, but owing to various causes the number of our congregations remains the same as one year ago, viz.: 796.

The state of religion from this report is in general far from gratifying. Only here and there over the church, does there appear to be ground for rejoicing and grateful mention of spiritual progress. The lamentation of the Presbyteries over the indifference, the worldliness and the moral deadness of our times seems to be quite general. The lack of a God-likeness of spirit, and a Christ-likeness of action, seems to be a marked and definite feature of church life. The meagre visible results of the aggregate labors of the year are humiliating. The actual gain to the membership is only 744, not so much as one to each congregation. While the actual gain by conversions from the world is only a little over one to every two congregations—about two to every three ministers and one to every 175 members.

These figures are regarded as furnishing of themselves sufficient and overwhelming evidence of a low state of vital and earnest religion, and demanding everywhere among us repentance, reform and renewed consecration to the Master and his cause.

Notwithstanding these facts, it is a matter of thanksgiving that the Divine Spirit has manifested his presence in many of our congregations, and that in many respects, as in the finances and contributions of the church, she has been greatly blessed and has enjoyed the evidences of the divine favor.

Your committee would recommend the following:

1. That a Permanent Committee on Narrative and State of Religion be appointed by this Assembly to report to the next Assembly, and that the same system of outline reports and conferences by the Presbyteries on the state of religion which was inaugurated last year be continued this year, as an aid to the making up of a complete report.

2. That the first Friday evening after the meeting of each Assembly, commencing at 7:30 o'clock, be set apart for memorial services in memory of brethren deceased during the year.

3. That the report of each Permanent Committee on Narrative shall give, in statistical form, an account of the deceased brethren as to parentage, time and place of birth and death—Collegiate and theological education—their places of labor and kind of employment, &c., &c.

The Committee on the Historical Society presented a report on the memorial of Rev. James Barnett, D. D., which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE CENTENNIAL OF THE ORGANIZATION OF THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED CHURCH.

The committee, to which was referred the memorial of Rev. James Barnett, D. D., reports as follows:

The memorialist requests this General Assembly to take into consideration the propriety of celebrating the centennial return of the organization of the Associate Reformed Church, which took place June, 1782; together with the union, which gave rise to the United Presbyterian Church nearly a quarter of a century ago; and further, the memorialist asks this General Assembly to take measures for the speedy consummation of the union now pending with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South.

Resolved, That the Assembly deem it inexpedient to celebrate this union.

The Standing Committee on Sabbath Schools presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

The committee, to which was referred the report of the Permanent Committee on Sabbath schools, respectfully submit the following report:

By a comparison of the reports of the years gone by, it is gratifying to note that the Sabbath school work of the United Presbyterian Church is surely, and with a commendable degree of rapidity, advancing toward that condition in which it shall efficiently accomplish the end of its high calling. A spirit of inquiry is abroad in the church respecting the Gospel means and methods of operation. Pastors, elders, superintendents and teachers are doing a prayerful, honest and intelligent work in this department of the church's enterprise, unparalleled in the history of the past; and as a result, the work of the Sabbath school is rapidly divesting itself of that which is superficial, and taking on a gravity and simplicity worthy of an institution of the great King and Head of the church. Sabbath school work is a recognized fact in the United Presbyterian Church, and for the abundant success that has attended this department of our church's work, specially in the year just closed, we are under obligation to give praise and thanksgiving to the Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

The following are some details of the present condition of the work:

1. It is the sentiment of the church that the Psalms, as a medium of praise, are adapted to the wants of the Sabbath school in church or mission. The clamor for improved Sabbath school music has practically subsided: however, there remains a demand for such facilities as will assist our schools in a proper and pleasing and profitable rendition of our songs of praise in the Sabbath school. "Bible Songs" has given general satisfaction to Sabbath school workers using it, but it does not appear from the committee's report, to what extent it has been introduced in the church.

2. According to the instructions of the last Assembly, a Normal Class Manual for general use among Sabbath school workers, has been prepared by the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools and published by the Board of Publication, and is now ready for circulation.

3. There has been in the year just closed, a commendable degree of improvement in the preparation of Sabbath school helps. Our Sabbath school literature is now entirely under the control of the church through its Board of Publication, and under the efficient direction of the present editor it is commanding the approbation of the church.

4. From the report of the Permanent Committee it is apparent that there is much need of improvement in the matter of gathering and preserving the statistics of our Sabbath schools, and in the matter of reporting the same each year to the Permanent Committee. Of 763 schools, there are 612 reporting, leaving 151 schools not reporting. Until this error is corrected, it will be impossible to make satisfactory estimates of the annual progress of the work.

5. It is apparent, likewise, that the present arrangements for the financial support of our Sabbath schools are insufficient. The facts are, that of the $23,518—necessary to carry on the work of our various Sabbath schools—only $5,133 came from the church treasury, leaving the schools to contribute $17,269 for their own support. There is ample room and a positive demand for improvement in this particular.

6. Whatever may have occurred to hinder the progress of the work, the results of the last year's labors are attended with abundant encouragements. We are happy to record a commendable advance in the matter of home study; in the attendance of the children on the public preaching of the Word; in the personal attendance of pastors, elders and members of the church; in the number of conversions from the classes; and last but not least, in the matter of contributions. In view of the facts thus hastily sketched, we submit the following resolutions for your consideration and adoption:

1st. That the third Sabbath of October be observed as a day of prayer for Sabbath schools, and that special services in behalf of this work be held in our churches.

2nd. That it be recommended to pastors and Sessions throughout the church, that, in every congregation where it is practicable, Teacher's meetings be organized for the study of the lesson, and that arrangements be made for the formation of Normal Classes, and that the progress of the work be reported to the Permanent Committee before the next meeting of the Assembly.

3rd. That Presbyterial Sabbath school superintendents be directed to call the attention of the schools under their supervision to the importance of collecting and preserving and reporting to the Permanent Committee annually, a careful record of the condition and progress of the work; and that the Permanent Committee be instructed to prepare a simplified and abreviated formula for Sabbath school reports, and publish the same as soon as possible with explanations, for the benefit of Sabbath school officers; and that March 31st be fixed as the close of the Sabbath school year, instead of December 31st.

4th. That, in so far as it is practicable, it is the duty of Sessions to provide a liberal financial support for the Sabbath schools under their care, independent of the contributions of the schools.

5th. That we hereby express our gratification with the progress being made in the department of Sabbath school literature, and commend the same to the liberal patronage of the church.

6th. That the thanks of the church are due to the Revs. Robert Stewart, D. D., and William J. Reid, D. D., for the preparation of lesson notes during the last year.

7th. That the nomination of the successors of Revs. J. M. Fulton, E. S. McKitrick and J. T. McCrory, and A. P. Burchfield, Esq., as members of the Permanent Committee on Sabbath schools, be referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

Your committee, having carefully examined the report of the Board of Ministerial Relief, find that all matters pertaining to it have been faithfully and judiciously managed; and in view of the importance of its work we recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the appropriation asked by the Board, $5,000 for the coming year, be granted.

2. That the Assembly should, by some means, endeavor to increase the Endowment Fund to $50,000. The fund at present is $24,000.

3. That the Board be, and hereby is, instructed to limit the distribution of its funds to the objects designated by the charter.

4. That the church be directed to contribute liberally to the support of this fund.

5. That the thanks of the Assembly are due to the officers and members of the Board for their gratuitous services.

The special Committee on Finance presented a report. The report, except the 3d, 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th resolutions, was adopted. These resolutions were referred to the Permanent Committee on Finance with instructions to report on the subject contained in them to the next Assembly. The report is as follows:

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

The very able and valuable report referred to us shows the rapidly increasing demands of the church upon her financial resources and the uncertain and doubtful increase of her wealth; and makes some good suggestions as to the best methods for efficiently carrying on our work. Your committee, after carefully considering the report, feel the difficulty in determining what is best to do, and we are deeply impressed with the fact that there is a pressing necessity for some plan to secure an increased liberality and a greater uniformity in our contributions to all the funds of the church. We have great confidence, however, in our people, that they will furnish the pecuniary means necessary for carrying on the church's work, if she will only devise some efficient plan by which all her members shall be kept constantly informed in regard to the work to be done, and the amount of funds necessary to carry it on, and if she will give them the confident assurance that all the money raised will be sacredly used for the very objects for which it was given. Believing that our church papers, which are so valuable to all who read them, and that the many urgent appeals and pulpit announcements for securing these contributions, however wise and urgent they may be, do still fail to reach a considerable portion of our people; and believing that more definite action should be taken with regard to the Permanent Committee on Finance, providing for its continuance and defining its duties, and hoping that more uniform action may be secured, and more frequent information given to all our people respecting the church's operations in every department of her work; and that her wants and necessities may be sent directly to the homes of all our people, and trusting that the effect of such action would be to secure greater interest in all parts of the church's work and increased contributions to her funds; your committee would recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1st. That this Assembly appoint a Permanent Committee on Finance in accordance with the recommendation of the last Assembly—that this committee consist of five persons, one, the chairman, to continue for five years, one for four years, one for three years, one for two years, and the other for one year; and that hereafter one shall be appointed each year to fill the vacancy made by the time of one expiring, thus making it really a Permanent Committee on Finance.

2d. That it shall be the duty of this committee to keep in close correspondence with the Secretaries of all the Boards of our church, so as to keep themselves thoroughly informed in regard to the operations, wants and necessities of each Board.

3d. That this Permanent Committee be directed to publish a terse little monthly paper, giving such information respecting the operations and wants of all our Boards as in their judgment may be most desirable, to keep our people constantly and thoroughly informed in regard to them, and at the same time giving valuable and helpful suggestions as to the duty, privilege and best means for securing the largest contributions of money for the work of Christian beneficence.

4th. That this committee be and hereby is directed to publish such a monthly at the lowest possible price so as to make it self-sustaining, after it has been fairly commenced; and that they send a copy of it to every family in the church whose address can be obtained.

5th. That this Assembly ask each Session of the congregations under its supervision to furnish this committee with the names and addresses of all the families in their several congregations.

6th. That the committee be permitted to draw from the Assembly's fund the amount needful to commence the publishing of this paper on the most economical plan.

7th. That Sessions be directed to collect and forward to this committee an amount of money equal, as nearly as possible, to the subscription price of one paper for every family in their respective congregations.

8th. That the following persons constitute the Permanent Committee on Finance, viz: Rev. D. A. Wallace, D. D., LL. D., appointed for five years; Rev. W. H. McMillan, D. D., for four years; Henry Warner, Esq., for three years; Rev. J. M. Fulton for two years, and Mr. George M. Paden for one year.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises recommend the following:

Resolved, 1st. That Rev. T. J. Kennedy, D. D., be appointed the Moderator's alternate to preach the opening sermon at the next meeting of the General Assembly.

2d. That the last Thursday of January next be observed as a day of prayer for colleges.

The Committee on Correspondence presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The Committee on Correspondence report:

That they have examined the report of Rev. J. T. Cooper, D. D., delegate to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, and find that he faithfully attended to the duties of his appointment. The report of the Committee on Conference with a similar Committee from that Synod has also been considered and is found to recommend the continuance of the negotiations between the two churches. The Rev. Robert Lathan presented credentials as a delegate from this Synod, and the Assembly have heard with great satisfaction the fraternal salutations which he brought.

The following action is recommended:

Resolved, That the conduct of the delegate to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South be approved.

Resolved, That Rev. D. A. Wallace, D. D., Principal, and Rev. Samuel Collins, D. D., Alternate, be appointed to attend the next meeting of that Synod and tender it the warm regards of this Assembly.

Resolved, That the Committee of Conference with a similar Committee of that Synod be continued.

Your Committee further report that Rev. H. H. George, D. D., and Rev. D. McFall were cordially received as delegates from the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, and Revs. R. A. Browne, D. D., and W. H. McFarland, D. D., were appointed to bear to that Synod at its present session the earnest greetings and congratulations of this Assembly.

Your Committee also report that a letter has been received from the Rev. H. P. McAdam, delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, and the Assembly having heard it with deep interest, the following action is recommended:

Resolved, That the Assembly have received with great satisfaction, the very friendly salutations of the Church, and cordially reciprocate its expressions of fraternal regards.

Resolved, That as it was understood that the main object of the various branches of the Presbyterian family holding intercourse with one another by delegates has been largely provided for by the General Presbyterian Council, and the Assembly has generally discontinued the practice; therefore, nothing more is required in this case.

After prayer by Rev. A. B. Coleman, the Assembly adjourned.

7:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. Robert Armstrong.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Special Committee on Temperance presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE SELECT COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

This subject has assumed vast proportions before the civilized and Christian world. Everywhere attention is directed, not only to the restraining and reforming of the habit of intemperance with all its horrid train of evil effects on body and soul, but also, and especially, to the destruction of that traffic which feeds while it feeds upon the morbid appetite. More and more, is this traffic recognized as the great source and fountain of all that is evil and debasing, that burthens wealth and destroys industry; that corrupts morals, and, more than any other one thing, antagonizes the effort to evangelize the world; that corrupts the senator and the judge; that defies our laws and fetters our police; that boldly challenges control and flaunts defiance in the face of the State. The public more clearly see its arrogant claims, and its purpose to override and overturn all law, all order, all civil, social, religious, and municipal regulations that stand in its way.

Thus a conflict is upon us, and like that with the last great work of the devil, to destroy which the Son of God was manifested, it is "an irrepressible conflict." We cannot avoid it if we would, and we dare not if we could. There is no ground for a compromise. No longer is there room enough in this or any other land, for both Christianity and the traffic in intoxicating drinks. One or the other must yield the ground.

The question is not now, as to the lawfulness or propriety of using these drinks as a beverage in moderation, or in excess. This has been settled, and the practice of moderate drinking is justly, and we hope finally, classed with those things in which there is no profit, of which all ought to be ashamed, and the "end whereof is death."

We therefore offer the following resolutions:

1. That this General Assembly, in view of the many and terrible evils of intemperance, and the fact that the common traffic in, and the moderate use of intoxicants as a beverage, are the source of all these evils, hereby renews and reiterates all the action of our church on these subjects, and does most solemnly warn our people, and all over whom we have an influence, to avoid the use of intoxicants of any kind, and in any quantity, as a beverage; also against all complicity with the traffic, by furnishing money, selling materials directly to, or renting houses for the manufacture or sale of intoxicants.

2. That we thank God for the progress of temperance sentiment during the past year, and that we take courage and press forward, assured that we are on the Lord's side, and that sooner or later we will be victorious.

3. That we recognize the new phases of this question, presenting themselves in the efforts of both friend and foe of the liquor traffic, and we accept the conflict as "an irrepressible" one, which it would be moral cowardice and treason to attempt to avoid.

4. That we approve the plan of obtaining both constitutional and statutory enactments to entirely suppress the manufacture and sale of intoxicants as a beverage; and hereby urge our ministers and people to co-operate, in all proper efforts, to secure such legislation as will speedily accomplish this end.

5. That we urge all our ministers and people, in casting their ballots, to support for office only such candidates as are practical temperance men, and who by their known character and position before the public, can be relied on to aid in securing and enforcing proper legislation on this subject.

6. That we ask the Committee of the Evangelical Alliance in arranging subjects for the week of prayer, to give one day, or its equivalent on different days, to the subject of temperance; and the Committee on International Sabbath School lessons, to frequently introduce this subject, or if this is not done, that our own Committee be directed to furnish the church with these lessons.

7. That this Assembly urge upon sessions to provide only unintoxicating, that is unfermented, wine for use in the administration of the Lord's Supper.

8. That as requested, we hereby appoint seven delegates, namely, Revs. James B. Lee, D. D., S. F. Morrow, D. D., Samuel Collins, D. D., J. G. D. Findley, I. T. Wright, and Messrs. Arch. Kenney and John Templeton, (with power to fill vacancies,) delegates to the National Temperance Convention to meet at Saratoga, June 21, 1881.

The Committee on Nominations presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS.

Your Committee recommends the election of the following persons to fill existing vacancies in the Boards, and to constitute the committees with which their names are connected:

REPORT ON A MISSIONARY PAPER.

The Special Committee, to whom was referred the fifth resolution of the report on Foreign Missions, recommend for adoption by the Assembly the following:

Resolved, 1. That in regard to the issue of a monthly paper for the dissemination of missionary intelligence, the action of the Assemblies of 1860 and 1861, is hereby re-affirmed.

2. That the Board of Foreign Missions shall exercise their discretion regarding the means by which this project shall be carried into effect.

3. If they shall deem it advisable, they may associate with them the other Boards, and make the proposed paper the organ by which all the Boards may communicate with the church.

The Judicial Committee presented the following report on defining the phrase, "a clear majority of the votes of the whole Church," which was adopted:

REPORT ON DEFINING THE PHRASE, "A CLEAR MAJORITY OF THE VOTES OF THE WHOLE CHURCH."

The Judicial Committee, to which was referred the paper asking a definition of the phrase, "A clear majority of the votes of the whole church," Book of Government, Part I, Chapter V, Article IV, Section 5, report as follows:

A vote is something different from not voting. One more than half the votes cast is evidently "a clear majority." The majority voting settles the matter, without reference to those not voting. They are then reckoned with the majority, according to Rule of Order, No. 65. Therefore,

Resolved, That such is the understanding of this General Assembly.

The Committee on the Historical Society presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

The Special Committee to which was referred the report of the Board of Managers of the United Presbyterian Historical Society, submit the following report:

From the papers placed in our hands, your Committee find that, in accordance with the instruction of the last General Assembly, this Board met July 19th, 1880, and duly organized by the election of officers.

At a subsequent meeting held April 18th, 1881, by-laws were adopted, which have been submitted for examination.

During the past year an ineffectual attempt has been made to organize the Society contemplated by the appointment of this Board. The suggestion is therefore made by the Board that this Assembly appoint some time during its sittings for the organization of said Society.

The term of office of Rev. S. Collins, D. D., and Rev. J. D. Irons, and Mr. John Hopkins, expires with this meeting of the Assembly. Your Committee, therefore, recommend for adoption the following resolution:

Resolved, That the By-laws adopted by the Board, be, and hereby are approved.

The following resolutions of thanks were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be extended to our genial Moderator for the prompt and impartial manner in which he conducted the proceedings of the General Assembly.

Resolved, That we hereby cordially thank Rev. W. J. Robinson, D. D., the other pastors, the congregations and friends in this city for their great kindness to the Assembly and its visitors during its present session. We shall carry with us to our homes and fields of labor, a pleasant sense of gratitude for the hospitality we have enjoyed.

Resolved, That the thanks of this General Assembly are due to the press of Pittsburgh and Allegheny for their full and accurate reports of our proceedings.

Resolved, That the thanks of this General Assembly be, and they hereby are extended to the following railroads, viz.: The Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, the Cleveland & Pittsburgh, the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati & St. Louis, and the Allegheny Valley and its northern connections, for their favors in the form of reduced fares and polite attentions to its members.

The minutes of this session were read and approved.

The Assembly was dissolved, when the Moderator said: "By virtue of authority to me delegated, I do hereby dissolve this General Assembly, and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet in the Second Church, Monmouth, Ill., on the fourth Wednesday of May, 1882, at 7:30 o'clock, P. M."

Prayer was offered by the Moderator, Psalm 133; 1-3, 7s & 6s, was sung and the Apostolic benediction was pronounced by the Moderator.

APPENDIX.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

This Board has held the usual regular, and some called meetings, during the past year, and has carefully attended to all the business coming before it, whether by reference of the Assembly or otherwise.

All matters pertaining to the church property in Boston have been adjusted. The building with its two tenements, now belonging to the Assembly, yields an income that meets most, if not all the interest on the debt assumed, and the congregation is reported to us as encouragingly prosperous.

A bequest of Mr. John Irwin, (formerly of Coshocton, O.,) yielding $1.500 less attorney's fees, $50, has been collected. by our treasurer.

The Treasurer's Report, properly audited, will be laid before you.

At a late meeting, the Board filled the office of Corresponding Secretary, by electing Rev. S. Collins, to fill it, at least, for the present.

Donations of over four thousand dollars have been made by aged persons to this Board, in trust for different funds, on condition that the donors receive six per cent. per annum on the same, during their natural lives. These funds are invested so as to meet the outlay so long as it may be needed.

The terms of Jas. T. McCance, Thos. Jamison, and S. L. McHenry, as members of this Board, expires with the first of July next.

Respectfully submitted,

By Order of the Board,

S. COLLINS, Cor. Secretary,

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

In presenting its twenty-second annual report, the Board gratefully records the continued goodness of God to the Foreign Mission work of our church. Each mission gives cheering evidences of His blessing upon the endeavors made to spread the Gospel and save immortal souls in foreign lands.

The earnest attention of the Assembly is asked to the following statements and suggestions:

DEPUTATION.

In carrying on our foreign work it has often been felt that our missionaries might be greatly cheered, and the Board and the churches at home obtain a large amount of useful information if a deputation could be sent to visit the various missions under our care. Early after the last Assembly this was carefully considered, and at length, after much prayer and deliberation, the Rev. W. W. Barr, D. D., President of the Board, was appointed to this service, and afterwards Rev. Robert Stewart, D. D., Recording Secretary, who purposed visiting the East, was associated with him, and without any additional expense to the Board. These brethren accepted the appointment and on the sixth of November, last, sailed from Philadelphia on their mission. They proceeded to India, and thence to Egypt, and spent over a month in each mission attending the meetings of the missionary Presbyteries and Associations, and visiting the churches and schools in all the stations. It is a matter of devout thanksgiving that in all their long and often exposed journeys, they have been preserved from every ill, have been the means of great encouragement and benefit to the missions, and will, it is believed, be able to give much valuable information in regard to the work in these missions on their return.

MISSIONS.

The three missions under the care of the Board are India, Egypt and the Chinese. It is believed the act by which all the foreign work of our church was concentrated, in 1877, upon these three fields of labor, was a fortunate one, and that good has resulted from it.

MISSIONARIES.

It pains the Board to have to announce that Mrs. Mary A. Scott, wife of Rev. T. L. Scott, of the India mission at Jhelum, was suddenly called to depart this life on October 25th, 1880. She entered the mission in 1874, and proved herself a most devoted and useful Christian woman. Her loss is deeply felt, and her husband and three little children are commended to the sympathies and prayers of the churches. In March last the Rev. J. R. and Mrs. Alexander, at Osiout, in Egypt, were also sadly bereaved by the death of their only child.

With these exceptions the lives of all our missionaries and of their families have been spared. Some of the missionaries have been seriously ill; but at present nearly all are blessed with their usual health and energy in the work to which they have consecrated themselves.

RETURNED MISSIONARIES.

Rev. S. C. Ewing, after having spent considerable time in this country, visiting churches, church courts and missionary societies, and addressing them on missions, re-embarked on the 7th inst., and will early resume his work at Alexandria, Egypt. Misses Eliza Calhoun and Anna Y. Thompson have also been among their friends and the churches during the year, and will return in the early fall to their station in India and Egypt respectively. Both have been benefitted by their rest. Mrs. McKee, wife of Rev. J. P. McKee, has been with her children at Jamestown, Pa.

Rev. T. L. Scott, arrived in New York on April 13th. The death of his wife has made it necessary for him to bring his young children to his friends in this country. He will return at an early day to his work. The Rev. J. P. McKee, also of the India mission, has been compelled to return for a time to this country.

NEW MISSIONARIES.

Miss Hattie M. Conner and Miss Elizabeth E. Newlin sailed for Egypt on the 1st of September, last, and are earnestly engaged in preparing for the mission work. Miss Euphie E. Gordon has accepted her appointment, and entered in some good degree upon her work in India.

The Board have great satisfaction in mentioning that both of our Theological Seminaries were visited during their late sessions by the Corresponding Secretary and a deep sense of the importance of the work of Foreign Missions was happily found to prevail. A number of young men in both institutions are asking the question of personal duty to the heathen. Already four of them, viz: A. B. Caldwell and J. K. Giffen, of the seminary at Allegheny, and D. S. Lytle and R. E. Lackey, of that at Xenia, have been found to be willing to engage at once in this service, and, after satisfactory medical and other examinations, have been appointed to it. Others are preparing for it, and it is hoped the friends of missions will at once see that there are funds in the treasury to send all of them into the field at the earliest possible day.

In view of the importance of raising up a thoroughly trained native ministry, and urged by the members of the Mission in India, the Board have appointed the Rev. Robert Stewart, D. D. to that mission. His qualifications for being a successful theological teacher have been well tested, and it is believed he would be a valuable acquisition every way to the mission. It is most earnestly hoped he will accept the appointment.

CONTRIBUTORS.

A very marked and gratifying sign of activity in our church at home is seen in the increasing number of congregational and Presbyterial Women's Missionary Societies. This Board has received a liberal proportion of their offerings during the past year, and has thus been materially helped. The great mass of the Sabbath schools also have sent in contributions to our cause. And the Board gratefully mentions that a large number of individuals, several of whom are not connected with our particular church, have generously contributed to our funds, and have thus given us invaluable aid.

As usual, also, for many years past, the American, and the British and Foreign Bible Societies, the Turkish Missions Aid Society, the Ladies' Missionary Society of Paisley, Scotland, and the American Tract Society have furnished important help to our missions, and should have the continued gratitude of our church.

David Peoples, Esq., of Liverpool, England, has been a most valuable friend and helper of our missionaries, in going to and from their fields of labor.

The Board of Publication of our church have generously offered during the past year to make a contribution to our missions. In view of the language used in these missions being different from our own, any contribution of publications could not be of use to any large extent. But as the missions are preparing, and will soon publish, metrical translations of the Psalms and other works in the native tongues for the use of native Christians, a grant of money to aid in doing this will be of the greatest interest and importance.

THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD.

This Synod has continued to contribute for the support of its missionary in Egypt, Mrs. John Giffen. She has rendered very effective and useful service. In happily thus working together in this mission our two ecclesiastical bodies are practising a co-operation which is of a very gratifying character.

MISSIONARY INTELLIGENCE.

The Board are increasingly feeling every year that a great necessity of our church is information in regard to the mission work, and are anxiously endeavoring to meet this necessity. The annual report last year was published and earnest efforts were made to have it circulated in every congregation. Copies were sent wherever desired. One was mailed to every minister, and two at least to every Ladies' Missionary Society, as far as the address of its officers could be obtained. And in several instances it has been observed, that more prayer has been offered and larger contributions made where these reports were most generally and carefully read.

To meet the very earnest desire in many quarters for missionary information, arrangements are making for a letter, at least every month, from our missions. In these letters will be found the latest and fullest reliable word in regard to our missionaries, their labors, the necessities of their fields, the conditions and prospects of the work, etc., etc.; and thus a regular and gratifying communication will be kept up between the missions and our whole church.

Most earnestly does the Board commend to the Assembly inquiry as to how this intelligence may be systematically and fully laid before our people, viz: whether it shall be by seeking a place for it in the existing publications of our church; or, by having some kind of a brief monthly for this Board; or, by having a somewhat larger monthly, which may be an organ for all the Boards. This subject is deemed a most important one.

ZENANA WORK.

By this is meant mission work performed by our female missionaries among the native women in the seclusion of their heathen homes. An increasing amount of it is doing each year, and the happiest results are following. Women who might not be otherwise reached are thus made to hear of Christ, and in many instances are taught to read, and enter upon a new and happier life. Peculiarly fitting is it that the Women's Missionary Societies of this country should offer their prayers and their contributions to help forward such a work.

MISSIONARY EXPENSES.

As many have desired information in regard to the financial workings of our missions, the Board deem it best to make the following statement:

Under the rules which the Assembly have passed, $500 is paid to every married missionary, $300 to every single man, $200 to each unmarried female, to procure an outfit for the mission work. All expenses from their leaving home until they reach their field are borne by the Board, and on reaching it the salary begins. The salary of each missionary with a family, in India and Egypt alike, as fixed in 1874, is $1,200, except in Alexandria and Cairo, where it is $1,400. More has been allowed in some of the missions. Each unmarried female in both missions has $500, except in Alexandria and Cairo, where the sum is $550. Each single male missionary in all the missions is allowed $800; returned missionaries with families, $1,000 a year; each single male missionary, $500; and each single female missionary, $350.

While in the field each child under ten years of age is allowed five per cent. of the salary of the missionary, and over ten years and under eighteen, ten per cent.; when in this country for health or education each child has $150 a year.

In each mission, house rents, where the mission does not own the premises, physicians' bills and missionary traveling expenses are allowed.

These outlays are generally provided for by the rules of the Assembly. The current expenses of the missions are ascertained by the Missionary Association of each mission in the form of estimates, which are carefully made each year by the missionaries on the ground, and are then submitted to the Board for revision and approval. From the aggregate of these estimates and of the salaries allowed by the Assembly, the Board makes up the amount it asks to be appropriated by the Assembly for our foreign work during the year.

The Board deeply feel that this matter of finances is a most important and often delicate and difficult one. From the very nature of things also it must be evident that any plan that is adopted, or any salaries, or terms that may be agreed upon, should be revised from time to time, and modified or changed as circumstances may demand.

In view of the importance of this subject it is earnestly suggested that the Assembly will direct the Board to make such arrangements during the current year, in regard to this whole matter, as they shall find to be called for from any information that they may receive.

THE MISSIONS.

India.—In this mission, which was opened in August, 1855, there are four principal stations and eighteen out-stations. The missionaries are: Rev. S. Martin and wife, and Misses Elizabeth G. Gordon and Elizabeth McCahan, at Sealkote; Rev. J. P. McKee and wife, and Misses E. C. Wilson and Rosa A. McCullough, at Gujranwala; Rev. James S. Barr, D. D., and wife, at Zafferwal; Rev. T. L. Scott and wife, at Jhelum; and Rev. Andrew Gordon and wife, at Gurdaspur—in all fourteen. Miss Calhoun, now in this country, belongs to the mission in Gujranwala.

With these foreign missionaries there are in the mission 54 teachers and helpers. Six churches are reported as organized in whole or in part, viz: Sealkote, Zafferwal, Pusroor, Gujranwala, Jhelum, and Gurdaspur. To these churches 58 persons were added during the year, 44 on confession of Christ, and 14 by certificate; and there was a decrease of 58, viz: 10 by death, 15 by removal, and 33 by suspension. The whole number of communicants is 337, and the average attendance at worship on the Sabbath is 957; baptisms, 58. The total of scholars in the schools, 1,903, viz: 1,343 males, and 560 females. Theological students, 18. Contributions of the native Christians, $259; tuition fees, $2,219.

For the ensuing year Miss Elizabeth G. Gordon and Miss Calhoun have been designated to zenana work entirely, and Miss McCullough to fill Miss Calhoun's place until her return.

Most urgently does this mission ask for at least two new female missionaries. Whom shall we send? Who will go for us?

The Corresponding Secretary of this mission for the present is Rev. S. Martin, Sealkote.

Egypt.—In this mission, which was commenced in November, 1854, there are four central stations, and forty branch or out-stations. The missionaries engaged during the past year in this field are: Rev. Wm. Harvey and wife, and Miss Mary Frazier, at Alexandria; Rev. A. M. Nicholl and wife, and Miss Isabella Strang, at Monsoura; Rev. Drs. Lansing and Watson, and their wives, and Misses E. F. Johnston, M. E. Smith and H. M. Connor, at Cairo; and Dr. Hogg and Revs. John Giffen and J. R. Alexander and their wives, and Misses M. J. McKown and E. E. Newlin, at Osiout—in all twenty-one. Rev. S. C. Ewing and wife, who have been in this country, are now returning to the mission in Alexandria. Miss Thompson, now in this country, belongs to the mission in Cairo.

With these foreign missionaries there are 149 native agents, viz.: 5 pastors, 1 stated supply, 5 licentiates, 6 evangelists, 10 regular (and 12 irregular) theological students, 96 teachers, 12 zenana workers, and 14 shopmen and colporteurs.

The whole number of churches organized is 12, with 5 pastors, 29 elders, and 38 deacons, and a church membership of 1,086, of whom 116 were received during the year, 82 by profession, and 34 by certificate. Decrease, 65; 45 by removal. 9 by suspension, and 11 by death. Average attendance at religious services, 1 837; baptisms, 101. Church buildings completed, 7; and 4 in process of erection. Contributions of native converts, from February to December, $4,747; tuition fees, $4,863. The total of schools is 49, with an average monthly roll attendance of 2,219, viz.: 1,627 males and 592 females. Sabbath Schools 42, with 130 teachers and officers and an average attendance of 1,494.

In the Book Department this mission disposed of 7,337 volumes of the scriptures, 5,511 religious publications, 11,686 educational works, or a total of 24,534 volumes, or 3,814 more than during the previous year.

Chinese.—The Rev. J. C. Nevin has continued his labors among this people at Los Angeles, California. The Board has paid as far as it has been able from the funds that have come into its hands, the sum appropriated to this work by the last Assembly. The Board have no particulars in regard to this mission, and are not able therefore to give any account of its work to the Assembly. In view of its being located in the bounds of the Presbytery of San Francisco, it is earnestly suggested to the Assembly that this mission might be more properly carried on under the inspection and care of the Board of Home Missions.

THE GIBSON TRUST FUND.

In order to have the property which has been conveyed to the Board by the munificent act of Dr. William Gibson, of Jamestown, Pa., entirely free from every incumbrance, no new grants were made during the past year to the great work he has in view, viz.: the circulation of the Holy Scriptures among the Arabic speaking populations of the East. The arrangements, however, are now, it is believed, nearly completed, and soon the work will be put in the way of being regularly and efficiently carried on every year.

The disposition that was made of the money reported from this fund to the last Assembly will be laid before this Assembly by the Missionary Associations of Egypt.

RECAPITULATION.

Missions, three—India, Egypt, and the Chinese. Central stations, 8; branch or out-stations, 58. Foreign missionaries (ordained ministers), 14; unmarried female missionaries, 14; native missionaries, teachers, and helpers, 205; total laborers (not including wives of missionaries), 233; organized churches, 18; native communicants, 1,378; increase, 174; baptisms, 159; schools, 61; average attendance, 4,122; Sabbath school attendance, 2,210; contributions by native converts, $5,006; tuition fees, $7,082; books disposed of in the Egyptian mission, 24,534 volumes; proceeds returned to the treasury of the mission, $6,541.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

First.—That thanks be rendered to God for his continued favor toward our Foreign mission work, and that all of our ministers and people be urged to give this subject an increasing place in their sympathies, their prayers, and their offerings.

Digitized by Google

Second.—That the thanks of the Assembly be also given to the various societies and individuals that have so materially aided us hitherto in carrying on this great work.

Third.—That the sending of the deputation to visit the missions, with instructions to obtain any information in their power and report it to us, be approved by the Assembly. Also, that the appointment of Messrs. Ralph E. Lackey and J. K. Giffen to the mission in Egypt, and of Rev. Robert Stewart, D. D. and Messrs. D. S. Lytle and A. B. Caldwell to India, be approved by the Assembly; and that the Board be directed to see that each is placed in the field at the earliest day in their power.

Fourth.—That steps be taken for publishing a paper which shall regularly furnish our people with the means of being well informed on all matters relating to Foreign missions, as contemplated by the action of the Assemblies of 1861 and 1872.

Fifth.—That the Board be instructed to inquire further into the financial state of our missions, and make such modifications or changes in regard to salaries, general expenses, etc., as the circumstances in the different cases may show to be desirable or necessary.

Sixth.—That the following appropriations be made for the current year: For India, $20,381.25; for Egypt, $35,275; outfits for new missionaries, $2,350; passage for these, $4,000; returning, $1,750; missionaries in this country, $2,200; missionaries' children in this country, $800; incidentals, as legal advice, traveling, etc., $250; printing report, stationery, etc., $500; salaries, $800; for Rev. Dr. Barr, as commissioner, $1,000; total, $69,256.25.

Seventh.—That the friends of this cause be earnestly urged to forward their contributions to it at least quarterly, and that in view of the unusually large number of missionaries to be sent out, special efforts be made to have the necessary funds provided for this in good time.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

Regular monthly meetings of the Board have been held during the year, which have been unusually well attended. Earnest efforts have been made to carry out the instructions of the last Assembly. Careful attention is respectfully invited to the following statements as an epitome of what has been done during the past year and the requirements of the work for the coming year:

1. The Progress of the Work.—The last General Assembly granted aid to two hundred and eight stations and their connections, under the care of forty-seven Presbyteries. From seven of these no reports have been received. The reports of eighty-one are incomplete, embracing only a portion of the year, twenty-four being for one-quarter, fifteen for two and forty-two for three quarters. In the stations reporting there is a membership of 11,116; the average attendance upon divine ordinances on the Lord's day has been 18,428. The additions to the church have been 706 by profession and 922 on certificate. The decrease by death and removal has 596. In the Sabbath schools connected with these stations there has been an everage attendance of 12,016 pupils. During the year these stations have contributed to the Boards of the church $7,716, and for the support of their own pastors or missionaries $52,251. These figures exhibit the following interesting facts: The membership is 1,010 greater than last, and 829 larger than any previous year. The average attendance is 988 greater than last, and 463 larger than any previous year. This is particularly encouraging in view of the fact that the severity of the past winter rendered it unusually difficult to secure good attendance upon church services. The increase by profession is larger than it has ever been with the exception of one year. The addition on certificate is also larger than it has been during the last eight years with the exception of 1879; the decrease is less than last year. The average attendance of Sabbath school scholars was 1,368 greater than during any previous year. The contributions to the Boards are $1,295 more than any preceding year, and the contributions for the support of their own pastors or missionaries also show a slight increase over any previous year. These highly favorable results appear, notwithstanding the number of incomplete reports is greater than usual.

2. Appropriations Withheld.—Appropriations to the amount of $4,930.55 have been withheld, because the conditions upon which the aid was granted have not been fulfilled. The Presbyteries, stations and amounts are the following, viz: Bloomington, Pana, $171.75; Brookville, Reynoldsville, $93.75; Butler, East Brady, $103.13; Parker City, $50.00; Cedar Rapids, Garner, $93.75; Marshalltown, $66.17; Cleveland, 1st Cleveland, $225.00; North Jackson, $50.00; College Springs, Harlem, $91.20; Colorado, Evans, $200.25; Loveland, $133.50; Concordia, Amity and con., $161.39; Chapmanville, $21.03; Zahnville, $20.00; Conemaugh, Johnstown, $126.50; Des Moines, Adair, $18.75; Centreville, $100; Dexter, $18.75; Knoxville, $25.00; Detroit, Caledonia and Campbell, $50.00; Indiana, Rushville, $175.00; Kansas, North Cedar, $62.71; Keokuk, Harrison, $56.25; Le Claire, Volga City, $87.50; Mansfield, De Kalb, $75.00; Haysville, $100.00; Lexington, $25.00; Minnesota, Argyle and Swan Lake, $50.00; Monongahela, Stanton River, Va., $50.00; Nebraska, Bethany, $7.50; Rising City and con., $50.00; Scotch Valley, $5.00: Neosho, Anthony, $100.00; First New York, 127th St., New York City, $140.63; Oregon, Warm Springs Indian Mission, $1,350.00; Philadelphia, Oxford, $75.00; Princeton, Portland, $25.50; White Hall, $8 33; San Francisco, Roseville, $158.65; Southern Illinois, Cuba and Crocker, $117.16; Xenia Prairie, $72.75; Tennessee, Big Spring, $112.50; Vermont, Greensboro, $35.50; Wisconsin, Buffalo, $100.00; Vernon, $47.00.

3. Grants by the Board.—$2,741.25 have been appropriated out of the sum placed at our disposal to meet emergencies and to supply the requests of stations referred to us by the Assembly. The Presbytery and station to which, the purpose and time for which these grants were made, are the following, viz: Beaver Valley, Oakland, $60.00, S. S. half time; Bloomington, Pana, $350.00, S. S. and raise $250.00; College Springs, Harlem, $150.00; Concordia, Hopewell. $50.00, additional to Assembly's grant; Des Moines, Chariton, $200,00 S. S.; Garnett, Greeley, $84.37, S. S., nine months; Welda, $84.38, S. S., nine months; Beulah, $158.32, S. S., nine months, additional to Assembly's grant; Dunbar, $116.68, S. S., nine months, additional to the Assembly's grant; Le Claire, Volga City, $150.00, S. S.; Nebraska, Dunbar, $300.00, S. S., and raise $300,00; Wahoo, $75.00, half time for six months; Neosho, Chicaskia, $75.00, additional to Assembly's grant; San Francisco, $100.00 for new mission in the city of San Francisco; West Missouri, Warrensburg, $150,00 S. S. nine months, additional to Assembly's grant; Wheeling, Buchanan Hill, $112.50, S. nine months; Wisconsin, Caledonia and Arlington, $75.00, six months; Vernon, $150.00, S. S.; Waupaca, $300.00, S. S.

4. Special Missions.—Under the new regulation adopted by the Assembly as to the management of Special Missions, the following stations were placed under the care of the Board: For the term of two years, Port Huron; for three years, Chicago; for five years, Boston, Burlington, Indianapolis, Omaha, Oshkosh and Topeka.

The condition of all these important missions is favorable, much better with the exception perhaps of Boston, than at any former period in their history, and the prospects of success very encouraging. There is reason to hope that most, if not all of them will be established upon a self-sustaining basis within the periods of time for which they have been committed, respectively, to the charge of the Board.

The brief details which follow will enable the Assembly and the church to judge how the work at these points is progressing.

Port Huron, Presbytery of Detroit.—Committed to the care of the Board for two years, ending July 1, 1882. The pastor reports: "During the last year we have been unusually prosperous, at least outwardly." The net gain in membership is 18; the church building has been repaired at a cost of $250.00. The congregation has undertaken the establishment of a mission station at Fort Gratiot, and with aid from the Church Extension Fund will erect a mission chapel there. It was thought a year ago, by the Board, that no further aid would be given; but in view of the new work undertaken, and the promising outlook for the establishment of two congregations in the near future, it has been decided to appropriate this year also $350.00. "It is not our expectation," writes Mr. Montieth, "to ask aid another year, unless Presbytery and the Board should see fit to make this a mission again by employing another minister at the Fort. We hope to have two churches * * * before three years."

Chicago, Presbytery of Chicago.—Committed to the care of the Board for three years, ending July 1, 1883. Dr. Meloy writes: "This congregetion has enjoyed three years of great prosperity. During the past year forty-two members have been received. There is entire harmony. Contributions are freely given to the Boards of the church, and the people are doing their utmost." "The pastor feels hopeful that very soon the congregation will not only cease receiving, but give more generously than it is able to do now." A vigorous effort is being made, with good prospects of success, to build a parsonage. For the year 1880-81, the Board appropriated $600.00, "with the understanding that the appropriation for the succeeding year be $400.00 and for the third year $200.00" In accordance with this understanding, based upon the voluntary statements of a representative of the congregation to the last General Committee and upon correspondence, the Board has decided to appropriate $400.00 for the coming year.

Boston, Presbytery of Boston.—Placed under the care of the Board for five years, ending July 1, 1885. As announced by him to the General Assembly of last year, the relation of Dr. Blaikie to this congregation terminated, by his resignation, about the beginning of July. The Board, after consultation with the Presbytery, thought it advisable to send supplies for short terms, with a view of securing a settlement as soon as practicable. There is as yet no pastor, but it is hoped this important charge will not long be vacant. Without entering into details, it may be stated that the financial status, and the general conditions and prospects of the congregation are quite encouraging. Commendable liberality has been shown by the people in their contributions to the Boards, and for the payment of supplies. The amount expended by the Board to aid them, up to the 31st of March, was $310.00. The brethren who have preached there, as well as the Superintendent of Missions of the Presbytery, speak very favorably indeed of the outlook. For the coming year the Board has granted $600 00 upon condition of settlement.

Burlington, Presbytery of Keokuk.—Committed to the care of the Board for five years, ending July 1, 1885. Under the continued earnest labors of the Rev. J. A. Pollock, substantial progress has been made in this field. He reports a net increase of eight in the membership; a good Sabbath school, about which a common remark of visitors is, "Everybody seems to take such an interest;" a strengthening of the session by the election of new elders, and decided improvement of the finances by the adoption of the envelope system of weekly offerings. The city also seems to be entering upon a new period of growth and prosperity. The appropriation by the Board for the next year is the same as that for this year, $800.00. In connection, however, with the grant of this amount, a resolution was adopted declaring, "That in the judgment of the Board, the congregation of Burlington should endeavor, from this time forward, to reduce their requirements from the Home Mission Fund."

We regret to announce that Mr. Pollock declines re-appointment to this field. He has carried on the work with commendable zeal. As the congregation desires to secure a settled pastor as soon as possible, it has not been thought best to send a missionary for the whole year. Mr. Peter Swan, a licentiate of the Presbytery of Steubenville, has been appointed stated supply for the first quarter.

Indianapolis, Presbytery of Indiana.—Placed under the care of the Board for five years, ending July 1st, 1885. The Rev. J. P. Cowan continues as pastor, and is evidently doing successful work. He feels that "the field is a good one, and that it will yet yield a harvest equal to the amount of labor bestowed." The net increase is 9, making a present membership of 50. The average attendance at the Sabbath services has risen from about 37 to over 60, while that at the prayer meeting has more than doubled, and the Sabbath school has gone up from 62 to 90. Contributions to the Boards last year, $9.00; this year, $68.00. The church has been newly carpeted, and made more comfortable and attractive. The ladies have organized a Missionary Society. The confidence of the people in the success of our cause is increasing, and there is a gain in the respect and confidence shown by the community. Not least among the favorable tokens, are the greater reverence and the deeper interest shown in the services. The appropriation asked, and granted by the Board, for the ensuing year is $800.00, a decrease of $100.00.

Omaha, Presbytery of Omaha.—Under the care of the Board for the five years, ending July 1st, 1885. The improvement in this important mission, when its past history is remembered, is really remarkable. "Our prospects are flattering; the congregation was never in a better condition;" is the statement which a leading member of the congregation thought his pastor might write. The membership has largely increased. The attendance upon the services on Sabbath has improved greatly, more come to the prayer meetings than formerly to preaching. The contributions have risen to an amount that would have been thought impossible some time ago. The interior of the church has been entirely renovated, and outside improvements are in contemplation. New life and a quickened growth are manifest. With this favorable showing the Board was not surprised, though much gratified, of course, to find that the aid requested for next year was $200.00 less than the amount granted, and $300.00 less than the amount applied for last year. The $700.00 asked was cheerfully appropriated, in the hope that God will do still greater things for the pastor and people, whose aim is "to see how easy they can be upon the Board," in their demands.

Oshkosh, Presbytery of Wisconsin.—Under the care of the Board for the five years, ending July 1st, 1885. In compliance with the directions of the last Assembly, the Board, before making any appropriation, instituted a careful inquiry into the condition and prospects of the work at this point. With full reports before us from the session of the Church, and from the Presbytery, and with all the other information that we could gather, it was finally decided that the field by no means should be abandoned. An appropriation of $650.00 was made. During the year Rev. J. T. Wilson was settled as pastor. The report of the session, officially adopted, is:—"After due consideration it seemed to be the feeling that the congregation is on a sounder financial basis than it was a year ago, and that it is in condition to make progress slowly but steadily. * * * That we deem the spiritual condition of the congregation to be healthful, and the outside prospect, though not particularly bright, yet to some good degree encouraging." The additions to the membership have been thirteen. The increase in the average attendance on Sabbath services, prayer meetings and Sabbath school about thirty per cent. About $185.00 has been expended in renovating the interior of the church. In addition to his labors in his own charge, the pastor has done considerable work in reviving and strengthening our cause in the Presbytery. Upon the whole, the prospects at Oshkosh have brightened. The Board has granted the request for aid to the amount of $600.00 for the coming year; with a resolution added to this action, however, identical with that adoped in the case of Burlington.

Topeka, Presbytery of Kansas.—Under the care of the Board for the five years, ending July 1st, 1885. As is well known the history of this mission has been one of alternating success and disaster. Recently it seemed as if we had nothing left there worth the cost of trying to hold. We are glad to report that a great change has taken place. If the present favorable conditions can be maintained, there is no reason why we should not have a successful congregation. Rev. W. E. Dunlap has been serving faithfully as the stated supply, and has been reappointed for the ensuing year; the congregation adding their earnest request to that effect, to the already favorable judgment of the Board. The attendance upon all the services has largely increased and is still increasing. Interest in the cause outside is reported "good and growing." "We have had," the report goes on to state, "an accession to our numbers of 23—12 by certificate and 11 on profession; 4 have been dismissed, making a net gain of 19. We have now 59 members; but a more encouraging feature of our work than its growth in numbers is its growth in permanency and spirituality. In this respect there has been a very marked change during the past two years." On the whole, the report from Topeka may be regarded as among the most encouraging we have received. The amount asked and granted by the Board, for the coming year, is $700.00, a decrease of $50.00 from the appropriation of last year. The reduction is not so large as Mr. Dunlap hoped it would be, but the people, he reports, are doing all they can, and really desire to lessen their demands as rapidly as possible.

In connection with this subject of Special Missions committed to its management, the Board would call particular attention to the fact that the recent action of the Assembly did not and could not affect in any way the relations of these Missions to the Presbyteries. Some of the Superintendents of Missions, and one or two of the congregations, seem to have strangely misunderstood the intention and effect of that action. The change made by it has been to relieve the General Committee of Home Missions of the charge of these stations for a period fixed by the General Committee itself in each case, and to impose the responsibility upon the Board during that limited time. In no respect have the rights or duties of the Presbytery or the responsibility of the Mission to the Presbytery been altered.

Warm Springs Indian Mission, Presbytery of Oregon.—Owing to its peculiar character, though not placed on the list of Special Missions, this work undertaken by our Church should here receive attention. Nothing has been accomplished during the year. The effort was made, in correspondence with the Presbytery of Oregon, to secure a suitable missionary, but delays occurred, and the season became so far advanced that it was impossible to have a family cross the mountains and reach the reservation upon which these Indians are located. There is no one in view at present for this important field of Christian labor, which has been assigned to our care by the government. In the judgment of the Board it should be occupied at an early day, and its wants provided for as fully as possible. Should the Assembly concur in this judgment, and renew the appropriation, every effort will be made, in conjunction with the Presbytery of Oregon, to obtain a missionary.

5. Financial Condition of the Board.—As stated in the report to the last Assembly, by the use of $6,818.26 drawn from the Stewart bequest, we were enabled to commence the year free from debt. During the summer and autumn funds came in slowly, and we were not able to settle all the claims due on the 30th of June until the 4th of November. As the winter advanced contributions became more liberal, and the claims of the quarter ending September 30th were all paid on the 10th of January. Those of the quarter ending December 31st were all paid on the 29th of March, and those of the quarter ending March 31st on the 29th of April. There are, however, a few claims belonging to the past year which were not adjusted in time for settlement before the Treasurer's books were closed. These will amount to not less than $650.

The contributions during the year have been: From Presbyteries $31,786.29; from individuals, $1,685.34; from legacies, $8,054.22; from Sabbath Schools, $591.88; from Ladies' Societies, $797.58; from investments, $695.00; from miscellaneous sources, $485.51; in all, $39,095.82. The payments during the year amount to $38,144.03, leaving a balance of $951.79. From this, however, we must deduct sufficient to meet the unpaid claims, viz., $650. The real balance, therefore, is $301.79. Small as this may appear it is encouraging, especially as we remember the experience of the past few years. The total income exceeds that derived from ordinary sources during the preceding year $3,228.04, and the income of any previous year $3,801.82. The increase in the contributions from Presbyteries is worthy of particular notice, these being $2,126,03 greater than those of any former year. This enlarged income was secured without the employment of any unusual methods to secure contributions. We believe it to be under God the result of fuller and wider spread information among our people in regard to and consequently greater interest and confidence in our Home Mission work.

It is but just to state that the figures given above do not represent fully the liberality of the Sabbath Schools and Ladies' Societies. Contributions from these sources are frequently paid to the Financial Agents of Presbyteries, and come to our treasury along with other funds without any notice of the fact. This has also been the case with a few small legacies.

The bequest of Archibald Stewart, Esq., reported to the General Assembly a year ago, has not yet been fully paid, but the final settlement is promised by the executor and attorneys in a short time. In reference to this money, providentially brought into our treasury, the Board would suggest that action be taken as to its permanent disposal. After mature consideration it seems to us that the amount, whatever it may prove to be, should be kept intact, and yet so held or invested that so much of it as may at any time be necessary can be used to meet punctually the obligations of the Board as they mature. It is well known that during the earlier part of the ecclesiastical year the contributions of the Church come but slowly and in small sums into the treasury, and serious inconvenience, sometimes real hardship is caused to the missionaries by the resulting delay in the payment of their dues. We believe that no better use can be made of this legacy than to constitute it a reserve fund of the Board, from which temporary loans, to be repaid when the contributions come in, may be drawn at any time. Under careful management a considerable part of it may be invested, and thus made to produce a revenue; but even if no interest could be secured, such a reserve fund would give a steadiness and regularity to the financial operations of the Board, which has been sadly, and we think to the great detriment of our Home Mission work, wanting in the past. We, therefore, recommend that the Assembly should order the Board to hold and manage the Stewart legacy in the way now indicated.

Summary.—A condensed statement of the work of the past year, and of the financial condition of the Board, will be found in the statistical tables and report of the Treasurer, herewith presented and to which attention is invited.

THE COMING YEAR.

Fifty-seven Presbyteries have sent in their Annual Reports to the Board. We present the following summary of the information furnished:

The names of 105 ministers and licentiates "able and suitable for work" are reported, representing the full time of 103 men. From this number 8 should be deducted, the names of brethren unable to leave or desiring to be returned to their own Presbyteries. We have thus 95 who are able to take and desirous of receiving appointments. The time of 73 missionaries is all that is requested by the Presbyteries. The reports are so imperfect that we are unable to state the amount of service required by vacant congregations and mission stations. It is evident also that a considerable number of unsettled ministers and licentiates, "able and suitable for work," has not been reported. No satisfactory statement, therefore, can be made as to the actual relation of the supply of and the demand for ministerial services over the whole Church.

The requests of Presbyteries for aid amounting to $51,970, and for the service of missionaries, have been referred, in accordance with the regulations of the Assembly, to the General Committee, whose report is herewith submitted.

The term of service of the following members of the Board will expire with the close of the current year, viz.: Rev. Jas Kelso, G. M. Reed, Esq., Rev. J. H. Veazey.

Respectfully submitted, by order of tne Board,

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

As directed by the last Assembly, the twenty-second annual meeting of the General Committee was held in Steubenville, Ohio, commencing Wednesday, May the 18th, and closing Wednesday, May the 25th. Fifty-five Presbyteries and the Board of Home Missions were represented. No delegates were present from the Presbyteries of Colorado, Minnesota, Oregon or San Francisco. The Committee was organized by the election of James Duncan, of the Presbytery of Cedar Rapids, Chairman; E. B. Graham, of the Presbytery of Omaha, and W. S. Harper, of the Presbytery of Mansfield, Assistant Secretaries.

The amount of money desired for the ensuing year was $51,970, without including the appropriations requested for general missionaries. The total amount granted was $46,548, including $4,950 appropriated by the Board to Special Missions; $2,200 for Special Missions recommended to be placed in charge of the Board at this meeting, and for a General Missionary; and $5,000 to meet other cases referred to the Board, and emergencies arising during the year. These appropriations are much larger than those for any previous year. They were made however in the faith that the Church, by an enlarged liberality, will meet the necessities indicated by these increased demands. But in order that this result may be attained, every possible means must be employed to enlighten our people as to the character, extent and importance of the work of God, in his providence, is placing before us.

The names of 105 ministers and licentiates were reported by the Presbyteries as "able and suitable for the work," representing the full time of 103 men. The Presbyteries requested the full time of 73 men. Thus there was at the disposal of the committee the time of 30 men in excess of the number desired by the Presbyteries. In view of this fact it was judged best, as in former years, to give employment only for the last quarter of the year to licentiates who had not completed their seminary course, and to limit the appointments in all other cases to three quarters, except when the missionary was desired by some Station or Presbytery for the whole year. With these restrictions, 29 men received appointments for the whole year; 43 for three quarters; 7 for but two, and 8 for one only; while 16 were left without any employment whatever. To this we must add the unemployed time of those brethren who received appointments for one, two, and three quarters, aggregating the full time of 20 men, making the unemployed force equivalent to the full time of thirty-six men; the Presbyteries actually taking six men less than were requested in their reports. These painful facts certainly demand the most serious and prayerful attention of the Church.

III.—SPECIAL ACTION ON MISSIONS.

The following action was taken with reference to certain cases considered by the General Committee.

1. That the following stations be placed under the care of the Board as special missions: Emporia, Presbytery of Neosho, for the term of three years; and Marshalltown, Presbytery of Cedar Rapids, for the term of five years.

2. That a General Missionary be appointed by the Board for the year, to operate in the Presbyteries of Des Moines, College Springs, Pawnee and Omaha, at a salary of $1,000; on condition that Rev. J. W. Johnston or Rev. D. C. Wilson be appointed.

IV.—MISCELLANEOUS.

The following resolutions were adopted and recommended to the Assembly.

1. That, in addition to the $4,950 recommended to the Assembly, by the Board, for the special missions already under their care, $2,200, or so much of that sum as may, in their judgment, be necessary, be granted for the support of the special missions proposed to be placed under their care at this meeting.

2. That $5,000 be placed at the disposal of the Board, to meet all cases referred, and emergencies that may arise during the year.

3. That the General Assembly be, and hereby is requested to define the directions respecting a fixed and convenient boarding place for missionaries, as found in Sec. 8, p. 138, of the Digest. Are stations or vacancies to pay such board, in addition to the regular per diem, or are the missionaries to pay their own board?

4. That this General Committee ask the General Assembly to instruct Presbyteries that they should group their stations wherever practicable, so as to make it possible to employ missionaries without aid from the Board, and that pastoral settlements be encouraged wherever congregations so grouped have a reasonable prospect of soon becoming self-sustaining.

5. That we request the General Assembly to direct the legacy of Archibald Stewart, Esq., to be set apart as a reserve fund of the Board, from which temporary loans may be made to meet pressing emergencies, and that the management of said legacy be left with the Board, under such restrictions as the Assembly may see fit to impose.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES DUNCAN, Chairman,
JOHN G. BROWN, Cor. Secretary.
E. B. GRAHAM, Assistant Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS TO THE FREEDMEN.

The year has been marked by a continuance of the manifest blessing of the Head of the Church upon the work entrusted to the management of this Board. The evidences of the divine favor, and the consequent call for gratitude, will appear as the details of the work are presented.

The Board.—A regular monthly meeting and several special meetings of the Board have been held. The members generally manifest a deep interest in the work by regular attendance, and by careful and earnest consideration of all matters concerning its progress. At the first meeting after the last General Assembly, Rev. John S. Sands, for many years a faithful and earnest member, resigned. Rev. W. L. Wallace was elected to fill the vacancy.

THE WORK.

Knoxville.—The religious, or strictly spiritual part of the work was, as formerly, in the management of Rev. S. B. Reed, D. D., college pastor. The services were conducted in the usual manner in every phase of this part of the work. Every Sabbath, except perhaps two, the regular services were conducted in the College Chapel.

These consisted of Sabbath school and sermon in the morning, and lecture, or Bible reading, and Sabbath school in the afternoon. The following order was usually observed: First, an opening exercise by Dr. Reed, Superintendent, then the school separated for an hour's study of the international lesson, taught in the following manner: Men's Bible class, by President McCulloch; Young Men's Bible class, by Prof. Wm. Wallace; Young Woman's Bible class, by Miss E. B. Wallace; a class of women, young and old, unable to read, by Mrs. M. J. Reed; the Infant class by Mrs. J. S. McCulloch; three intermediate classes, respectively, by Miss M. J. Buchanan, Miss Lydia Reed, and Miss Ida J. McCulloch; at the close of the hour, a general review of the whole school by Dr. Reed, who, immediately after the review, preaches a sermon.

In the afternoon no change is made in this arrangement of the exercises, except that the lecture is given first, and no review is conducted at the close.

The regular prayer-meeting is held every Wednesday evening under the direction of the pastor. A students' prayer-meeting on Tuesday afternoon and a woman's prayer-meeting on Friday afternoon are also held; the former usually conducted by the students themselves, and the latter always under the guidance of one of the teachers.

Every Monday the classes all have a Scripture recitation in regular course, one of the international Bible lessons being the subject.

Each week Dr. Reed gave one lesson to the primary department and one to all the College classes in Bible history. In all these lessons he used Adams' Chart of Universal History and Chronology.

The statistics of the congregation are as follows: Members, 61; increase by profession, 5; decrease, 2; infant baptisms, 5; adult baptisms, 2.

The contributions were: To Foreign Missions, $11; Home Missions, $6; Freedmen's Missions, $7; Church Extension, $6; Education, $8; Publication, $3; Pastor's salary, $60; Congregational expenses, $52; total, $155, being an increase of $18 over last year.

The average attendance at the forenoon service for the year was 181, being 18 more than last year. The average attendance at the afternoon service was 122, being 39 more than last year. There has been encouraging increase in every particular in this department.

Theological Class.—Dr. Reed reports as follows: "In my special Theological class 30 were enrolled, and the attendance was excellent. We used Pictet's Theology as our text book. Each week we gave this class one lesson of a full hour."

The College.—First, the Faculty. At the beginning of the year the faculty was enlarged by the election of Prof. Wm. Wallace to the Chair of Greek Literature. The faculty proper now is: President J. S. McCulloch, Prof. Wm. Wallace, Misses Eliza B. Wallace, Mary J. Buchanan and Ida J. McCulloch.

Second, the School. The enrollment thus far during the year has been 188. At the beginning of the present month there were in actual attendance 140. This year has given the most regular attendance of advanced students; and the larger gain in average attendance, during the Spring months, the College has ever had. The attendance through the last month (April) was 36 more than during the corresponding month last year. The work being done is thorough and permanent. A goodly number are now in the regular College classes and expect to remain in course till they graduate. At the beginning of the next term the grades will range as high as the junior class; and the standard of the classes will compare favorably with the same grades in any of our Northern Colleges. The educational effort, however, does not terminate on those within the College walls. Last year from the classes, 39 students, male and female, went out with good certificates, granted by the County Superintendent, and secured positions in different locaities as teachers in the public schools. The terms taught would average about five months. The average salary received was about $25 per month. The total aggregate enrollment could not be less than 2,000. Many of these teachers also conducted Sabbath schools in the district in which they were employed. Thus the influence of the College reached out directly last year to two thousand persons, making its power for good felt in all the surrounding country. Nearly all these teachers returned to college and fell into line in their regular course as soon as their schools were closed.

Lectures.—A new feature was introduced in the early part of last winter, which has proved to be of no small importance. Prof. Wm. Wallace undertook to visit neighboring towns, call meetings of the colored people, and deliver lectures in their churches, or other suitable places, on the subject of education in several of its important phases.

At first he made his engagements in places within easy distance of the college so that he could go on Friday evening and return on Saturday. In the winter vacation he crossed the line into Georgia and delivered several lectures. These efforts awakened a deep interest in every community visited. Prof. Wallace was accompanied in all these visits by some one of his students who could talk well. These always took much pride, in telling from personal experience, of the merits of the institution, and in heartily commending the advantages offered, to the favorable consideration of the people. In this way the College was better advertised than by any other means. Some fruit has already been gathered as the result of these labors, and much more is expected in the near future.

Sewing School.—This important department has remained in the management of Mrs. M. J. Reed, assisted by Miss Lydia Reed and Miss Julia Bradley, (colored). The term was continued six months. The enrollment was 127. The average attendance was 95.

The progress of the pupils was very encouraging. 172 garments were made, besides other work. These garments were sold for a small sum or given as a reward of merit to those who had come up to the requirement. The department was so managed that it was self-sustaining. In addition to the above "twenty-five boxes of clothing, old and new, from the North, containing over 2,000 pounds, were distributed." Religious exercises were conducted in connection with each lesson. Recitation of Scripture verses by the scholars preceded the work each day.

Boarding Department.—"The great barrier in the way of educating this people is the influence with which they are surrounded at home. To save as many as possible from its baneful effects, we believe every church, in establishing a permanent work among the Freedmen, has felt the necessity of having as many as possible directly and constantly under the control of the missionaries. Yielding to this conviction, a boarding department is found in connection with almost every prominent institution established by the church in the South." This much we stated one year ago. A small, experimental effort had been made with encouraging results the year before. We are more firmly convinced than ever, by the result of that effort, of the great need and good effect of such a work. The department was enlarged at the beginning of the year, and it has been continued to the present time with an aggregate attendance of 29 boarders, being an increase of 20 over the number received the previous year. The management of this department devolves on Miss Eliza B. Wallace. It is conducted so as to secure the best advantages to the students in every respect.

It may be said to be conducted on the industrial plan. The boarders are divided into classes, and the work so arranged and assigned that each class gets a thorough drill during the term in every department of housekeeping. The work when done is carefully inspected by the manager, and the scholars are graded for it the same as for any other recitation. Two advantages are thus gained: the department is managed and operated without any expense for service, and the girls get a thorough acquaintance with housekeeping.

The work is so apportioned and arranged as not to interfere with other studies, but rather to promote study, as perfect order and system must be observed.

The dining room is a model of neatness, cleanliness and good order. The religious feature is also prominent here.

The morning meal is preceded with a Scripture recitation by each boarder, and an invocation of the divine blessing by some one of the teachers or scholars, and followed by a Scripture reading, (all present taking part and reading alternately,) the singing of a Psalm, and prayer.

The evening meal is followed by the same exercise, reading, singing and prayer.

The department has been entirely self-sustaining thus far, except the trifling expense of fitting up the rooms in the College building. These rooms are temporary in their arrangement and not well adapted to the purpose. The present arrangement is altogether inadequate to the needs of our work. The demand for more room and better accommodations is so pressing, that the Board has unanimously decided that an addition to our present building, suitable for the purpose, and large enough to accommodate all who may reasonably be expected to apply, should at once be erected.

To the furtherance of this project, plans have been prepared and arrangements made—contingent on the approval of the Assembly—to begin work as soon as possible. The cost of such a building will probably be about $11,000.

It is proposed to provide as far as possible for the expense of this undertaking, by applying to it some bequests, of which the Board has official notice, but which have not yet reached the treasury; and by converting into cash our old school property in Vicksburg, Nashville and Knoxville, and applying the proceeds to the payment of the building.

We respectfully ask the Assembly to give very earnest attention to this matter, and if in its judgment it be right, to grant us favorable action.

Dormitories.—The small dormitories on the College grounds have this year served their purpose remarkably well. They have been filled most of the year by a good class of students, who could not probably have been in college at all had not these accommodations been provided. One special advantage of these arrangements is, that the regular attendance at all the religious services, of a large number of the best class of the students, is secured.

Chase City, Va.—The missionaries at this station are Rev. Matthew Clarke, Miss Jennie McNeal and Mr. Wm. J. Golden. Miss Madge Golden entered the work at the beginning of the year, but on account of very serious illness, she resigned her position about the last of February. Her brother, Wm. J. Golden, now in the school, was appointed to fill out her term.

The enrollment has been to date, 210. During the first three months of the school year the attendance was very irregular and unpromising. This was in part owing to sickness in the community, and in part to some adverse pressure from outside sources. There has been no hindrance experienced since the beginning of this year, and the work in the school has assumed its former pleasant and prosperous aspect. The progress of the pupils has been all that could reasonably be expected. A number have taught short terms in the public schools in the surrounding country.

The religious services were kept up regularly. These consisted of preaching and Sabbath school on Sabbath, a weekly prayer-meeting, and such religious work as is done in the chapel and class room in connection with the regular work. These services suffered from the unfavorable conditions referred to above, but, with the removal of these conditions, recovered and have been of an encouraging nature ever since. It is believed that a number of persons is ready to be received into the church at this station, and that the organization of a congregation may be effected at no distant day. The average attendance at the Sabbath school for the term was 108.

Bluestone.—The corps in this field consisted of Dr. E. P. McLean, Principal, (resigned March 25,) Misses Helen McLean, Rilla Armstrong and Maria McClintock. Since the resignation of the principal, the management of the mission has devolved on Miss Helen McLean. The total enrollment for the term was 238. When Rev. Matthew Clarke was appointed to take charge of the mission at Chase City, this station was left without any regular ministerial service, and continues to be in that condition still. The religious services, consisting of prayer-meetings, Gospel-readings and Sabbath-school, have been conducted regularly by the teachers, and a good degree of interest has been manifested during the year. The arrangements for next year will be more complete and better results may be expected.

Proposed Changes.—At the close of this school year, Rev. S. B. Reed, D. D., will retire from the work at Knoxville, and the charge of the spiritual work will be committed to the President, Rev. J. S. McCulloch, D. D. The Faculty will be strengthened at the beginning of the next year by the appointment of another Professor.

Rev. Matthew Clarke has been transferred to Bluestone. Rev. John A. Ramsay has been appointed to Chase City. Thus at the first of July each field will be provided with a spiritual teacher.

General.—Nothing has been done in the matter of re-opening the mission at Vicksburg, or establishing a mission at Clarksville, Va.

At the former place, circumstances were developed which, in the judgment of the Board, made it plain that it would be inexpedient to make any further attempt at re-establishing our work there. On this account no further effort was made, and the property there was put into the hands of a real estate agent to be sold.

At the latter place, nothing was done because the state of the funds would not justify the Board in entering upon any new enterprise.

Finances.—We are very happy to state that we have been able, by the good hand of God upon us, to meet all our liabilities thus far during the year, and also to pay a debt of $3,850 which rested on us at the beginning of the year. We close our report with a balance of $138.51 in the treasury. At the first of June there will be due the missionaries in the field $900. The balance, unless increased in the meantime, will not be sufficient to meet that demand.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION respectfully submits the following Report of its work during the year:

The Board has endeavored to carry out the instructions of the last General Assembly. Over 21,000 copies of the outline map were distributed to the families of the Church, with good results. The increased contributions indicate that the larger expenditures to disseminate information concerning the work have been a profitable outlay.

The increasing interest of Missionary Societies has been met by uniting their contributions in an appropriation to Ninnescah, Kan. The attractive house now occupied by this interesting mission is the fruit of their gifts, with a balance to be applied elsewhere. The Sabbath schools have contributed nearly enough to build the church at North Cedar, Kan., to which their gifts are applied.

That due credit may be given in detail as much as possible, the Treasurer's Report, herewith submitted, gives the contributions by congregation. With a suitable system of books and blank forms, this can be done without much additional labor, and it is thought with more satisfaction to the General Assembly and the contributors. In this first attempt there may be wrong credits, because the blanks were not issued until late in the year. The returns from the Presbyteries show that about one-fourth of the congregations have not contributed to the work during the year.

THE PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

The work of building has been much hindered by the severity of the past winter, but satisfactory progress is now reported. Congregations receiving aid have shown a good spirit of self help. The Board has continued to press the repayments of loans, and when necessary has, according to the plan authorized by the assembly, given favorable terms of settlement. The appropriations to Paterson, Pawnee City and Red Oak have been made in this way, conditioned on the removal of all indebtedness.

Two years ago an appropriation was made to the congregation of Sharon, Pa., of the contributions of its own Presbytery for the following year, and $150 by the Board to relieve it of a sorely pressing debt. The money, $364.15, was paid, and a mortgage was taken to cover this and aid formerly given by the Presbytery. The Board regrets to say, that because certain fees, not known by the Board, were unpaid, the mortgage was, without the knowledge of the Board and against instructions, left unrecorded. In the meantime the pastor who already held a judgment bond for salary due him, but gave his assent to the arrangements with the Board, took a second judgment note for later arrearages and entered up both, amounting to about $1,058, with interests and costs to be added, as a first lien on the property to the injury of the unprotected interests, not only of the Board, but also of a widow to whom a balance of $800 is due for money loaned to the congregation in its day of need. The congregation was almost broken up, but has been reorganized with fair prospects of success.

According to the instructions of the last General Assembly, the Board appropriated $2,000 as a first payment on the debt against the Boston church, but the holders of the mortgage refused to accept payment. As the mortgage does not mature until March 24, 1884, the Board made a temporary investment of $6,000 in a first mortgage on good property at 6 per cent. to meet the claim when it becomes payable.

Peoria.—Information was given to the Board, through the Presbytery of Bloomington, that there remained an undistributed balance in the hands of the trustee, from the sale of the Peoria property, about eleven years ago. The Board gave an indemnifying bond, and received the amount, $306.43. The Church is indebted to W. S. McCullough, Esq., for his valuable services in the case.

SALES OF PROPERTY.

The Nebraska City property has been sold. The Board is under great obligation to the Rev. R. J. McCready, who negotiated the sale, and to others with him who transacted the business without cost to the Board. The title to the property was obtained by the Rev. D. C. Wilson, who also protected the interests of the Board through vexatious litigation, and at much personal inconvenience acted as the agent of the Board in keeping and renting the property. As an acknowledgement of his services the Board, out of its own sense of duty, appropriated to him fifty dollars.

THE LOAN FUND.

There is no material change in the Loan Fund since the last report.

SECURITIES.

The following securities have been received during the year:

Mortgages for Donations:—Arkansas City, $200; Dexter, $280; Greeley, $535; Greensburgh, $880; Hebron, Ind., $330; Holland Creek, $385; Ninnescah, $460; North Cedar, $325; Nortonville, $575; Sharon, $1,250.

Mortgages for Loans:—Greeley, $200; Greensburgh, $400; Ninnescah, $200; Nortonville, $800.

Bonds:—Holland Creek, $200; Lyndon, $200; North Cedar, $100.

Deeds:—Brockway, Lyndon, Mission Creek parsonage and church lot; Pleasant Ridge.

The Board has also received from one who has been a liberal helper, the deed for a property which is under good management and will yield an annual income of about $600.

INSURANCE.

In view of the danger of loss by fire, the Board asks instructions as to the propriety of requiring churches built by its aid to be kept insured by their owners for the protection of its claims. A general system of insurance by congregations, through some well established agency would save much loss.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

The Board gratefully acknowledges the valuable assistance which Superintendents of Missions, Financial agents and others have cordially given in its work. It is also greatly indebted to James W. Drape, Esq., of Allegheny, Pa., who, as Notary Public, has frequently rendered his official services, and always without charge.

VACANCIES.

The Rev. W. L. Wallace, having resigned his membership, because of being also a member of another Board, the Rev. J. T. McCrory was elected to the vacancy. The Rev. H. R. McClelland also tendered his resignation on account of his distance from the place of meeting. The vacancy remains to be filled. The term of office of E. S. Kitrick, Samuel Dyer, and J. T. McCrory expires with this year.

The board begs leave to ask the General Assembly to consider the rapid extension of the Church into new fields and provide liberally for the houseless congregations.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Board,

E. S. McKITRICK, President.

A. G. WALLICE, Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

The work devolved upon this Board during the past year has been unusually heavy and perplexing. In addition to regular monthly meetings many special meetings have been held. These with the weekly meetings of the Executive Committee, the examination of manuscripts, correspondence, arranging for literary work, and editorial labors have laid a heavy task upon the members of this Board.

We trust it will be found that we have endeavored faithfully to perform our duty as your Board of Publication.

In all our business negotiations and transactions we have not only had regard to the interests of the church, but to the principles of justice and equity. And however much we may have failed in the most efficient and successful management of this great interest of the church, we feel that we have not failed in honest efforts to do the work you committed to our hands, to the very best of our ability.

Immediately after the adjournment of the last General Assembly we proceeded to carry out its instructions to this Board.

THE PURCHASE OF SABBATH SCHOOL PERIODICALS.

The Assembly of 1880 had directed us to purchase the Sabbath School Publications of the Rev. A. T. McDill and R. Stewart & Co., provided this could be done on "equitable and satisfactory terms." Negotiations with the above parties were at once undertaken with the view of purchasing their periodicals.

In the month of October, 1880, an agreement was entered into with R. Stewart & Co., in pursuance of which said firm transferred all their periodicals, viz.: the "Evangelical Repository," "Bible Teacher," "Quarterly" and "Lesson Papers" to the Board of Publication for the sum of seven thousand two hunded and fifty dollars ($7,250.)

Digitized by Google

In the purchase of the Periodicals of Mr. McDill, the Board were unwilling to pay the sum demanded, $10,000. It was finally agreed to pay Mr. McDill $8,000, and he to transfer the Papers to the Board on this basis, both parties agreeing to submit the difference to the General Assembly for its judgment as to whether the additional $2,000 or any part thereof should be paid. We hereby respectfully refer the matter to you for decision, expressing the judgment that the sum of $8,000, which we have paid, is the full value of these publications. In all our negotiations with Mr. McDill we found him an honorable and courteous Christian gentleman.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

The following Books and Tracts have been published by the Board since our last Report:

KILLINCHY; OR A TALE OF THE ULSTER PRESBYTERIANS.
DOCTRINES OF THE PLYMOUTH BRETHREN. By Rev. Henry Wallace.
THE SABBATH VINDICATED. By the Rev. Robert Armstrong.
LUCILE VERNON. By the Rev. W. T. Meloy, D. D.
HOWARD ASHTON. By Virginia Miller.
THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN LESSON NOTES, for 1881.
NORMAL CLASS MANUAL.
Tracts—No. 15. REVIVALS OF RELIGION.
" 16. COME TO JESUS.
" 17. REGENERATION.
" 18. FOG WHISTLES.
" 19. BEAR YE ONE ANOTHER'S BURDENS.
" 20. ARE ALL SAVED?
" 21. COMMUNION.
" 22. WHAT MUST I DO TO BE SAVED?
" 23. SHOULD CHRISTIANS DANCE?
" 24. SECRET SOCIETIES.
" 25. LIVING FOR CHRIST.

We presume that the character of the Books published is so well known by the members of the Assembly that any further notice of them here is unnecessary.

In regard to the Tracts we may say that we fear their merits are not sufficiently understood. These tracts cover quite a variety of the most important doctrinal and practical subjects. They have been carefully prepared by earnest and able ministers of our church, and should have an extensive circulation.

The General Assembly of 1880 (See Minutes, 1880, Page 197) directed "That the Board of Publication be instructed to publish a monthly paper devoted to Christian beneficence for gratuitious distribution among the families of the church, provided such a measure is found in their judgment to be practicable."

Immediately after the meeting of the last Assembly, careful investigation was made as to the cost of such a work, with a view to carry out the instruction given, if found practicable.

To meet the object intended, would require an eight page paper, of ordinary religious paper size and an edition of not less than 30,000 copies, monthly. It was found that this could not be done at a less net cost than $175 for each issue, a very considerable part of which is in the postage, the postal law not admitting a paper published for gratuitous distribution, at the usual newspaper rates.

In view of this large outlay, and the large investment in the purchase of the Periodicals, and increased labor attending these publications, we did not feel warranted in undertaking the work.

COLPORTAGE WORK.

But little has been done in colportage work. A beginning however has been made. Two or three Western Presbyteries, and about the same number in the East have appointed men to this work. These have been commissioned and supplied with books by the Board. We express the earnest hope that Presbyteries will look out suitable men, ministers or laymen, and appoint them to this important department of evangelical labor.

EDITOR OF SABBATH SCHOOL PERIODICALS.

The Rev. R. J. Miller, of the Sidney Presbytery, after earnest and prayerful consideration was chosen Editor of our Sabbath School Periodicals. Mr. Miller entered upon his duties at the first of January, and has filled the position to the entire satisfaction of the Board.

We heartily recommend his election by the General Assembly.

DONATIONS.

Our donations of Bibles, Psalm books, Sabbath School books, etc., have been large. We have been able to meet in whole or in part, every request for Bibles, Psalm books, etc., where there seemed to be real need.

MEMBERS WHOSE TERM OF OFFICE EXPIRES.

The term of office of the following members of the Board expires with the present year, viz.: Rev. W. R. McKee, Messrs. Thomas McCance and Henry Warner, also that of the Corresponding Secretary.

Messrs. Warner and Robinson were appointed a committee to act in conjunction with the Corresponding Secretary, in representing the Board at the next meeting of the General Assembly.

The business done during the year, and the present condition of our work, will further appear from the following statements:

Gentlemen of the Board of Publication:

I present you herewith the Annual Statement of the Board of Publication for the year ending April 30th, 1881.

In our last annual report, attention was called to the fact that for this year, we would have available on the Reed Psalm Book Fund, only the balance of interest of last year and the accruing interest of this year amounting to $500.84. The donations of Psalm books this year amount to $833.79 as shown in statement, or $333.45 over the balance of the Psalm Book Fund. Of this amount $9.90 is transferred to the Latta Bible Fund, to close interest account and the balance of $323.55 is closed into the general donations.

It should be borne in mind that in the Periodical Department the time covered in this statement embraces from August 5 to April 30 on the "Evangelical Repository," "Bible Teacher," "Quarterly," and "Lesson Papers," and from January 1st, to April 30th, on the "Youths' Evangelist," Olive Plants," and "Young Christian." Consequently the statement cannot be taken as indicating the basis of a years' work in this Department.

Owing to the limited time these Periodicals have been in our possession, we are unable to make any estimate of their value as Assets above or below the cost price, hence we have valued them at the net cost, apportioning the individual valuations at such a percentage of the whole cost, as the individual receipts bear to the total receipts.

Of the Periodicals, we have published during the time they have been in our hands as indicated above, as follows:

Evangelical Repository, (8 mos).....	18,775
Bible Teacher, (8 mos).....	34,550
Quarterly, (8 numbers).....	107,000
Lesson Papers, (8 mos).....	121,000
Olive Plants, (4 mos).....	113,800
Youths Evangelist, (4 mos).....	180,200
Young Christian, (4 mos).....	20,400
Illuminated Cards, (1 yr).....	25,750
Total.....	621,475

Respectfully submitted,

By Order of the Board, JOHN T. FINDLEY, Business Manager
J. C. BOYD, Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We present the following report for the year ending April 30, 1881:

I.—BENEFICIARIES.

Nineteen students of Theology have received aid during the year. Of these, ten attended the Seminary at Xenia, Ohio; and nine, the Seminary at Allegheny, Pa. Sixteen Presbyteries have made application for assistance on behalf of young men; Brookville, Keokuk and Sidney each two students; Allegheny, Beaver Valley, Caledonia, Chicago, Concordia, Conemaugh, Des Moines, Garnett, Le Claire, Monmouth, Muskingum, Steubenville and Xenia, each one student.

II.—FINANCES.

The statement of our Treasurer, properly audited, accompanies this report, showing money received and disbursed as follows:

Received—
Cash on hand, last year's report	$ 871 55
From Beneficiaries	100 00
" Presbyteries	1,774 12
" Speer Estate, rent	1,000 00
" Xenia Theological Seminary, refunded	6,000 00
" Loans paid	2,900 00
" Interest	386 55
" Proctor estate, legacy	429 00
Total receipts	$ 13,461 22
Expenditures—
Beneficiaries	$ 2,425 00
Loans	9,200 00
Salary Corresponding Secretary	150 00
Contingent expenses	78 65
Interest refunded on note having been paid before maturity	29 75
Error in Treasurer's account of last year, and explained in report	181 54
Cash on hand	1,446 28
Total expenditures	$ 13,461 22

The following statement will show the present financial condition of the Board:

Permanent investments at beginning of the year	$ 6,740 00
Permanent investments made during the year	6,300 00
Cash on hand	1,446 28
Total resources	$ 14,486 28

The permanent funds are invested at 8 per cent. interest, secured by first mortgage on real estate. The policy of the Board is that the amount loaned shall not exceed one-half the valuation of property by which the loan is secured.

III.—THE BOARD.

The Assembly of 1875 directed, "That only students who are actually pursuing their studies in Theology at one of our Seminaries shall, for the present, receive aid from the Board, except those literary students who have hitherto been receiving aid." During the past year students have been recommended by Presbyteries for the full appropriation, when in fact "they were actually pursuing their studies at one of our seminaries," little more than half of the session. We ask the Assembly for definite instruction.

An appropriation of $2,000 is asked by the Board for the coming year.

The term of office of Rev. D. MacDill, D. D., Rev. D. M. Ure and T. J. Maxwell, M. D., expires at this time. It is for the Assembly to elect.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The Board of Ministerial Relief, in presenting its eighth annual report, would express thanksgiving to God that its work has been carried forward during the past year with many evidences of good, and timely relief afforded to its beneficiaries. Nine disabled ministers and the widows and orphans of ten deceased ministers have been assisted, and in most cases the full amount asked by Presbyteries has been appropriated. In no case has an application been refused. The following is a condensed exhibit of finances:

Dr.

To Balance May 1st, 1880	$1,027 89
" Receipts from all sources	4,914 82
		$5,941 71

Cr.

By Payment to beneficiaries	$2,785 35
" Expenses	41 88
" Permanent investment	2,265 83
" Balance on hand May 1st, 1881	848 65
		$5,941 71

Audited and found correct. It will be seen that the church has sent forward the small appropriation of last year, but the Board has been compelled to resort to appeals to pastors and Ladies' Missionary Societies, in order to keep our treasury in condition to meet quarterly payments. We note with regret that our Endowment Fund, so often recommended by Assemblies, has not been increased as in former years, while demands for relief are steadily increasing.

We record with pleasure a new branch which the Board has inaugurated for relief of ministers and their families in need, the donating of boxes of warm clothing, and supplies of that nature. In this work we have the co-operation of Ladies' Missionary Societies, no funds being taken from the treasury, except, perhaps, for freight and shipping expenses. During the past severe winter many ministers' families have been much in need of such supplies, and we are glad to report that at least a dozen boxes have been sent to as many families. Letters acknowledging receipt of these boxes show the happiest results and gratitude to the giver of all good from the recipients. In this good work the Board asks the co-operation of all Ladies' Missionary Societies, knowing that it will not interfere with their other benefactions. Those able and willing will please communicate with our Treasurer, who will furnish particulars, etc., in case applications of this nature are on hand, and known to be deserving. Where boxes are ready, instead of sending them to the Treasurer, it would be better for societies to correspond with him, and hold subject to his order.

By the organization of the Board strict rules have to be observed in granting aid for one year only. In case aid is desired after the expiration of the year another application must formally be made, otherwise remittances will cease. Blanks will promptly be furnished by the Secretary on application by mail or otherwise.

We do not publish in our acknowledgment a list of receipts from Presbyteries, but a glance over them suggests to us that while some are nobly encouraging us in our work, others are doing little or nothing. Is the work not deserving the support of the whole church? In some instances Presbyteries whose beneficiaries are receiving most send us very meagre remittances. While we cannot ask much from the younger Presbyteries, we surely expect the older and larger ones to remember us regularly, especially those receiving help at our hands.

We record with sorrow the death, during the year, of one of our members, Mr. George B. Skilton, of the First Church, Philadelphia. Attentive to the work of the Board, and wise in counsel, in his death a chair is vacant not easily filled.

The terms of Henry Harrison, Esq., James McCandless, Esq., and Rev. John Teas expire with this meeting of the Assembly.

In conclusion, the Board would respectfully ask from the Assembly:

1st. That an appropriation of at least $5,000 be made so as to amply cover our needs during the year.

2d. That some provision be made for increase of our Endowment Fund, or, if possible, raising it from $24,000, as it now stands, to the $50,000 appropriated by former Assemblies.

3d. That the funds on hand be appropriated to the legitimate work of the Board as defined in its charter, and that relief be granted only on Presbyterial applications, as was done previous to the present year. A departure from the line as expressed in our charter is, in the opinion of the Board, objectionable and unwise, besides having a tendency to curtail our income in some quarters.

Respectfully submitted.

JAS. McCANDLESS, Treasurer.
JOS. D. McKEE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE WITH THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

The Committee of Conference, with a similar Committee of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, recommend the following:

Resolved, That the negotiations with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South be continued, and that the Committee be authorized to prepare, in common with a similar committee of that Synod, terms for bringing the two churches, if possible, into a cordial and useful union, and report at the next meeting of the Assembly.

By order of the Committee,

J. B. DALES, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

The Assembly of 1880 ordered the discontinuance of the blanks formerly in use, and the preparation of an "outline for a report," to be sent only to the Presbyteries. It ordered further, that after receiving the outline the several Presbyteries held a conference on the state of religion within their bounds, and send to the Permanent Committee a carefully prepared report. Your committee and most of the Presbyteries have obeyed this order. The result is, on the whole, fully as satisfactory as that which was reached by the former method. A few Presbyteries express dissatisfaction, and desire a return to the use of both Presbyterial and Congregational blanks, but the great majority seem willing to make full proof of the new method. Those of them which took the requisite time, and went into conference earnestly, found it a quickening exercise, and report themselves as specially pleased with this feature. Some of the papers received by your committee are admirable, presenting very fully and vividly a view of the state of religion in the sections of which they treat. But the habit of reporting through blanks, by answering certain stereotyped questions "yes" or "no," has become so fixed that many of the brethren seem to think it impossible to frame an intelligible report without them; and not a few clerks and committees of Presbyteries, though expressly instructed to the contrary, so used the "outline" of this year. This feeling of dependence on a certain form of questions will doubtless measurably pass away in the disuse of the thing depended upon; and future Presbyterial reports may reasonably be expected to be more generally full and life-like.

Your committee has made such arrangements as it could for the "memorial service for the dead," instituted by the last Assembly, and recommends that a rule be adopted setting apart a certain evening of each Assembly for this service.

NARRATIVE.

Leaving the narrative of our foreign Presbyteries to the Board charged with their care, we limit our review to the home field.

There have been added to the number of our congregations by organization, 10; by reception, 1. On the other hand, we have lost by formal dissolution, by dismission, and by some mode of departure not specified, an equal number; so that the total under this head is no greater than it was a year ago—796. The establishment of 21 mission stations is reported. Three-fourths of these are west of Ohio.

The membership has been increased by profession 8,807. Of these, 8,345 are of Christian parentage, and 462 have been brought in from the world. The increase by certificate is 3,812. Our losses reach the sum of 6,875. The net gain is 744, and the present aggregate 81,564.

The Presbyteries have licensed 25 young men to preach the Gospel, and the whole number of licentiates now in the field is 40.

The ordinations reported are 26; installations, 61; releases, 46. We have received from other denominations 1 minister, and have dismissed to other denominations, or in some unknown way lost, 9. The Lord has taken away 10 by death. The net increase to our ministry is 8, and the whole present enrollment 702.

Ever since the disciple whom Jesus loved—the last of the Apostles—went to be with his Lord, the office of the ministry of the Gospel simply, without apostolic authority and inspiration, has been the highest office in the Church of Christ, and it shall so continue until Christ himself come again. Not only is it the highest office in the Church, but there is no office now accessible to men equal to it in importance and dignity. It is of expressive divine institution; the end of its institution comprehends the glory of God and the salvation of sinners; its responsibilities and privileges and honors are as far above those pertaining to any civil office as the kingdom of heaven is above the kingdoms of this world; and its rightful incumbents are such at the command of the great King, conveyed immediately to themselves by the Holy Spirit. It is fitting, therefore, when certain of our brethren who held this office have been removed from it by death, that in such a paper as this something more than the mere statement of the fact should find a place. We should make room, at least, for their names and some tribute to their memory. The task of rendering such tribute to some of those, whose names shall now appear, is at once easier and more difficult, more pleasant and more painful, because of their exceptional worth. They were burning and shining lights, and many rejoiced in their light. In them the great end of the ministry was signally fulfilled—God was glorified and sinners were saved.

The first name is that of Wm. P. Breaden—"a genial, frank, manly man, who carried the freshness of youth into his old age," thus drawing to himself the love and confidence of his younger brethren, while commanding their reverence. "He was a diligent, conscientious laborer, a model of tenderness, a man of fervent piety." For forty years he preached the Gospel, and through his ministry in his second charge no less than 1,000 souls were added to the communion of the church. On May 13th, 1880, in the sixty-sixth year of his age, the Lord took him to himself.

In 1800 David Lindsay was born, in 1819 he professed his faith in Christ, in 1834 he was ordained to the ministry, and on July 5th, 1880, he died, eighty years a living man, sixty-one years a disciple, and forty-six years a minister of Christ.

August 23d, 1880, D. M. Gordon, in the forty-eighth year of his age, was released from an exceptionally toilsome and self-denying ministerial life. At no time did he count his life dear unto himself, so that he might finish his course with joy, and the ministry he had received of the Lord Jesus to testify the Gospel of the grace of God.

The next one called to his reward was John F. Graham. He departed November 8th, 1880, in the forty-fifth year of his age.

The whole Church thrilled at the announcement from Xenia, November 10th, 1880, that Prof. Wm. Bruce was dead. A prince and a great man was fallen in Israel. Candid, guileless, affable, courteous, unselfish, mighty in the Scriptures, laborious and skillful, clear and thorough; fervently pious, profoundly humble, walking with God, full of unction, wholly devoted to the service of the Master; in the prime of life, high in place—such was Wm. Bruce. How could the Church but feel a pang at his loss? Wherefore the infliction of a loss so great? "Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight. The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord."

For forty years D. F. Reid served the Master in the ministry, and then, December 13th, 1880, entered into rest.

After an illness of only ten days, Prof. John Edgar, of Westminster College, died December 15th, 1880. Fifteen years of his life had been spent in the pastorate, and six in the professorship. In either field he was a workman, needing not to be ashamed. He fell in the maturity of his strength, and in his fall the Church mourns the loss of a keen and cultured intellect, an able minister, a successful teacher and a consecrated spirit.

It was not until March 11th, 1881, that death again came forth to our ranks; this time, as at the first of the year, with a summons for one of the fathers—Samuel McArthur. For forty-two years he had been clothed with the office of ambassador for the Lord Jesus Christ, and through all this period his ruling desire was that he might be faithful to his trust.

"Watch ye, for ye know not when the time is." This word of the Master is emphasized anew to us by his providence towards Samuel W. Clark, who, March 24th, 1881, in the thirty-fourth year of his ministry, was called suddenly by a stroke to appear in the presence of his Lord.

This memorial record closes with the name of Wm. S. Fulton, one of the youngest and most brilliant of our number. Scarcely more than two years had he been enrolled with us when, standing on the threshold of a second pastorate, April 20th, 1881, his spirit fled.

Over these departed brethren and fellow-servants, the Spirit breathes the benediction, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them." To us who are yet alive he reiterates the admonition, "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave whither thou goest."

STATE OF RELIGION.

True religion is more than a profession or a form. It is a life. It has its habitation in the soul; yet it is not native to the soul. It does not spring up spontaneously. There is no law of evolution of which it is the result. It is a gift—a gift from God. It is in his Son. "This is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; he that hath not the Son of God hath not life." This gift is communicated by the Holy Spirit, and is received and retained by faith. We being strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man, Christ dwells in our hearts by faith. True religion, then, is the life of God in his Son Christ Jesus dwelling in the soul through the receptive power imparted to it by the Spirit.

Digitized by Google

This life in the soul, like all life, is essentially active, and in the character and direction of its activity manifests its divine origin. It is also, like all life below the personal life of the Infinite One, susceptible of degrees. It is not found in equal vigor in all that actually possess it, nor is its vigor in any one soul the same at all times. In some it abounds; in others its measure is small. At one time it flourishes; at another it declines. In determining these differences, both the sovereignty of the divine Giver and the disposition of the human recipient are factors.

This brief rehearsal of familiar truth is altogether in place here, for the truth itself is immediately relevant to our present inquiry. We would learn the state of religion in that part of the Church of Christ of which we are representatives. We would learn this, as nearly as may be, according to the judgment of Him with whom we have to do, unto whose eyes all things are naked and open, and who seeth not as man seeth. Our inquiry reaches after more than the outward appearance. It cannot find an answer in mere profession and form. It asks of the state of things in the inner man—the heart. It contemplates the Church as individuals, rather than as an aggregate or organization. Recognizing the fact that true religion resides primarily in the individual—that it is the life of God dwelling in the soul—we would learn how vigorous or how feeble is this life in the souls of our ministers and elders and people. Recognizing the fact, also, that this life in the soul will manifest itself by acting according to the measure of its strength, like its divine Author, we would learn how much of God-likeness appears in the lives of these officers and members. There are a number of sources from which we might draw the desired information, but we shall avail ourselves of only three.

1. The opinions, spoken and published, of individual observers. These, for the most part, are unfavorable. The lament is heard on every hand that the people of God have so little of the mind of God—have become so conformed to the world there is scarce anything but the formal Christian profession by which they can be distinguished. The burden of many communications to the press from men of sound mind and marked piety is that the great presen tneed of the Church is a revival of religion; that notwithstanding her almost perfect organization, her multiplied facilities for the instruction of her people and youth, her increased activity in the running of her machinery, there is yet one thing well-nigh universally lacking—fullness of the life of God in the souls of her officers and members. They argue this lack from the evident prevalence of worldly conformity, and from the marked absence of unction and God-likeness of spirit in worship and service. They see the form of godliness, but they cannot discover the presence of much of its power.

2. The reports of the Presbyteries. According to these, there are no noteworthy discords; the Church is at peace. The word and ordinances are regularly dispensed, and are well attended. In the lives of either officers or people there is little that is scandalous. In some places there are cheering exhibitions of seriousness and earnestness, much diligence on the part of God's people in making their calling and election sure, and much zealous and prayerful labor for the salvation of the perishing—unmistakable evidences of a vigorous and spiritual life. But these happy places are exceptional. As to the majority of the reports, they either lament the absence of such a state of things, or give no intimation that it is even so much as thought of. And what is still more deplorable, there are some which, while admitting that they can give no such account of the sections of which they treat, express something like contentment with things as they are.

A review of all the reports received by your committee is of itself sufficient to produce the conviction that throughout the greater part of the United Presbyterian Church religion is not in a flourishing state; that the life of God in the souls of her ministers and elders and people is far from vigorous.

3. Statistics. From these it appears that there has been no appreciable growth; that the Church has made no perceptible advance in her possession of the field. We have suffered no unusual loss from the ranks of our ministry, and yet the net increase for the year is only eight. The number of congregations is no greater than it was a year ago. There have been added to the membership 3,807 by profession; but of these, only 462 are from the world. The net gain, by both profession and certificate, does not exceed 744. The whole number of additions by profession does not make an average of five to each congregation. The average net increase is not so much as one to a congregation. And the average of conversions from the world is only a little over one to every two congregations, about two to every three ministers, and one to every 175 members. These figures are startling in themselves. It appears incredible that any part of the Church of Christ, with such a ministerial force as ours, with such ample resources and so many favoring circumstances, should in the space of a whole year make so little progress in the work of winning souls and building up the Lord's kingdom in the earth. In the presence of all the facts, it does not seem extravagant, as an expression of astonishment, to cry, "Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth!" nor, as a confession of shame, to plead, "Tell it not in Gath; publish it not in the streets of Askelon; lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph."

But startling as these figures are in themselves, they are still more so as related to the inquiry in hand. They furnish humiliating and overwhelming proof of a low state of religion. God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. The Son of God came into the world to save sinners. For sinners he lived and labored, suffered and died. Here we see the life of God in Christ Jesus exhibiting itself in action. It is a life of love to sinners, and of self-sacrifice for their salvation.

In the measure in which this life is present in any soul, or any number of souls, it will—it must by the law of its nature—manifest itself in the same direction, and after the same manner. What, then, must we infer as to the measure of this divine life present in a body of Christians, to which, during a year, there have been added from the world that is perishing only two souls to every three of the ministry, and but one soul to every 175 of the previous membership? Can there be much God-likeness of spirit and Christ-likeness of effort for the salvation of the lost where the results are so meagre? No, fathers and brethren, neither the sovereignty of God, nor proper allowance for saving results which do not now appear, nor any real or supposed special hindrances in the way of our particular denomination, will so account for this small showing of fruit for the year as to appreciably weaken its evidential force against us. We have not a large measure of the life of God in our souls, else we would so love and labor like God, and with God, as that many more should be saved. In this dispensation of the Spirit, where efforts are put forth for the salvation of sinners, and these efforts spring from the divine life within, success—visible success—is the rule and not the exception. Barnabas was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith; and much people was added unto the Lord. When the churches were walking in the fear of the Lord and the comfort of the Holy Ghost, they were multiplied. Through all these past Christian centuries, and in every place, the quickening of the divine life in the souls of God's people has instantly shown itself in Christ-like efforts for the salvation of the perishing, and the abundant fruitfulness of these efforts has seldom failed to appear. When Zion, by the Spirit of Christ, and in oneness of life with Christ, travails, she ere long sees of her travail.

Fathers and brethren, we do need a revival of religion. We are not in a flourishing spiritual condition. The life of God in our souls must be quickened and strengthened, else the work of God shall ere long fail utterly in our hands. It is high time for us—ministers, elders and people—to awake out of sleep; to do the first works of faith and repentance; to strengthen the things which remain that are ready to die; and to cry mightily to God that he cast us not away from his presence, and take not his Holy Spirit from us, that he restore unto us the joy of his salvation, and uphold us with his free Spirit. Then will we teach transgressors the way, and sinners shall be converted unto him.

On behalf of the committee,

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

Sabbath school work has become a recognized fact in the United Presbyterian Church. We find no one objecting to it as a means of spreading the gospel. The only questions now asked are: How can we make it the most efficient? How can we strip it of all "clap trap" and have only solid work done? These two questions are being well answered by the church. On every hand pastors, elders, officers and teachers are reported as faithful in doing solid, honest work, and pupils as a rule are making an effort in the school and in their homes to learn the truth. These are certainly causes of congratulation. The fears of the few in former years, that the Sabbath school work would turn into a kind of side show, or place of entertainment for the children have been removed. The good already accomplished is recognized and great expectations for the future are entertained by all. That these hopes may be fully realized, it is needful that much attention should be given by all our Church Courts, to perfecting plans by which this work can be assisted and controlled.

STEPS IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION.

Sabbath School music has received much deserved attention at the three preceding meetings of the General Assembly. While there have been different views expressed as to the manner of presenting this music to the Church, we all agree as to one thing, the Psalms are adapted to the wants of the Sabbath School in Church or mission. It is not change in the matter, but the manner of song that has been demanded, as is abundantly proven by the reports of the Permanent Committee in 1878 and 79. "Bible Songs" gives general satisfaction to Sabbath School workers using it. There is no doubt, as the reports in our possession prove, that the clamor for Sabbath School music and other changes has ceased, and comparative quiet is manifested throughout the whole Church. This, we believe, is because of the disposition of the Church Courts to recognize this demand for music adapted to Sabbath School work. There is no complaint from any quarter presented in the reports and no demand for change.

NORMAL CLASS OUTLINES.

The General Assembly at its last meeting, authorized the Permanent Committee to have prepared, and the Board of Publication to have published, a Normal Class manual for general use among Sabbath School workers. This work has been performed by ministers and laymen of the United Presbyterian Church, under the supervision of the Permanent Committee. This book has been so often asked for, we believe it will be cordially received. It is now ready. Any action taken by Sessions, Presbyteries, Synods or Assembly that will aid in putting this work into the hands of teachers and others, will assist in elevating the standard of teaching and in directing the whole of our Sabbath School work.

OTHER HELPS.

The "Bible Teacher" and "Bible Teacher Quarterly" are now under the control of the Church, and one has been chosen as editor who is specially fitted for the work. We have now the privilege of saying what kind of helps we want, without fear of injury to any private enterprise. These helps should have the scrutiny, sympathy, assistance and patronage of every pastor, elder and member in the Church. The Bible Teacher and Bible Teacher Quarterly are second to none now extant, in the opinion of our best Sabbath School workers. The Sabbath School papers, except Olive Plants, have never been as good as they might have been, and though steadily improving, they still fall somewhat below what we believe to be the standard for Sabbath School papers. Liberal things should be devised that these papers in general appearance as, well as matter, may be equal to the best presented by any denomination. It is well worthy of remark that cheap quarterlies and other irresponsible Sabbath School helps that were foisted upon the Church for the sake of gain, have been superseded by our own helps and thereby much evil has been prevented and positive good accomplished.

The patronage of every congregation in the Church would be a great help in making all these papers what they should be.

HINDRANCES.

Records.—In order that the Church Courts may devise the best things, information must be gathered. This fact some of our brethren seem to have overlooked. A systematic way of keeping Sabbath School records is greatly needed. There seems to be a looseness here, that would not be tolerated in any other department of work religious or secular. The daily record of the Sabbath School should be so kept, that the annual gathering of statistics would be but the work of an hour. instead of having these facts in full cheerfully given, for want of such records it becomes burdensome to many pastors and superintendents to fill the blanks. To help in this important work, the Permanent Committee propose to use the same blanks next year as this, and in case change is made in the future, publish the form of blank in the Church papers at the beginning of the year, that there may be no excuse for not having the proper information. We wish to give emphasis to this suggestion; every school will be greatly helped by such records, and all the Church Courts will be enabled to act more intelligently for the advancement of this work, by having them.

Want of means.—All monies needful for necessary helps should be provided for by the officers of the congregation. This should be made at the beginning of the year. There can be no better spent money than what we spend here. See the facts. We have in schools reported 68,407 scholars, 6,273 teachers, 2,136 officers. The whole expense for keeping at work this number of workmen and providing all needful appliances is $23,513. Every settled pastor has on an average at least 20 assistants directly teaching the gospel. Certainly every congregation should endeavor to provide the necessary means, outside of the Sabbath School, for this work. But this is not done. Only $5,133 of these expenses came from the Church Treasury. The schools provided $17,269 for their own expenses, while in some cases the Sabbath School workers themselves bore them.

STATISTICS.

In accordance with the instruction of the last General Assembly, the statistics of the schools were collected by the Presbyterial Sabbath School Superintendents. Fifty-five Presbyteries have reported; Boston and Minnesota failed to report. Some difficulty in the work was experienced by the failure of several of the Presbyteries to comply with the instructions of the General Assembly as to the appointment of Presbyterial Sabbath School Superintendents. The meagreness with which many reports are filled shows the need of Presbyterial supervision. A little effort on the part of the Presbytery would enable your committee to make a complete and interesting report to the Assembly. We have received reports from but 612 schools out of 768, leaving 151 schools or about 20 per cent., from which we have no report this year. Appended to this report will be found statistics in detail as received from the different Presbyteries. To these we have added the figures given last year by 69 schools, which did not report this year. In this way we have obtained substantially accurate figures from 681 schools or about nine-tenths of the total number in the Church at home. In the foreign field there are 45 schools, making a total of 808 under the care of the United Presbyterian Church. There is no reason why every congregation should not forward a full and accurate report to the proper persons as directed.

ENCOURAGEMENTS.

Home study.—We have received a more satisfactory report on this important subject than heretofore. One hundred and fifty schools report Home Study "good," 160 report "fair," 88 report "poor." In order that we may be able to give a better report next year, we suggest that a copy of the Bible Teacher be taken in every family, so that the parent may become the teacher of the child in a manner that will be directly helpful to him in giving a good recitation to his teacher This will enable parents and teachers to put all their strength in one direction and will indeed be helpful to the child.

Children at Church.—More than 66 per cent. of the children are reported as attending Church Services. As pastors and superintendents have been led to make special inquiry in order to answer this question they have been agreeably surprised to find that many more of the "little children" wait upon the preaching of the word than they had supposed. Children as a rule follow the parents. If the parent goes to the afternoon service the child will. It may be that in some homes, the child is philosopher enough to think, that it has the same reason for staying from the preaching service, that the parent has for staying away from the Sabbath School.

Pastors and Elders.—Statistics, so far as furnished, show of 2,490 elders reported, 1,948 or nearly 80 per cent. attend the Sabbath School: when you remember of the remaining 20 per cent. many through infirmity of age or for other causes are not able to attend, this report is gratifying.

The great majority of the pastors also attend regularly. Most of them engage in teaching or superintending while a considerable number do both.

Church Members.—More than 30 per cent. of the scholars enrolled are professing christians. 1,770 more members are reported as attending this year than the previous one. How gratifying to note this evidence of a growing disposition on the part of the young to search the scriptures. We are not only keeping our young people in the school but bringing others into it.

Profession of Faith.—Two thousand four hundred and fifty of the scholars are reported as having made a profession of faith in Christ last year; one hundred and sixty-two more than reported the preceding year. Our scholars are not only not going out of the Sabbath School, but identifying themselves with the great congregation.

Other Items.—The 681 schools included in our statistical report show a total enrollment of 76,816 officers, teachers and scholars. It is safe to assume that in the 82 schools which do not make report, there is an enrollment of at least 4,000 more, so that we have a total enrollment of over 80,000 in all our schools. 585 schools, with an enrollment of 68,183, report an average attendance of 70 per cent. At this same ratio, over 56,000 meet each Sabbath in our various schools for the study of the Word of God. There has been an increase in contributions of $5,228, an increase in expenses of $4,962, an increase in the average attendance of 3,455; while there has been a decrease in the enrollment of about 1,000. If permitted to judge them by their fruits the schools of our Church have been more abundantly blessed than during any other year of their history.

SUGGESTIONS.

1. That the third Sabbath of October be observed as a day of prayer for Sabbath Schools and that special services in behalf of this work be held in all our Churches.

2. One hundred and thirty-five Teachers' Study Meetings are too few for so many schools. Let pastors and elders make provision for such meetings.

3. That it be recommended to Sessions throughout the Church, to make arrangements for the formation of Normal Classes the first of September next, and that the progress of the work be reported to the Permanent Committee before the next meeting of the Assembly.

4. That the thanks of the Church are due to the Rev. Robert Stewart, D. D., and the Rev. William J. Reid, D. D., for the preparation of Lesson Notes during the last year.

5. The term of office of Revs. J. M. Fulton and E. S. McKitrick and A. P. Burchfield, Esq., as members of the Permanent Committee expires with this year. Also that of the Rev. J. T. McCrory who was elected to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of the Rev. J. S. Sands.

Hoping that you will still devise liberal things for this department of our Master's work and that you will be guided by the Holy Spirit in all your deliberations we submit this report for your consideration.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

In accordance with the instructions of the last Assembly, the Permanent Committee on Finance prepared an "appeal on behalf of systematic beneficence," which was published and distributed among the congregations of the Church. This work was done promptly and satisfactorily by the Board of Publication. The issue of this "appeal" was delayed, with the expectation that the publication of "the monthly paper devoted to Christian beneficence," ordered by the last Assembly, would be commenced early in the year, and that the "appeal" would appear in its first number.

It was made the duty of the Permanent Committee "to report to the Assembly, from time to time, such suggestions as may tend to perfect and develope our financial strength." In pursuance of this order, the committee asks the attention of this Assembly to the following facts and recommendations.

The demand for money from our people, for the aggressive work of the Church, is increasing rapidly. From all parts of the foreign field the call for more men, more buildings, and more abundant and better helps, is loud and importunate. All that is asked should be granted, and more. The same is true of the home field. The rapid emigration and wide dispersion of our people, over the new regions opening in the west, render necessary the organization of many new congregations, and the erection of many new churches. The Board of Home Missions is thus called upon to help support new missionaries, and the Board of Church Extension to erect new houses of worship. Thus an immense demand is being made on the resources of the Church, simply to provide for our own people, without undertaking anything purely missionary. The work among the freedmen is rapidly extending, and let the Church be as cautious as it may, it must either give to it much more liberally or utterly fail in important enterprises already undertaken. The other Boards also need, and should have, increased contributions. The appropriations of last year showed a large increase, with the exception of those to two or three Boards, on those of the year before, and still it was felt by those who understood the wants of the work, that they were far from being as liberal as was desirable. While the work is increasing, the capacity of our congregations to give is not increasing in the same proportion; indeed it is to be feared that it is actually diminishing. The additions to our numerical strength, from year to year, are very small. Our people, although commonly in the enjoyment of a competence of worldly goods, are not among the very rich, nor among those who are growing rapidly in wealth. At the same time the ability to give, of many of the old and liberal congregations, is being diminished by emigration, to such an extent, that not a few of those, long self-sustaining, must receive aid from the funds of the Home Board or become disorganized. The very best of our congregations, in the more eastern portions of the Church, find it very difficult to maintain their numerical and financial strength, because of this constant drain on their membership by emigration. The Synod of Ohio showed an increase last year of 788 members, yet its decrease was 678, leaving an actual increase only of 65. The second Synod of the West showed an increase of 645, its decrease, however, was 624, leaving a net addition of only 21. Even the more western Synod of Illinois made a net growth of only 61. It must be remembered also that the decrease includes commonly heads of families, and is therefore a diminution of ability to give, while the increase is commonly of children, who, as yet, add but little to the financial strength of a congregation. Hence we must, in all fairness, regard the ability of these, and indeed of all the Synods east of the Mississippi, to contribute to the treasury of the Church as not increasing, but rather as diminishing. Another fact must be taken into consideration. The United Presbyterian Church is not deficient in the grace of liberality, when compared with other denominations. It is far in advance of many, and but little behind the most liberal. Nor have we been slow in using the means necessary to instruct and stimulate the people. By the Courts of the Church, and by individuals, much has been done in this direction, and with gratifying results. Our church is already a liberal church. Now the question comes, what, under these circumstances, should be done? Unless extraordinary efforts are put forth, systematically and persistently, by the whole urch, the saddest results will follow. Our inability to occupy adequately that tion of the foreign field, left to us by the common consent of evangelical Christendom, will lead others to attempt to occupy it. Our movements are now being watched with a critical eye, and unless we rise as a Church to the demands of the hour, we will be invited to give place to others better able to do the work.

Digitized by Google

Multitudes of promising fields in the west are now inviting us to enter in and occupy; if we are not prompt and energetic they will be taken possession of by others.

The foundations, which have been already laid among the freedmen, will be used for grand and enduring edifices on which others will build, unless we meet the demands made upon us. In all the past there has never been a time when more was demanded of the United Presbyterian Church than now. What then shall be done? It will not do to answer, let well enough alone. Some adequate provision to meet the demands of the hour must be made promptly.

The committee realizes its inability to advise the Assembly wisely, at this juncture, still it respectfully offers the following suggestions:

I. Notwithstanding the general liberality of the Church, still many congregations fail to do their manifest duty. Notwithstanding all that has been done to inform the people, still many of them are sadly ignorant of the wants of the Church, and utterly fail to appreciate the importance of her aggressive work. In view of these facts the committee recommends:

1. That the Presbyteries be instructed, as soon as possible, after the rising of the Assembly, to make arrangements by deputations, or otherwise, for instructing fully all our people, and especially the members of delinquent congregations, in the nature and importance of the various parts of the work of the Church, and for pressing its claims for liberal contributions on their attention, and to endeavor to arrange such plans as will secure contributions in advance, monthly or quarterly.

2. That Pastors and supplies be instructed, at stated times, monthly or quarterly, to lay before the people the needed information, in relation to the work of the Church, to the end that the interest in it may not decline but increase.

3. That immediate steps be taken to secure the publication of the "monthly paper," ordered by the last Assembly, on such modified plan as may be found wisest and best.

II. Many thoughtful members of the church desire full information in relation to every department of church finances. They wish to know what each congregation contributes and how the money collected is disbursed. They are not content with general reports, they wish specific statements. They are accustomed to such reports from Boards of Directors entrusted with the management of secular interests, and feel that they are entitled to the same from the church. The annual publication of exhibits such as are made by the Free Church of Scotland, would doubtless accomplish great good. In view of these facts the Committee recommends,

1. That the Assembly insist on strict compliance with the seventh resolution of the report of the Committee of Finance adopted by the last Assembly.

2. That the "itemized reports" required by that resolution be published annually in the July number of the Monthly ordered by the last Assembly, if it is issued.

3. That in case it is found to be impracticable to publish that paper, that the Board of Publication be instructed to publish these "itemized reports," together with a brief and pointed appeal to the churches to be prepared by the Permanent Committee on Finance, and distribute the same gratuitously among all our congregations as soon as possible after the rising of the Assembly.

III. There is much and important work which can be done better by a Permanent Committee of Finance, than by any other agency. That, however, it may be efficient, its members must serve longer than one year; they must be able to meet at least quarterly, and to this end must reside in the same locality or their expenses must be paid; nor can their work be done without some other incidental expenses. They must also be able to obtain reliable information from the officers of the Assembly when needed. The church cannot be said to have any uniform system of finance; all that has been done has been brought to pass from time to time by single resolutions, partial in their application. Your Committee, therefore recommends,

1. That the action of the last Assembly establishing a Permanent Committee of Finance be re-affirmed, and that a new Committee, consisting of five members, be appointed by this Assembly as follows: One for five years, who shall be chairman; one, for four; one, for three; one for two and one for one year; and that hereafter one be appointed annually to fill the place then becoming vacant.

2. That it be the duty of this Committee, in general, to supervise the financial interests of the church; and in particular, to obey the orders given it from time to time by the General Assembly.

3 That the necessary and actual expenses of this Committee be paid from the Assembly fund, and that the Trustees be directed to audit its accounts and grant orders for such as they approve, on the Treasurer.

4. That this Committee have power to call on any officer of the Assembly for information in respect to the finances of the church, and that it be the duty of every officer thus called on to give that information as required.

5. That the Committee be required to report to the next Assembly a Uniform System of Finance, through the working of which the most liberal and prompt contributions possible may be secured from the whole church, and each Assembly may be able to know as definitely as possible what amount of money may reasonably be expected to be contributed during the next year to each Board.

By order of the Permanent Committee of Finance.

May, 1881.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

In accordance with the instructions of the twenty-second General Assembly, the Board of Managers of the United Presbyterian Historical Society met in the United Presbyterian Book Rooms, July 19, 1880, and organized by the election of the following officers, viz: The Rev. Alexander Young, D. D., President; the Rev. David Barclay, Vice-President; the Rev. John D. Irons, Recording Secretary; the Rev. J. C. Boyd, Corresponding Secretary; Mr. Thomas McCance, Treasurer, and Mr. John T. Findley, Libarian.

At this meeting the Vice-President, the Recording Secretary, and the Corresponding Secretary were appointed a committee to prepare by-laws for the Board.

At a meeting of the Board, held April 18, 1881, this committee reported by-laws which were adopted by the Board.

At our first meeting, held July 19, 1880, our Recording Secretary was instructed to invite ministers and members of the United Presbyterian Church to meet with the Board at its next meeting; and any desiring to become members were requested to send their names to the Recording Secretary.

There was not a sufficient response to this action, on the part of the ministers and members of the Church, to justify us in proceeding to organize a Historical Society.

The only suggestion we make to the General Assembly is, that you appoint a time during the meeting of the Assembly for the organization of a United Presbyterian Historical Society.

The by-laws adopted by the Board are herewith submitted to the General Assembly, as required by the constitution of the Historical Society.

The term of office of the following members of the Board of Managers expires with this meeting of the Assembly, viz: Rev. S. Collins, D. D., Rev. J. D. Irons, Mr. John Hopkins.

Respectfully submitted.

ALEX. YOUNG, President.
J. C. BOYD, Rec. Sec., pro tem.

BY-LAWS OF THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN HISTORICAL SOCIETY

I. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Society; in case of his absence, the Vice-President, or in his absence, any member may, by nomination, be called to preside. The President shall call special meetings of the Society whenever he shall deem it necessary, or upon the written application of two members.

II. The Recording Secretary shall keep an accurate record, in a book provided for that purpose, of the transactions of the Society. He shall file all written reports that are made, and give all notices requested by the Society. He shall give at least two weeks' notice, in the papers of the Church, of all meetings of the Society. In the absence of the President and Vice-President, he shall call the meetings to order. He shall hand over to his successor in office, duly chosen, all books, papers and other property belonging to the Society, in his possession.

III. The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct the correspondence of the Society. He shall hand over to his successor in office, all books, papers and other property belonging to the Society, in his possession.

IV. The Treasurer, before entering on the duties of his office, shall give such security as the Board of Managers shall think necessary for the faithful execution of his trust. He shall receive all rents, donations, bequests, and other moneys due to the Society, and deposit the same officially with such bank or other institution of trust as may be designated by the Board of Managers, and he shall be the legal custodian of the title deeds and securities belonging to the Society, and of the account books and all papers and documents pertaining to his department. He shall pay no money from the treasury except on bills duly approved and orders drawn by the Board of Managers, and signed by the Recording Secretary and President. He shall keep an accurate account of all money transactions of the Society, and his books and papers shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the Board of Managers.

At each quarterly meeting, or more frequently if required by the Board of Managers, he shall present an abstract of his accounts for the quarter, and a statement of all matters within the sphere of his duties, requiring the action of the Board of Managers.

At the annual meeting of the Society, he shall submit a report embracing an abstract of his accounts for the year, and a full statement of the financial condition of the Society; and generally he shall do and perform all the duties which usually appertain to the office.

He shall pay over to his successor in office, duly chosen and qualified, any balance of cash that may be in his hands, and deliver up to him all books, papers, and other property belonging to the Society, in his possession.

V. The quarterly meeting of the Board of Managers shall be held on the second Monday of May, at 11 A. M., and the public anniversary of the Society at such time and place as may be designated by the Board of Managers.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON REVISING BIBLE SONGS.

The committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1880, to revise the book called "Bible Songs," present the following:

They are unanimously agreed to ask the Assembly to excuse them from undertaking the work that has been assigned them. Two of the members of this committee were employed as members of the original committee to prepare the book. They believe that they have done the work as nearly as they possible could according to the instructions of the Assemblies of 1878 and 1879, and are not able to proceed further to revise the book without further and more specific instructions from the General Assembly. They herewith present their reasons more fully in the form of a minority report. The committee are unanimously of the opinion, that it is a matter of regret that the Assembly of 1878 did not more thoroughly investigate the nature of the work put into the hands of the committee then appointed, so as to have given definite and particular instructions as to the nature and extent of the work assigned to that committee. In the appointment of the present committee, by the Assembly of 1880, there is nothing in their action to enable the committee to determine certainly in what respect, or to what extent, it is desired that the book shall be revised. Aside from these considerations, however, a majority of the committee are unable to undertake the work of revising Bible Songs, on account of the general principle involved in preparing and authorizing a book of selections from the book of Psalms, to be permanently used as the matter of praise in any department of the Church of Christ. The position they are constrained to occupy, in reference to this principle, is more fully explained in a majority report herewith presented.

The committee have taken the liberty to publish their report, in advance of its presentation to the Assembly, because of the pressing inquiry in the Church on the subject, and because they believe, as indicated by the action of three Assemblies, that the various questions involved in the preparation of this work, have not been thoroughly considered by the United Presbyterian Church.

Respectfully submitted,

MAJORITY REPORT.

The undersigned, being a majority of the committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1880, to revise "Bible Songs," respectfully present the following representation, viz.:

It is our solemn conviction that the action of the General Assembly, in sanctioning the principle, that a book of selections from the Psalms, set to suitable music, should be prepared and introduced into the Sabbath Schools, is a very serious error. Had we enjoyed the opportunity, at the time of our appointment as members of this committee, of stating our views upon this question, we would not have been now under the necessity of showing seeming disrespect to the authority of the General Assembly, in neglecting to comply with its direction, to so revise "Bible Songs," as to make the book "conform to the instructions on that subject given by the General Assembly of 1879." But we trust that the present General Assembly will so far respect our conscientious convictions, as to excuse us from doing a work, which we believe would be injurious to the cause of Christ and to the interests of the United Presbyterian Church. We ask the Assembly to bear with us, in presenting some of the reasons for our convictions on this question.

1. The principle of preparing and authorizing a "book" of praise, for the use of Sabbath Schools, consisting of selections from the Book of Psalms, instead of the Book itself, is subversive of the position of the United Presbyterian Church, on the subject of Psalmody. The articles in our Testimony, and also in the Directory for Worship, in reference to the matter of praise, very plainly set forth the principle that the whole Book, and all "the songs contained in the Book of Psalms, are proper to be sung in the worship of God till the end of time; and in singing God's praise these songs are to be used to the exclusion of the devotional compositions of uninspired men." The principle is made applicable to the worship of God everywhere—by the individual, the family, the prayer-meeting, the Sabbath School and the public Assembly. A book of selections is not the Book of Psalms. It is another system of praise adopted instead of the system contained in the whole Book of Psalms. It not only comes short of the requirements of our standards, but is plainly condemned thereby.

2. It involves a rejection of a portion of the Psalms as not suitable to be used in the Sabbath School. An ordinary selection of a Psalm, or a portion of a Psalm, to be sung implies no such rejection, but, on the contrary, is made in the ordinary use of the book, and implies that the whole book is proper to be used. But the substitution of a book of selections is necessarily the rejection of the Book of Psalms as such, so far as the action is applicable to Sabbath Schools. No reason can be given for the selection of portions of the Psalms and the omission of others in the making of a system of praise which we as a Church have not condemned long since.

3. The selection of a portion of the Psalms as a system of praise for children is an assumption that the Book of Psalms is not suited to be a system of praise for children. As well might we make a book of selections from the Bible as a system of instruction for Sabbath Schools, upon the principle that the whole Bible is not suited to be a system of instruction for children. Yet the Author of the Bible has made no such distinction either in reference to the Psalms or any other portion of the Bible. Does it not seem like the interposition of human opinion in opposition to that of divine wisdom, which we as a branch of the Church have always claimed has provided for us a perfect system of praise?

4. The tendency of the principle is to exclude the Book of Psalms as a system of praise from use in the Church. We expect the children of our Sabbath Schools not long hence to compose the body of the Church, and we have reason to believe that they will be what we train them to be, and that in reference to the matter of praise they will use just what we train them to use. We teach them that what may be termed choice selections from the Psalms are sufficient. It will be natural for them to use them everywhere, and thus we are teaching the future Church to exclude the Book of Psalms and use only the selections. The Assembly has virtually sanctioned "Bible Songs" as to the extent of the selections contained in it, and yet the book contains but little more than one-fourth of the matter of the Book of Psalms. It is perfectly reasonable to suppose that in a few years this book, or one prepared upon the same principle, will be the Psalm Book of the United Presbyterian Church. It has already been introduced into the family and prayer-meeting.

5. We cannot but feel that any book of songs prepared upon this principle, and authorized as a sufficient system of praise, is a mutilation of God's book of praise. Nothing is condemned with greater solemnity, or with more awful sanctions, than the act of changing or interfering in any way with the integrity of the Word of God. We are far from insinuating that the Assembly by its action intended any such thing. But we should tremble at that which may seem to be an approach to such a principle.

If we were to go into an examination of Bible Songs, we believe we should find that very much of what constitutes the essential elements of the great subject matter of divine praise is omitted from this book. It is not the fault of any committee that may be employed to make the selections. The combined wisdom of the Church is not adequate to the task. The error is in the admission of the principle which we believe to be essentially wrong. Had the committee been appointed to revise the music of the Psalter, or to so revise the music of Bible Songs as to apply much of that music to the Book of Psalms, much as we feel our unfitness for the work, we would have done what we could.

Respectfully submitted,

D. W. COLLINS,
D. W. CARSON,
JAMES KELSO.

MINORITY REPORT.

Without expressing any opinion as to the matter discussed by the majority, the undersigned minority of the committee cannot proceed to the work for the following reasons:

Digitized by Google

1. They believe that the book entitled "Bible Songs" was prepared, both as to the selections of matter and music, in strict accordance with the directions and the intention of the Assemblies of '78 and '79, and that it is, to an eminent degree, such a book as those Assemblies ordered.

2. They believe that the Church has given a very hearty and emphatic approval of the book as it is (1) by buying up and putting into use an entire edition of nearly 14,000 copies in less than five months after its issue, and (2) by so declaring in answer to inquiries made by the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools, and reported to the General Assembly of 1880 by said committee. (See Minutes, Vol. 5, No. 2, pp. 245-6.)

3. They are fully persuaded that the book needs only to be fairly tried to approve itself a valuable aid to the service of praise in our Sabbath Schools.

4. Any considerable change would involve great expense, as it would necessitate the purchase of new music and entirely new electrotype plates for the same. This expense we believe to be entirely unnecessary and unjustifiable.

5. To introduce a revised book into our Sabbath Schools, so soon after the introduction of the original, would be to throw this department of our Sabbath School service into great confusion. Before a revised book can possibly be introduced there will be more than 20,000 copies of the original in use. These would not entirely be supplanted by the new for many years to come. Great harm, we believe, would result from this confusion.

6. The General Assembly has given no hint, and has furnished the committee no data, upon which it can form an intelligent opinion as to what changes should be made in this book, or by what rule the revision should be conducted. It does certainly seem to us a strange procedure to order the revision of a book which had been prepared by the direction of the General Assembly, and, as we are prepared to show, strictly according to the spirit and letter of that direction, and which is passing into the use of the Church at the rate of 500 copies per week, and which was declared by the Church itself, according to the testimony of the only competent witnesses before the Assembly, to be satisfactory; and yet to give no hint as to what was wrong or what change is needed. And yet this is the character of the action which summons the committee to the revision of "Bible Songs." We most respectfully submit that this is to demand the tale of bricks without furnishing the straw.

7. In view of all these facts, it does appear to us little less than trifling with the time and honest, earnest efforts of men who have, with conscientious regard to the order of the Assembly, and with weeks of unrequited labor, taken from their congregations, furnished this book, to ask them to proceed to undo their work without giving any hint as to what needs undoing. Is not the Assembly bound in honor and justice to define, with some degree of clearness, what it requires and in what direction this committee is expected to put forth its labors, before it asks any additional work at its hands?

For these and other reasons the minority of the committee feels itself unable to proceed.

D. A. DUFF.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF SAN FRANCISCO ON THE MISSION TO THE CHINESE.

We are pleased to state there is an increased interest in the work of our Missionary, Rev. J. C. Nevin, among the Chinese at Los Angeles. The attendance at the evening school is larger than last year, partly accounted for in the fact that the opposition formerly existing has, in a measure, decreased. The religious services also show some gain in attendance and results. There has been one adult received into the Church and baptized, also one infant baptized. We refer the Assembly to the accompanying report of our Missionary to the Presbytery for fuller statements respecting the work done. In the opinion of the Presbytery, there is ground of hope—with the work already done—under the blessing of God, and the continued efforts of those engaged therein, that results will continue to increase in the future.

Secular instruction is given each evening in the week except Wednesday and Saturday—the former being occupied with a lecture by the Missionary, and the latter with Bible instruction and prayer. There is a Sabbath School and preaching service each Sabbath. Rev. Joseph McKee and wife are rendering very valuable help, both in the secular and religious instruction of these people. The attendance at these services ranges from fifteen to twenty-five. The Chinese in all portions of the State are all the time changing location; this, of course, is more sensibly felt where the population is small.

Your Missionary, Rev. J. C. Nevin, has diligently and prayerfully given himself to the work assigned him in this field, and his hope is, that, with the removal of the hindrances known to exist, the Mission will progress more rapidly.

There will be due on his salary, by the 30th of June, 1881, $475.75.

The fund under the care of the Presbytery, amounting to $12,810, by the requirement of the new constitution of California, is subject to mortgage tax, thus diminishing the returns in interest by $174.97, so that instead of $1,250, the previous year's return, we received $1,075.03. At the same time the rate of interest is lower now than when the existing loans were made, so that, in case the money is re-loaned on notes becoming due, we cannot calculate on more than 8 per cent. net (that is after deducting the mortgage tax.)

We ask of the Assembly the appropriation of $1,600, for the salary of the Missionary (Rev. J. C. Nevin) during the coming year; the interest accruing from the invested fund being sufficient to meet the salary of Rev. Joseph McKee and wife ($600) and the running expenses of the Mission.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

M. M. GIBSON, Treasurer of Presbytery.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Committee on Sabbath Observance respectfully reports as follows:

In our report to last Assembly, it was recommended that a petition to Congress be prepared by our Church, as such, asking that the arrangements for the carrying and delivery of the mail on the Sabbath be abolished. A member of Assembly having intimated, during the discussion of this recommendation, that the International Sabbath Association either had prepared, or was about to prepare, a petition to Congress of like purport, the Assembly concluded to abstain from the independent action proposed, and to direct its committee to co-operate at discretion with the Association aforenamed, particularly in seeking the abolition of the internal postal service.

The association in question has drawn up the form of a petition, which, as it is very brief, is here subjoined for the information of the Assembly.

"To the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled:

We, the undersigned, citizens of.....hereby respectfully petition your honorable bodies to pass a law instructing the Postmaster General to make no further contracts, which shall include the carriage of the mails on the Sabbath, and to provide that hereafter no mail matter shall be collected or distributed on that day."

In favor of signing and sending such a petition as this cogent reasons may be urged. That the object sought in the petition is good and important, we presume no member of our Church will deny. That the method proposed for securing this desirable object is legitimate, will hardly be called in question. Whether or not the means proposed will prove successful, if used, is a point about which difference of opinion may exist. Perhaps few are so sanguine as to hope for immediate success, but it is not important to agitate this question. The very effort made to procure signatures to such a petition will involve a measure of discussion, and conduce to the creation of a proper public sentiment in regard to the matter at issue.

It is admitted that the process of procuring signatures cannot be successfully performed, without some sacrifice of time and energy on the part especially of ministers and ruling elders, and for this very reason, if not for others, the proposal to petition is very likely to encounter opposition; but surely no one, who has a right sense of the value of the Sabbath, will, on serious reflection, shrink from all the sacrifice which may be needed to carry out the measure indicated, unless he be convinced that the measure is either illicit in itself, or injudicious, or unlikely to be productive of any good proportioned to the effort demanded.

Gratifying evidence in various forms has been furnished, during the year, that a deep concern for the protection and maintenance of the Sabbath exists among professing Christians throughout this country, and nowhere, as we judge, is more genuine zeal in this cause shown than in our own Church; but concern and zeal still more intense will be required to meet and master the spirit of Sabbath desecration, now so defiant and aggressive.

It is suggested to the Assembly that, if a committee on Sabbath observance be maintained, it should be composed of persons residing within such local limits as to be able to meet together for consultation without needless expenditure of time or money.

The following resolutions are recommended for adoption:

Resolved, I. That in view of the prevalence and growth of Sabbath profanation, the friends of the Sabbath should be doubly watchful lest they unconsciously lose the sense of its sacredness; and parents should be at special pains, both by word and example and the just exercise of parental authority, to fortify their children against the influences which surround them adverse to the Sabbath, and to train them to a right observance of the Lord's day.

II. That pastors be enjoined to instruct their flocks diligently in reference to the duty, the nature and the privilege of Sabbath observance, and that Presbyteries be recommended not to overlook, in conferences, which they may hold, the importance of the Sabbath question.

III. That while the Gospel is the great instrumentality, for securing obedience to the law of God in all its parts, the importance of civil legislation, in affording protection against certain forms of immorality, is not to be denied or disregarded.

IV. That the Assembly views with favor the expedient of petitioning Congress for the abolition of the internal Sabbath postal service, approves of the form of petition on this subject prepared by the International Sabbath Association, and hereby urges sessions to take steps for having this petition signed as extensively and as soon as possible.

V. That the Principal Clerk of the Assembly be directed to purchase, at the Assembly's expense, a number of copies of the form of petition prepared by the Association aforenamed, sufficient to supply all our congregations, and send the appropriate quota to the Clerk of each Presbytery for distribution.

VI. That sessions be requested to see to it that these copies, when duly signed, be forwarded promptly to Rev. Yates Hickey, Secretary of the Association, No. 19 South Twelfth street, Philadelphia, Penna.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT ON THE GIBSON TRUST FUND.

The undersigned, having been appointed to write and transmit to you the report of the "Gibson Trust Fund" for 1880, begs leave to make the following statement:

That no remittance came to Egypt on account of the "Gibson Trust Fund" during the year 1880. The amount of balance on hand on December 31st. 1879, was $941.76¼. Of this amount the sum of $220.49½ was expended in the distribution of the Scriptures in accordance with the terms of this "Trust." The whole number of volumes distributed was 673, of which 259 were of the Old and New Testaments; 2 were of the Old Testament; 110 of the New Testament; 245 were parts of the Scriptures, and 57 were Psalms in metre. The balance, was in accordance with the direction of the donor through Dr. Dales, paid over to the missionaries in Cairo, and by them spent on the mission premises there.

Respectfully submitted,

Cairo, April 16, 1881. ANDREW WATSON.

6. STATISTICS OF MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

Contributions for other objects than Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Missions and Church Extension are arranged under a general heading. When the particular object is known, it is given in the address column, and reference is made to it by a †.

N. B.—A * affixed to the name indicates that the Society is organized for work in the congregation.

An ? affixed to the number of members, indicates that the number was not reported, and it is therefore estimated.

A ‡ prefixed to contributions, shows that the aggregate was reported, but not the distribution of the several funds.

5. ORGANIZATIONS.

PRESBYTERIES.

ARKANSAS VALLEY.—Organized April 12, 1881, at Ninnescah, Kan., from the Presbytery of Neosho, by order of the Synod of Kansas, Rev. David Thompson presiding. Territory: All that part of Neosho Presbytery west of a line from the Kansas Pacific Railroad at the west line of Dickinson County; thence south on the sixth principal meridian to the south line of Harvey County; thence east to the east line of Butler County; thence south to the State line.

OMAHA.—Organized Oct. 19, 1880, at North Bend, Neb., from the Presbytery of Nebraska, by order of the Synod of Iowa, Rev. J. C. Evans presiding. Territory: That part of the Presbytery of Nebraska north of a line from the south side of Nebraska City, via Lincoln, to Grand Island; thence by South Platte to the west line of the State of Nebraska; the Congregation of Dunbar to be included.

PAWNEE.—By order of the Synod, the name of the Presbytery of Nebraska was, after the division, changed to Pawnee, retaining the legal succession and the records of the Presbytery. Territory: All north of the line of division, including also, Lincoln.

The Principal Clerk reported that in accordance with the direction of the last Assembly he had distributed blank petitions to Congress for the suppression of Sabbath mails, among the congregations of the Church. This report was referred to the same committee.

Revs. J. A. Collins, John Comin, D. D., James Harper, D. D.; Messrs. Mark Robb, John L. Robertson were appointed the special Committee on Sabbath Observance.

Revs. D. F. Bonner, R. G. Campbell, D. D., H. P. Jackson, C. T. McCaughan, D. D., J. N. Buchanan; Messrs. John Smith and James Dawson were appointed a special Committee on Temperance, to which all matters relating to this subject were to be referred.

The Assembly went into the Committee of the Whole on the Home Mission work of the Church, Rev. J. W. Witherspoon in the chair. At 11:30 o'clock the Committee reported through the Chairman that there had been a pleasant and profitable conference, and referred the discussion to the Committee on the Board of Home Missions.

The credentials of Rev. John Howard Suydam, delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, were presented, and the hearing of the delegate was made the order of the day for this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

After prayer by Rev. J. N. Buchanan the Assembly adjourned.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. David Thompson.

The roll was called. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The hearing of Rev. D. B. Pressly, the delegate from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South was made the order of the day for this afternoon in connection with the hearing of the delegate from the Reformed Church.

A communication from Henry Harrison, in relation to the will of the late William Frazer, was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Permanent Committee on Conference with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South presented a report which was read and placed on the docket.

The report of the Permanent Committee on Narrative and State of Religion was read and referred to the Standing Committee on Narrative and State of Religion.

The Committee on the Judiciary presented the following report on the memorial from the Westmoreland Presbytery, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE ON A PASTORAL CHARGE.

The question submitted in the memorial from the Presbytery of Westmoreland, and which was referred to your Committee, is as follows: What constitutes "a Pastoral Charge," as the term is used in our Book of Discipline? The language to which reference is here made, is found in Art 1. of Chapter V., which defines and limits the membership of a Presbytery, and reads as follows: "The Presbytery is the next higher court of the church, and consists of the ministers, and one ruling elder from each pastoral charge, within a defined district."

Your Committee are of the opinion that the phrase is here used in its common and ordinary sense. What this is, may be clearly ascertained from the uniform practice of the Church, and from its use in the constitution of the Board of Home Missions; section (b), on page 133 of the Digest, which reads as follows: "Whenever practicable, mission stations and congregations shall be grouped together in convenient pastoral charges, and no station shall be recommended for aid which can be conveniently united with a neighboring station or congregation in one charge, for which no help would be necessary."

This language evidently teaches that a pastoral charge may consist of a number of congregations grouped by a Presbytery, and comprising one pastoral settlement, or so grouped by the Presbytery as to form a suitable charge for one pastor, and so grouped also on the ground that they are able and willing to support a pastor.

We therefore submit, for the adoption of the Assembly, the following:

Resolved, That in the judgment of this Assembly, a pastoral charge is a regularly organized congregation under a pastor, or a group of regularly organized congregations recognized by the Presbytery as under the charge of one pastor; or it is such a congregation or such a group of congregations as is able and willing, with or without aid, to support a pastor, and which in the judgment of the Presbytery would be suitable to form one pastoral settlement. And only such congregation, or group of congregations, according to our Book of Discipline, can be represented in a Presbytery by one ruling elder.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BILLS AND OVERTURES ON ROTARY ELDERSHIP.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures, to whom was referred the memorial of W. A. Barnett and others, on "Rotary Eldership," report as follows:

The memorialists ask the Assembly to order and ordain that congregations may, at their own option, elect elders for a term of three or more years. This, the Assembly has no right to do, without first securing an alteration of our Book of Government and Discipline. As it does not appear that any large number of our ministers and people desires such alteration, it does not seem expedient to overture the matter to the Presbyteries.

Besides, the question of electing elders for a limited term of service, and the mode in which unacceptable and inefficient elders may be retired from office, were acted on by the Assembly of 1871, and a distinct deliverance given.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the prayer of the memorialists be not granted, and that they be referred to the action of the Assembly, of 1871, in regard to the election of ruling elders and their removal from office.

(See Minutes, page 286, Digest, page 178).

Spent some time in devotional exercises.

The special Committee on Finance presented a report. Before disposing of this report, the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. W. T. Moffett, to meet on Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

While this report was under consideration, the order of the day was suspended to hear the address of Rev. Prof. J. W. Richard, the delegate from the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, and the response of the Moderator.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Freedmen's Missions was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

The work under the care of this Board has been pursued during the past year with commendable diligence and with encouraging evidence of the Divine favor and blessing. The workers have been faithful, not only in giving instruction in the schools, but also in performing true missionary work. A Christian Union has been organized at Knoxville, composed of the members of the different churches among the students, which promises to be an effectual aid to Christian work. The day of prayer for colleges was observed by the teachers and students of the college, which resulted in a special revival among the students, in which not only were believers quickened, but fifteen made a profession of their faith—ten of them in connection with our church.

The new dormitory and boarding house recommended by the last Assembly, was commenced early in July and completed about the 1st of December. It was immediately filled with students, who are thus brought more directly under the control of the teachers. This influence has been good, as is seen from the fact that the greater portion of those who made a profession of religion were among those in the boarding department.

The work in Chase City and Bluestone seems to be conducted in a very satisfactory manner. While a greater part of the time is occupied with teaching in the schools, yet religious instruction is kept prominently in view, and although surrounded by circumstances which are not only discouraging, but positive hindrances, yet the work has made rapid progress. New stations are opening up constantly, which could be occupied with good prospects of success if the funds of the Board would allow.

There has been an aggregate enrollment in all the schools of 71 8pupils, and in the Sabbath Schools of nearly 1,000 pupils. During the year, 57 students from our schools have been engaged in teaching in the public schools, and thus have been conveying the religious instruction and moral influence received at our schools to not less than 2,500 scholars in various parts of the country.

The work intrusted to this Board is already large and still enlarging. We need not speak of its importance. The work of enlightening, elevating and saving a race of people in our own land, who have so long been kept in involuntary ignorance and degredation, is inferior in importance to no other work of the church, and demands an appropriate share of her attention and energy.

In view of the above facts, we recommend the adoption of the following:

1. That sincere thanks be returned to the God of all our mercies, for the success and prosperity which He has given to our mission among the freedmen during the past year, and that the gratitude of the church is due, and is hereby tendered to the members of the Board for their care and diligence, and to the teachers in the several stations for their self-denying labors during the past year.
2. That the Board be directed to seek out and occupy new fields of labor, as far as they are able to do so.
3. That the work among the freedmen be heartily commended to the church for their sympathies, and prayers, and contributions.
4. That the sum of $20,000 be appropriated for the work of this Board during the coming year.

After considering the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions, its further consideration was made the order of the day immediately after the final disposition of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the overture concerning Instrumental Music.

The matter of nominating delegates to the corresponding churches represented in the Assembly was referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

After prayer by Rev. J. P. Robb the Assembly adjourned.

WEDNESDAY.

May 31, 1882, 9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. Comin, D. D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Members absent last evening were granted the privilege of recording their votes on the first resolution of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures. The absentees of last evening were called on for their votes, with the following result: Rev. David Thompson, aye; Rev. D. Harris, nay.

Proceeded to the order of the day, viz.: the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, on the overture concerning Instrumental Music. All speeches on this report were limited to ten minutes. The second resolution is as follows:

Resolved, That this Assembly hereby ratifies the decision of the Presbyteries, and declares Sec. 5, Art. 2, Chap. 3, of the Directory of Worship, repealed.

On motion of Revs. James Brown, D. D., and S. T. Herron, the following was offered as an amendment to this resolution:

WHEREAS, Our Book of Discipline gives power to the General Assembly, even when a majority of the Presbyteries may be in favor of adopting an Overture, to declare it inexpedient, under peculiar circumstances, to ratify the vote; and, whereas, in the Overture now before the Assembly, there is difference of opinion in regard to whether there is an actual majority in its favor; and, whereas, even if a majority be admitted, it is so meager as to show that a very large proportion of the Church, amounting at least to one-half, are opposed, and therefore its moral force as the deed of the Church is weakened, if not destroyed; and, whereas, its adoption under the circumstances would be followed by serious, if not disastrous, consequences to our beloved Church, and thus such a contingency exists as is contemplated by our Book; therefore,

Resolved, That in the judgment of this Assembly, it is inexpedient to ratify this vote, and, therefore, the law of the Church, on the use of musical instruments in the praise of God, remains unrepealed.

It was resolved that the discussion on the motion before the Assembly close, and the vote be taken not later than 3 o'clock this afternoon. While the proposed amendment to the report was under consideration, the hour of sdjournment arrived, when the Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Rev. R. J. Cunningham.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. James Barnett, D. D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The protest of Rev. James Harper, D. D., and others, against the action of the Assembly in adopting the first resolution of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures was read. It is as follows:

PROTEST OF REV. JAMES HARPER, D. D., AND OTHERS.

The undersigned beg leave to protest against the action of the Assembly in declaring that the Overture to repeal our law on instrumental music has received in the affirmative a clear majority of the votes of the whole Church.

This decision we regard as unwise and unjust on at least two grounds, which, for lack of time, we can do little more than indicate.

1. It proceeds upon a false interpretation of our constitutional law in regard to Overtures. That law provides that before any proposal to change or modify, whether by addition or subtraction. the doctrine, worship or government of the Church, can be considered as carried, it must have received not only a majority, but also a clear majority of the votes of the whole Church. The intention manifestly of this provision is to guard against any change in respect to doctrine and order which would not be a fair and unmistakable expression of the judgment of the Church deliberately reached.

The votes of the whole Church can mean nothing less than the votes of the Church representative, convened in Presbytery; and all those who are present in Presbytery, whether they respond "Aye," "No" or "Not clear," may be said to vote, that is, to express in brief and definite form their mind touching the matter voted upon.

Now, according to the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, the vote on the Overture on Instrumental Music stood thus: Affirmative, 620½; negative, 612½; not decided, or not clear, 9.

We contend that the 9 who declared that they were not clear to vote on either side must be reckoned as unprepared for the act of eliminating from our standards the law on instrumental music. They virtually say that they cannot concur in such an act and must for the present stand still. Hence, they are to be regarded as constructively opposing repeal. Had the proposition voted upon been to insert in our standards a rule against instrumental music, those non-liquet votes would have been justly regarded as practically equivalent to negative votes.

2. This decision is in conflict with our sense of equity.

It was intimated in the Assembly by more than one member that not a few non-liquet votes given in the Presbyteries had not been reported to the Assembly, and when a motion was made to inquire as to this point of the Second Clerk, and of any of the clerks of Presbyteries present, the motion was abruptly laid upon the table.

Still further, it was repeatedly affirmed in the Assembly and denied by no one, that a considerable number, probably not less than twenty, of the votes given in the Presbyteries in favor of repeal, proceeded from persons who at the time of were acting in violation of our law against instrumental music.

Digitized by Google

Now, are such votes to be regarded as valid votes? Was the Assembly powerless to protect the Church against the influence of such irregular votes? And can it in such circumstances be said that a clear majority of the votes of the whole Church has been given for repeal? Even if the Assembly had hesitated about casting out the votes referred to as proceeding from violators of the law voted upon, it might still more have hesitated to declare, as it has done, that a clear majority of the votes of the whole Church had been given for repeal. Would it not have been wise and equitable to have declared that, for various reasons, it was not clear that a majority of votes had been given for repeal, and that it would be better to have the vote taken again so that assurance might be reached in a matter so weighty?

Took up the third resolution, viz.:

Resolved, That this decision is not to be considered as recommending instrumental music in the worship of God, but simply as a declaration of the judgment of the Church that there is no sufficient Bible authority for an absolutely exclusive rule on subject.

Revs. W. W. Barr, D. D., and Thos. Balph, D. D., offered the following amendment:

WHEREAS, There is manifestly a decided difference of judgment in the minds of the members of the Assembly as to whether the Overture on Instrumental Music has been carried by a clear majority of the votes of the whole church, and,

WHEREAS, Many have voted for the repeal of the existing law on this subject, because the law is objectionable in the form in which it is stated; therefore,

Resolved, That the further consideration of the report of the Committee be postponed, and the following proposition be sent down in overture to the Presbyteries, namely, INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC SHALL NOT BE USED IN THE WORSHIP OF GOD IN ANY OF THE CONGREGATIONS OF THE CHURCH.

Resolved, That the Presbyteries be instructed to report to the next Assembly upon this overture as follows:

1st. The number of members enrolled in the Presbytery at the time the vote was taken.

2d. The yeas and nays as recorded.

3d. The number of members excused, or not voting.

Pending the discussion of this amendment, the hour of adjournment arrived, when the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. Mr. Dean, of the Presbyterian Church.

7:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. R. G. Campbell, D. D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Resumed the consideration of the amendment to the third resolution of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, on the overture concerning Instrumental Music. The ayes and nays on this amendment were called for when it was lost by the following vote:

The third resolution was amended by substituting the word "authorizing" for "recommending" and then adopted.

Took up the fourth resolution, viz.:

Resolved, That while there may be a liberty here, it is a liberty which in itself and especially in the present state of the Church, should be stringently regulated and kept from abuse, or any use that would conflict with the required simplicity of Christian worship.

The ayes and nays were called for on this resolution, which was then withdrawn with the consent of the Assembly.

The fifth resolutlon was then adopted. It is as follows:

Resolved, That this Assembly hereby instructs and enjoins the lower courts to abstain, and have all under their authority abstain from any action in this matter that would disturb the peace and harmony of congregations or unreasonably disregard the conscientious convictions of members.

The whole report was then adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BILLS AND OVERTURES ON THE OVERTURE CONCERNING INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully submits the following report on the subject of instrumental music as overtured to the Presbyteries by the last Assembly:

We find that the whole number of votes cast is 1233. Nine persons are reported as not voting. Of the votes cast, 620½ are in the affirmative, and 612½ in the negative, making a clear majority of 8 in the affirmative on the question overtured.

We, therefore, recommend the adoption by the Assembly of the following resolutions:

1st. That the overture to repeal the rule in our Directory touching instrumental music has received a clear constitutional majority of the votes of the church, and, therefore, has been carried.

2d. That this Assembly hereby ratifies the decision of the Presbyteries, and declares Sec. 5, Art. 2, Chap. 3, of the Directory for Worship, repealed.

3d. That this decision is not to be considered as authorizing instrumental music in the worship of God, but simply as a declaration of the judgment of the church that there is no sufficient Bible authority for an absolutely exclusive rule on the subject.

4th. That this Assembly hereby instructs and enjoins the lower courts to abstain, and have all under their authority abstain, from any action in this matter that would disturb the peace and harmony of congregations, or unreasonably disregard the conscientious convictions of members.

Rev. Thomas Balph, D. D., in his own name and in the name of others who might join with him, gave notice of protest against this final action.

After prayer by Rev. James Barnett, D. D., the Assembly adjourned.

THURSDAY.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions was resumed. This report was amended and adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS

Only two papers have been referred to the Committee, viz: The Report of the Board of Home Missions and the Report of the General Committee of Home Missions. These reports have been so carefully prepared and are so heartily approved by the members of the Committee that there appears to be nothing for us to do but to ask for them your careful consideration and sanction, and to recommend that the Assembly commend the Home Mission work to the favor of God and the liberal support of the people. We would, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1st, That the General Assembly hereby expresses its gratitude to God for the prosperity which has attended the operations of the Board, and for the opening up of new and inviting fields for missionary work.

2d. That the action of the Board of Home Missions during the past year, and its appropriations for the special missions committed to its care be approved.

3d. That the report of the General Committee of Home Missions be adopted.

4th. That pastors and the various periodicals of the church be requested, as far as practicable, to keep the necessities of the Home Mission fields and the importance of the Home Mission work constantly before the minds of the people of the church.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises.

The following answer to the reasons of protest of Rev. James Harper, D. D., and others, was read and adopted:

ANSWER TO PROTEST OF DR. JAMES HARPER AND OTHERS.

This protest is against the action of the Assembly in deciding that the overture to repeal the law on instrumental music had been carried by a clear constitutional majority of the votes of the Presbyteries.

The first reason of protest is that the Assembly, in this decision, acted on "a false interpretation of our constitutional law in regard to overtures." The error specifically alleged is that the Assembly confined its count to the yeas and nays reported. The general remarks in the protest in regard to the intent of the law are not disputed. What we deny is that it was an error not to count as votes what was, in fact, the non-voting of persons reported as silent. The constitutional law requires simply a return of the votes given in the Presbyteries, and designates, expressly the yeas and the nays, as what are to be returned. It makes no mention of anything else as to be counted or even noted by the clerks of Presbyteries. The only recognition in any of our laws of silent members, or non-voters, is in a mere rule of order (66), and there they are directed to be counted with the majority.

Further, this Assembly acted, in this matter, under an authoritative construction of the law adopted by the last Assembly, conclusive and binding until regularly repealed. That construction is in these words: "A vote is something different from not voting. One more than half the votes cast is evidently a clear majority. The majority voting settles the matter without reference to those not voting. They are then reckoned with the majority according to rule of order No. 66."

It was under this construction of law by the supreme authority of the Church that the overture on instrumental music was sent down to the Presbyteries; under it the Presbyteries voted, and under it this Assembly was bound to count the returns of the votes; and, so counting, it could not do otherwise than declare the overture carried by a clear constitutional majority.

But, aside from all this, the uniform practice of the Church in counting the votes on overtures made a common law on this subject, which this Assembly was bound to [illegible]ct. It is the practical interpretation of the law given by the Church in her whole history of overtures. If, as is claimed in the protest, the votes of the whole Church can mean nothing less than the votes of all those who are present in the Presbytery, whether they cast their votes or not, then we have had no valid adoption of any overture, not even of our Book of Government or Directory for Worship, and especially not of the law on instrumental music.

The second general reason of protest is that the decision of the Assembly is in conflict with a "sense of equity," in that there was not given opportunity to make further inquiry for non-voters, and in counting the votes of alleged violators of the law.

As to the refusal of the Assembly to go into an irregular inquiry for non-voters other than were reported, it was justified by the uselessness of the inquiry to the count legally required, and the unnecessary waste of the time of the Assembly.

As to the votes alleged to have been given by violators of the law, it is sufficient to say that the Assembly did not have before it any formal complaints of the kind, and had no power to deprive of the right of voting persons never judicially condemned or even arraigned.

If the Assembly had been forced to go back of the returns and throw out all the irregular voting that appears to have been done, the majority for the overture would in all probability have been far in excess of the negative vote and all the silent and challenged votes together.

Took up unfinished business, viz: the report of the Judicial Committee on Commissions. This report was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE ON COMMISSIONS.

Your Committee would report for adoption the following:

Resolved, That this General Assembly, recognizing the right of Synods, Presbyteries and Sessions, to appoint commissions in special matters, does hereby adopt the following rules, defining their scope and regulating their proceedure under them, viz.:

1. A commission is an agency invested with the power of the court appointing it, and authorized to deliberate upon and conclude the business submitted to it. It is not in itself a court, but acts for and in the stead of the court it represents; its powers are defined by the terms of its appointment, and its existence terminates with the particular business committed to it.

2. Such commissions may be appointed by Sessions, Presbyteries and Synods, to act in matters to which the full court cannot, without great inconvenience, attend; or in which the ends of government may be more judiciously attained by this means than by a meeting of the court itself, and by the General Assembly for the adjudication of appeals in cases of discipline.

3. Commissions may be appointed in delicate or difficult matters requiring much deliberation and prudence; for the organization of congregations; as provisional Sessions for missions or partially disorganized congregations; for the installation of ministers; for taking testimony in judicial cases; for the visitation of congregations; for the investigation of offences and irregularities, properly brought before the court, and, for the trial of cases, and the adjudication of appeals and complaints.

4. Except for the organization of a congregation and for a provisional Session, a commission of Presbytery shall consist of not less than two ministers and an elder; a commission of Synod of not less than five ministers and four elders; and of the General Assembly of not less than eight ministers and seven elders. In each case two-thirds shall constitute a quorum.

5. The proceedings of a commission shall be according to the rules of the court it represents, and shall be subject to review, appeal and complaint. It shall, therefore, submit a full record of its proceedings to the court appointing it, which, if the proceedings have been regular, and the commission has not exceeded its powers, shall be entered upon and become part of the records of the court.

6. The right of dissent, protest, appeal and complaint, and the rules of procedure therein, shall be the same as in the full court. The reason for protest, appeal or complaint shall be lodged with the Moderator or the Clerk of the court appointing the commission, and the commission shall not appear in any subsequent proceedings.

7. A judicial commission of the General Assembly shall report its finding of the facts in the case, and also its judgment thereon. The finding of the facts shall be final, but the General Assembly may review the judgment.

8. The court appointing a commission shall designate the time and place of its meeting, the nature of the business submitted to it, and the extent of the power delegated to it, and the clerk shall give the chairman a copy of the record, with all the papers relating to the business.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions. This report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Though it has been the work of a quarter of a century, yet we note with satisfaction the measure of success which has crowned the labors of our foreign missionaries. The two missions, India and Egypt, have grown from the small beginning of a single missionary in each, to a total missionary force of 239, with property having a total value of $122,268. The missionary labors show a result of one thousand, five hundred and sixty-five (1,565) communicants, and six thousand, one hundred and fifty-one (6,151) children in the schools.

Instead of being wholly dependent upon the contributions of the home church, the natives contribute for church and benevolent purposes, $23,272. Beginnings are proverbially hard. "He that goeth forth bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing bringing his sheaves with him." In our missions, the hard labor of mere seed sowing is past. Our laborers, having gathered sheaves, now rejoice.

The detailed statement of the Treasurer of the Board, accompanying the report, in accordance with the direction of the Assembly last year, is a new and valuable addition to the information usually furnished. The strict attention given by the Board to the details of expenses, also the assurance that not only our own treasurer, but also the treasurers in the foreign field are careful to manage their financial affairs on strict business principles, confirm past confidence and encourage greater liberality. Our people may contribute with the assurance that the funds of the church will be carefully and wisely expended.

With gratitude, we note the fact that our missionaries, during the year, have enjoyed general health and have engaged in efficient work. It is, however, with unfeigned sorrow that we record the death of Mrs. Mary E. Giffen, our gifted, devoted and efficient co-laborer, supported by the Associate Reformed Church of the South.

We fondly cherish the hope that our brethren of the Associated Reformed Church may soon find it convenient and practicable to furnish a laborer to fill her place. Also we mention, with sorrow, the death of the Rev. J. F. Patterson, M. D., disabled since 1877.

Missionaries visiting their homes in this country expect to return soon, with invigorated health, to their former fields.

During the past year our missionary force has been increased more than in any previous year. By the new missionaries sent out, and changes among the missionaries themselves, India has received the larger share of reinforcements. In view of the great work undertaken and required in Egypt, our encouragement in that work, and also in view of our great responsibility for the evangelization of Egypt, reinforcement for that field is pressingly needed. We recommend for adoption by the Assembly the following resolutions:

First. That in view of the very marked tokens of the Divine favor to the foreign missionary work of our church, the Assembly recommend the thanksgivings of all our people to God, and renewedly express its own confidence and interest in this great work.

Second. That the Assembly tender thanks to helpers and contributors to our foreign missionary work, making special mention of the American and the British and Foreign Bible Societies; the Ladies' Missionary Society of Paisley, Scotland; David Beggles, Esq., 300 Great Howard street, Liverpool, and Mr. William B. Pressly, of South, Ill., for his past and present timely and liberal donations.

Third. That the Assembly confirm the appointment of Mr. Thomas Finney, as a missionary to Egypt, and also authorize the Board to send to the same field another ordained missionary, a physician and two unmarried female missionaries, as soon as they can be obtained.

Fourth. That the Board be directed to prepare and publish for missionary use such a manual of instructions and directions as their work demands.

Fifth. That the following appropriations be made: For Egypt, including $2,000 for the publication of a new edition of the revised metrical version of the Psalms, in Arabic, $37,975.74; India, $31,701.66; outfits for missionaries, $700; passage for new missionaries, $300; passage for returning missionaries, $1,200; salaries of missionaries in this country, $1,200; for support of children, $1,200; incidentals, $250; salaries of officers of the Board, $300; printing, reports, stationery, etc., $500; total, $76,327.40.

Sixth. That the Assembly appropriate $5,000 for the building of a girls' boarding school in Asyoot, with a view of accomplishing the long cherished purpose of Mr. William B. Pressly, who donates the amount, and who, as he has already made liberal donations for the boys, also wishes to do something for the girls of Egypt.

Seventh. That the regulations adopted by the Board in reference to outfits, salaries and allowances be approved by the Assembly.

Eighth. That pastors, sessions, and missionary societies be urged to circulate more carefully the reports of the Board and other missionary literature, with a view of increasing the interest of the members of the church in foreign missionary work.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures on the memorial from Boston Presbytery presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BILLS AND OVERTURES RESPECTING AN ABBREVIATION OF OUR STANDARDS.

We respectfully submit the following: The memorial asks the Assembly to take steps to secure "a briefer form of sound words," evidently meaning by the phrase "sound words" the standards of the United Presbyterian Church. By the deliberate judgment of the Church, the Articles of the Confession of Faith are stated in as brief a form as is consistent with distinctness and fidelity to the truths which they enunciate. The same is true of the Articles of the Testimony, the Form of Government and Directory for Worship. To abbreviate the Catechisms, in our opinion, would be a simple marring of that which is recognized by a large portion of the evangelical church as a brief summary of the whole Christian system. The memorial asks that which would in its nature interfere essentially with the integrity of our standards.

The tendency of the times is to break loose from what has hitherto been held by the Church as forms of sound words, and we are warned by this fact to exercise unusual watchfulness and tenacity respecting the present form of our standards.

We recommend the following:

Resolved, 1. That the request of the memorial be not granted

2. That while this request is denied, a committee of three be appointed to report to the next General Assembly a summary of our principles for use in mission work, of which committee Rev. S. Collins D. D., shall be chairman.

After prayer by Rev. David MacDill, D. D., the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. E. C. Cooper.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The following protest against the action of the Assembly in adopting the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the subject of Instrumental Music was presented:

PROTEST OF REV. THOMAS BALPH, D. D., AND OTHERS.

We, the undersigned, hereby earnestly protest against the action of the majority of the General Assembly in adopting the report of the Committee of Bills and Overtures on the subject of instrumental music in the worship of God. Our main reasons of protest are the following:

1. Because in the report in question it is in one resolution asserted and in others assumed that a clear majority of the votes of the whole church has been given in favor of the repeal of our law against instumental music. That such a vote has been given we deny, and a protest against the assumption that it has was presented to the Assembly before final action on the report was taken. To that protest we adhere, but need not now reproduce the reasons therein advanced.

2. Because, in the circumstances, the Assembly ought not to have enacted the repeal of our law prohibiting instrumental music. If a clear majority of the votes of the whole church was not given, which we believe, the Assembly had no constitutional right to declare the repeal of the law, and even if it were conceded that such majority had been given, the Assembly might, and we are convinced, should have refused to sanction repeal. Yet in the face of a protest against the decision of the Assembly as to the state of the vote, the Assembly proceeded to enact the repeal of a rule embraced in our standards, a rule in consonance with the practice of our church in all its history, and the repeal of which could hardly fail to be the signal for extended strife within the church, if not of disruption. Was there no unseemly haste in this procedure? Would it not have been wise to maintain our rule and time-honored practice, till at least an unmistakable expression of opinion had been given against them by the church?

3. Because it is assumed in the report that the repeal of our law against instrumental music is equivalent to a toleration of such music in our worship. To us this principle appears wrong and fraught with peril. Absence of express prohibition is not equivalent to permission. Before anything affecting the worship of the church can be admitted, it must have been submitted in overture, sustained by the clear majority of the votes of the church, and enacted by the General Assembly. True, an overture on the subject of instrumental music has been before the church; but many who in voting upon this overture gave their votes in favor of the repeal of our law on instrumental music, declared that they were notwithstanding opposed to the introduction of instrumental music into the worship of the church. Some voted against the law in question because they did not feel clear to assert, as is done in the law, that instrumental music in the worship of the New Testament Church has no sanction in the Bible. But that very doubt would restrain such, in all reason, from allowing the introduction of instrumental music; for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

Others again who voted for repeal might be, and are, opposed to the admission of instrumental music, because they desire to maintain the peace and unity of the church.

Hence, it is improper to assume, as is done in the report, that the vote given in the Presbyteries for repeal is expressive of a desire that instrumental music might be permitted in the worship of our church. And we must maintain that till, on overture, the admission of instrumental music shall have been sanctioned, no deliverance of the Assembly can warrant its introduction. Against its employment, therefore, in our worship, we hold ourselves at liberty and under obligation to contend, the action of the General Assembly notwithstanding.

The following, though not members of the Assembly, desire the privilege of expressing their concurrence in the foregoing protest, viz:
R. W. McBride, James Sawhill, Hugh Copeland, James G. Carson, J. H. Buchanan, N. C. Weede, James McArthur, Wm. Drennen.

It was resolved that the action of this Assembly, as it explains itself, and the answer to the protest offered by Rev. James Harper, D. D., and others, be considered a sufficient answer to this protest.

The Committee on the Board of Publication presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

The only papers which have been put into our hands have been the Annual Report of the Board and a communication from the Missionary Association in Egypt.

From the former we learn that the Board is now in a very prosperous condition, and that its business is now something better than self-sustaining. This being the case, all the contributions of the church given to it can be devoted to the gratuitous distribution of its publications.

From the latter it appears that there is great need of the publication of a new edition of the Bible in Arabic, and that by the kind co-operation of the American Bible Society, such an edition can be issued by the appropriation of two thousand dollars by this Board. In advocacy of such an appropriation, the Association assures us that the sales of the Scriptures in Arabic in our mission exceed the sales of the same in all other missions—that the proposed edition is in large type and hence particularly desirable, because of the prevalence of weakness of the eyes in Egypt, and finally that the American Bible Society has always assisted in the circulation of the Scriptures in our mission, having during the past year expended some two thousand dollars for this purpose.

In view of these facts your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the Assembly hereby expresses its satisfaction with the prosperous condition of the Board, and commends it anew to the confidence and patronage of the Church.

2. That the request of the Missionary Association in Egypt be granted, and that the Board be and hereby is directed to apply the contributions received from the church the past year to this purpose.

3. That a further appropriation of fifteen hundred dollars, or so much of such amount as may be needed, be made to the Board for this work.

Your Committee further recommend that the Board be instructed to consider the feasibility of selecting and pushing the sale of some reliable but inexpensive Commentary and Bible Dictionary.

The Committee on the Board of Education presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Committee on the Board of Education begs leave to state that the report of said Board made to this Assembly is a model of clearness, conciseness and completeness.

As this report is in the hands of the members of the Assembly, and is, moreover, to be printed, it seems superfluous to recapitulate the facts which it presents so perspicuously.

Suffice it to say, that the Board appears to have managed with prudence and faithfulness the business entrusted to it; and in one particular, namely, that of recovering from beneficiaries who have left our church, and also from many in our church, loans made to them, great success has attended its energetic efforts.

The following resolutions are recommended to the Assembly for adoption, viz:

1. Resolved, That the action of the Board of Education, as reported to the Assembly, be approved.

2. That an appropriation of $2,000.00 be made to the Board for the year ensuing.

The Committee on the Board of Church Extension presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

From a consideration of the papers submitted, the subjoined facts and recommendations are presented for the consideration of the General Assembly:

1. The importance of the work of this Board is manifest from the fact that to its guardianship is committed, as a sacred trust, the management of interests amounting to at least $300,000.

2. That the work of the Board, and the interest in its work throughout the church, have increased annually during the last decade.

3. That the contributions and receipts show a gratifying increase during the past year.

4. That about one-fourth of the congregations contributes nothing to this Board.

5. That the large balance on hand at the close of the year is more than counterbalanced by the larger amount of liabilities maturing.

6. That there was made during the year the unusually large grant of over $15,000 to five congregations.

7. That there is increasing urgency that the General Assembly suggests measures to relieve the Board from undue responsibility in the enlargement of the church in the great cities.

8. That valuable gratuitous service was rendered the Board by a number of Christian gentlemen in various parts of the church.

The adoption of the following is submitted:

Resolved, 1. That gratitude and confidence are due this Board for the fidelity with which its trust has been managed.

2. That the work of the Board during the year be approved.

3. That the grant to the church in San Francisco be approved, and that the property be secured by a deed in fee simple to "The Board of Church Extension of the United Presbyterian Church of North America."

4. That the "Instructions" and revised "Blank Form" of application for aid be approved.

5. That the Presbyteries, which include the great cities of the country, be authorized and recommended to appoint Standing Committees on Church Extension to keep a careful supervision of the erection of churches and the payment of debts, to secure the co-operation of congregations, and to fully develop the local resources.

6. That the Board be instructed to keep the funds subject to annuity so invested as to produce an income at least equal to the annuity.

7. That an appropriation of $30,000 be made to the Board.

8. That the Board be requested to publish, if practicable, in its Annual Report, plans of churches for the use of congregations about to build.

Spent some time in devotional exercises.

The Committee on Correspondence presented the following report on the communication from the Presbyterian Historical Society, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE ON THE COMMUNICATION FROM THE PRESBYTERIAN HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

The Annual Report submitted by this society shows that it is located in the city of Philadelphia, and represents all the branches of the Presbyterian Church. It has succeeded in erecting a commodious and well arranged fire-proof building. It has already made a large collection of books, pamphlets and various matters of interest to all Presbyterians, and it is still successfully engaged in its work.

Your Committee submit the following:

Resolved, 1st, That the Assembly hereby expresses its continued satisfaction with this society in its efforts to collect and place in secure position material of so much interest to the friends of Presbyterianism.

2d. That a committee be appointed to co-operate with the society in its efforts to procure such material, and that the Synods and Presbyteries be recommended to continue their committees for this pnrpose, and thus further the interests of this society for the benefit of the entire Presbyterian family.

The Committee on Correspondence presented the following report on the Waldensian Missions, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE ON THE WALDENSIAN MISSIONS.

The Committee on Correspondence report that they have examined the letter addresed to this Assembly on behalf of the Waldensian Missions. It shows that this venerable church, which can never fail to be of interest to the friends of Christ, has now sixty-seven ordained ministers, of whom sixteen are settled in parishes in the valley of the Waldenses, three are professors in the theological seminary at Florence, and thirty-eight are engaged in evangelizing Italy, as they minister to forty missionary congregations and at thirty-four stations opened up in that country within the last few years. Besides these ordained men laboring thus in Italy, this church has also there seventy-seven evangelists, teachers, colporteurs, Bible readers and Bible women, who form thus altogether a company of one hundred and fifteen Christian laborers.

Your Committee recommend the following:

Resolved, That the Waldensian Churches and missions are earnestly commended still to the sympathies, the prayers and the contributions of the people under the care of this Assembly, and that any offerings on their behalf may be forwarded to Henry Harrison, Esq., 307 West Thirty-third St., New York City.

The Committee on Nominations was instructed to nominate a committee of three, who shall nominate to the next Assembly delegates to the Presbyterian Council to meet in Belfast in 1884.

The Committee on Finance presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

Your Committee respectfully report that they have examined the reports of the Treasurers of the respective Boards of the Church, and find them in proper form, and properly audited, and, so far as we can judge, the disposition of the funds has been in accordance with law and the directions of the Assembly. We, therefore, recommend their approval.

On other matters brought before us, we recommend:

On the memorial from the Synod of New York: Owing to the special effort needed this year to raise the increased appropriations, and for other reasons, it is inexpedient to undertake the raising of a so-called "silver wedding" fund of $500,000 at this time.

On the memorial from the Presbytery of Oregon for a general delegate fund: We are unanimous in the opinion that such a fund should be established as will relieve distant and weak Presbyteries of the heavy expense in attending the meetings of Assembly; but, as in the short time and limited opportunities given us, we are unable to mature a plan for such fund, we recommend that be appointed a committee to prepare such a plan for consideration by the next General Assembly, and that the committee publish this plan not later than Jan. 1, 1883.

Also, that for the present year the delegates from the Presbyteries of Oregon, California and Colorado be paid out of the Assembly's fund an amount equal to one-half of their railroad and steamboat fare by the most direct route, viz:

To the two delegates from Oregon, each $120.00.....$240.00
" " " " " California, each $100.00..... 200.00
" " one " " Colorado..... 50.00

Also, that the Clerk be directed to draw warrants on the Treasurer of the Assembly, in addition to the above, in favor of

Rev. J. C. Hutchison, expenses Committee on Railroad Fares.....$ 17.00
Rev. J. S. Speer, Assistant Clerk..... 20.00
The Second U. P. Church, Monmouth, for janitor and other expenses..... 25.00
Rev A. Blaikie, D. D., for this year the same as last..... 300.00

That, to meet these and other expenses, the sum of two thousand dollaars ($2,000) be appropriated to the Assembly's fund.

We also recommend the Assembly to release its claim, as requested by Mr. Henry Harrison, to the bequest of Wm. Frazer, late of Brooklyn, N. Y.

That the one hundred dollars from Mrs. Mary Stewart, of Bethel, Bloomington Presbytery, be thankfully received, and diyided equally between the Home, Foreign and Freedmen's Missions and Church Extension.

Finally, unusual efforts will be necessary to raise the increased appropriations of the present year. The church has abundant means. The Lord is blessing the land with abounding wealth, and all that is needed to secure constant and liberal giving by the people is that the ministers and elders of the church, by word and example keep the merits and claims of the respective Boards before the people.

Revs. D. R. Kerr, D. D., and R. B. Ewing, D. D., were appointed the other members of the committee to prepare a summary of our principles for use in Mission work.

The Special Committee on Temperance presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

In view of the frequent deliverances of former Assemblies on the subject of temperance, it does not seem to be necessary to burden our report with a description of the evils, or an affirmation of the sinfulness of intemperance on the one hand, or with a description of the blessings, or a maintenance of the duty of temperance on the other. It only seems to be necessary that we should present some resolutions expressive of the spirit and purpose of the Assembly in relation to the temperance reform in its present status. Your Committee would then recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. That this Assembly rejoices at the progress recently made by the temperance reform in many parts of our country—especially the success of the prohibitory movement in Kansas—and gives devout thanks to God who has vouchsafed it.

2. That we commend to our people in Iowa the example of their brethren in Kansas, and express the hope that in the election now pending they will secure a victory for temperance even more decisive.

3. That it it is our fixed purpose as ministers and elders to prosecute the work of temperance reform until prohibition shall become the settled policy of our nation and total abstinence the universal practice of the individual—that we will seek the accomplishment of the former of these objects by the exercise of our privileges and the discharge of our duties as citizens, and of the latter by the exercise of our privileges and the discharge of our duties as church members.

4. That in thus declaring our purpose we do not mean to commit ourselves to the adoption of any particular plan for its accomplishment. Because of the different circumstances in which, as individuals, we are placed, and the varying phases of the temperance reform with which we come in contact, the particular course to be pursued in the prosecution of these general ends must be left to individual judgment.

5. That we cordially second the request of the Womens' Christian Temperance Union of this city, in reference to securing the assignment by the Evangelical Alliance in their programme for the week of prayer, of one day to the subject of temperance; and reaffirming the action of the last Assembly in reference to this matter, we direct our Principal Clerk to present this request to the Alliance.

We further recommend that in case of the refusal of this request, our Clerk be authorized and directed, on the appearance of the programme of the Alliance, to designate the day on which this subject shall be considered, and shall give notice of such designation through the papers of the church.

The Standing Committees on the Board of Publication and Sabbath Schools presented a special and joint report, proposing certain changes in the charter of the Board of Publication, which was referred to a special committee.

The employment of persons to write Sabbath School notes for the next year was committed to the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools.

It was resolved that the next meeting of the General Assembly be held in Pittsburgh, Pa., and that the place of meeting be left to be determined by the city pastors. The hour of meeting was fixed at 7:30 o'clock, P: M.

Washington, Pa., was chosen as the place for the next meeting of the General Committee of Home Missions.

The Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions presented a report on the Chinese question, which was laid on the table.

After prayer by Rev. H. F. Wallace, the Assembly adjourned.

7:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev J. S. Buchanan.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on Correspondence presented the following report on conference with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE ON CONFERENCE WITH THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

The Committee on Correspondence report that, as it appears from the report of the Committee of Conference, that the Synod of the Associate Reformed Church at its last meeting referred the proposition of the Assembly last year for union to its several Presbyteries for their report upon it, with a view to final action at the next meeting of the Synod, it will thus be seen that nothing further can be done by us until that meeting is held.

The following action therefore is recommended:

Resolved, That the Committee of Conference be continued, with instructions to act as directed in the propositions for union adopted at the last Assembly, in case there is occasion for it, and report to the next Assembly.

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your Committee have had under their consideration the action of the Southern Presbyterian Church, as expressed by the Chairman of their Committee, to correspond with this Assembly, in the letter referred to us; also, the report of this Assembly's clerk in regard to the distribution of blank petitions against Sabbath mails, and would offer for adoption the following:

WHEREAS, The observance of the Lord's day is an essential feature of Christianity, and promotive of the best interests of humanity, present and future; and,

WHEREAS, The increasing looseness of principle and practice in regard to the sanctification of the Sabbath threatens to make it nothing more than a holiday; and,

WHEREAS, The report of the Clerk of the Assembly, showing that only a few of the blanks sent out by him were returned, seems to indicate a degree of apathy on this subject among our own people; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly is ready to co-operate with other churches in every proper way, to secure the enforcement of legislation for the protection of Christian citizens in the enjoyment of their rights on the Lord's day.

2. That pastors and Sessions be urged to bring this subject frequently before their congregations, and take immediate steps to circulate petitions, and obtain signatures against Sabbath mails, and forward the same to the proper authorities.

3. That a committee of three be appointed to correspond with other bodies on this subject, and report to the next Assembly.

4. That the clerk of the Assembly be directed to inform the Chairman of the Sabbath Committee of the Southern Presbyterian General Assembly of this action.

The report of the Judicial Committee on the memorial from the Presbytery of Pawnee was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE ON THE MEMORIAL FROM THE PRESBYTERY OF PAWNEE.

The question presented in the Memorial of the Presbytery of Pawnee, is, "When a missionary has been assigned to a certain Presbytery by the General Committee of Home Missions, and approved by the Assembly, has the Board of Home Missions a right to take that missionary from such Presbytery, without its consent, and assign him to another field?" On this abstract question, your Committee think it is not possible to give any other than an explicit negative. And yet it is the judgment of your Committee that the Board, under its constitution, has "power to meet emergencies arising during the year," and is at liberty to exercise some discretion in exceptional cases. We can easily conceive of a case in which the Board of Home Missions would be entirely justified in transferring a missionary from the field to which he may have been assigned to another, and we therefore submit for adoption the following:

Resolved, That the question presented by the Presbytery of Pawnee be answered in the negative, and this Assembly express the judgment that the regulations for the government of the Board are sufficiently explicit.

The report of the Committee on Revision was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON REVISION.

Your Committee would respectfully report that properly certified printed copies of the minutes of the General Assembly, of 1881, and the Synods of Pittsburgh, New York, Ohio, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, and First and Second Synods of the West; also manuscript minutes of the Synod of the Pacific, from the time of its organization, in 1877 to 1881; and of the Presbyteries of Egypt and Sealkote, have been placed in our hands for revision.

We report these minutes, so far as we have been able to examine them, kept in a neat and orderly manner, and calling for no special criticism.

We propose the following action:

That the minutes presented to the Assembly for revision be approved.

The Standing Committee on Narrative and State of Religion presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NARATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

From a careful examination of the report of the Permanent Committee, we find that this church has great cause of thankfulness to her King and Head, and much reason for encouragement to renewed and confident effort.

We glean from the report the following facts:

(a) The number of deaths which have occurred in the ministry during the past year is eighteen (18), a larger number than in any year since the organization of the United Presbyterian Church. Many of these were devoted and successful servants of the Master. Though our loss is great, yet the number received into the ministry by ordination and from other churches, gives us a net increase of seventeen (17), which is nine (9) more than last year's report. There are now seven hundred and twenty-one (721) ministers and sixty-seven (67) licenciates on our roll.

The membership of the church is 84,571, a gain of 1,634 during the year. The number of adult baptisms was 629. The net increase of organized congregations is fourteen (14), making the total number eight hundred and twenty-eight (828), exclusive of twenty-four (24) new mission stations, established during the year.

Thirty-seven (37) houses of worship have been built. Our Sabbath Schools number eight hundred and nineteen (819), and our Woman's Missionary Societies, two hundred and eighty (280). The reports of our work in the foreign field are peculiarly encouraging.

STATE OF RELIGION.

From the increase in the membership of the church; from the added numbers of Sabbath School scholars; from the growth of Woman's Missionary Societies; from the erection of new houses of worship, and the more regular and numerous attendance on the means of grace, and especially from the deep religious interest—the outpouring of the spirit on our colleges and theological seminaries—we feel, that as a church, we are called upon to rejoice in the manifestation of God's favor, and to go forward in our work with new courage and confident hope. On the other hand, we have to regret that the observance of praise in family worship is in many instances neglected, and that there appears to be a growing want of respect to the sanctity of the Sabbath.

We, therefore, recommend to the Assembly the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That we recognize with profound gratefulness the manifest goodness of God to this branch of His church during the past year.

2. That the success given by God to our work, both in our home and foreign fields, especially in the large number of adult baptisms in the latter, ought to lead us to renewed and extended efforts, and to an enlarged liberality in our contributions to these departments of the church's service.

3. That our people be exhorted to the regular observance of praise in family worship, and to increased regard for the sanctity of the Lord's day, and to family instruction.

The Committee on Correspondence presented the following report on the appointment of delegates to corresponding churches, which was adopted:

Digitized by Google

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE ON THE APPOINTMENT OF DELEGATES TO OTHER CHURCHES.

The rule of Assembly, since 1878, has been that, with the exception of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, no delegates shall be appointed to ecclesiastical bodies, which are represented in the Presbyterian Council, inasmuch as that organization secures the intercourse desired between them. The Assembly, however, has received with great satisfaction delegates at this meeting from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, and the Evangelical Lutheran Synod; and your Committee believe should, under the circumstances, reciprocate the courtesy. The following, therefore, is recommended:

Resolved, That the rule in regard to the appointment of delegates be suspended for this year, and that they be appointed to these bodies.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on securing uniformity in licensing students, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BILLS AND OVERTURES ON UNIFORMITY IN LICENSING STUDENTS.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures to which was referred a memorial signed by J. W. Witherspoon and others, in uniformity on licensing students of theology, submits the following report:

The memorialists represent that whilst the Book of Government and Discipline, Part I., Chap. V., Sec. 2, requires that in ordinary cases no student of theology shall be admitted to trials for license until he has completed a course of theological study of three full years after the time of his admission by the Presbytery, it is a well known fact that many students "receive license at the end of their second year." Such disregard of the law of the church on this subject is on many accounts deeply to be deplored. That law is a wise provision to guard the introduction of persons into her ministry, before they are fitted by previous theological training for rightly expounding and dividing the Word of Truth. Uniformity in its enforcement is of highest importance; otherwise it becomes a dead letter. If some of the Presbyteries of the church violate this law, its observance by other Presbyteries is of little or no avail, and the end for which it has been placed in our Book of Government and Discipline has been defeated.

Therefore, your Committee recommend to the Assembly the following for adoption:

Resolved, That all our Presbyteries be and are hereby earnestly enjoined to conform in letter and in spirit to the law of the church touching the licensure of candidates for the gospel ministry.

The Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

Your Committee would report that having examined the report of the Board of Ministerial Relief, they would heartily approve the action of the Board as faithfully and prudently managed, and urge a cordial response to its recommendations; and they would ask the attention of the members of the church to the report itself.

And in view of the important interests committed to this Board, they would recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the appropriation of $5,000 asked for the Board for the year, be granted.
2. That the Assembly invite contributions to the endowment fund, so that the sum of $50,000 may be secured, the sum of $30,000 having been already secured, and that the wants of this Board be remembered in the offerings of the people.
3. That the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to the officers of the Board for their diligent, faithful and gratuitous services.

The Special Committee on Sabbath Schools presented a report which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

It is gratifying to know that, by the goodness of God, the Sabbath School work of our church has made very encouraging progress during the past year. Though, through the neglect of some to furnish the required statement of statistics, there is a smaller number of Sabbath School pupils reported this year than last, yet "it is cheering to note that on a decreased enrollment there is an increased average attendance of 564, and an increase of total contributions of $2,589." It is also a promising fact that "Normal Classes have increased from 19 to 37, and their membership from 265 to 937."

With 8,372 officers and teachers engaged in Sabbath School work, and 67,653 scholars receiving instruction in God's word, the divinely appointed instrumentality of salvation, and, with the promise of God's Spirit to accompany it, we are certainly warranted to hope for and expect grand results in the furtherance of the Master's kingdom.

But the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools has presented to this Assembly such a full and satisfactory report concerning this important departmment of the church's work, that we feel that we cannot do better than simply commend it to the careful and earnest attention of all.

In the way of official action, we recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1 This Assembly hereby expresses regret that seven Presbyteries, viz.: Arkansas Valley, Big Spring, Colorado, Indiana, Minnesota, Omaha and Wisconsin, failed to report concerning the Sabbath Schools within their bounds.

2. Those Sessions who have not already done so, are urged to make a fair and faithful trial of the very desirable plan of continuing throughout the entire year the Sabbath Schools under their care.

3. In order to promote the systematic management of our Sabbath Schools and to bring their official records into harmony with the Presbyterial blanks, this Assembly hereby recommends and urges the use of the "Sabbath School Record" recently issued by our Board of Publication.

4. In view of the great need of the highest possible degree of efficiency in Sabbath School instruction, we again urge upon Pastors and Sessions to use every suitable effort to organize in their respective congregations Normal Classes for the training of Sabbath School teachers.

5. With a view to securing home study of the Sabbath School lessons, Pastors, Elders, Superintendents and Teachers are urged to co-operate in securing the introduction of the "Bible Teacher" into all the families of our church.

6. The Assembly hereby recommends those having charge of the appointment of persons to prepare notes for the "Bible Teacher" to avoid making frequent changes in such appointments, and thereby secure that experience on the part of those so engaged, which is necessary to the highest degree of efficiency.

7. The third Sabbath of October, 1882, is hereby appointed as a day of prayer for Sabbath Schools, to be observed in all our congregations.

The Committee on Statistics presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON STATISTICS.

Your Committee would call special attention to the simplicity and completeness of the Statistical Tables and their new arrangement on the printed page, by which reference to them and their use is greatly facilitated.

Your Committee recommend the following:

Resolved, 1. That the table of vital statistics prepared for this number of the Minutes be printed with the other tables.

Resolved, 2. That the Second Clerk be instructed to submit, if possible, to each General Assembly printed summaries of the Statistics according to the recommendation of the last General Assembly.

The report of the Special Committee on Finance was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

The Special Committee on Finance, to whom was refered the report of the Permanent Committee on Finance, report as follows:

The Permanent Committee on Finance in their report recommend to the Assembly the adoption of the following plan for increasing the financial strength of the church: that, "a monthly publication devoted to Christian beneficence be issued by the direction of the Assembly, to be sent into all the families of the church, to instruct and stimulate the people in the duty of Christian giving." It is proposed that this monthly publication shall be of eight pages, small quarto size, and that the prioe shall be twelve cents a year to each subscriber. It is further proposed that the editing and publishing of this cheap periodical shall be entrusted to the Permanent Committee on Finance with the Secretaries of the Boards as corresponding editors, that the Permanent Committee shall be enlarged to seven members, and that an amount not exceeding $850 be appropriated to defray the expenses of publication until subscriptions shall have been received from congregations.

In order that the Permanent Committee may be enlarged, and suitable persons appointed to carry out this proposed plan, the present members tender their resignation to the Assembly.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1st. That the proposed plan for issuing a cheap monthly publication be and hereby is approved.

2d. That the resignation of the present members of the Permanent Committee on Finance be and hereby is accepted, and that be and hereby are appointed on said committee to carry out this plan, the first two to serve for one, the second two to serve for two years, the last three to serve for three years.

3d. That pastors, sessions, financial agents, superintendents of missions, and our people in general be and hereby are recommended and advised to co-operate with the committee in securing the introduction of the proposed paper into every family of the church.

4th. That the Committee be authorized to draw on the Board of Publication for an amount not exceeding $850, to defray the expenses of publication until subscriptions shall have been received, and the paper shall have become self-sustaining.

The Committee on Nominations presented the following report, which was adopted:

APPENDIX.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Your Trustees would respectfully report that since your last meeting they have transacted the following items of business:

At their meeting July 5, 1881, they organized by electing Rev. R. B. Ewing, D. D., President; Rev. Samuel Collins, D. D., Vice President; Graham Scott, Secretary; and James McCandless, Treasurer.

The money received from the estate of John Irwin, of Henderson county, Illinois, was directed to be loaned, one-half to the Board of Foreign Missions, and the other half to the Board of Ministerial Relief, in accordance with the requirements of said Irwin's will.

Our Treasurer was authorized and directed to accept two thousand dollars from the executors of Daniel Wilson, deceased, in full of bequest of three thousand dollars left by said Daniel Wilson in his will for the Board of Ministerial Relief, the reduction in amount having been made on account of shrinkage in the value of the assets of said estate, and for prompt payment.

Received information from Owen Sound, Ontario, Canada, that Rev. Thomas Hannay, D. D., had lately died, leaving in his last will and testament a bequest of one thousand dollars to the United Presbyterian Church of the United States. We have placed the matter in the hands of Samuel Platt, Esq., for collection.

Our Treasurer's report, duly audited, has been transmitted to your Stated Clerk, which will set forth our financial transactions.

We would respectfully request the sum of one thousand dollars for the Assembly fund for the ensuing year.

The terms for which Rev. R. B. Ewing, D. D., Rev. Samuel Collins, D. D., and James W. Arrott, Esq., were elected as Trustees of General Assembly, will expire on July first next ensuing. You will please fill their places by an election.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

By order of the Board of Trustees.

GRAHAM SCOTT, Secretary.

PITTSBURGH, May 22, 1882.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

At the outset of their report, the Board would gratefully record their deep sense of the goodness of God towards the Foreign Mission work of our church during the past year, and would respectfully invite the attention of the Assembly and of our entire church to the following statements and suggestions in regard to it.

ITS HISTORY.

In the ordering of Divine Providence, the two missions under our charge were inaugurated about the same time. That in Egypt was formally entered upon in the city of Cairo, by Rev. Thomas McCague, in November, 1854, and by Rev. James Barnett, about the same time, under the direction of the Associate Reformed Church. The mission in India was commenced by Rev. Andrew Gordon, at Sealkote in the Punjab, in August, 1855, under the auspices of the Associate Church. On the union of these two churches at Pittsburgh, Pa., May 26th, 1858, these missions were combined, and, since 1877, all the foreign missionary efforts of our church have been concentrated on them alone.

From the beginning there have been sent to these two fields seventy-two missionaries, of whom twenty-four were ordained ministers, twenty were unmarried Christian women who have labored especially for the good of their own sex in heathenism, and one was a physician. Of the whole number, nine have died, eighteen have removed from the missions, and forty-five are still in the service.

THE RESULTS

Of all the work in the two missions up to December 31st, 1881, were as follows:

In Egypt.—One Presbytery. Stations, 4; viz: Alexandria, Monsoura, Cairo and Asyoot. Out-stations, 54. Ordained foreign missionaries, 9; female missionaries, including wives of missionaries, 15; (unmarried, 7); native ordained ministers, 6; licentiates, 4; pastors, 5; native teachers and helpers, 136. Total laborers, 170. Native churches, 13. Ruling elders, 30; deacons, 35; communicants, 1,168. Increase on profession, 159; certificate, 46. Total, 222. Decrease by removal, 34; suspension, 21; deaths, 18. Total, 73; net gain, 149. Baptism of adults, 3; infants, 143. Total, 146. Sabbath Schools, 40; teachers, 133; scholars, 1,574. Other schools, 48; native teachers in them, 96; scholars, 2,410. Total in Sabbath and day schools, 3,984. Bible women and teachers in Zenana work, 21; women under their instruction, 895. Contributions for native and church expenses, $2,340; for building and other purposes, $3,289; for tuition fees, $6,261; for other school purposes, $4,408; for books, $6,243. Total of monies paid by the natives for all purposes, $22,541. Books sold and distributed during the year—Scriptures, 8,288 volumes; religious publications, 6,004; educational, 12,858. Total, 27,150. Value of the property of this mission, $105,148.

In India.—One Presbytery. Stations, 4; viz: Sealkote, Gujranwala, Jhelum and Gurdaspur. Out-stations, 15. Ordained foreign missionaries, 6; female misionaries, including wives of missionaries, 12; (unmarried, 6); native teachers and helpers, 48; ordained native ministers, 2; licentiate, 1. Total laborers, 69. Native churches, 3; communicants, 397; increase on profession, 139; certificate, 9. Total, 148. Decrease by removal, 55; suspension, 7; death, 6. Total, 68. Total net gain, 80. Baptisms, adults, 127; infants, 46. Total, 173. Sabbath School scholars, 670; other schools, 2,167. Total, 2,837. Contributions for church purposes, $229; tuition fees, $502. Total, $731. No book sales or distributions are reported. Value of mission property, $17,120.

MISSIONARIES.

It is a matter of special thanks, that none of our own missionaries in the field have been removed by death during the year, or permanently laid aside by sickness. Misses Eliza Calhoun and Anna Y. Thompson, having been greatly benefited by their visit to their native land after being in the mission work from nine to eleven years each, set forth for their fields again in August last, the former in India, the latter in Egypt. Misses M. J. McKown and M. A. Smith returned to this country last year from Egypt, and, having been materially recruited by their visit, will, it is expected, resume their work at an early day. Rev. J. P. McKee, also having been quite restored, will return to India early in the ensuing fall. All these missionaries have rendered, since their return, important service to the cause of Foreign Missions by their conversations and frequent addresses on this subject in various parts of the country.

Rev. James S. Barr, D. D., having been seriously affected by his long continued labors in the mission in India, has applied for a release from his work. It is earnestly hoped it will only be for a time, and that he will soon rally so as to be able to resume it. He has been eminently useful in this mission.

Miss Eliza F. Johnston has removed during the year from the mission in Egypt, and entered as Mrs. Robert Stewart upon the work in India. The Board expresses its grateful sense of her devotion and marked success as a missionary in Egypt, and the earnest wish that she may be still more signally blessed in the new field to which she has so happily gone.

Rev. T. L. Scott, who returned to this country in April last year, set forth for his work again on the following November, and has long since re-entered upon his work in India.

MRS. GIFFEN.

In 1875, the Board had great satisfaction in welcoming to our mission in Egypt, and as a co-laborer with our missionaries there, Miss Mary E. Galloway. She came from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, and ever laboring as a missionary of that Synod was sustained by its funds. After a time, she was united in marriage with the Rev. John Giffen of our Mission at Asyoot, but she made no change in her work, and prosecuted it unremittingly as far as ability and opportunity allowed. In an unexpected hour, however, and greatly to the grief of the mission and of many friends in this country, South and North, she suddenly departed this life, Sabbath evening, October 16th, 1881, leaving her husband and three young children, the mission there, and the churches here, to mourn her loss. She was ever devoted and faithful. She rests from her labors, and her works do follow her.

REV. J. F. PATTERSON, M. D.

In the Spring of 1877, this foreign missionary of our church returned in enfeebled health from his labors in Damascus, Syria. He was never able to resume the mission work, but on the 23d of March, last, closed his life at his residence near Xenia, O. He was a good man, and a devoted and useful missionary of Christ. The church may well ever cherish his memory.

NEW MISSIONARIES.

The year 1881, will long be regarded as a marked one for the number of new laborers sent to our foreign work. On the 26th of May last, while the Assembly was in session, the Rev. A. B. Caldwell and wife sailed for India. On the 31st of August, Rev. D. S. Lytle and wife, and Miss Emma D. Anderson, set forth for the same mission. On the 5th of November, also the Rev. Robert Stewart, D. D., embarked for it, making thus six new missionaries to this field—or seven, with the addition of Mrs. Stewart from Egypt. All these new laborers have reached their mission, and are actively engaged in preparing for their great life-work.

It has been an occasion of deep regret to the Board, that only the Rev. J. K. Giffen and wife, who sailed on the 31st of August, have been added to the needy missionary force in Egypt. The removal of Mrs. Giffen and Miss Johnston from this mission is seriously felt. Reinforcement is pressingly needed. The mission most anxiously "ask the Board to send one and if possible two ordained missionaries this year, and physician." Two new lady missionaries are as earnestly asked for.

Digitized by Google

In all, thus, during the year, the Board have been able to have three returned missionaries resume their work, and have also sent out eight new ones to it, four ordained ministers with their wives, and one unmarried female missionary. Most careful steps were taken in each case to be assured of the good physical as well as other qualifications of the persons thus employed, and thus to guard as far as possible against the loss to the missions, and the heavy expense to the church, that must always follow the early return of any missionaries from their fields.

THE COMMISSIONERS.

On the 29th of June last, the Revs. W. W. Barr, D. D., and Robert Stewart, D. D., who had sailed from this country on the 6th of the preceding November on a visit to our missions, safely reached our shores again. In the discharge of the duties to which they had been appointed, these brethren visited each mission and minutely examined every section of the field, and every department of the work. They attended meetings of each of the Mission Presbyteries, and of the Missionary Associations. They worshipped in the native churches in ordinary services and on sacramental occasions. They saw the schools in all their different grades, both boys' and girls'. They carefully investigated the accounts and expenditures of the missions respectively, and elicited much important information respecting the mission buildings and of whatever it would be desirable or necessary that the Board and the church here at home should know in regard to the work. In a word, they made every effort to ascertain all the facts that would enable the Board to act intelligently and properly in reference to our great work. All these things they have laid before us as far as possible, and already important help has been obtained from their report.

It is gratifying also to be able to state that the whole expense of the Board for this service, which has already proved of such value, was from first to last only eight hundred and fifty dollars.

EXPENDITURES AND REGULATIONS.

During the year, in accordance with the action of the last Assembly, the Board has anxiously endeavored to revise the rules for the management of our whole missionary work. Regulations in regard to finances have been proposed and sent out for the consideration of our missionaries. And after hearing from them, and having correspondence with other Boards, the following resolutions were adopted, and are herewith submitted to the Assembly for its consideration and action:

Resolved, 1. That hereafter the outfit for a married missionary shall be $300.00; for an unmarried male missionary, $150.00; and for a single female missionary, $100.00.

Resolved, 2. That, in addition to a house which shall be provided by the Board, the salaries of missionaries in the field shall be as follows: In Egypt, each married missionary shall receive, annually, $1,400.00; each single male missionary, $900.00; and each single female missionary, $550.00. In India, each married missionary, $1,200.00; each single male missionary, $900.00; and each single female missionary, $500.00.

Resolved, 3. That for each child, under the age of 18 years, in mission families, $100.00 shall be paid, annually, this rule applying to children in the field, in this country, or elsewhere.

Resolved, 4. That no allowance shall be made to missionaries for physicians' fees, except in extraordinary cases, which must be reported to the Board for action; and no allowance shall be made for travelling expenses, except where the missionaries are actually engaged in mission work, or in going to the sanitariums for the health of themselves or families.

In the regulations which it is proposed to make, and which are authorized by various acts of the Assembly, there are some things in which the whole church can aid the Board. One of these is in seeing to it that there shall always be great care to send out only such persons for the foreign service as have a reasonable prospect of permanent good health, and of continuance in the work; and also, that the missionaries in the field be urged to remain as long as may be possible in each particular case. The laying aside of a missionary from work, or for a return home is a trial, and often a serious loss in any mission. The expenses also of every visit home are weighty, requiring an outlay from our treasury of from $500 to $2,500 in each case, from the time a missionary and his family leave the field until they are placed again in it. This is a large expenditure from monies that were contributed to carry on miss' work, and ought to be incurred as infrequently as possible.

FRIENDS AND HELPERS.

In various ways and from different quarters very timely help has been given us during the past year.

The American and British and Foreign Bible Societies have made their usual liberal grants of the Holy Scriptures, and thus our missionaries have been able to give the word of God an increasingly wide circulation, especially among the multitudes of Egypt. Most generously also have the Ladies' Missionary Society of Paisley, Scotland, continued their contributions to the Girls' School in Alexandria.

In several instances, also, both in this country and abroad, persons who have no connection with our church have made liberal contributions to our foreign work, and have cheered us with assurances that these missions have a warm place in their sympathies and their prayers.

The Board gratefully mentions again the name of David Peoples, Esq., 300 Great Howard street, Liverpool, for his continued and timely assistance to our missionaries, both in their going out to their fields of labor and returning from them. All this he most kindly persists in doing without any pecuniary remuneration.

MISSIONARY INFORMATION.

More than ever in its history, the Board has found, during the past year, an enlarged and earnest desire among our people for missionary intelligence. To meet this in some measure, five thousand copies of the Annual Report of the Board, and eight thousand of the Report of the Commissioners were struck off, and the effort was carefully made to have some of them at least circulated in every congregation. Thus they have been widely read, but it has been found that a far larger number could have been usefully scattered among our people if they had been on hand.

All through the year also very urgent calls have been made by individuals, missionary societies, and congregations for some kind of a missionary periodical. This has been pressed upon us from a desire for fresh and full information as to the condition and wants of the heathen world, the workings and needs of our own missions, and the plans and incentives for cultivating the missionary spirit here at home, and for helping to carry on the work abroad. Most earnestly would the Board reiterate all the calls of former years for something to be done at once, and effectively, to meet this pressing want.

INCREASE OF MISSIONARY INTEREST.

Steadily it is felt there is an increase each year of the number of contributors to this work. While there are far too many churches and individuals who are enjoying all the benefits of the Gospel themselves, but scarcely give even a mite to send it to the multitudes that are perishing from the want of it abroad, yet the number of persons that, as a whole, make some contribution to it is enlarging year by year, and most earnestly it is hoped that ere long there will not be a single minister, elder or member of any United Presbyterian Church but will regularly make some offering every year for this most needy and important cause.

In many homes, missions are often talked of, and are made the subject of prayer in family worship, and the good effect is seen among other things in the increased interest of the children in this work and in their making frequent offerings to help it forward.

In the Sabbath Schools too, it is finding a good place. Superintendents speak of it and pray for it, teachers bring it out as they have opportunity in the lessons, and the childen are instructed in regard to it, and encouraged to give for it.

Most appropriately also the women of our churches are in many places showing an interest in this work. Much, very much, does woman in this country owe to the Gospel. It has not only been the means of salvation to her soul, but also of elevation to her above all the degradation and wretchedness of the heathen woman's lot. What more appropriate then, than that the women of all our churches should do what they can by forming missionary societies and every other means in their reach to educate and save their poor sisters in heathen lands.

WHAT MAY BE DONE.

In carrying on this foreign missionary work, every person connected with the church has a personal responsibility and interest. And as often many would like to know of anything they can properly do to aid it, the Board respectfully suggests the following things:—

Digitized by Google

First. Efforts should be made by sessions, missionary societies, and members of the churches to have the reports of the Board, and misssionary papers circulated as widely as possibly in every congregation.

Second. In the closet, at the family altar, in the meetings for prayer, and in the sanctuary, prayer should be regularly offered for the cause of missions, for the missionaries and their work, and for the evangelizing of the world that lieth in the wicked one.

Third. Where any persons that may be suitable for the foreign service are known, it may be communicated to the Board, that steps may be taken, if the way is open, to send them forth where the harvest is always so plenteous and the laborers so few. Many of our most devoted and useful missionaries, male and female, are persons who were first made known to the Board by some pastor or friend.

Fourth. All in the whole church should often conscientiously ask of God what offering He would have them make to help this cause forward, in view of all He has given them, and then freely give as unto Him whether it be much or little. In the 72d Psalm, it is said of our Lord Jesus Christ, "He shall live and to Him shall be given of the gold of Sheba: prayer also shall be made for Him continually; and daily He shall be praised,"—and this before it is also said, (and as if preparatory to it), "men shall be blessed in Him: all nations shall call Him blessed."

THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

For over seven years the Board have had great satisfaction in the co-operation of this sister church with ours in carrying on the mission work in Egypt. As already stated, however, its devoted missionary, Mrs. J. Giffen, formerly Miss Galloway, rested from her labors last October. In common with our brethren of that church, and of this mission, we have felt that a painful bereavement has been made. Whether her place will be supplied by the church to which she belonged, and of which she was such an honor, we have not been informed. Most welcome would the continued co-operation of this church with us be in seeking the evangelization of the land of Egypt.

TOTAL RESULTS.

In reviewing our foreign missionary work, the Board are happy to be able to present the following cheering summary of it, as a whole, at the beginning of this year, January 1st, 1882.

Presbyteries 2. Stations (places where foreign missionaries are located), 8. Outstations, 69. Foreign ordained ministers, 15. Female missionaries, including the wives of missionaries, 27; (unmarried, 13.) Native ordained ministers, 8; licentiates, 5. Native teachers and helpers, 184. Total foreign and native laborers in the two missions, 239. Native congregations, 19; communicants, 1,565; increase, 370. Decrease, 141. Total net increase, 229. Baptisms, adults, 130; infants, 189. Total, 319. Sabbath School scholars, 2,244; in other schools, 4,577; in all the schools, 6,151. Contributions for church and benevolent purposes, $5,058; schools, $11,171. Books, $6,243. Total by the natives, $23,272. Books sold and distributed (by the Egyptian mission), 27,150 volumes. Total value of the property in both missions, $122,268.

THE BOARD.

Rev. D. W. Collins, D. D., has been elected a member of the Board in place of Rev. R. Stewart, D. D., resigned.

CONCLUSION.

Most earnestly is it asked that the Assembly will consider the interest, the responsibility, and the magnitude of this Foreign Mission work. Most anxiously is it desired that our whole church will realize in some proper degree that God has committed almost exclusively to us the more than 5,000,000 of people in Egypt, and 3,000,000 of those in the part of India that we occupy, for evangelization. As things now are, these millions upon millions of immortal beings must receive the Gospel at our hands, and may be saved, or have it withheld and may be lost. Was there ever a church placed in a more affecting and responsible position? Will not all do at once, and in every way, and always, all they are in any sense able to do?

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are submitted to the Assembly for its consideration and action:

First. That in view of the very marked tokens of the divine favor to the foreign missionary work of our Church, the Assembly recommend the thanksgivings of all our people to God, and renewedly express its own confidence and interest in this great work.

Second. That thanks be returned to the societies and the friends, both in this country and abroad, who have so generously continued their grants and their contributions, and by which such important help has been extended to us.

Third. That in view of the earnest call from Egypt, Mr. Thos. J. Finney be appointed to this mission; that the Board be instructed to send out another ordained missionary to it, and also a physician and two unmarried female missionaries, as soon as they can be obtained; and that the churches be specially called on to furnish the funds that will enable the Board to carry out this action.

Fourth. That the Board be directed to prepare a Manual of Instructions and directions for the use of the Board, for new missionaries, and for missionaries in the field, and publish it as soon as may be convenient.

Fifth. That the following appropriations be made: For Egypt, $37,975.74; India, $31,701.66; outfits for new missionaries, $700; passages for new missionaries, $800; passages for returning missionares, $1.200; salaries in this country, $1,200; for support of children, $1,200; incidentals, $250; salaries of officers of the Board, $800; printing reports, stationery, &c., $500; total, $76,327.40.

By order of the Board,

W. W. BARR, President.
J. B. DALES, Cor. Secretary.

PHILADELPHIA, MAY 8th, 1882.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

The Board of Home Missions respectfully submits the following statements in regard to the work committed to its oversight:

I. PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

Aid was granted by the last General Assembly to two hundred and forty-four stations, under the care of fifty-one Presbyteries. From eight of these stations no reports have been received. The reports of eighty are incomplete, embracing only a part of the year, twenty-one being for one quarter, sixteen for two and forty-three for three quarters. In the stations reporting there is a membership of 11,564; the average attendance upon the Sabbath services has been 19,749. The accessions to the Church have been 713 by profession and 1,049 on certificate. The decrease by death and removal has been 725. The average attendance in the Sabbath Schools connected with these stations is 12,964. The number of congregations having church buildings is reported to be 179; there being no less than 65 as yet without houses of worship. During the past year there has been contributed to the Boards of the Church by these stations $8,725, and for the support of their own pastors or missionaries $56,736. These figures present the following interesting and encouraging facts: The membership is larger than any previous year. The average attendance is 1,246 greater than last, and 2,234 greater than any preceding year. The increase by profession is larger than any previous year with but one exception. The increase on certificate, the average attendance of Sabbath School scholars, the contributions to the Boards and for the support of their own pastors or missionaries are considerably in excess of any previous year. In regard to the last two items, the statistics show a steady and an increasing advance during the last five years. Thirteen congregations are reported as self-sustaining. A considerable number hitherto assisted do not ask for aid the coming year. Though not reported as self-sustaining, it is to be presumed that they are at least willing to make an effort to do without further assistance from the funds of the Board. It may be proper to state in this connection that the reports show a much larger number of pastoral visits made, prayer-meetings attended and sermons preached than in former years, evincing an increased activity and zeal on the part of the brethren engaged in the work.

II. Grants by the Board.

Out of the sum placed at our disposal to meet emergencies and to supply the requests of stations referred to us by the Assembly, $2,736 has been appropriated. The Presbytery and station to which, the purpose and time for which, these grants were made are the following, viz.: Chicago, Chicago, $100 additional; College Springs, Creston, $75, S. S. ½, additional; Colorado, Denver, $100 for exploration; Des Moines, North Branch, $50; Palo Alto, $100 P. S. ½; Detroit, Caledonia and Campbell, $150, S. additional; Garnett, Berea, $75, S. ⅔, additional; Lyndon, 36, ½ additional; Monongahela, Chase City, Va., $100, S. S.; Neosho, Newton, $250, S. S. six months; New York, West 25th Street, N. Y. City, $300, S.; Omaha, Elkhorn Valley, $400, S. S.; Philadelphia, Washington Mission, $300, six months; West Missouri, Warrensburg, $450, S. S.; Wisconsin, Buffalo, $250, S. S., congregation to raise $300. The word additional appended to several grants in the above list indicates an increase of the appropriation made by the Assembly. In every instance this was done upon the earnest request of the Presbytery having the oversight of the station.

III. Appropriations Withheld.

$4,093.33 have been withheld because the conditions upon which the aid was granted have not been fulfilled. In this statement we include the 4th quarter of last year as well as the 1st, 2d and 3d quarters of the current year. The Presbyteries, stations and amounts are the following, viz.: Arkansas Valley, Arkansas City, $87.50; Anthony and con., $100; Chicaskia, $29.10; El Paso, $36.40; Lyons, $34; Bloomington, Pana, $87.50; Piper City, $15; Brookville, Reynoldsville, $31.25; Butler, Carbon Center, $12.50; East Brady, $34.28; Parker, $50; Chicago, Rock Run, $23; Chillicothe, Mt. Joy, $6.25; Cleveland, Cleveland, $75; North Jackson, $25; College Springs, Creston, $43.75; Corning, Victoria and Woodside, $28.25; Greenville and Tarkio, $125; Colorado, Loveland, $75; Des Moines, Centerville, $100; North English, $75; Detroit, Caledonia and con., $50; Peck, $12.50; Garnett, Beulah, $37.20; Blue Mound, $65.20; Edgerton, $43.75; Welda, $4.75; Kansas, North Cedar, $40.38; Center, $37.50; Keokuk, Birmingham, $75; Harrison, $18.75; Lake, Rometown, $56.25; Wayne, $18.75; Le Claire, Volga City, $37.50; Mansfield, Amity, $25; Avondale, $25; De Kalb, $50; Monongahela, Stanton River, Va., $25; Neosho, Anthony, $100; Emporia, $310; Newton, $81.25; Walton, $17.30; New York, 127th St. New York City, $260.41; East 116th St. New York City, $112.50; West 25th St. New York City, $225; 1*st Ohio*, Oxford, $150; Omaha, Rising, $150; Wahoo, $25; Oregon, Warm Springs Indian Mission, $225; Pawnee, Bethany, $37.50; Wilsonville, $25; Philadelphia, Washington Mission, $135; Princeton, Portland, $12.50; White Hall, $12.50; San Francisco, Roseville, $28.76; Sidney, California, $25; Southern Illinois, Xenia Prairie, $31.25; Tennessee, Big Spring, $112.50; Vermont, Greensboro, $50; Westmoreland, Connellsville, $21; Wheeling, Buchanan Hill, $31.25; Wisconsin, Buffalo, $62.50; Oshkosh, $34.62; Waupaca, $98.

IV. Special Missions.

Eleven missions, thus designated, were under the care of the Board during the year. The condition of the work in these stations is, on the whole, good. We have observed with pleasure an increased disposition on the part of the congregations to secure pastoral settlements, and greater readiness in the missionaries appointed to become thus permanently identified with them. In general, too, a commendable desire is shown to reduce as largely as possible the amount of aid asked from the Home Mission funds. The details given below have been gathered from special reports obtained quite recently from the missionaries, as well as from the usual statements of the Presbyteries and from other sources.

1. Boston, Presbytery of Boston.—Under the care of the Board for five years, ending June, 1885. The Rev. John Hood took charge of the congregation as pastor Sept., 1881. During the year there has been a net gain of 24 members, making the present number 171. The Sabbath School, though not large, is in good condition, and its prospects are encouraging. As to the weekly prayer meeting, the attendance is small, and the interest manifested is not by any means what it ought to be. There is, however, a young people's prayer meeting on Sabbath evening which is well attended, and is mentioned as perhaps the most hopeful feature of the work. There has been a steady growth of the audience at the Sabbath services, the average number at present being about 80 in the morning and 200 in the afternoon. The interest on the debt has been promptly paid, although the current expenses were considerably increased by the cost of certain improvements required by the city, and by some necessary repairs to the building. An effort is being made to raise funds by monthly subscriptions for the gradual payment of the debt. We regret to say that there have been some troubles in the congregation, but the Presbytery has taken action with reference to them, and it is hoped that they have been amicably adjusted. Changes have been made in the financial methods, from which good results are anticipated. The pastor says: "The prospects are very encouraging." Last year the appropriation was $600. The same amount was recommended by the Presbytery and granted by the Board for the coming year.

2. Burlington, Presbytery of Keokuk.—Placed in the care of Board for five years, ending June, 1885. We are glad to report that at last a pastor has been settled in this congregation. The Rev. Peter Swan, having served as stated supply during the first and second quarters, was called during the third, and was ordained and installed as pastor the latter part of April. The prospects are in all respects encouraging. There has been a gradual increase in the average attendance from 65 in the second to 80 in the fourth quarter. The Sabbath School has a fuller regular attendance of scholars than ever before, and two new bible classes have been organized. Prayer meetings and night services generally are not very well attended, owing to the distance at which many of the members live. The appropriation for the coming year is $700, a reduction of $100.

3. Chicago, Presbytery of Chicago.—In care of the Board for three years, ending June, 1883. The work here is progressing. The congregation is well organized, and pastor and people are working harmoniously, zealously and successfully. The membership is now 170; net increase, 20. Ten adults were baptized. During the year a comfortable parsonage has been erected at a cost of $4,500, of which amount $1,000 remains unpaid. In this effort they have been helped by Sabbath Schools and friends in the Church, but have given largely and with much self-sacrifice themselves. The appropriation by the Board for the next year is $200. Last year the grant of the Assembly was $400, but the representations of the Presbytery were such that the Board thought it best to add $100 more. The reduction is therefore $300. It will be remembered that this is the last appropriation to be made directly by the Board. The hope of the congregation is that no further aid from the Church will be required.

4. Emporia, Presbytery of Neosho.—Committed to the care of the Board for three years, ending June, 1884. Emporia is a rapidly growing railroad center, and promises to be in the future one of the finest and most important cities of the West. Our cause there has never until now been pushed with sufficient vigor to secure success. For several years there was preaching about half the time. From October, 1880, to December, 1881, only a few Sabbaths were supplied. Early this year the Rev. Clinton Riddle was secured as stated supply. The membership is 17. About 10 others are known to be United Presbyterians, and several families are expected soon to move in. A Sabbath School was organized in February, the attendance in which is 24, with good prospect of increase. The average attendance at Church service has been upwards of 30. They have no Church building, but enjoy for the present the use, upon easy terms, of a suitable edifice belonging to another denomination. This arrangement, of course, is liable to be interrupted, and a house of worship should be secured if we expect to establish our Church there permanently. The Presbytery regards the prospects as encouraging enough to invite prompt and well sustained effort. The Board has appropriated for the coming year $675, and has appointed the Rev. Clinton Riddle as stated supply. The grant last year was $700, but of this amount nearly one-half will not be used, as the conditions could not be complied with until the year was well advanced.

5. Indianapolis, Presbytery of Indiana.—Under the care of the Board for five years, ending June, 1885. The work goes on here with reasonable encouragement. The growth of the congregation is not large, few United Presbyterians seeking homes in the city, but the improvement in attendance at the Church services and in the Sabbath School, and the continued interest in the prayer meeting, are gratifying indications. Special mention is made of good work done by the Ladies' Missionary Society. The amount granted for next year is $750, a reduction of $50.

6. Marshalltown, Presbytery of Cedar Rapids.—Committed to the care of the Board for five years, ending June, 1886. During the year Rev. Wm. M. Richie has been settled as pastor. The congregation has lately completed a house of worship, and is in better condition than ever before for active and successful work. There are 35 members reported, a net gain of 10, the most of whom are of more than average working ability. The people are contributing liberally both to meet current expenses and to pay off obligations remaining from former years. The attendance has increased from 20 in the first to 40 in the third quarter, and has on some recent occasions been nearly 100. The Sabbath School is well organized, having an efficient superintendent and a good corps of teachers. The prayer meeting is quite interesting. It has done much to promote spirituality and to stimulate activity. Marshalltown is in a high state of material prosperity, and is rapidly growing. As in many other such places the spirit of the world is dominant, and the cause of Christ is hindered by the general indifference, but on the whole the pastor is encouraged to hope for success in the effort to establish our Church. $500, the same amount as before, has been appropriated for next year.

7. Omaha, Presbytery of Omaha.—Under the care of the Board for five years, ending June, 1885. Continued prosperity and good hope of a large congregation by and by, is the gist of our reports. The congregation has more than doubled its membership in two years. Contributions for the Boards during the present church year will reach $200. It is proposed to erect a parsonage this summer, and there will be other extra expenses, so that the reduction in the amount of aid asked is not so great as it would have been otherwise. The amount granted by the Board is $550, which is $150 less than the last appropriation.

8. Oshkosh, Presbytery of Wisconsin.—Committed to the care of the Board for five years, ending June, 1885. The pastor, Rev. J. T. Wilson, is constrained to withdraw at the close of the year, being unable to endure the rigorous winter climate. He urges however, the maintenance of our work in Oshkosh as of the highest importance to our cause throughout the Presbytery. The congregation is in better condition, speaking generally, than at any previous time, and gives encouraging signs of readiness to do its just part in future efforts; $400 was pledged at a recent meeting for support of ordinances during the coming year. The amount granted by the Board for next year is, as for last year, $600, on condition of settlement. Rev. J. F. Black has been appointed as stated supply.

9. Topeka, Presbytery of Kansas.—Placed in care of the Board for five years, ending June, 1885. In most respects the favorable state of things reported last year has continued. The membership is now 72, an increase of 16 during the year, and a fourfold increase in the last three years. The Rev. W. E. Dunlap has served faithfully and efficiently as stated supply. He declines reappointment. In the light of the past history of our work in Topeka, and of what has been accomplished since Mr. Dunlap's appointment, the Board regrets exceedingly that there should be another change. We hope, however, to find a successor to prosecute the work. The prospects, as represented to us by Mr. Dunlap and others, are sufficiently encouraging to warrant reasonable expectation that the result so long desired will be attained. The appropriation for the coming year is $700, the same as last year. The Rev. W. H. McMaster has been appointed as the Missionary.

10. Port Huron, Presbytery of Detroit.—Placed in the care of the Board for two years, ending June, 1882. It will be noticed that the term for which this station was committed to the Board expires with this year. Aid was first granted in 1867. Since that time, including the present year, the Church has given assistance to the amount of $8,376. We are happy to report that the congregation, if left undivided, is now self-supporting. But in the judgment of the Presbytery it is advisable to organize a new Mission at Fort Gratiot, where a chapel has been erected during the year, and where the prospects are regarded as unusually promising. This will involve the withdrawal from Port Huron of a considerable number of members, and quite an amount of the support. Appropriations are therefore asked for two stations, with the appointment of an additional Missionary. The whole subject will be presented to the General Committee for its action.

11. Chinese Mission, Los Angeles, Cal.—The last General Assembly committed this Mission to our care for one year. It was evidently the design of this action to secure a full investigation and report. The Board has endeavored to get full information:

First. As to the work and its results, Mr. Nevin has recently submitted to us a detailed report, which we condense. There has been greater encouragement during the past year than ever before, partly no doubt as the fruit of past labors. Seven adults and one infant have been baptized. One member has been dismissed to China, and one, a woman who accompanied the family of the Missionary on their return to this country, has died. The triumphant departure of this convert Bro. Nevin speaks of as being an ample compensation, if there were no more, for all he has passed through. The number of members is now eight. The attendance at meetings varies from twenty to fifty, perhaps a hundred different persons coming in the co of the year. Night school is held every evening in the week, except Saturday and Sabbath, in which English is taught, and as opportunity offers, instruction given with reference to Christianity. On Wednesday evening Mr. Nevin gives a lecture in Chinese on Bible truth. On Saturday evening he holds a Bible class and prayer meeting, the exercises being conducted in Chinese. On Sabbath evening there is a Sabbath School, English being used, followed by a regular preaching service in Chinese. During the day (on week days as well as on the Sabbath, as we understand) Mr. Nevin converses with any who are free from work and can come to his study in the school building. The Presbytery furnishes regular assistance in teaching, and on Sabbath evenings volunteer help is accepted from any who are willing to come. The work is necessarily slow, being hindered by unusual obstacles, and resisted by the deep depravity of the heathen mind and heart. Changes of location on the part of the Chinese are very frequent, and this, of course, must be taken into account in judging of success. There is no other Mission of the kind, Bro. Nevin asserts after seeing others, in which the condition of things is different or better.

Second. As to the propriety of continuing the Mission, Mr. Nevin does not discuss this point. The Presbytery proposes to continue Rev. Jos. McKee and wife as teachers, without aid from the Church, at a salary of $500, and asks an appropriation of $1,600 for the support of Mr. Nevin. It is the opinion of the Board, that as the Church has recalled the Missionary from China, and assigned him to this work on the Pacific Coast, contrary to his own judgment in the case, the Mission cannot honorably be abandoned, nor do the facts seem to warrant such action. Our Mission appears, from all that is before us, to be doing quite as successful work as any other of its class, and should therefore be sustained, unless the Church is prepared to say not only that we will do nothing, but that nothing ought to be done by any Church for the evangelization of the Chinese in California. It may be that the recent action of Congress in relation to the Chinese will practically put an end to all Missions among them on our Western Coast, but it will be best to await results. If no other reason required the continuance of the work, we should, as a Church, be careful not to give occasion, even apparently, to the charge of being in sympathy with the political outcry against the Chinese.

Third. As to the management of the work in future, the Board is fully convinced that the work of Bro. Nevin among the Chinese cannot properly be regarded as Home Mission Work. It cannot be brought under the ordinary regulations governing Home Missions, or reduced to the usual scale of appropriation for the support of the Missionary without apparent injustice to Mr. Nevin, who was appointed by the Assembly, and has always been paid as a Foreign Missionary. In view of this impossibility of subjecting the Mission to the common regulations, it is not right or expedient that it should be under our care, unless, indeed, the Assembly will directly and permanently fix the salary of the Missionary and authorize us to modify the regulations so far as may be found necessary in their application to this place. If the subject be fairly considered, it will be seen that the objections to classing this work among Chinese heathen with our Home Missions, are more numerous and more weighty than any that have been urged as reasons for taking it from under the care of the Foreign Mission Board. We respectfully ask the Assembly, therefore, to relieve us from this charge; or at least, if such action is thought inadvisable, to define the status of the Mission and of the Missionary in such a way that the Board cannot justly be accused of disregarding the rules and usages of the Home Mission work, and making exceptions in favor of this particular case without the sanction of the Church. Perhaps the best arrangement that could be made, would be to put the Mission under the superintendence of the Presbytery of San Francisco with a fixed appropriation for the support of the Missionary. If this be done, the appropriation should be drawn, in our judgment, from the Treasury of the Board of Foreign Missions.

Fourth. As to the invested funds arising from the sale of property in China, we have not sufficient information to report intelligently and satisfactorily.

V. OTHER SPECIAL WORK.

1. Warm Springs Indian Mission, Presbytery of Oregon.—Though not included among the Special Missions, we believe that this important field of Christian effort should receive particular attention. It has been assigned to us by the Government, and if there were no higher motive, the honor of our Church demands that we should occupy it efficiently. If we cannot do this, we should relinquish the field, that it be given to some other denomination more able to prosecute the work vigorously.

Some two years since sixty-six members were reported in the little congregation at the agency. The appropriation last year was not sufficient to secure the services of a Missionary. In fact, the field has not been regularly occupied since the spring of 1880. It has, however, been visited occasionally by members of the Presbytery, and in their absence religious services have been kept up by Captain John Smith, the agent. An appropriation is asked for the Mission which will come before the General Committee for consideration. In regard to it, the Clerk of the Presbytery writes: "The need is urgent; the field is open, and the opportunity for a truly consecrated man to gather a good harvest of souls, is very encouraging."

2. General Missionary.—Rev. J. W. Johnston, of the Presbytery of College Springs, in accordance with the action of the Assembly last year, was appointed General Missionary to operate in the Presbyteries of Des Moines, College Springs, Pawnee and Omaha. As Mr. Johnston did not wish to relinquish his pastoral charge the appointment was accepted on the condition that he be permitted to dispense the Lord's Supper twice in each branch of his charge during the year, and spend three or four days each month in pastoral work among his own people. The Board consenting to this arrangement he entered upon his work in the designated field early in July, and has prosecuted it with fidelity and zeal. The results of his labors thus far indicate the wisdom of the appointment, and fully justify the expenditure. It is believed that the employment of one or more brethren in this kind of service would tend greatly to facilitate our work. The only difficulty in the way is the question whether the Church can, with the means at her command, occupy the new fields as rapidly as the work of the General Missionary would bring them forward.

VI. Financial Condition.

On the 30th of April, 1881, there was a balance of $951.79 in our treasury. There were also outstanding obligations amounting to $837.50. On the 30th of June claims amounting to $10,169.69 became due. Though several thousand dollars had come into our treasury during the two preceding months the sum fell far short of being sufficient to meet our obligations. But by the judicious action of the last Assembly, setting apart a considerable portion of the Stewart legacy as a reserve fund from which temporary loans might be made, we were enabled within twenty-five days after they became due to pay all these claims. On the 30th of September $10,208.16 became due; on the 31st of December, $10,342.56; on the 31st of March, $11,149.21. These were all paid with the same degree of promptness by larger or smaller drafts upon the reserved fund, the total amount being $42,707.12. We regret to state, however, that when the Treasurer closed his books on the 30th of April there was still due to this fund $2,410.98, the contributions of the Church having fallen thus far short of the necessary expenditures of the year. We are thus practically $2,410.98 in debt; for this money must be repaid, unless the Church is willing to see the reserved fund frittered away, and in a few years return to the unsatisfactory and disheartening process of paying our missionaries, months and months after it is due, the reward of their arduous service. No friend of the cause of Home Missions can contemplate with indifference such a deplorable result. The value and importance of prompt payment is manifest in the increased energy and efficiency of the service during the past year. The reserved fund should therefore be maintained in its integrity. It should not be forgotten in this connection that two years ago $6,818.26 was drawn from the same munificent bequest to which we are indebted for this fund, in order to discharge a debt that had been accumulating through several previous years by reason of the Church failing to supply the means required to pay the appropriations.

The contributions during the year, ending April 30, have been: From Presbyteries, $31,780.12; from legacies, for general and immediate use, $3,726.93; from Sabbath Schools, $649.28; from Ladies' Societies, $649.60; from miscellaneous sources, such as individual donations, income from investments, &c., $2,538.42; in all $39,344.35. The total income exceeds that derived from ordinary sources during the preceding year $248.53, and is $4,050.35 above that of any year previous.

Summary.—A condensed statement of the work of the past year, and of the financial condition of the Board, will be found in the statistical tables and report of the Treasurer, herewith presented, to which careful attention is requested.

VII. The Coming Year.

Fifty-seven Presbyteries have sent in their Annual Reports to the Board. The following is a summary of the information furnished:

The names of 84 ministers and licentiates are reported for appointment, rep

ing the full time of 82 men. From this number 6 must be deducted, the names of brethren unable to leave or desirous of being returned to their own Presbyteries. We have thus 76 who are able and willing to receive appointments. The time of 68 missionaries is all that is requested by the Presbyteries. There are, therefore, 8 more men willing to receive appointment than are desired by the Presbyteries. It is evident that the Presbyteries have not requested all the men that they could employ. Also that there are a considerable number of unsettled ministers and licentiates "able and suitable for work," whose names have not been submitted for appointment. There appears to be a growing tendency on the part of Presbyteries either to seek the supply of ministerial service through other channels, or to allow vacant congregations to make their own arrangements for such service, and there appears to be less and less inclination on the part of unsettled ministers and licentiates to submit their names to the General Committee for appoinoment. Should this state of things continue, in a few years it will cease to be one of the functions of the General Committee to regulate the bringing together the supply and demand for ministerial service over the whole Church.

The requests of Presbyteries for aid amounting to $55,225, and for the service of missionaries, have been referred in accordance with the regulations of the Assembly to the General Committee, whose report is herewith submitted.

The term of service of the following members of the Board will expire with the close of the current year, viz.: Rev. W. J. Reid, D. D., Rev. W. S. Owens and R. A. Cunningham, Esq.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

In accordance with the direction of the twenty-third General Assemby the General Committee of Home Missions convened at Kirkwood, Illinois, Wednesday, May 17th, 1882. On tne 20th it adjourned to meet at Alexis, Illinois, on Monday, the 22d, where it continued in session two days.

Fifty-nine delegates were present, representing all the home Presbyteries and the Board. The Committee was organized by the election of the Rev. Joseph A. Collins, of the Presbytery of Neosho, Chairman, with the Revs. D. C. Stewart and W. S. Owens as Assistant Secretaries.

The amount of money desired for the ensuing year, as stated in the report of the Board herewith presented, was $55,225. Additional requests, which were presented after the report of the Board was printed, increased this amount to $63,100. The total amount granted was $51,400, including $5,275 appropriated by the Board to special missions, $5,650 for special missions to be placed under the care of or otherwise referred to the Board at this meeting; $1,750 for cases referred to the Board; $3,000 to meet emergencies, and $2,400 to repay the debt to the Reserve Fund, incurred by the failure of the Church to meet fully the appropriations of last year.

These appropriations are very much larger than those of any previous year, yet they were kept within even these limits only after a number of stations were cut off entirely and the sum requested by many others largely reduced. The Committee, after a most anxious and careful consideration of the pressing calls upon us to enter new and promising fields and of the wants of those already occupied felt constrained to ask from the Church this amount, although it is $3,252 more than the total appropriations of last year, and $12,056 above the whole sum contributed for this service. From these facts it is evident that the contributions of the Church to this cause must be increased very largely, both in the aggregate and in the average, above those of any previous year in our history, or that the Reserve Fund must be still further reduced and perhaps altogether destroyed. In view of the benefits which this fund has secured to our missionaries, and which must be utterly lost without it, the General Committee was unanimous in its endorsement of the judgment of the Board that it must be maintained and all drafts upon it fully replaced.

The names of 85 ministers and probationers were submitted by the Presbyteries for appointment, representing the full time of 82 men. The whole time of 69 men was asked for. Of the appointments made, 40 were for the whole year, 9 for three-quarters, 15 for two, and four for but one, being the full time of 55 men, while 17 were referred back to their Presbyteries. There was thus at our disposal the equivalent of the entire time of 27 men more than the appointments. Had the General Committee been able to grant the whole amount of money desired, employment could have been given more fully to those who received appointments and to many who received none.

III. SPECIAL ACTION ON MISSIONS.

The following action was taken with reference to certain cases:

1. That Denver, in the Presbytery of Colorado, Port Huron, Fort Gratiot, and Bad Axe, in the Presbytery of Detroit, be placed under the care of the Board as Special Missions; Denver for five years, Port Huron for two, Fort Gratiot and Bad Axe for three years.
2. That the Special Mission work in the city of Cleveland be placed under the care of the Board, in connection with the Presbytery of Cleveland.
3. That the Board be authorized to act with reference to the Mission in Washington, D. C., at the request of and in conjunction with the Presbytery of Philadelphia, in case any contingency should arise requiring their assistance.
4. That Portland, Oregon, be committed to the Board as a Special Mission for the term of five years, and that, in addition, a Special Missionary be appointed to be employed by the Presbytery of Oregon in that part of their territory deemed by them to be most promising.
5. That for the work referred to in the foregoing resolutions, $5,650 be placed at the disposal of the Board, to be used at their discretion.
6. That the Chinese Mission at Los Angeles, Cal., be continued under the care of the Board of Home Missions, in connection with the Synod of the Pacific, and that $1,400 be appropriated for the support of the missionary.
7. That the request of the Presbytery of San Francisco for the establishment of a new mission at Los Angeles be referred to the Board of Home Missions.

IV. GENERAL.

The following resolutions were recommended to the General Assembly for adoption:

1. Sliding Scale for Appropriations.

In view of the large number of stations which have been receiving aid for many years, and the necessity that some effectual plan be devised and faithfully carried out, tending to prevent our Missions from falling into the habit of depending upon assistance from the church, therefore,

Resolved, That the following resolutions be adopted, applying to all stations receiving aid through the General Committee.

1. That the appropriations to all stations which have been receiving aid for ten or more years shall hereafter be reduced annually one-third of the amount granted in 1882, or of the last preceding appropriation.
2. That the appropriations to all stations which have been receiving aid for from five to ten years shall hereafter be reduced annually not less than one-fifth of the amount granted in 1882, or of the last preceding appropriation.
3. That the appropriations to all stations which have been receiving aid for less than five years, and to all new stations, shall hereafter be reduced annually not less than twenty per cent. on the fifth appropriation.
4. That if any Presbytery should conclude that a station under its care ought to be made an exception to the above rules, it shall at least, two months before the meeting of the General Assembly report to the Board of Home Missions all the facts in the case, and the Board shall report its finding of the facts, together with its judgment thereon to the General Committee.
5. That the Board of Home Missions be directed to introduce the above principles into the regulations governing Home Mission work, and report the regulations as thus amended to the next Assembly.

2. Applications for New Stations.

WHEREAS, Great care should be exercised in taking up new stations, therefore,

Resolved, That the General Committee shall appoint a standing Committee on New Stations, to which shall be referred all applications for aid to such places.

3. Miscellaneous.

1. That the Board of Home Missions be directed to issue a letter of instructions to the missionaries sent out by the Assembly each year, giving them specific information as to the duties required of them.
2. That the Board be instructed to take into consideration the propriety of inserting the following amendment in the Regulations of the Board, in the fourth line of Section 10, after the word "Presbytery": "to instruct missionaries in their duties;" and to report their recommendations on the same to the next General Assembly.
3. That the following questions be added .o the usual blanks sent to Presbyteries:

(1.) Has the Superintendent of Missions, or some other person by authority of Presbytery, visited your stations during the past year, and reported in person their condition?

(2,) Is it possible so to group any of your stations that they will not stand in need of aid? If not, why?

4. That the Board of Home Missions be instructed to print the rules relating to applications for aid in a convenient form, and send a copy thereof annually to the several Presbyteries.
5. That in ordinary circumstances no appropriation shall be made to any Presbytery asking aid from the Home Mission funds for stations under its care, and not seeking supply in proportion to its needs through the General Committee.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FREEDMENS' MISSIONS.

It has been the earnest desire of your Board to keep itself fully acquainted with the needs and progress of the work entrusted to it, and by careful and prayerful effort to promote its advancement by every means at its disposal. Monthly reports have been received from all the Stations, and monthly meetings of the Board have been held, besides several special meetings at which its work for the preceeding month was carefully reviewed, and the needs of the field as fully provided for as possible. How far we have succeeded in satisfactorily discharging the obligations of our responsible trust, you may be able to judge, by carefully considering this report. The statement of the work we give in detail as much as possible.

The Board.—At the meeting of the Board, January 3d, Rev. J. A. Gordon resigned his place on the Board, because of his removal from the city. At the meeting, February 6th, Rev. J. D. Irons was elected to fill the vacancy.

THE WORK.

Knoxville.—The changes authorized by the last General Assembly were effected at the beginning of the year. These, it is believed, were advantageous, as thereby the work was more completely unified. President McCulloch has had charge of the College Church and all the religious work during the year.

The Religious Work has been conducted mainly as in former years. On Sabbath there is Sabbath School in the morning, and immediately afterward the regular sermon. Young and old are in the Sabbath School, and all remain for the sermon.

The afternoon service consists of singing, prayer, reading of Scripture and extracts from missionary intelligence, or brief remarks on Bible themes by the pastor or one of the teachers, after which the classes separate and spend the remainder of the time in reading the Bible, or reciting the catechism, or singing, or hearing an earnest talk from the teacher. The entire exercises of the afternoon seldom extend much beyond one hour.

A Sabbath evening prayer meeting is held more especially for the students, who are boarding on the College grounds, though others are invited. Sometimes males and females assemble together, and sometimes they hold separate meetings at the same time. In this way the more timid and shrinking are encouraged to take part.

A Christian Union has been organized, composed of the members of the different churches among the students. The object is to stimulate one another, and look after new students when they arrive, and encourage them in active Christian effort. The first annual sermon was preached before the Union by Rev. J. G. Carson, D.D., of Xenia Theological Seminary.

A Student's Prayer Meeting has been held on Monday morning, the exercises taking the place of the daily opening exercises in the Chapel, and are conducted almost exclusively by students.

The Wednesday Evening Congregational Prayer Meeting is also attended by the boarders in the College. The attendance is frequently over one hundred.

The Day of Prayer for Colleges, recommended by the last Asssembly, was observed with good effect, and soon afterward a week of extra meetings was arranged, which seemed to have the special favor of God, and not only were believers quickened, but fifteen made a profession of their faith—ten of these in connection with our church. There has been, during the year, gradually developed a marked increase in the amount of individual effort, and a number of the students have proved themselves not merely zealous, but prudent and efficient helpers, leading in prayer, making brief remarks on passages of Scripture, conducting public and private prayer meetings and speaking privately to companions.

On Monday morning the International Sabbath School Lesson is taught to all except those who recite in the Greek Testament, and in this way students who teach in different Sabbath Schools are required to recite the lesson before attempting to teach it.

The Statistics of the congregation are as follows:—Members, 50; increase—by profession, 10; by certificate, 3; decrease, 24—by death, 2; by removal without certificate, 5; by certificate, 5; by being dropped from the roll, 12.

Contributions.—Foreign Missions, $7; Home Missions, $9; Freedmen's Missions, $5; Church Extension $6; Education, $4; Publication, $2; Assembly's Fund, $1; Ministerial Relief, $2; General Contributions, $15; Congregational Expenses, $128; Total, $179. Average attendance on Sabbath morning, 174, afternoon, 100.

The College.—The regularly appointed teaching force consists of the President, J. S. McCulloch; lady Principal, Miss Eliza B. Wallace; Professors, William Wallace and D. T. McClelland; and Miss Mary L. Buchanan, Ida McCulloch and Lizzie M. Starrett. In addition to these Mr. Angus McDonald has been engaged as a special teacher of Vocal Music, and some ten or more students have rendered assistance both to their own profit and to the advantage of the school.

The enrollment for the year has been 230, with an average attendance of about 130. One of the greatest obstacles in the way is the inability of students to continue in school throughout the year. Every year brings a larger proportion of students who come prepared to remain, but there are always instances in which, through miscalculations or disappointment, most worthy persons have to leave and go to earning money.

Student's Fund.—A small fund to be used with discretion in urgent cases seems to be very much needed. A few dollars will sometimes enable a good student to close up the work of the session with credit, and be prepared to enter the following year. Individuals and societies have, in several instances, sent in timely help, thus relieving the teachers from the painful necessity of parting from students whom they wished to retain. It is often a good missionary work to furnish books or pay tuition for boys and girls who are unable to provide for themselves.

Lectures.—The plan of holding meetings and delivering lectures on education was continued, and good audiences greeted Professor Wallace in nearly every place visited—in Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee and Virginia—and an interest has been awakened that promises well for the future. In several instances, a second meeting was called after the lapse of a few months, and always with good results. The whole number of lectures delivered was twenty-four.

Sewing School.—All the girls in the school (ninety-seven enrolled) are divided into four classes, and sew by hand, forty minutes a day, each class under the supervision of a teacher. About 200 new garments have been made, some of them being cut by the more advanced students. Besides this, quite an amount of patching and darning of their own clothing has been neatly done in the sewing school. While the girls sew, some one reads aloud from some interesting and profitable book, so that they look forward to the sewing hour as a busy, pleasant time. Some forty boxes and barrels of clothing, old and new, including bedding, sent by friends in the North, have been distributed to the needy, those able to pay a trifle doing so, and the money thus received being used in procuring articles necessary for the sewing school, and in assisting the sick who were in want.

The New Dormitory and Boarding House, recommended at the last Assembly, was commenced early in July, and completed about the first of December. It was nearly filled as soon as opened, and in three weeks it was overflowing with boarders. It connects with the main building, extending it 110 feet, thus presenting an imposing front of 194 feet toward the city. It is 42 feet wide, and four stories high. The basement floor is occupied by a dining room, capable of seating one hundred persons, and connecting with a kitchen, arranged with a view to employing a large number of students at the same time in the house work, no hired help being employed. The building contains 35 lodging rooms for two persons each, besides parlor, sitting-room, girl's library and matron's room. The sexes have separate entrances and stairways, and enter the dining room from opposite ends, but meet and eat at the same tables, and have morning and evening devotions together. The furnishing of the rooms in the new building has been accomplished almost entirely through the efforts of ladies, who, as individuals and as societies, have not only sent money, but labored with their hands for this object.

Boarding Department.—This department is under the care of the lady Principal, Miss E. B. Wallace. The following, in reference to it, is copied from her annual report to the Board:

This department was opened on the 1st of September, 1881, with 27 boarders. Up to that time our arrangements had been but temporary, as the buildings were not intended for anything of the kind. The new building ordered by the last Assembly was completed the 1st of December, and filled almost as soon as entered. At the opening of the second term, a number was obliged to take rooms out of the building. All the work of the institution is done by the students, and is carefully examined and graded, thus placing it on a par with their other studies.

Our object in establishing a boarding department was to show these young people what a Christian home should be, and to bring them under the influences of such a home, to teach the girls to do well all kinds of housework, and that manual labor is honorable, and to give them boarding at a price within their reach. This has been one dollar per week, which has covered all expenses of food, light, and fuel for the dining-room and kitchen, besides leaving a margin for breakage and bad debts, which up to this year did not amount to more than ten dollars.

The numbers, including teachers, have ranged from 27 to 87, with an enrollment of 101.

The teachers assist in the government of the students, each having charge of a table, their presence and example having good influence. Since having charge of this department I have realized, as never before, the extent of our work, especially morally. We cannot change their opinions and the work of years in a few short months. Our influence over the day students is comparatively slight, but as we realize the vastness of our work, we remember also that God does not require us to do it in our own strength or wisdom.

Chase City.—The regular workers at this Station are Rev. John A. Ramsay, Professor William Bryan, Miss Ella N. Reed, and Mrs. J. A. Ramsay.

The work has prospered during the whole year, and the results have been of a very encouraging character. The total enrollment of the school to date is 218. The average attendante for the same time is 94. The very small average is accounted for by the fact that very inadequate clothing is possessed by many, so that on inclement days the school would be in a measure deserted. This evil was largely overcome toward the close of winter by supplying such needy ones with clothing from boxes sent by friends in the North. The progress of the pupils is reported to be as good as we could expect, considering the irregular attendance.

The Religious Work is also under the care of Mr. Ramsay. The exercises consist of the regular Sabbath service, preaching and Sabbath School, and during the week a regular prayer meeting, and occasional prayer meetings, with such other religious services as were conducted in the chapel and class rooms each day. The hopes of the Board and friends of the work have been realized in reference to the establishment of a congregation at this Station. In the report for February, Mr. Ramsay notified the Board that a few persons were desirous of being received into the United Presbyterian Church, and asked for instruction. He was directed to effect an organization as soon as practicable. During the first part of March the organization was begun and is now completed, and consists of thirteen persons, all of whom give good evidence of a thorough conversion, and seem to have, in a good degree, an intelligent view of their duties and responsibilities as members of the body of Christ.

The Enrollment of the Sabbath School was 305; the average attendance, 104. The great difference here again was occasioned by the same influences which led to the same result in the day school, together with exciting exercises in connection with the native churches or families, such as baptizings, buryings, or protracted meetings. These are all occasions much made of and always injuriously affect the more staid religious services in our missions.

Bluestone.—The workers in this field are Professor J. A. Littell, and Misses Helen McLean, Maria McClintock and Nannie Armstrong. Rev. M. Clarke, appointed to this Station one year ago, declined the appointment.

The Religious Work has been under the management of Professor J. A. Littell, Principal of the school. Rev. J. A. Ramsey, of the Chase City Station, sixteen miles distant, preaches at Bluestone one Sabbath each month. The other religious services consist of Sabbath School, Bible reading, prayer meetings, and general evangelistic work in the community. In addition to this, Mr. Littell has held a number of religious meetings in the neighboring native churches on Sabbath, which were largely attended, and we trust very profitable. These services were always conducted by request of the people, in whose place of worship the meetings were held.

The Sabbath School at this Station has on its roll, for the term, 348 names. The interest during the entire year was very encouraging. In the mission work it manifested itself by an earnest desire to learn more of the Bible and more of Christ.

In the Secular School the enrollment reached 269, and the general attendance was good. Perhaps at no time were so many of those of school age brought into this school in one term. There were 18 boxes or barrels of clothing, containing 1,700 lbs. gross, received at this Station. Special pains were taken to provide the school and Sabbath School children with necessary clothing. Needy ones were sought out out and supplied, so that nearly all of school age in reach were brought and kept in both Schools during the winter.

The cost of this supply was very small to the donors, but the possible good to the beneficiaries cannot be estimated.

Summary. There has been an aggregate enrollment in all the schools of 718 pupils, and in the Sabbath Schools of nearly 1,000. During the year, 57 students from our schools were engaged in teaching in the public schools. These teachers received their education, as follows: In the College, 50; at Thyne Institute, Chase City, 5; at Bluestone, 2. Most of these return to their classes at the expiration of their engagement. The schools taught by them were located thus: Forty-four in Tennessee, three in Georgia, one in Arkansas, two in North Carolina, one in South Carolina, and six in Virginia. The aggregate enrollment of these schools could not be less than 2,500.

The rule with these teachers is to conduct a Sabbath School, during the term, in the school house where they are employed during the week. The plan usually followed is to teach the "International Lessons," which they study when in attendance at our schools; and thus they are enabled to proceed with some degree of safety in the work of imparting religious instruction. They always use our "Bible Songs" when they can be obtained.

By this summary it is shown, that our work is enlarging, and is beginning to accomplish in a very practical way the objects aimed at in its establishment.

Thirty-five hundred pupils in Sabbath School. Thirty-three hundred in day-schools of different grades. These hundreds come from and return to not less than one thousand homes of ignorance and squalid wretchedness, and must exert some influence toward the elevation and saving of the masses.

Financial.—The receipts for the year are as follows:

RECEIPTS.

From Presbyteries	$9,146 18
" Bequests and legacies	1,013 12
" Ladies' Missionary Societies	323 37
" Sabbath Schools	175 96
Rent of property at Nashville	124 75
" Sale of property at Nashville	800 00
" Individuals	902 99
" Miscellaneous	241 10
Total	$12,727 47

The indebtedness, as reported by the Treasurer, $10,875.30, seems very large. With reference to it, we call special attention to the following facts:

In making estimates last year, the Board fully expected to be able to dispose of property at Vicksburg and Knoxville amounting to $2,000, but did not succeed. The bequests referred to in our report last year, amounting to $3,500, have not yet been realized. One thousand dollars of this will be paid soon, as all litigation concerning it is ended, and the decision of the courts is favorable to the Board receiving it. The remainder, $2,500, will be paid not later than the first of October or November of the present year. Thus, it will appear, that we have assets available within the year as follows:

Property to sell, estimated	$2,000
Bequests	3,500
Total	$5,500

Leaving the liabilities unprovided for, or the actual indebtedness, $5,375.30. This amount would have been reduced some $3,000 more had the Board received the full amount of the appropriations of last year.

Fathers and brethren, the work every year appears to us more and more important, demanding the combined wisdom of the church to direct it aright, and the combined energy of the church to do it aright. The whole race is degraded in the extreme, the intellect darkened, and every moral sense blunted or destroyed. They must be taught in both respects, and that for their good and the safety of the country. A close observer for many years has this to say on this point: "It is one of the great problems with which we have to deal, to educate the conscience of the negro. To give him intelligence without this is to make him more dangerous to himself and us than he is. Either a black man or a white man with rights and no sense of righteousness is a dangerous man. His political power is easily bought and readily sold in the market, he is led with awful facility into unlawful combinations, he becomes a social curse in every community. The first special aim in all our efforts to raise the negro from his degradation should be directed to his morals. This must be mainly done among the young and in schools, because of the pernicious and degrading influence of their social and domestic life."

The Board respectfully asks this Assembly to appropriate the sum of $16,000 for the work next year.

The terms of office of Rev. J. T. Cooper, D. D., Rev. John D. Irons, R. A. Balph, Esq., and the Corresponding Secretary, expire with the close of the current year.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Board,

R. B. EWING, President.

J. W. WITHERSPOON, Cor. Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension, gratefully acknowledging the good favor of God, respectfully submits the following report of its work:

At the beginning of the year the Board appointed a Committee on Finance and Real Estate, to which are referred such cases and questions as require more time than can be given them in the regular sessions. This secures a careful examination of the details of the more difficult parts of the business preparatory to action by the full Board. The arrangement proves to be very satisfactory.

It has been necessary to expend a larger amount than usual in protecting the interests of the church, especially in Iowa City, but a valuable increase of the permanent funds has been gained thereby.

In view of the importance of the work in the cities of New York and Washington, and the large sums involved, the Board thought it necessary to send a committee to obtain a more definite knowledge of the condition of the congregations and the prospects of successful work. Beside the information gained, the conference held in New York awakened a deeper interest in the work of the Board.

The Board has been called to consider an unusual number of applications for large sums. In such cases the appropriations have been made only after very careful inquiry, and when well convinced that they were necessary to the success of the cause. In no case, however, has the appropriation to a new mission been withheld or reduced by these larger grants.

RECEIPTS.

The report of the Treasurer shows a very gratifying increase of receipts. There is a slight increase in the number of congregations contributing, but still about one-fourth do not render any aid. The Sabbath Schools have increased their gifts, but the Missionary Societies have given less than last year. The amount given by both has been sufficient to build the Mission Churches of Delaware, N. Y., and Dunbar, Neb. "A Friend" gave $2,500, subject to five per cent. annuity.

The receipts, exclusive of balance from last year, are as follows:

From Presbyteries	$12,606 97
" Sabbath Schools	562 84
" Missionary Societies	383 28
" Individuals	599 59
" Legacies	701 57
" Rents	199 70
" Permanent Investments	1,367 82
" Sales of Property	1,576 70
" Loans repaid	2,836 14
" Annuity Bond	2,500 00
Total	$23,334 61
Increase over 1881	3,553 47
Balance May 1, 1882	$10,148 90

The large balance reported is because over $4,500 were received within a few days of the end of the year, and because of the delay of some congregations in executing the securities required before payment is made. It will enable the Board to meet claims promptly on maturity.

LIABILITIES.

The liabilities of the Board are:

Appropriations not paid	$17,162 00
Note without interest	400 00
Total	$17,562 00
Liabilities in excess of balance	$ 7,413 10

Johnstown, Pa.—The appropriation to Johnstown is the release of a loan of $900 and accumulated interest. There is other debt of about $3,000, secured by mortgage on the property, to meet the interest of which and support the ordinances, has required very large appropriations by the Board of Home Missions. The grant is made on the condition of the removal of all debt within two years, when the congregation is expected to become self-supporting.

New York.—After an extended correspondence in relation to the applications in behalf of the congregations in the city of New York, the Board deemed it prudent to send a committee to confer with the Presbytery, and make such other inquiry as might be practicable. The result was the conclusion that there is ample room in the great and rapidly growing population of that part of the city for both congregations, that they could be helpful to each other, and that, in the present circumstances, the failure of either would be an injury. The above grants were made on the conditions of certain changes being made in the property of the East 127th Street Church, and the removal of all debt from both within five years. Since that time the pastor elect of the East 116th Street Church has returned the call he had accepted, and the congregation, being discouraged, seems to be unable to undertake compliance with the condition. The Board, therefore, made a grant of $441 to East 127th Street Church and $120 to East 116th Street Church, to meet the present emergency, and as part of the permanent appropriation.

San Francisco.—A mortgage for $15,000 has been upon the San Francisco church ever since its completion. This, with some floating debt, has been a heavy burden on the congregation and a barrier to any additional work. All efforts to remove it having failed, an appeal was made to the Board, and a grant was made of $3,000, subject to the approval of the General Assembly, provided that all debt shall be removed within one year. If not approved, the grant will be a loan of five years, without interest. Encouraged by this action, the congregation has secured subscriptions for the whole amount of the debt. As the terms on which aid was originally authorized by the General Assembly could not heretofore be complied with, the Assembly will now determine the form and the amount of the security to be taken.

Washington, D. C.—The Presbytery of Philadelphia, in its own name, made application for aid to a mission in Washington, D. C. It has long been felt that a congregation of our faith should be established in the National Capital; and on the strength of the Presbytery's conviction that the favorable time had come, the Board sent a committee to select a site for a church. The lot selected is on the corner of [illegible]th and I streets, in the north-west quarter of the city. The location is very central, easy of access and of increasing value. The lot is sixty-nine feet and four inches on I street by seventy feet on Eighth street, with a projection of fifteen by twenty-five feet at the interior corner, which can readily be sold, if not needed. It was secured for $6,300, of which the Board paid $3,300. The title is absolute. As the Trustees of the General Assembly are not incorporated in the District of Columbia, the title was made to Graham Scott, R. E. Stewart, Thomas Jamison, J. T. McCance and J. W. Arrott, as Trustees, to hold the property in trust for, and subject to the order of, the Trustees of the General Assembly. Measures will be taken for the erection of the church as soon as practicable. In the meantime the rent of the buildings pays a fair interest on the cost of the lot.

PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

Very satisfactory reports are received as to the progress of the work. There have been no unusual delays, and the Board has been able to pay every appropriation as soon as the conditions were complied with. The congregations of Ninnescah and Pleasant Ridge, by great effort, completed their churches without the full amount appropriated.

PROPERTY.

One small lot has been sold from the property in Allegheny, Pa., and the balance is leased. The properties of the extinct congregations of Clarkson, Second Leavenworth, Mediapolis and Vinton have been sold.

The congregation in Iowa City, having failed many years ago, the Board has at length secured its claim by a title to the property, and has leased the building for school purposes for three years at $250 a year, less $50 for repairs in the first year. A claim against this church for $300 was presented, and, although not convinced of its justness, the Board judged it better to pay it rather than enter into protracted litigation.

For valuable services in connection with these transactions, the Board is indebted to the Rev. A. H. Elder, John McVicker, Esq., James I. Larimer, Esq., the Rev. W. T. Moffett, the Rev. James Duncan, James Dawson, Esq., and Mr. William Windrem.

THE LOAN FUND.

There is no material change in the Loan Fund since the last report. It has been found impracticable to make many grants from it during the year.

SECURITIES.

The following securities have been received during the year:

Mortgages for Donations.—Fourth Church, Philadelphia, $1,287; Corning, Iowa, $725; Fort Gratiot, Mich., $1,000; Union, Iowa, $360; Greenfield, Iowa, $700; Coin, Iowa, $1,187; Franklin. Pa., $1,106; Connellsville, Pa., $1,500; Ewart, Iowa, $300; Richmond, Pa., $131; Mechanicsburg, Pa., $380; Milo, Iowa, $750; Sunny Dale, $460; Garnett, Kansas, $934.

Mortgages for Loans.—Fourth Church, Philadelphia, $3,000; Second Leavenworth, for balance on the lot, $350; Greenfield, Iowa, $200.

Bond.—Sunny Dale, Kansas, $300.

Deeds.—Beulah, Kansas; Iowa City; Dunbar, Neb,; Pulaski, Mo.; Delaware, N. Y.; Creston, Iowa; Otter Lake, Mich.; Concord, now Cutler, Ill., Hopewell, Kansas.

INSURANCE.

Some unanticipated difficulties have arisen in the way of carrying out the instructions of the last General Assembly in regard to insurance, but the subject is still under consideration, and the Board is in correspondence with some companies, and hopes to be able to report satisfactorily next year.

WORK IN THE CITIES.

There is an increasing urgency for the enlargement of our church in the great cities. In such fields help, to be effective, must be in large sums. To other parts of the church such grants may seem to be unequal. The Board of Church Extension has nothing to do with the questions of organization and support of ordinances, but it is made to bear the responsibility of the failure of the work if it refuses to make a large appropriation for it. Much perplexity has been felt on this subject, and if the General Assembly can indicate a line of policy to be followed, and suggest measures to relieve the Board from an undue responsibility, and also to develop local resources in such fields, it will greatly aid the Board.

VACANCIES.

The terms of office of Mr. William Reed, the Rev. J. D. Turner, the Rev. J. M. Fulton, and of the Corresponding Secretary expire with this year. Mr. Reed asks to be relieved from further service on account of his inability to attend the meetings. He has been a member of the Board for many years, and a large contributor to its funds. His services are gratefully acknowledged.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Board,

E. S. McKITRICK, President.

A. G. WALLACE, Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

In presenting its Annual Report to the General Assembly, the Board of Publication gratefully records the goodness of God to the work of this Board during the past year.

To a greater extent than in any former year, we have been engaged in work appropriate to this Board.

All the instructions given to the Board by the last Assembly have been observed These were: 1st, That the Board be directed to append the name of the authors of the tracts in their notices of them; 2d, That the Board be directed to use the utmost care in selecting matter for publication; 3d, That the Board be directed to consider carefully whether there should not be a musical department instituted in the Scholar's Quarterly.

We have printed only one or two Tracts during the year. As there does not seem to be a large demand for tracts in our church, we have not encouraged brethren to write them. Besides, we have now on hand a sufficient variety of excellent tracts with which to supply our ministers and people.

We have been careful in selecting and accepting matter for publication. Possibly we have been unduly cautious and conservative in regard to this part of our work. Manuscripts from highly respectable authors have been declined, as the state of our finances would not allow us to undertake the publication of works which might, even temporarily, prove unremunerative.

We have also complied with the suggestions of the Assembly in regard to the publication of Sabbath School music in the Quarterly. We may say, however, that we are not persuaded there is any necessity for this, or any advantage gained corresponding with the expense.

OUR PERIODICALS.

The past year has been the first entire year in which our Sabbath School Papers and other Periodicals have been in our charge. It is not necessary for us to refer to the character of these publications, or any improvement which may have been made in them. The members of the Assembly are well acquainted with them, and are prepared to express an intelligent judgment concerning them.

The Rev. R. J. Miller, the editor of our Sabbath School Periodicals, feeling that he was unable to take charge of all our periodicals, requested, in the early part of the year, to be relieved of editorial connection with the Evangelical Repository. His request was granted by the Board, and the Corresponding Secretary was assigned to this position.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

Our new publications have been as follows:

TRACT No. 26—PSALMODY. By J. G. Carson, D. D.

In Memoriam. A SKETCH OF THE LIFE OF THE LATE REV. WM. BRUCE, D. D. By Rev J. T. Cooper, D. D.

COMMUNION, SECRET SOCIETIES AND PSALMODY. Being Tracts 21, 24 and 26 bound. By Rev. J. G. Carson, D. D.

UNITED PRESBYTERIANISM. By Rev. Wm. J. Reid, D. D.

UNITED PRESBYTERIAN LESSON NOTES, 1882.

BIBLE SONGS. Words Only Edition.

SABBATH SCHOOL RECORD. By the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools.

MISSIONS, THE CHIEF END OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH (Cheap 5c Ed.)

UNITED PRESBYTERIANISM. By the Rev. W. J. Reid, D. D., is a 12-mo. volume of 192 pages. It is a book which was greatly needed by the ministers and members of our Church. Our pastors have long felt the want of such a work to put into the hands of catechumens, young members and adherents of the Church. We think it it will be found to be not only a clear and able defence of our distinctive principles, but also a valuable help to all seeking "the way of life."

"THE SABBATH SCHOOL RECORD," another of our publications during the year, was greatly needed. The permanent Sabbath School Committee, in its report to the to the last Assembly, said: "In order that the Church courts may devise the best things, information must be gathered. This fact some of our brethren seem to have overlooked. A systematic way of keeping Sabbath School Records is greatly needed." The "Record" that has been prepared and published, it is believed, will enable Sabbath Schools to keep their records more satisfactorily than heretofore.

LESSON NOTES.—The brethren who prepared the Lesson Notes have done their work well and gratuitously, and are entitled to the thanks of the General Assembly and the Church.

It will be seen that our Sabbath School Periodicals are more extensively circulated than at any former time. The circulation which these helps and papers is attaining, not only indicates growing satisfaction with them throughout the Church, but encourages us to hope that the time is not remote, when all our Sabbath Schools will receive all their papers and helps exclusively from their own Board.

A question arose between this Board and the Sabbath School Committee, in the course of the past year, in regard to the appointment of persons to prepare Notes on the Sabbath School lessons, to be published in the "Bible Teacher" and "Quarterly." The Sabbath School Committee, under the instructions of the Assembly of 1874, claimed the right to prepare or procure the preparation of suitable Notes for teachers and scholars—such as have been published in the "Bible Teacher," etc., for some years. The Board of Publication were of the opinion that this work remained in charge of the Sabbath School Committee only so long as these periodicals continued in the possession of private parties. Now that they are owned and controlled by the Board for the Church, and since the responsibility of their management belongs to this Board it was felt that it properly belonged to us to prepare or secure the preparation of Notes for these publications. As, however, the Sabbath School Committee insisted that it was their duty to appoint persons to prepare these Notes, notwithstanding the judgment of the Board that "the exclusive right to appoint persons to prepare Notes for the 'Bible Teacher' and 'Quarterly' belongs to this Board," it was agreed by the Board to "submit the question involved to the next General Assembly."

Although no appropriation was made to this Board last year, contributions from Presbyteries and Congregations were received to the amount of $863.41, as shown in the following statement. This amount we place at your disposal, to be used as you may direct and hold the same subject to your order.

The term of office of the following members of the Board expires with the present year, viz: Rev. W. J. Robinson, D. D., Rev. S. H. Graham and Rev. Alex. Young, D. D., selected to fill the unexpired term of the Rev. J. R. Johnston, D. D.

The following statements, which present fully and clearly the business done during the year and the present condition of our work, will doubtless be as gratifying to the Assembly as they are to ourselves. We invite the close attention of the Assembly to this exhibit. We think it will be found to show not only careful management, but increased confidence on the part of the Church in the work entrusted to this Board:

II. BENEFICIARIES.

During the past year twenty students of theology have been aided by the funds of the church, as distributed by this Board. Twelve of the beneficiaries attended the Seminary at Allegheny, Pa., and eight the Seminary at Xenia, O. The following Presbyteries have been represented: Brookville, Chartiers, Muskingum and Xenia, two students each; Allegheny, Butler, Chicago, Conemaugh, Des Moines, Garnett, Le Claire, Monmouth, Monongahela, Sidney, Steubenville and Wheeling, one student each. The Board has complied strictly with the instructions given by the last Assembly, "allowing each student one hundred dollars per annum, and assisting young men who were in actual attendance at one of our Seminaries."

III. THE BOARD.

The work performed by this Board, its importance as an agency of the church, and the assistance received from it by the ministers of our own denomination, may be presented by referring to its history. Since the formation of the United Presbyterian Church in 1858, aid has been given to two hundred and twenty-two persons. Of these, one hundred and sixty-two are now in the United Presbyterian Church; one hundred and forty-two ordained ministers, and twenty students of theology. Seventeen failed to enter the ministry, these failures occurring at the time when aid was given to literary students; twelve died in the ministry of our own church; thirty-one have left our church and entered the ministry of other denominations.

The money paid to beneficiaries, by direction of Presbyteries, has amounted to $60,475.00, an average of $272.00 to each student assisted.

The ministers now dead received $2,500.00.

The full amount contributed to persons who failed to enter the ministry is $3,119.00. Of this, $1,128.00 have been returned. We feel confident that by proper attention on the part of the Board, much of the money still unpaid can be secured.

The ministers who left the United Presbyterian Church received $8,156.00. Of [illegible],385.00 have been refunded, and in addition to this we have the promise of brethren covering at least $1,500.00 of unpaid notes. Under the present administration of the Board these claims have been, and will be pressed until final settlements are effected. About one thousand dollars have been returned by brethren who are now in the ministry of our own church.

The twenty-four years' work may be summed up as follows:

Amount expended	$60,475 00
Amount refunded	5,600 00
Actual outlay	$54,875 00

The compensation for this work and expense is, that we have one hundred and sixty-two men employed in the church, almost one-fourth of the actual working ministry, or an average of three hundred and forty dollars, expended by the Board, in preparing each beneficiary now in the church, for his work as a minister of Christ.

We ask that an appropriation of $2,000 be granted the Board for the coming year.

The term of office of Rev. J. A. Reynolds, Prof. E. F. Reid and Hugh Nash, members of the Board, and of W. T. Campbell, Corresponding Secretary, expires at this time. It is for the Assembly to elect.

Respectfully submitted,

D. MacDILL, President.
E. F. REID, Rec. Sec.
W. T. CAMPBELL, Cor. Sec.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The Board of Ministerial Relief, in presenting its Ninth Annual Report, would express thanksgiving to God that its work has been carried forward during the past year so prosperously. There are, at present, twenty-two beneficiaries receiving aid regularly,—and in most cases the full amount asked by Presbyteries has been given. In no case has an application, properly made, been refused.

The following is a condensed Exhibit of Finances in round figures:

Audited and found correct. While the church has supplied us liberally, we find our work yearly increasing. As the operations of the Board become better known, we are likely to have more demands on our treasury. Our endowment has now reached the sum of $30,000, principally invested in Government bonds.

During the past year, we have had the active co-operation of a number of Ladies' Societies in our church, and through them have distributed clothing and necessary articles to those in need. In a number of instances, money, instead of boxes of clothing, has been sent to our treasurer, who by correspondence with beneficiaries, has been able to ascertain just what was most needed, and their wants were supplied at the lowest market prices. This supplementary work has given much satisfaction, and accomplished great good.

We believe that all cases receiving aid from this Board are truly deserving. Aid is granted on Presbyterial applications only. In some instances the recipients are not aware of it until the money is sent them. Quarterly payments are made, and made promptly, so that aid is not merely promised, but always given. We trust the church will always keep our treasury supplied, so as to be true to our engagements.

Several bequests have this year come into our hands. These monies are invested and form part of our endowment. We trust that many more Christian men and women in our church may use this Board as a medium of doing good, by contributing of their means as the Lord may put it into their hearts to do. We also note that more congregations are contributing than formerly. As the work is for the benefit of the whole church, we ask every congregation to contribute as regularly as to the Mission Boards.

The terms of Rev. J. B. Dales, D. D., and James Walker expire with this meeting of the Assembly, also the term of Rev. H. A. McDonald, who is no longer connected with the Philadelphia Presbytery.

In conclusion the Board would respectfully ask from the Assembly:

1. That an appropriation of $5,000 be made, so as amply to cover our needs during the year.

2. That our endowment fund be again recommended to the church, by special contributions, or otherwise, so that it may soon reach the sum of $50,000, as named by former Assemblies.

Respectfully submitted,

J. B. DALES, President.
JAS. McCANDLESS, Treas.
JOS. D. McKEE, Sec'y.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE WITH THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

The Committee on Conference with "The Associate Reformed Synod of the South," report that early after the adjournment of the last Assembly the action that had been taken by it on the subject of union with the Associate Reformed Church was transmitted to the Committee on Conference in that church, with our friendly salutations. That Committee, having desired that your Committee should propose a basis of union, regarded this paper as such, and reported it for favorable consideration to the Synod which convened at Ebenezer, Georgia, in September last.

After an interchange of opinion in the Synod, the following action was taken:

Resolved, That the basis of union submitted by the Committee of Conference on the part of the United Presbyterian General Assembly to the Committee of Conference on the part of the Associate Reformed Synod, and approved by said Committee, be referred to the several Presbyteries, to be reported on at the next meeting of Synod for final action.

There the matter now rests, and in view of all the circumstances, your Committee recommend that correspondence be discontinued until further word is received from that church desiring it.

J. B. DALES, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

The Lord has commanded his people to "walk about Zion and go around about her; tell the towers thereof. Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following." It is made their duty to guard against the assaults of foes, and to look to the position, condition and equipments of the Lord's hosts. It is important to know when the foes are gathered together at "the river Kishon," as the sign of the day of battle and triumph, and also to make sure that the Lord's hosts are brought up to Mount Tabor "at the command of the Lord." In both these we discern "the day of the Lord's deliverance." Something of the condition and spirit of our division of the forces of the Lord we have endeavored to present in the following report:

NARRATIVE.

The year began with a membership of 82,937. The increase by certificate is 4,226; the decrease is 6,829, a net loss in movement of 2,603. Of this loss it is safe to estimate the deaths at 2 per cent. of the membership—1,790. The loss in falling away and in migration may therefore be estimated at about 800. The entire loss would reduce the membership to 76,106. The increase for the year by profession and certificate is 8,465—making the present membership 84,571; a gain of 1,634 during the year.

The whole number of ministers at the beginning of the year was 704. The loss by death is 18; by dismissal, 4. Total, 22. Ministers ordained, 32; received from other churches, 7. Total gain 39. Net gain, 17. Whole number of ministers at present, 721. Licentiates, 39. Licenses during the year, 28.

The whole number of adult baptisms is 629, a proportion of one to every 135 members of the church. This proportion is largest in the foreign Presbyteries. In the Synod of New York it is 1 to every 142 members. In the Synod of Pittsburgh, 1 to 244. In the First Synod of the West, 1 to 187. In the Ohio Synod, 1 to 243. In the Second Synod, 1 to 149. In the Illinois, 1 to 132; Kansas, 1 to 100; Iowa, 1 to 185. Pacific, 1 to 80. In the Missionary Presbyteries, it is 1 to every 11.5, and in the Presbytery of Sealkote it reaches the remarkable proportion of one in every 3.5 members; or, 3-10 of the whole membership were baptized the last year. These gains are not as in Pentecostal times. They are not such as the church desires and hopes to attain unto; but such as call for devout gratitude to the Great Head of the Church, and encourage to do valiantly in His service.

The whole number of congregations reported last year was 814; number dissolved during the year, 4; organized, 16; received from other churches, 2; net gain, 14, making a total of 828. There have been 24 mission stations established in the last year, making the present number of mission stations, 96. Thirty-seven (37) houses of worship have been erected at a cost of $114,230; an unusually large number of houses and an unusually large sum expended in any one year. The whole sum contributed and expended by the congregations is $930,125.

The Sabbath Schools open all the year are 685; open part of the year, 124. Total of Sabbath Schools, 809.

The whole number of Ladies' Missionary Societies is 280. Of these 16 are Presbyterial Societies; 264 congregational, with a membership of 8,464. The entire contributions of these societies are $17,893, as follows: To Foreign Missions, $6,371; to Home Missions, $4,585; to Freedmen's Missions, $2,722; to Church Extension, $925; to other objects, $3,295. Twelve societies make no report. Increase in Presbyterial Societies, 4; in Congregational Societies, 7. Decrease in contributions, $1,233, and no increase in membership.

The net gain in membership in the church is an average of three members to each pastor. This is a small proportionate gain, but in the aggregate an encouraging gain. The usual step forward has been taken. With the exception of the period of the war there has been a constant increase; some years small, but always an advance. This year there is an encouraging advance.

The fatality among the ministry the past year is replete with warning and alarm. Very soon after the adjournment of the last Assembly, death invaded our ranks, and from that time in July not a month has passed in which one or more has not fallen.

Digitized by Google

They were taken from the ministry of all ages; from the young man just entering upon the work, only a few months fully panoplied, to the old man, who for a score of years had ceased the active work of the ministry. From the Synod of New York, Revs. Geo. Mairs and Thos. Hannay, D. D., were called; from the Synod of Pittsburgh, Revs. D. Blair, M. Ormond and John Todd; from the Synod of Ohio, Revs. D. P. George, H. Parks and W. A. Wilson; from the Second Synod, Revs. Adrian Aten, J. M. Johnston, J. F. Patterson, M. D., and Wait Wright; from the Synod of Illinois, Revs. Wm. Bruce and R. B. Nesbit; from the Synod of Iowa, Revs. J. R. Doig, D. D., and J. A. Fisher; from the Synod of Kansas, Rev. J. N. Smith; from the Synod of the Pacific, Rev. Jas. Worth. Only one Synod—the First West—the ranks of which have not been invaded. Already the record of the present year is begun with the name of the Rev. Donald C. McLaren, D. D., the oldest minister of the church, who died on the morning of May 7th, 1882, and the name of Mr. J. O. Hays, a student of theology of the second year, who died May 10th, 1882.

The Committee has followed as closely as it was possible the direction of the last Assembly in the following Mortuary Record:

THE STATE OF RELIGION.

The energy of divine grace cannot be hid. Like the life in the tree, which manifests itself by the growth and spreading of its branches, reaching out on every side, kissing all it touches, sheltering and refreshing in its shadow all beneath it, emitting its fragrance for all passers by, delighting the eye of the beholder, feeding the hungry with its luxuriant fruit, and lifting its head high toward heaven: even so the church proves her vitality. She spreads forth her branches on all sides, blesses all about her, shelters and refreshes fainting souls, and feeds those that are hungry; while at the same time she lifts her head to heaven. There are many things, therefore, which must be taken into consideration when we would determine the vital energy or life of our branch of the church. It cannot be determined by the number of her converts. The full vitality of the tree is in the tender shrub, not yet developed, and it is shown by the color and by the growth as well. The influence and fruit of our church are not confined to itself. Our branch of the church has an influence upon other branches, upon society, upon the State, upon the world. It aids in the progress of society, in the moral reforms of the day, and in suppressing evil, and it blesses all within its influence, and all this must enter into the measure of her vitality. Is she meeting the demand being made upon her? Is she showing such growth, so widening her influence, so bearing fruit as to indicate a real and increasing life?

ENCOURAGEMENTS.

It is encouraging that so large a number of our Presbyteries report an increased attendance upon the public ordinances of worship, and some report a very marked improvement and intensified interest. From the Presbyteries which have sent reports, forty-two report the attendance good, encouraging or increased; only five have spoken discouragingly. Most of them report family religion and instruction well observed; the Lord's Day very generally observed and regarded; many of them increased liberality, and where a decline is reported, it is for sufficient and justifiable cause, if they formerly gave as the Lord prospered them. Prayerfulness, in both the ministers and elders, and brotherly love and co-operation in the work of the Lord are almost universal. The deportment of all is exemplary, to such a degree that only two or three Presbyteries have mentioned disorderly conduct among its officers, and only four or five disorders among the members. A large number of the Presbyteries report the organization of young peoples' prayer meetings in some of their congregations, and these well attended; where these are not organized, the attendance of the young upon the weekly prayer meetings is commended. Two or three report special revival work, the silent working of the Holy Spirit upon the hearts of men, moving them as the leaves of the trees are moved by the winds, so heavenly in its character, that one of the pastors writing of it with warmth, says: "We bless the Lord for what we have seen and heard."

A marked and most encouraging feature of the year is the work in our colleges and theological seminaries. From our colleges we have encouraging indications of the working of the Spirit of God. Of 264 students in attendance at Monmouth College the present collegiate year, 238, or 90 per cent., are professors of religion; forty-two made public profession of their faith this year. It is not only a remarkable fact that so large a percentage are professors of religion, but it is indicative of the state of religion among them that so many have, during the year, made a public profession of faith. It is worthy of note, too, that in the more advanced classes the percentage of professing Christians is highest, and that more than one-half of the senior classical students have the ministry in view.

In Westminster College all the students of the Senior class are professors of religion, excepting three, and about one-half have the ministry in view. There are about the same number of non-professors in the Junior and Sophomore classes—three in the former and four in the latter. A series of meetings, running through two and a half weeks, was attended by almost the entire body of students. They attend the prayer meetings of the churches in the village, and conduct one of their own. There is a good, healthy Christian sentiment, and a growing conscience, which is the most encouraging feature.

In Muskingum College, about 65 per cent. of the students in attendance, and about 80 per cent of the Senior class are professing Christians. There has been no unusual interest in religious things, but the Monday evening prayer meetings are well attended, and the interest is good, and the state of religion healthful.

From both our theological seminaries come encouraging reports of the spirituality of the students, their devotedness to the work of the Master, readiness to enter the missionary work, attentiveness to study, and their devotional spirit. The "tone of piety," in both seminaries is above the average. These are encouraging signs of true vitality, and augur well for the future of the church.

DISCOURAGEMENTS.

While we have so much that is bright and promising, the field is not without its shadows. Many of the Presbyteries report the attendance upon the prayer meetings poor, even where the attendance upon public worship is good. Many report family instruction only partial, being left to the Sabbath School, or neglected in many families. In some there is an increasing neglect of the Sabbath, there being a disposition in some places to make it a day of pleasure. Some report neglect of family worship in many families, and in some the omission of singing praise in worship, and a few report an increasing disregard of public worship; a few report a decline in liberality, and a growing spirit of worldliness, and a very few lack of growth. These are unfavorable indications, but yet there is a bright side even to these reports. When the people of God are crying, "My leanness, my leanness! woe unto me!" it is an indication that the Spirit of God is moving upon them and bringing them to see their need. The lamentation of poor attendance upon the social worship indicates a higher estimate of the number that should attend, and the complaint is a hopeful wailing and indicative of real and active spiritual vitality.

There seems to be improvement upon the past years, and there is good reason to hope for the future weal of our beloved church. Much indeed there is that calls for the humbling of ourselves even to the very dust before God, while we devoutly pray for His interposing power: "Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the Lord!" Much to rouse us to hearken to His call upon His church for the exercise of the power with which He has clothed her: "Awake, awake, put on thy strength, O Zion!"

"Is not the Lord gone out before us?" "Let us go in and possess the land, for we are well able."

On the behalf of the Committee,

W. H. FRENCH, Chairman.

REPORT ON THE GIBSON TRUST FUND.

The undersigned begs leave to submit the accompanying statement of the receipts and expenditures on account of the "Gibson Trust Fund," for 1881.

From this statement it will be seen that there was received by the treasurer of the Egyptian Mission, during 1881, the sum of $500, nominal, realizing here, $497.02½. Of this sum, $148.79 were expended for Scriptures distributed, and $30 for expenses in distribution, leaving a balance on hand on January 1st, 1882, of $318.23½, a large part of which has already been used in accordance with the terms of the "Trust."

Respectfully submitted,

ANDREW WATSON.

CAIRO, March 21, 1882.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

The Sabbath School is not to be viewed as a modern institution, either substituted for, or added to, those provided for in the Bible. The object sought by it is one of the fundamental obligations of the church: "Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I command you." The agency employed—the teaching power found among the unofficial members of the church—is divinely recognized, too. The author of the Epistle to the Hebrews is addressing the private members of the church when he says: "When for the time ye ought to be teachers." Both in its object and in its agencies, the Sabbath School as a part of church work has its foundation in the Scriptures. What is new or modern about it is the formation of schools in which to teach religion. The civilization of to-day, in all its departments of science, art and literature, both fosters and is fostered by schools. Just as the Gospel messenger going into all the world to preach the Gospel, avails himself of railroad and steamer, so the church in teaching as extensively and thoroughly as possible the Word of God, avails herself of the modern method of teaching it in schools, and seeks to provide these with the best appliances and methods for successful work. Among things which we deem of importance to the highest efficiency of our Sabbath Schools we would mention—

1. The Organization of the School.—As but one hour or an hour and a half in the week is spent in Sabbath School, it is important that the school be so organized and conducted as to waste no time. Useful exercises of instruction and devotion should fill every minute of the time. The school should move as regularly as the hands of a clock; and the official machinery should be as perfect—and as invisible—as its wheels.

With the purpose of suggesting and aiding this careful organization and conducting of the school, as well as of preserving a record of the results, the Committee has prepared and the Board of Publication has published a Sabbath School Record, the use of which will, it is hoped, promote systematic, solid work in the schools, and secure more complete statistical reports from them. The Assembly is asked to commend this Record to the use of all the schools.

2. Qualifications of Teachers.—It does not need to be said that the best qualified by nature, culture and grace should be selected; but the teacher that ceases to be a diligent and interested learner should cease to be a teacher. The general study of the Bible, outlined in the Normal Class Manual, would be well worth perusing for the personal improvement of the Christian, when the responsibilities of the teacher are added, the motive for such a study becomes urgent. So, too, teachers' meetings for the study of the lesson, and for consultation and prayer, must be useful, and perhaps should be regarded as a necessity.

3. Home Study of the Lessons.—The complaint sometimes made that Sabbath Schools do away with home instruction in religion is the reverse of the fact. The effect could only follow in homes where there was a strong tendency to neglect religious instruction independently of this cause. As the school is in session but one hour in the week, it is manifest that most of the acquisition of knowledge must be made at home. The Sabbath School should have its best results in systematizing, guiding and stimulating home studies. The lessons present subjects that will employ and reward the maturest minds, and instruct and improve the weakest. If parents studying the lessons for themselves and sharing their knowledge with their children, would make each lesson the subject of a week's study, prayer and practice; that would seem to be approaching the ideal of Sabbath School efficiency in promoting growth in grace and in the knowledge of the Lord. Statistical information on this point is necessarily imperfect, still, it encourages the hope and the effort that this ideal may be generally reached.

4. Our Lesson Helps.—The church through her Board of Publication, now furnishes Lesson Helps, designed to meet the wants of every class of scholars. Without claiming for these that they are perfect, or "the best," we do claim for them, first, that they are good; and, second, that they are United Presbyterian. An apology for any imperfection, a reason for satisfaction and thankfulness for the quality attained, and of hope for progressive improvement may be found in the fact that as church publications they are only two years old. It is satisfactory to report that only sixteen schools are using other helps. Two complaints come to the Committee, through its correspondence, viz: That these publications are not good enough; and, that they cost too much. The first complaint is always in order. Nothing of human production is good enough for Christ and his flock. The church should urgently seek to furnish the best possible helps. If she can do this at less cost to the schools that will be well; but it should not be sought at any sacrifice of quality.

The Committee are of opinion that something of improvement might be gained by more permanent employment of persons to prepare Lesson Helps. The work is peculiar and requires both special qualities and experience. Even with special qualifications one cannot do the best work in a single quarter. In reference to the Lessons in the BIBLE TEACHER and QUARTERLY, a conflict of authority, not violent, but perplexing, has arisen between the Board of Publication and the Permanent Committee. It is made the duty of the Permanent Committee to appoint persons to prepare these Lessons, by the following resolution of the Assembly:

"5. That it shall be the duty of the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools to prepare or procure the preparation of suitable notes for teachers and lesson papers for the scholars, and that they be directed to publish them in such periodical or periodicals of the church as may be willing to admit them, or as the Committee may deem best adapted to the purpose."—See Digest, page 181, Minutes of 1874.

The Committee has, to the best of its ability, been making such appointments. For the current year, since January, 1882, the Board of Publication has also made appointments to the same work. Then they have compromised. This has prevented controversy, but has caused inconvenience. It is suggested that as the Permanent Committee is in correspondence with presbyterial Sabbath School Superintendents throughout the whole church, it has some facilities for knowing what will be acceptable appointments, which could not be enjoyed without such correspondence. The Assembly is asked to confirm the Permanent Committee's authority, or relieve it of the duty of making such appointments. For the past year the notes for THE BIBLE TEACHER and THE QUARTERLY were prepared by President E. T. Jeffers, D. D., for third and fourth quarters of 1881; Rev. D. S. Littell for first quarter, and by Rev. W. J. Reid, D. D., for second quarter of 1882.

5. Statistics.—Seven Presbyteries, viz: Arkansas Valley, Big Spring, Colorado, Indiana, Minnesota, Omaha and Wisconsin made no report. These Presbyteries include fifty-one schools. Besides these, in Presbyteries reporting, there are 133 schools from which no report is received, making in all 184 schools. Of these schools ninety reported last year and their report is used for this year as approximately correct. The discouraging fact that thirty-six fewer schools reported this year than last, makes all comparisons useless in estimating progress. The smaller number of schools reporting makes most of the figures smaller this year than last; but it enhances the value of any increase. Thus, it is cheering to note that on a decreased enrollment there is an increased average attendance of 564, and an increase of total contributions of $2,589. An increase of ten "teachers not professors" is sad progress. Probably there is no evidence of decrease in the number of teachers' meetings. Normal Classes have increased from nineteen to thirty-seven, and their membership from 265 to 937. But the accompanying table brings all the facts ascertained, before the Assembly. We deem it specially useful to schools to make these reports, as well as helpful to Presbyteries and the Assembly to receive full reports. Those negligent in this matter are very liable to be negligent in other branches of Sabbath School work. Will the Assembly counsel more care and diligence in this matter?

SUGGESTIONS.

1. The Committee has no changes to recommend in methods or instrumentalities. Monotony will be avoided and interest infused into the work, not by frequent changes, but by fresh discoveries of precious truth and spiritual power in the subjects brought to the attention of our Sabbath Schools. To secure this interest it will only require through study, diligent teaching and believing prayer on the part of parents, officers and teachers.

2. The success of 550 schools, many of them in country congregations, in continuing open twelve months, should lead all to make a fair trial. Often the faith and energy to make the effort are all that is wanting to success.

3. The same remark applies to Teachers' Meetings for study, and to the formation of Normal Classes. The officers of congregations and Sabbath Schools should never deem it impossible until an energetic, patient, persistent, appreciative effort to make it successful has failed.

4. Congregations should avoid a parsimonious spirit in making provision for the Sabbath Schools. Love to Christ should prompt us to "feed his sheep" and "lambs" with the best—no matter what it costs.

5. As a means of promoting home study, pastors and elders, as well as superintendents and teachers, should seek to introduce into every family the BIBLE TEACHER, and have its lessons studied by the old as well as the young.

6. That the third Sabbath of October be observed in our congregations as a day of prayer for Sabbath Schools.

7. The term of Rev. J. A. Gordon, T. J. Gillespie and Rev. J. A. Grier expires at this meeting. The Assembly is asked to make appointments to fill these vacancies.

D. S. LITTELL, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

Your Committee has been instructed by the actions of the last two Assemblies to make from time to time such suggestions as might lead to an increase of our financial strength; to obtain such information from the Secretaries of the Boards with reference to their financial condition as might be of use to the Assembly; and especially to report to this Assembly upon the propriety of issuing a publication for distribution among our people, devoted exclusively to the benevolent work of the church. In pursuance of these instructions, your Committee asks the attention of the Assembly to the following report:

Every thoughtful member of the church understands that prosperous finances are essential to the successful prosecution of the work of the church. The affairs of each congregation and the work of all our Boards depend on the offerings of the people; if these are sufficient the work can be carried on, if they are insufficient it must correspondingly languish. The subject, therefore, on which your Committee is asked to report is of the very greatest importance, and deserves your most careful consideration. The facts presented in our last report still stand most impressively before us. The demand for larger contributions from our people is increasing constantly. The unmistakable indications of Providence show it to be the duty of our church to increase her efforts in every department of her work. The foreign field needs more missionaries, and more buildings and other facilities for meeting wants which seem to be imperative. In the work of the Home Board and its associate, the Board of Church Extension, the demand for more money is no less urgent. There are destitute places in all parts of the country which need assistance, but especially the great West calls for our efforts. It is rapidly filling up with a population composed in part of emigrants from our own congregations in the East, and these will all be lost to our church unless our standard is planted in many new localities. Unless we occupy these western fields more efficiently than we have yet been able to do, by sending more men to preach, and building more houses in which the worship of God can be conducted according to the principles of our church, we will not meet the demands of duty. And our work among the Freedmen also has special claims upon us. In the days of slavery both branches of the United Presbyterian Church were prominent among the Christian philanthropists of the country in laboring and praying for the rights of the negroes, and when the way was at length opened up for their elevation, we were placed under peculiar obligations to make good our noble record in the past by laboring earnestly, to the full measure of our ability, for their evangelization. The other Boards also need increased contributions. Our duty to our Master requires us to engage in all these parts of His work with more liberal and earnest efforts than we have hitherto done. To be convinced of this we have only to look at a few facts.

During the past three years, which may be taken as specimens of the general course of things, $207,255 were appropriated to the Board of Foreign Missions, the receipts from all sources were $183,341. But the reports show that only about $150,000 were received from Presbyteries, and the remainder was made up by legacies, gifts from Sabbath Schools, Missionary Societies, and individuals. So that the regular contributions of the church fell short of the appropriations about $46,000 during that period. The Board of Home Missions had appropriated to it $133,293; it received from all sources $128,488, but of this only $84,828 were received from Presbyteries, leaving a deficiency of $48,465 to be made up in part from the other sources mentioned. The Board of Freedmen's Missions had appropriated to it $44,800. Received $30,769 from all sources, and of this only $22,868 from Presbyteries, leaving a deficiency of $21,932. The Board of Church Extension had appropriated $90,000. Received from all sources $54,712; from Presbyteries only $33,465, leaving a deficiency of $56,535.

And the Committee has learned from the Secretaries of the Boards that of the money received, only a very small proportion comes into the treasury before the middle of the year. So we have before us the humiliating fact that we as a church have been making promises and have not kept them fully. We have neither paid all we promised, nor at the time promised. These pledges were made to the Master in the persons of his servants who are laboring in his vineyard. Can we contemplate the fact of our delinquency without shame and contrition? The question to be decided by the Assembly is, what measures, if any, can be adopted which would tend to increase the liberality of the whole church, and, as a consequence, the efficiency of her work.

It was proposed to the last Assembly that a monthly publication devoted to Christian beneficence should be issued by the direction of the Assembly, to be sent into all the families of the church, to instruct and stimulate the people in the duty of Christian giving.

After a careful consideration of the matter, your Committee unanimously recommend that this measure should be adopted for the following reasons:

1st. Such an instrumentality would be according to the Lord's plan of developing the graces of His people. He sanctifies them through His truth. It would be the design of such a publication to lay before the people the facts concerning the condition and claims of the Lord's cause, and the teaching of Scripture relating to the duty of Christians to support His cause with their offerings. The plan would give the truth more fully to the people, and, being according to the Lord's will, would surely receive His blessing.

2d. This plan would reach, with information concerning the missionary work of the church, a very large number who are not now reached and cannot be by the present publications of the church. Judging from the number subscribing for them, and the number of members in the church, we must conclude that at least fifteen thousand families of the church are not taking either of the church papers, and consequently are not informed about the work of the church, and as a necessary consequence take little interest in it, and give meagre offerings to support it. It is believed that this portion of the Church could best be aroused by the plan proposed, and besides this, those who are already receiving information concerning the work of the church would be greatly benefited also by having the matter brought more impressively before them by a publication devoted entirely to the subject of missions and Christian giving.

3d. The plan proposed would be a great assistance to pastors in one of the most difficult and delicate parts of their work. On account of the covetousness which is so often to be found in the hearts of the Lord's people, they are impatient of very much preaching on the subject of Christian giving. And ministers, to avoid giving offense and the suspicion that they are dunning for their own support, are often led to be silent when the truth is needed by the people. This publication would be constantly educating the people in a way that pastors would find a great assistance.

4th. This plan is endorsed by the judgment and experience of other churches. The United Presbyterian Church and Free Church of Scotland have been for some time employing this means of promoting liberality among the people with most gratifying results, and the Presbyterian Church of this country is now taking measures to put into operation the same plan.

5th. This plan is practicable. From estimates made by competent printers the Committee have ascertained that a publication of eight pages, small quarto size, which would be sufficient to begin with, could be printed and sent for about $100.00 for each monthly issue, and if it should be deemed advisable, this amount could be reduced somewhat by devoting a small portion of space to advertising.

PLAN.

In case the Assembly should agree to adopt the measure, your Committee would respectfully suggest the following plan of operation:

1st. Let the editing and publishing of the paper be intrusted to the Permanent Committee on Finance with the corresponding secretaries of the Boards as corresponding editors.

2d. Let this Committee be reorganized with reference to this special work, and enlarged to seven members, and for this purpose the resignations of the present members are hereby placed at the disposal of the Assembly.

3d. Let the subscription price of the paper be twelve cents a year to each subscriber.

4th. Let pastors and sessions be advised to devote the small amount of their church funds which would be necessary to the purpose of subscribing for a sufficient number of the papers to place a copy in each family of their respective congregations, and to send to the Committee the names and addresses of the persons to receive them.

5th. Let the financial agent and superintendent of missions in each Presbytery be instructed to co-operate with the Committee in securing the introduction of the paper into every family of the church.

6th. To meet the expense of starting the publication and carrying it on until subscriptions are received from congregations, let the Committee be authorized to draw on the Assembly fund to an amount not exceeding $850.00.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. McMILLAN, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE TO PREPARE A CHAPTER ON COMMISSIONS.

The Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to prepare a chapter on Commissions respectfully submit to your consideration the following draft of a chapter, to be added, if approved, to Part I of the Book of Government, and the changes to be made in other parts of the Book, if this should be adopted:

CHAPTER VI.

COMMISSIONS.

1. A commission is an agency invested with the power of the court appointing it, and authorized to deliberate upon and conclude the business submitted to it. It is not in itself a court, but acts for and in the stead of the court it represents; its powers are defined by the terms of its appointment, and its existence terminates with the particular business committed to it.

2. Such commissions may be appointed by Sessions, Presbyteries, and Synods, to act in matters to which the full court cannot without great inconvenience attend, or in which the ends of government may be more judiciously attained by this means than by a meeting of the court itself; and, with the consent of the parties, by the General Assembly, for the adjudication of appeals in cases of discipline.

3. Commissions may be appointed in delicate or difficult matters requiring much deliberation and prudence; for the organization of congregations; as provisional Sessions for missions or partially disorganized congregations; for the installation of ministers; for taking testimony in judicial cases; for the visitation of congregations; for the investigation of offences and irregularities, properly brought before the court, and, with the consent of the parties given in court, for the trial of cases, and the adjudication of appeals and complaints.

4. Except for the organization of a congregation and for a provisional Session, a commission of Presbytery shall consist of not less than two ministers and an elder; a commission of Synod of not less than five ministers and four elders; and of the General Assembly of not less than eight ministers and seven elders. In each case two thirds shall constitute a quorum.

5. The proceedings of a commission shall be according to the rules of the court it represents, and shall be subject to review, appeal and complaint. It shall therefore submit a full record of its proceedings to the court appointing it, which, if the proceedings have been regular, and the commision has not exceeded its powers, shall be entered upon and become part of the records of the court.

6. The right of dissent, protest, appeal and complaint, and the rules of procedure therein, shall be the same as in the full court. The reasons for protest, appeal or complaint shall be lodged with the Moderator or the Clerk of the court appointing the commission, and the commission shall not appear in any subsequent proceedings.

7. A judicial commission of the General Assembly shall report its finding of the facts in the case, and also its judgment thereon. The finding of the facts shall be final, but the General Assembly may review the judgment.

8. The court appointing a commission shall designate the time and place of its meeting, the nature of the business submitted to it, and the extent of the power delegated to it, and the Clerk shall give the Chairman a copy of the record, with all the papers relating to the business.

AMENDMENTS.

The above proposed chapter would involve the following amendments to the Book of Government:

1. Strike out Part I, Chap. V, Art. IV, Sec. 4, viz.: "The General Assembly, at its discretion, may refer appeals in cases of discipline to a commission invested with its own authority."

2. Substitute "commission" for "committee" in Part II, Chap. VI, Art. II, Sec. 9, relating to the installation of ministers.

Respectfully submitted,

A. G. WALLACE, Chairman.

HISTORICAL RECORD

OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, THE SYNODS, AND THE PRESBYTERIES OF THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF NORTH AMERICA.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

In the Adopting Act it was agreed "that the supreme court of the United Church shall be a General Assembly, to meet annually, to be composed of delegates from the respective Presbyteries, the number of delegates to be according to the proportion of the members constituting each Presbytery, as now fixed by the rules of the Associate Reformed Church, until a change shall be found expedient."—Digest, p. 222. It was also agreed that the first General Assembly should be held in Xenia, Ohio, on the third Wednesday of May, 1859, at 7:30 P. M. The aggregate Assembly, in which the union was formally consummated, May 26th, 1858, adjourned to meet at that time.

Accordingly the first General Assembly met in the First United Presbyterian Church (formerly the Associate Reformed Church), of Xenia, at 7:30 P. M., May 18, 1859, and after sermon by the Moderator, the Rev. John T. Pressly, D. D., was by him constituted with prayer. Forty-one Presbyteries were represented, the consolidation not having been completed in all, and 228 delegates (116 ministers and 112 elders), were enrolled. The Rev. Peter Bullions, D. D., was chosen Moderator; the Rev. James Prestley, D. D., Principal Clerk, and the Rev. Thomas H. Beveridge, Assistant Clerk.

The ratio of representation was: From every Presbytery containing two ministers, one minister and one ruling elder; for five ministers, two; for eight ministers, three: for fourteen ministers, four; and for every additional four ministers, one minister and one ruling elder.—Digest, p. 126. In 1861, and thereafter, the ratio was that proposed in the Book of Government, then in overture, until the adoption of the present rule, in 1866, by which the ratio is fixed at one minister and one ruling elder for every seven ministers and for the fraction over seven.

The first General Assembly adopted the plan of conducting the general work of the Church by Boards, each to be incorporated according to the laws of the State in which it is located. The following Boards were then constituted: Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Church Extension, Publication and Education. The Board of Missions to the Freedmen was constituted in 1874, and the Board of Ministerial Relief in 1875.

The first General Assembly fixed the term of office of the Principal Clerk at four years, the Assistant Clerk to be elected annually. The General Assembly of 1868 established the office of Second Clerk, with a term of four years.

Recent usage has fixed the fourth Wednesday of May for the time of the meeting of the General Assembly.—Digest, p. 126.

The General Assembly is incorporated in the State of Pennsylvania through a Board of Trustees, located in Pittsburgh. The corporate name is, "The Trustees of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America."

THE SYNODS.

In the Adopting Act it was agreed "that there shall be subordinate Synods, and these shall be the same as those now existing in the Associate Reformed Church; to which Synods, the different Presbyteries in the Associate Church shall attach themselves for the present, according to their location."—Digest, p. 222. The Synods referred to were: The Synod of New York, the First Synod of the West, the Second Synod of the West and the Synod of Illinois.

The Synod of New York.—Organized at York, Livingston county, N. Y., October 13, 1858. The Associate Reformed Synod met according to adjournment at 10 A. M. At 2:30 P. M. the United Presbyterian Synod was constituted with prayer by the Rev. Donald C. McLaren, D. D., the oldest minister present. The Rev. Joseph T. Cooper, D. D., was chosen Moderator, and the Rev. James B. Scouller, Stated Clerk. Presbyteries: Albany, Cambridge, Philadelphia, Stamford and Vermont of the Associate Church; Boston, Caledonia, New York, Philadelphia, Saratoga and Washington of the Associate Reformed. Territory: The State of New York, except the city of Buffalo; the State of Pennsylvania east of the Susquehanna river, following the eastern branch, the State of Maryland, and all eastward and northward. The congregation in the city of Buffalo was received by the Caledonia Presbytery from the First Synod of the West, April 2, 1867.

In a suit entered by the Associate Reformed Synod against a body claiming to be the true Synod, the Supreme Court of the State of New York decided July 3, 1861, that the privileges and powers of the Synod were not forfeited or impaired by the members entering the Synod of the United Presbyterian Church.

The Synod, October 15, 1858, accepted a plan for the organization of Presbyteries, prepared by a special committee; and ordered it to be published for consideration, and the following year, October 5, 1859, gave order for the organization of the Presbyteries of Albany, Argyle, Boston, Caledonia, Delaware, New York, Philadelphia, Stamford and Vermont.

The First Synod of the West.—Organized in the Second United Presbyterian Church of Pittsburgh, Pa., October 6, 1858, at 9:30 A. M. The Synod was constituted with prayer by the Rev. Samuel Findley, D. D. The Rev. William Wishart was chosen Moderator, the Rev. R. Audley Browne, Stated Clerk, and the Rev. John B. Clark, Assistant Clerk. Presbyteries: Allegheny, Big Spring, Blairsville, Butler, Lake, Lawrence, Mansfield, Monongahela, Second Ohio, Steubenville, Westmoreland and Wheeling of the Associate Reformed Church; Allegheny, Chartiers, Clarion, Muskingum, Ohio, Richland and Shenango of the Associate Church. Territory: The State of Pennsylvania west of the Susquehanna river, following the eastern branch, and the State of Ohio east of the Hockhocking river, and a line northward from its headwaters to Lake Erie, including also the western part of Virginia. The congregation of the city of Buffalo, N. Y., was under the care of this Synod, but was transferred by the Lake Presbytery to Caledonia, February 5th, 1867. Enlarged October 2, 1861, by the reception of the Presbytery of Detroit from the Second Synod; and May 30, 1874, by the addition of the western part of the State of Michigan to the Presbytery of Detroit. See Presbyteries of Michigan and Detroit. Min. First Synod West, 1861, p. 6; Min. General Assembly, vol. IV, p. 13. Divided, October 7, 1862, by the organization of the Synods of Pittsburgh and Ohio, by the order of the General Assembly. Min. G. A., vol. I, p. 358.

The Synod, October 8, 1858, gave order for the organization of the Presbyteries of Allegheny, Big Spring, Butler, Chartiers, Conemaugh, Lake, Mansfield, Mercer, Monongahela, Muskingum, Ohio, Steubenville, Westmoreland and Wheeling.

The Synod was incorporated by the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, April 11, 1859, through a board of seven Trustees, to be known as "The Trustees of the First United Presbyterian Synod of the West." Min. 1859, p. 5.

The Second Synod of the West.—Organized in the First Church, Xenia, Ohio, October 15, 1858, at 9 A. M., being constituted with prayer by the Rev. Thomas Beveridge, D. D. The Rev. James P. Smart was chosen Moderator, and the Rev. R. D. Harper, Stated Clerk. Presbyteries: Chillicothe, Indiana, Michigan, First Ohio, Sidney and Springfield of the Associate Reformed Church; Detroit, Southern Indiana, Miami, and Richland of the Associate Church. Territory: That part of the State of Ohio west of the First Synod of the West, the States of Indiana and Michigan, and the counties in Illinois bounded on the east by the Wabash river. These counties in Illinois were transferred from the Synod of Illinois to the Second Synod of the West by the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Church, May 24, 1858, the Synods and Presbyteries concerned consenting. Min. p. 33. This consent was given by the Second A. R. Synod, Oct. 14, 1858. Min. p. 32; and by the United Presbyterian Synod of Illinois, October 14, 1858. Min. p. 21. May 25, 1860, the congregations of Blount county, Tennessee, and places adjacent, were recognized as under the jurisdiction of the Second Synod. Min. G. A., vol. I, p. 107. May 30, 1860, the Presbytery of Detroit was transferred to the First Synod of the West, subject to the consent of the Synods concerned. Ibid, p. 123. This consent was given. See First Synod of the West. May 30, 1874, on the dissolution of the Presbytery of Michigan the western part of the State of Michigan was transferred to the First Synod. Min. G. A., vol. IV, p. 13.

The Synod, October 15, 1858, gave order for the organization of the Presbyteries of Chillicothe, Detroit, Indiana, Michigan, First Ohio, Sidney, Southern Indiana and Xenia.

The Synod was incorporated August 29, 1865, as The Second Synod of the United Presbyterian Church, and is subsequently so known in the records.

The Synod of Illinois.—Organized at Monmouth, Ill, October 12, 1858, being constituted with prayer by the Rev. David MacDill, D. D., senior minister. The Rev. Samuel McArthur was chosen Moderator, and the Rev. J. C. Porter, Stated Clerk. Presbyteries: First Illinois, Second Illinois, Iowa and Le Claire of the Associate Reformed Church; Illinois, Iowa and Monmouth of the Associate. Territory: The State of Illinois and north and west without limit. The Synod at its first meeting, October 14, 1858, acquiesced in the action of the General Synod transferring the counties adjacent to the Wabash river to the Second Synod. Min. p. 21. See the Second Synod. Divided, August 30, 1860, by the organization of the Synod of Iowa, and, September 29, 1869, by the organization of the Synod of Kansas. Min. G. A., vol. I, p. 107; vol. III, p. 10. The General Assembly, June 2, 1865, placed the missions in the State of Minnesota under the care of the Presbytery of Wisconsin. June 4, 1873, the Presbytery of Minnesota was transferred to the Synod of Iowa. Min. G. A. vol. II, pp. 156, 176; vol. III, p. 543.

The Synod, October 14, 1858, gave order for the organization of the Presbyteries of Bloomington, Chicago, Des Moines, Kansas, Keokuk, Le Claire, Monmouth and St. Louis.

The Synod of Iowa.—Organized at Oskaloosa, Iowa, August 30, 1860, at 7:30 P. M., from the Synod of Illinois, by order of the General Assembly. Min., vol. I, p 107. It was constituted with prayer by the Rev. W. M. Boyse. The Rev. Samuel Findley, D. D., was chosen Moderator, and the Rev. Nathan McDowell, Stated Clerk. Presbyteries: Des Moines, Keokuk and Le Claire. Territory: The States of Iowa and Minnesota, and the Territories of Kansas and Nebraska; the Presbytery of Kansas, however, to remain subject to the Synod of Illinois. September 29, 1869, divided by the organization of the Synod of Kansas. Min. G. A., vol. II, p. 10. The Presbytery of Minnesota was, June 4, 1873, restored to the Synod of Iowa by the General Assembly. Ibid, vol. III, p. 543.

The Synod of Pittsburgh.—Organized at Indiana, Pa., October 7, 1862, at 2 P. M., from the First Synod of the West, by order of the General Assembly. Min. vol I, p. 358. It was constituted with prayer by the Rev. Joseph Scroggs, D. D. The Rev. Robt. Gracey was chosen Moderator, the Rev. J. G. Carson Stated Clerk, and the Rev. John G. Brown, Assistant Clerk. Presbyteries: Big Spring, Chartiers, Conemaugh, Frankfort, Monongahela and Westmoreland. Territory: That part of the State of Pennsylvania bounded on the east by the Susquehanna river, following the eastern branch; and on the west by a line northward from the point on the Allegheny river where it is nearest to Lake Erie, (i. e., a few miles west of Warren, Pa.), and southward by the Allegheny and Ohio rivers to the mouth of Short creek, West Virginia; thence by Short creek to West Alexander, Pa.; thence south indefinitely. The southern boundary is not defined, but it is understood that the territory south of Pennsylvania and west of the longitude of Washington City belongs to this Synod. May 31, 1880, the congregations in Mecklenburg county, Virginia, were placed under its jurisdiction. Min. G. A., vol. V, p. 188.

The Synod of Ohio.—Organized at Steubenville, O., October 7, 1862, at 7 P. M., by order of the General Assembly. Min. G. A., vol. I, p. 358. It was constituted with prayer by the Rev. William Taggart, D. D. The Rev. John Comin was chosen Moderator, and the Rev. William Johnston, Stated Clerk. Presbyteries: Mansfield, Muskingum, Steubenville and Wheeling. Territory: From Lake Erie on the north, by the Ohio canal from Cleveland to Massillon; thence to the mouth of Yellow creek; thence by the Ohio river to the mouth of Short creek, West Virginia; thence by Short creek easterly to West Alexander, Pa.; thence south indefinitely; on the south not defined; on the west from the mouth of the Hockhocking river to its headwaters; thence by a line north to Lake Erie. See First Synod of the West. The Synod is not incorporated.

The Synod of Kansas.—Organized at Leavenworth, Kan., September 29, 1869, at 7:30 P. M., from the Synod of Illinois, by order of the General Assembly—Min., vol. III, p. 10—the Rev. Samuel Jamison presiding. The Rev. J. N. Smith was chosen Moderator, and the Rev. W. C. Williamson, Stated Clerk. Presbyteries: Kansas and Western Missouri. Territory: Southward indefinitely from the States of Iowa and Nebraska, and west from the meridian of Jefferson City, Mo, to the crest of the Rocky mountains.

The Synod of the Pacific.—Organized at Albany, Oregon, September 13, 1877, at 7:30 P. M., by order of the General Assembly—Min., vol. IV, p. 308—the Rev. S. G. Irvine, D. D., presiding. The Rev. George McCormick was chosen Moderator, and the Rev. M. M. Gibson, D.D., Stated Clerk. Presbyteries: Oregon and San Francisco. Territory: All west of the crest of the Rocky mountains. The Synod was authorized, June 2, 1879, to hold biennial meetings. Min. G. A., vol V, p. 20.

PRESBYTERIES.

The Presbyteries are arranged under the Synods as now constituted; the original ones in alphabetical order, the later ones in the order of their organization.

THE SYNOD OF NEW YORK.

In the Act for the organization of the Presbyteries, the Synod did not describe the territory of each by geographical lines, but rather by congregations. The following descriptions are therefore taken from the report of the Committee of the previous year, on which the Act was based, and also from statements furnished by the Stated Clerk, Dr. J. B. Scouller.

Albany.—Organized at Albany, N. Y., November 9, 1859, at 7.30 P. M., from the Presbyteries of Albany and Saratoga, the Rev. Addison Henry presiding. Ministers: Peter Bullions D. D., J. L. Clark, George M. Hall, Addison Henry, S. F. Morrow, David Strang and Andrew Thomas. Territory: That part of the State of New York east of Cayuga lake; north of a line eastward from Cayuga lake through the southern extremity of Otsego lake to a point on the Hudson river immediately south of Albany; west of the Hudson river and south of St. Lawrence county. The boundary on the north does not appear to have been definitely fixed. Compare Argyle and St. Lawrence. September 1–4, 1871, enlarged by the transfer of the congregation of Lisbon from the disorganized Presbytery of St. Lawrence.

Argyle.—Organized at South Argyle, N. Y., October 25, 1859, at 11 A. M., from the Presbyteries of Cambridge and Washington, the Rev. George Mairs presiding. Ministers: Chauncey Webster, Isaac Law, James B. Scouller, W. B. Shortt, W. E. Henning, Hugh Brown, Henry Gordon, James C. Forsythe, John Harper, James A. Duff, John B. Dunn, John Crawford, Peter Campbell, John G. Smart, James Law, John W. Harsha, George Mairs, William Howden, William Hawthorne. Territory: That portion of the State of New York lying north of Rensselaer county and east of Saratoga and Jefferson counties, and also Canada East. December 2, 1862, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of St. Lawrence. From September 21, 1877, to October 23, 1878, had jurisdiction, by order of Synod, over the territory of the Vermont Presbytery.

Boston.—Organized at Lawrence, Mass, October 18, 1859, at 7:30 P. M., from the Presbyteries of Boston and New York, the Rev. Alexander Blaikie presiding. Ministers: Alexander Blaikie, William McLaren, John M. Heron, James Dinsmore and James Williamson. Territory: The States of Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island.

Caledonia.— Organized at Rochester, N. Y., October 25, 1859, at 7 P. M., from the Presbyteries of Caledonia and Albany, the Rev. Donald C. McLaren, D. D., presiding. Ministers: Donald C. McLaren, D. D., John Van Eaton, David Currie, D. C. McVean, William S. McLaren, P. C. Robertson, Thomas F. Boyd, F. M. Proctor, J. L. Robertson. Territory: The same as the Presbytery of Caledonia, A. R., viz.: All that part of the State of New York west of Cayuga lake except the city of Buffalo. April 2, 1867, the congregation of Buffalo was received from the Lake Presbytery.

Delaware.—Organized at West Delhi, N. Y., November 9, 1859, at 11 A. M., from the Presbyteries of Albany and Saratoga, the Rev. John Erskine presiding. Ministers: William J. Cleland, James B. Lee, R. D. Williamson, John Erskine, John Rippey, W. C. Somers, D. C. Niven, John E. Taylor. Territory: South of a line from the southern extremity of Otsego lake to a point on the Hudson river immediately south of Albany and east of Cayuga lake.

New York.—Organized in Jane Street Church, New York, November 9, 1859, at 7:30 P. M., from the Associate and Associate Reformed Presbyteries of New York, the Rev. Alexander McWilliams presiding. Ministers: H. H. Blair, James Harper, John Brash, James Thompson, S. F. Farmer, W. L. McElhany, Hugh W. Todd, D. Donnan, D. J. Patterson, John Service and Alexander McWilliams. Territory: So much of the State of New York as lies south of the latitude of Poughkeepsie, and eastern New Jersey. November 5, 1861, divided by the organization of the Second Presbytery and the name was changed to The First Presbytery of New York. January 17, 1882, by order of the Synod, the First and Second Presbyteries, after appropriate concurrent action, met in the Charles Street Church, New York, at 7:30 P. M., and after sermon by the Rev. Robt. Armstrong, formally united and were constituted as The Presbytery of New York, the Rev. D. J. Patterson presiding.

Philadelphia.—Organized at Oxford, Pa., October 25, 1859, at 11 A. M., from the Associate and Associate Reformed Presbyteries of Philadelphia, the Rev. Joseph T. Cooper, D. D., presiding. Ministers: William Easton, Joseph T. Cooper, D. D., John B. Dales, D. D., Francis Church, Robert Armstrong, Thomas H. Beveridge, J. H. Andrew, George C. Arnold, William Bruce, James Price and William W. Barr. Territory: West of the Presbytery of New York to the Susquehanna river following the eastern branch to the New York State line; including also the State of Maryland and the District of Columbia, being without a definite southern boundary. Min. G. A., vol. I, p. 38.

Stamford.—Continued from the Presbytery of Stamford, without change, the Rev. ——— presiding. Ministers: John Gillespie, Robert McAllister, D. H. Goodwillie, John B. Wilson, Robert Acheson. Territory: The churches in the Province of Ontario. Canada. The records of the Presbytery were destroyed by a fire, October 5, 1881.

Vermont.—Organized at Barnet, Vt., May 14, 1860, from the Associate Presbytery of Vermont, without change, the Rev. Thomas Goodwillie presiding. Ministers: Thomas Goodwillie, Gawn Campbell. Territory: The churches in the State of Vermont. May 30, 1868, temporarily attached by the General Assembly to the Presbytery of Argyle, until pastoral settlements were made. September 21, 1877, dissolved by the Synod and congregations attached to the Presbyteries of Argyle in consequence of removals. Reorganized at Greensboro', Vt., October 23, 1878, by order of Synod.

First New York. See New York.

Second New York.—Organized in the Charles Street Church, New York, November 5, 1861, by order of the Synod, from the Presbytery of New York, the Rev. H. H. Blair presiding. Ministers: H. H. Blair, David J. Patterson, John Brash and David Donnan. Territory: The dividing line was so arranged as to include the following congregations: Charles Street, Jane Street, West Forty-fourth Street, First Brooklyn, Second Brooklyn and Newark. January 17, 1882, at 7:30 P. M., in Charles Street Church, by order of the Synod, after the proper transfer of its powers and business, united with the First Presbytery to constitute the Presbytery of New York. See New York.

St. Lawrence.—Organized at Hinchinbrook, Canada, December 2, 1862, from the Presbytery of Argyle, by order of the Synod, the Rev. Chauncey Webster presiding. Ministers: Chauncey Webster, William Hawthorne and John Harper. Territory: West of Lake Champlain and north of a straight line from Burlington, Vt., to Oswego, N. Y. Some of the ministers having removed, and some of the congregations having connected with the Canada Presbyterian Church, the Presbytery was formally dissolved by the Synod September 1–4, 1871, and the congregation of Lisbon was attached to the Presbytery of Albany.

THE FIRST SYNOD OF THE WEST.

In the Act of Synod for the organization of Presbyteries, October 8, 1858, it was resolved "That any Presbyter whose congregation may lie upon, or contiguous to, any dividing line between two Presbyteries shall, for the present, have the privilege of connecting with that Presbytery which is most convenient or easiest of access to him." Hence many congregations are connected with Presbyteries within whose bounds, as defined by the Synod, they were not included. The actual boundaries are therefore somewhat irregular.

Allegheny.—Organized in the First Church, Allegheny, Pa., November 2, 1858, 2 P. M., from the Associate and Associate Reformed Presbyteries of Allegheny, the Rev. John T. Pressly, D. D., presiding. (The printed minutes of the Synod, p. 17, give the first Tuesday of December as the appointment for the organization.) Ministers: John T. Pressly, D. D., James Rodgers, D. D., John C. Steele, D. H. A. McLean, D. D., B. F. Sawyer, A. G. Shafer, Samuel Patterson, D. W. Carson, J. L. Fairley, William G. Reed, David G. Bradford, Josiah Thompson, William L. McConnell and James Given. Territory: Beginning at the Armstrong county line; thence down the Allegheny and Ohio rivers to the mouth of Saw Mill run; thence by the Steubenville turnpike to the Washington county line; thence to Georgetown on the Ohio river; thence by the river to the Ohio and Pennsylvania State line; thence to the southwest corner of Lawrence county; thence east and then north by the lines of Lawrence county to the Mercer and Harmony road; thence southerly by said road to the Allegheny county line; thence to the Allegheny river. September 28, 1860, enlarged by the addition of that part of the Ohio Presbytery lying north and east of the road from New Lisbon to Smith's Ferry. This line was again modified October 3, 1861. See Cleveland. Divided October 26, 1859, by the organization of Frankfort Presbytery, and also November 7, 1871, by the organization of the Presbytery of Beaver Valley.

Butler.—Organized at Kittanning, Pa., October 26, 1858, at 1 P. M., from the Presbyteries of Butler and Shenango, the Rev. Isaiah Niblock presiding. Ministers: Isaiah Niblock, Wm. Galbraith, W. P. Breaden, John N. Dick, Samuel Kerr, W. Smith, A. R. Rankin, W. H. Jamison, W. A. Black, John Jamison and John A. Campbell. Territory: From the south line of the Fifth Donation district, (i. e. a line due east from a point on the Ohio and Pennsylvania State line, about two or three miles north of Sharon, Pa., to the Allegheny river,) by the Meadville and Mercer turnpike to, but not including, the town of Mercer; thence by the Mercer and Harmony road to Allegheny county; thence by the Butler and Allegheny county line to the Allegheny river; thence by the river to the south line of the Fifth Donation district; thence by that line to the place of beginning, including also the congregation of Kittanning on the east side of the Allegheny river.

Cleveland.—Organized as the Presbytery of Ohio, at New Lisbon, O., December 14, 1858, at 11 A. M., from the Presbyteries of Ohio and Steubenville, the Rev. David Goodwillie presiding. Ministers: David Goodwillie, James McGill, James W. Logue, Samuel W. Clark, S. T. Herron, James Golden. Territory: That part of the State of Ohio lying east of the Ohio canal from Cleveland to Massillon, and east and north of Yellow creek. September 28, 1860, divided by the transfer of that part south of the Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, and west of, but not including New Lisbon, Ohio, to the Presbytery of Steubenville; that part north and east of the road from New Lisbon to Smith's Ferry, to the Presbytery of Allegheny, and the counties of Trumbull and Mahoning, O., to the Presbytery of Mercer. At the same time the name was changed to the Presbytery of Cleveland. October 3, 1861, the boundaries were re-arranged as follows: From and including the city of Cleveland by a straight line to Canton; thence to New Lisbon; thence to the Ohio and Pennsylvania State line, leaving East Palestine to the right; thence by the State line to Lake Erie. September 27, 1866, the congregation of Poland was transferred to Mercer Presbytery so long as it forms part of a pastoral charge with Mahoning congregation. That relation was dissolved April 17, 1882. September 28, 1876, the congregation of Leetonia was transferred temporarily to Beaver Valley, and September 26, 1878, the congregations of Leetonia, East Palestine and Clarkson were transferred to Cleveland Presbytery.

Detroit.—Continued under the action of the Second Synod, from the Presbytery of Detroit, without change. The first meeting after the Synod of 1858 was April 13, 1859, the Rev. John McClellan, Moderator. Ministers: James M. Smeallie, Andrew Irons and John McClellan. Territory: The State of Michigan. As the Synod did not define the boundary, this Presbytery included also part of the territory of the Presbytery of Michigan. May 30, 1860, the General Assembly—Min., Vol. I p. 123—authorized the transfer of the Presbytery to the First Synod of the West, subject to the consent of the Synods concerned. This consent was given by the Second Synod, October 16, 1860, and the western boundary was fixed at 7½° longitude west from Washington. The Presbytery was received by the First Synod, October 2, 1861. Enlarged, May 30, 1874, by the addition of that part of the Presbytery of Michigan which was in the State of Michigan. Min. G. A., vol IV, p. 13.

Lake.—Organized at Cochranton, Pa., November 9, 1858, at 2 P. M., from the Presbyteries of the Lakes and Shenango, the Rev. Matthew Snodgrass presiding. Ministers: M. Snodgrass, Joseph H. Pressly, H. H. Thompson, Clark Kendall, H. H. Hervey, William Bruce, Thomas Love, James Burrows, Joseph N. Collins, Alex. Murray and Joseph McClintock. Territory: South from Lake Erie, by the Ohio and Pennsylvania State line, to the south line of the Fifth Donation district, (see under Butler); thence east to the Allegheny river; thence north by the river to its nearest point to Lake Erie. From this point the boundary was not defined, but the congregation of Buffalo, N. Y., was under the jurisdiction of this Presbytery until February 5, 1867, when it was, by the Presbytery, transferred to the Presbytery of Caledonia.

Mercer.—Organized at Mercer, Pa., January 5, 1859, at 11 A. M., from the Presbyteries of Lawrence and Shenango, Rev. R. Audley Browne presiding. Ministers: John Neil, D. R. Imbrie, William A. Mehard, R. A. Browne, Josiah Alexander, Samuel Alexander, George C. Vincent, Robert McWatty, D. W. French, B. K. Ormond, John Armstrong, Edward Small, W. C. Jackson, James Patterson, D. D., William Findley, J. P. Ramsey, A. M. Black, and Joseph Banks. Territory: South, by the Pennsylvania and Ohio State line from the south line of the Fifth Donation district (see under Butler) to the southwest corner of Lawrence county; thence east and north by the lines of Lawrence county to the Mercer and Harmony road; thence by said road to and including Mercer; thence north by the Mercer and Meadville turnpike to south line of Fifth Donation district; thence west to the State line. September 28, 1860, the counties of Trumbull and Mahoning, Ohio, were added from the Cleveland Presbytery, but, October 3, 1861, were restored. Divided November 7, 1871, by the organization of the Presbytery of Beaver Valley.

Ohio.—See Cleveland.

AMENDMENTS TO THE HISTORICAL RECORD OF THE PRESBYTERIES AND SYNODS OF THE ASSOCIATE AND ASSOCIATE REFORMED CHURCHES.

The following amendments are made to the Historical Record of the Presbyteries and Synods of the Associate and Associate Reformed Churches, given in vol. V, pp. 85–97.

The Carolinas, A., p. 86. Being dissatisfied with the changes made in the Confession of Faith, and with other proceedings of the Associate Reformed Synod, Peter McMullan and William Dickson, of the Second Presbytery of the Carolinas and Georgia, gave notice to their Presbytery, September 2, 1802, that they declined the further authority of the Synod. They immediately applied to the Associate Presbytery of Chartiers for admission, and Dr. John Anderson and the Rev. William Wilson were sent as a commission to investigate their case. On the 12th of January, 1803, the commission met, and at the conclusion of their investigation admitted the applicants to ministerial membership, and the Synod at its meeting, May 25, 1803, erected Messrs. McMullan and Dickson, and the Rev. John Cree, of Rockbridge county, Virginia, into the Associate Presbytery of the Carolinas, and ordered them to meet and organize as a Presbytery at the Steel Creek Church, in Mecklenburg county, North Carolina, on the last Wednesday (the 31st) of August, 1803.—Dr. Scouller's Manual of the United Presbyterian Church: McMullan, Peter.

The First, A. R., p. 90, fourth line, read: The territory was enlarged by the transfer of the congregations in the State of New York, and the name was changed to the Presbytery of New York. See Third and New York.

Page 91. After second line insert:

New England. See Londonderry.

Ohio, A. R., p. 92. After change of name, read: May 8, 1833, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of Indiana.

Lakes, p. 92. Samuel F. Smith was one of the ministers constituting the Presbytery.

Indiana, p. 92. After the organization of the Presbytery of Michigan, read: May 24, 1858, enlarged by the transfer by the General Synod of the counties in Illinois bounded on the east by the Wabash river from the Synod of Illinois to the Second Synod of the West, subject to the approval of the Synods. Min. Gen. Syn., p. 33. The Synods approved the transfer.

Chillicothe, p. 93. Transpose so as to read: Territory: Eastward to the Hockhocking river from a line through Williamsburg, in Clermont county, and Wilmington, in Clinton county, and southward, &c.

Springfield, p. 93. Change so as to read: Territory: Northward from a line through Greenville, in Darke county, and Bellbrook, in Greene county, to the National road, and eastward to the Presbyteries of Mansfield and Second Ohio. April 4, 1854, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of Sidney. April 13, 1858, adjourned, &c.

The First Illinois, pp. 93–94. After description of the territory, read: Divided by the transfer of the counties of the State of Illinois bounded on the east by the Wabash river to the Second Synod of the West, by the General Synod, May 24, 1858. Min. Gen. Syn., p. 33; 2d Syn. of the West, p. 32; U. P. Syn. Ill., p. 21.

6. STATISTICS OF MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

Contributions for other objects than Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Missions and Church Extension are arranged under a general heading. When the particular object is known, it is given in the address column, and reference is made to it by a †.

N. B.—A * affixed to the name or a number indicates work in the congregation.

An ? affixed to the number of members, indicates that the number was not reported, and it is therefore estimated.

A ‡ prefixed to contributions, shows that the aggregate was reported, but not the distribution to the several funds.

III. VITAL STATISTICS.

The following Tables have been prepared from the records of the ordained ministers of the United Presbyterian Church, and of the Associate and Associate Reformed Churches, as given in Dr. Scouller's Manual and the Minutes of the General Assembly.

Two lists have been used. One including four hundred and thirty-six lives, and extending over a period of about one hundred years to the present date. The other including one hundred and forty-seven lives, and extending over the years 1869 to 1882, inclusive.

The length of the ministry is counted from the date of licensure.
